2018 SEC Baseball | Final

Media Services

Players of the Week

The SEC will name a player, freshman and pitcher of the week each Monday beginning Feb. 19. The awards will be released for Monday afternoon publication and announced in the weekly SEC baseball release. Nominations for the awards are made each week by the baseball sports information contacts at each SEC institution. The award winners are chosen by a vote of the SEC communications staff.

SECSports.com

The Southeastern Conference has established a dynamic presence on the Internet with its official site on the World Wide Web - www.secsports.com and www.secnetwork.com.

SEC baseball information is updated daily. The site will contain standings, schedules, results, and notes on the SEC and each team. SEC baseball information also is available via e-mail. Contact the SEC Communications Office for details. Follow @SEC for the latest happenings on baseball in the SEC, including complete SEC and NCAA Tournament coverage.

SECSportsMedia.com

All information is now available directly from the SEC's media web site, www.secsportsmedia.com. All the latest stats, notes, releases, etc. are available as soon as released from the conference office. Through the services of Sports Systems, the SEC has a digital image platform that gives you access to the SEC's latest photographs, images and logos. To access the platform, go to www.secsportsmedia.com and click on the icon. SEC Information is available 24 hours a day, seven days a week on the SEC media website. The SEC baseball release will be available each Tuesday (Feb. 19 through June) on the league's media site and regular website, www.secsports.com. Standings and results will be updated each weekday throughout the season on the regular website, while statistics will be updated each Monday and Thursday throughout conference play (beginning mid-March).

SEC Network

SEC baseball teams have received unprecedented exposure since the launch of the SEC Network. The network has quadrupled SEC baseball's coverage over the last two years.

More than 90 Southeastern Conference baseball games have been slated to air across ESPN networks, including approximately 75 on the SEC Network. In addition to those games, more than 350 matchups will be digitally exclusive SEC Network + events available on SECNetwork.com and WatchESPN.

SEC Network and ESPN2 conclude the regular season with comprehensive coverage of the SEC Baseball Tournament, marking the third consecutive year that the entire tournament will air on national television.

Email List

Press releases and information pertaining to SEC baseball will be emailed to the media throughout the year. Accredited media can register for the SEC's mailing lists at www.secsportsmedia.com.

2018 SEC Baseball | Final

Noteworthy

- The SEC led all conferences with three representatives in the 2018 College World Series. Defending NCAA champion Florida made its 12th trip to the College World Series and fourth in a row, while Mississippi State reached the CWS for the 10th time and first time since 2013, and NCAA runner-up Arkansas made its ninth trip to Omaha and first since 2015.
- The SEC has now sent 61 teams to the College World Series since 1990. LSU has been to Omaha 15 times in that stretch, Florida 12 times, Mississippi State and South Carolina six times, Georgia and Arkansas five times, while Alabama, Tennessee and Vanderbilt have been three times each, Auburn twice and Texas A&M once as a member of the Southeastern Conference.
- SEC teams have won 11 of the last 29 national championships, with LSU winning six (1991, 1993, 1996, 1997, 2000, 2009), South Carolina winning two (2010, 2011), Florida taking home the title last year, Vanderbilt in 2014 and Georgia claiming the 1990 title. The SEC has finished runner up 11 times in that span: 1997, 2002, 2005, 2008, 2011, 2012, 2013, 2014, 2015, 2017 and 2018.
- With Arkansas reaching the CWS Championship Series, the SEC has had a team in the College World Series final in 10 of the last 11 years.
- For the second consecutive year, the SEC tied its own national record with six teams in the NCAA Super Regionals. Six SEC teams also reached the Super Regionals in 2004. No other conference had more than two representatives in the Super Regionals.
- The SEC led all conferences with its 10 selections to the NCAA Tournament.
- Four SEC schools were selected as NCAA Regional host sites and were among eight national seeds - Florida, Ole Miss, Arkansas and Georgia.
- Florida won the SEC regular season title, while Ole Miss claimed the SEC Tournament crown.
- Total attendance for the SEC Tournament was 144,086, which is second most all-time. The championship game on May 27 between Ole Miss and LSU drew 14,126 fans, which is the fourth largest crowd in any SEC Tournament game.
- SEC teams combined for a 302-95 (.761) non-conference record, which is best among all conferences.
- Total home attendance for all 14 SEC teams passed the two million mark for the eighth consecutive season. The top-four national attendance leaders were all from the SEC (LSU, Ole Miss, Arkansas and South Carolina).
- Seven SEC student-athletes were selected on the first day of the Major League Baseball Draft. Auburn's Casey Mize was taken as the No. 1 overall pick by the Detroit Tigers. Florida's Jonathan India (fifth) and Brady Singer (18th) and Ole Miss' Ryan Rolison (22nd) were also selected in the first round. The SEC led all conferences with 38 players chosen in the first 10 rounds and 99 players selected overall.

2018 SEC Baseball Community Service Team Announced

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (May 16, 2018)----The Southeastern Conference announced the Community Service Team for the sport of baseball. The conference names a Community Service Team for each of its 21 league-sponsored sports, looking to highlight an athlete from each school who gives back to his community through superior service efforts.

The 2018 SEC Baseball Community Service Team is as follows:

Alabama – Cobie Vance, Jr., 3B, Fayetteville, N.C.

During his time in Tuscaloosa, Vance has been one of the top contributors in the community for the Alabama baseball program. The junior has put in double-digit volunteer hours while with the Crimson Tide and has made a consistent effort to give his free time to service efforts. Over his last three years, Vance has taken part in many different volunteer opportunities, highlighted by his work with the local schools. The junior has made an effort to speak with and read to children while also taking part in special holiday celebrations at various schools. Vance has also been an annual participant in the Alabama Athletics Department's 'Halloween Extravaganza' inside the Hank Crisp Indoor Facility. Each season, UA Athletics hosts the event to allow youth to interact with the University's student-athletes from all sports and take part in sport-specific mini-games while also trick-or-treating in a safe and controlled environment. Perhaps one of the most significant volunteer opportunities for him was his time helping out the High Socks for Hope charity during Thanksgiving. Vance, the son of a retired United States Army Sergeant Major, along with other members of the baseball team packed boxes of food for Thanksgiving meals that were delivered to the local veterans during the holiday.

Arkansas – Grant Koch, Jr., C, Fayetteville, Ark.

Miracle League of Arkansas – Helped play baseball and be a buddy with kids that have mental and physical disabilities ... Attended the Book Hogs kickoff at Vandergriff Elementary School in Fayetteville; Book Hogs is a program through Arkansas Athletics that encourages local kids to read more and make reading fun ... Arkansas Baseball Toy Drive – Helps the baseball team raise money for local kids to help buy Christmas toys each year ... Signed autographs for two hours at the Meet the Razorbacks Day at the Northwest Arkansas Mall at the beginning of the season.

Auburn – Luke Jarvis, Sr., 2B, San Diego, Calif.

A strong representative of Auburn baseball, Luke has also made himself recognizable in the community through a couple of different community service projects. He is active in volunteering for the Beat Bama Food Drive, but his biggest and most influential project involves traveling to Dean Road Elementary and reading to aloud to the first grade class. He started this as a part of World Read Aloud Day and has continued throughout the season. The class enjoyed it and Luke so much that they made a trip to Plainsman Park and got the chance to meet with Luke on the field postgame.

Florida – Nick Horvath, Sr., OF, Jupiter, Fla.

Nick Horvath has completed nearly 50 hours of community service as part of the Goodwill Gators program at UF. The majority of his volunteer work has come at P.K. Yonge school, where he mentors and interacts with students. In addition, he has made hospital visits at UF Health Pediatrics and assisted with the annual Climb for Cancer event at UF. He also helps with the Gator Tracks program, which provides shoes to children in need in the Gainesville area.

Georgia – Keegan McGovern, Sr., OF, Willacoochee, Ga.

Home Runs For Hometown Rivals Special Olympics Baseball Game, Operation Christmas Child/Shoeboxes of Supplies for Children Overseas, Elementary School Visits/Reading, Salvation Army Christmas Angel Program/Holiday Presents, Toiletries for Project Safe, It's on Us Campaign, Member of UGA Student-Athlete Leadership Academy for academic & athletic success, leadership, campus & community service involvement.

Kentucky – T.J. Collett, 1B/C, So., Terre Haute, Ind.

Heavily involved with N.E.G.U., the Jessie Rees Foundation for kids fighting cancer. Has coordinated weekend trips for N.E.G.U. families to Kentucky Baseball games, as the team recognizes them during the game and has them spend time with coaches and players beforehand. Additional community service work includes: Thanksgiving Turkey Delivery, Joy Jar distribution, Breakfast with Santa, Backpack Program, Miracle League, Louisiana Flood Drive.

LSU – Caleb Gilbert, Jr., P, Hoover, Ala.

Caleb Gilbert has been extensively involved with the Live 2 Play program at the Baton Rouge YMCA, in which volunteers go into underprivileged neighborhoods and play various sports with the kids in local parks and gymnasiums ... the volunteers build relationships with the children and are able provide inspiration through their interactions ... Gilbert has also worked as an instructor at youth baseball clinics, and he participated in LSU's annual Halloween Boo-zar, where student-athletes distribute candy to children in the Baton Rouge community ... Gilbert has also engaged in children's hospital visits to lift the spirits of patients, and he participated in Thanksgiving with the Tigers, a program in which LSU student-athletes deliver food to families in need...Currently holds a 3.7 GPA in Civil Engineering...2017 SEC Academic Honor Roll...2016 SEC First-Year Academic Honor Roll.

Ole Miss – Thomas Dillard, Sr., OF, Oxford, Miss.

Community Service Projects include: Rebel-Thon, Reading with the Rebels, Bats and Balls Clinic, Children's Hospital Miracle Kid, Adopt A Basket, Read Across America, Student-Athlete Advisory Committee.

Mississippi State – Hunter Vansau, Jr., OF, Crawford, Texas

Since the start of the fall of 2017, has recorded 21 service hours across 13 different events ... Spent the 2017-18 academic year serving as a classroom assistant at MSU's TK Martin Center for Technology and Disability ... During the fall season, spent time volunteering at Batson's Childrens Hospital in Jackson, Mississippi ... Is an active Student-Athlete Advisory Committee member, along with being involved in Mississippi State's M-Club (community service club for MSU varsity letter winners) ... MSU's 2018 Newsom Award recipient for baseball, an award that honors academic excellence, personal development, community service and athletic success.

Missouri - Nolan Gromacki, Sr., RHP, Smithville, Mo.

Gromacki served as SAAC President, as well as being tapped into Mizzou's prestigious QEBH secret society in 2017 (QEBH is the oldest of six secret honor societies at MU and members are selected based upon selfless dedication to the University, excellence in personal character and leadership achievements in the community) and followed that with another great year in the community in 2018. This is the third consecutive year that Gromacki has been named to the All-SEC Community Service Team, honoring his inspirational efforts by participating in many service opportunities. He has spearheaded the "It's On Us Night" theme night at Taylor Stadium, partnering with campus to raise awareness and help prevent sexual violence on college campuses across the nation. It was the season's best-attended Friday night game last year and the theme night helped set Mizzou's midweek attendance record in 2018, a crowd largely made up of Mizzou's student-athlete community. His work with the campus student government and campus administration has helped push a bill through the Missouri House to expand curriculum in Missouri school about consent through sexual education. His involvement with the organization was also recognized by the SEC as part of the "I Am the SEC" campaign. It's On Us is a national organization that aims to change the culture when it comes to tolerance for sexual assault. Its principles are to recognize that non-consensual sex is sexual assault, to identify situations in which sexual assault may occur, to intervene in situations where consent has not or cannot be given, and to create an environment in which sexual assault is unacceptable and survivors are supported. Gromacki led all Mizzou Baseball players in community service hours this year and has volunteered his time to a variety of different organizations and causes, including Mizzou Moves – an organization of Mizzou athletes dedicated to getting young kids up, moving and active. A senior mechanical engineering major as well, he was one of 19 male Mizzou athletes selected to the Tiger Leadership Institute during his Mizzou tenure, a leadership development program designed to aid in shaping Mizzou student athletes into productive leaders while they are on campus, as well preparing them to be effective leaders after graduation. The program draws on the theory of authentic leadership and the UM Leadership Competency Model to assist student athletes in identity development, discovering their authentic leadership style, and how to best impact, lead and empower those around them.

South Carolina – Jonah Bride, Sr., 3B, Owasso, Okla.

This past fall, Jonah participated in a pair of community service projects that connected the players to young kids in Richland and Lexington counties. He helped out at the Miracle League, which is a program of the Columbia Parks and Recreation department. The Miracle League "is dedicated to promoting the health and well-being of individuals with disabilities while educating the public and promoting a greater understanding of matters concerning individuals with disabilities." Then in November, Jonah and the team hosted the Chapin Screaming Eagles at Founders Park, playing a game against the Gamecocks. This past winter, Jonah was involved with Beads of Courage, which helps more than 60,000 children in eight countries record, tell and own their stories, using colorful beads as meaningful symbols of courage and hope along their treatment journey.

Tennessee – Richard Jackson, Jr., RHP, Atlanta, Ga.

Richard Jackson serves as a Community Service Officer for the NCAA Student-Athlete Advisory Committee and has logged approximately 40 hours of community service this spring alone. Jackson has been very involved with numerous elementary schools in East Tennessee, speaking and engaging with students in after school activities at Cedar Bluff Elementary, Pond Gap Elementary, Bearden Elementary, South Knox Elementary and the Philadelphia School. Earlier this year, Jackson participated in the MLK Day March through downtown Knoxville and volunteered at the homeless community holiday dinner. The Atlanta native spent a day with kids at the East Tennessee Children's Hospital earlier this semester and has also been involved with the Goals for Girls program, which connects girls from different countries and backgrounds with their peers around the world to address social and health challenges through cultural exchange, service and soccer. Last year, Jackson participated in the Gatlinburg Fire community service drive to help benefit the victims of the deadly wildfires that swept through Gatlinburg and the Great Smokey Mountains in 2016. Other community service events that Jackson has been a part of during each of his three years at UT include the Knoxville Challenger League baseball game and VOloween.

Texas A&M – Cason Sherrod, Sr., RHP, Dallas, Texas

Two-time honoree... As a student-athlete who is 53 percent deaf in both ears due to his premature birth of 2.5 months, he has been an inspiration to the children of the Brazos Valley Regional School for the Deaf volunteering at their annual picnic and field day ... He is a four-year participant in the Aggies Baseball Paint-A-Thon where the team visits the home of a local resident in need to paint the exterior of the home, perform basic outdoor maintenance and landscaping ... He helped the Aggies raise $65,000 the last three years for Vs. Cancer Pediatric Brain Tumor Foundation ... Has a regular schedule of visits to volunteer at local elementary schools ... Earned The Texas A&M Athletics Lohman Inspiration Award.

Vanderbilt – Zach King, So., RP, Spring Hill, Tenn.

Volunteered weekly during the summer and fall with a local Team IMPACT partner in Nashville, which is a national nonprofit that connects children facing serious and chronic illnesses with college athletic teams while working to form life-long bonds and life-changing outcomes ... Assisted with Hurricane Harvey Drive across campus ... Assisted with campus-wide Trick or Treat Initiative as well as SAAC Holiday Party with local elementary schools.

SEC Announces 2018 Baseball Legends

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (May 8, 2018)----The SEC Baseball Legends Presented by AT&T, featuring former standouts from Southeastern Conference member institutions, will once again be honored at the 2018 SEC Baseball Tournament May 22-27 at the Hoover Met in Hoover, Ala.

The 2018 class features Ole Miss' David Dellucci, Mississippi State's Ron Polk, Tennessee's Alan Cockrell and Texas A&M's Mark Ross.

This marks the seventh consecutive year that the SEC has recognized a class of baseball legends. Last year's honorees were Ben McDonald, LSU; Don Kessinger, Ole Miss; Dave Silvestri, Missouri and Earl Bass, South Carolina.

The 2016 class featured Norm DeBriyn, Arkansas; Gabe Gross, Auburn; Cris Carpenter, Georgia and Scott Downs, Kentucky, while the 2015 class featured Andy Phillips, Alabama; David Eckstein, Florida; Mark Johnson, Texas A&M and Larry Schmittou, Vanderbilt, and the 2014 class featured Phil Garner, Tennessee; Jake Gibbs, Ole Miss; Jay Powell, Mississippi State and Bobby Richardson, South Carolina.

The 2013 class honored Hal Baird, Auburn; Terry Shumpert, Kentucky; Skip Bertman, LSU; and Gene McArtor, Missouri, and the inaugural class in 2012 included: Dr. Jeffrey Laubenthal, Alabama; Kevin McReynolds, Arkansas; Brad Wilkerson, Florida and Rev. Reggie Andrews, Georgia.

Each legend will be recognized individually throughout the two quarterfinal matchups on Friday and will have on-field recognition and an awards presentation by Commissioner Sankey on Saturday, May 26 during the semifinals of the SEC Tournament. Fans will have an opportunity for autographs and photos with the honorees at the AT&T Legends Pavilion immediately following. Several legends will also participate in the annual SEC Youth Clinic on Friday morning.

2018 SEC Baseball Legends

David Dellucci, Ole Miss

David Dellucci played four seasons at Ole Miss, earning two All-SEC selections and even an All-American nod. En route to his Ole Miss Athlete of the Year Award in 1995, Dellucci etched his name on the top of ten school records, earned the SEC batting title with a .410 batting average in 62 games played, before ultimately being selected an All-American the same year. He would finish his career at Ole Miss with a .326 batting average, 247 hits, 36 home runs, and 181 runs. Dellucci was elected into the Ole Miss "M Club" Athletic Hall of Fame in 2010 and was named as one of the 50 greatest athletes in Ole Miss history. He was drafted in the 10th round of the 1995 MLB Draft by the Baltimore Orioles, and would go on to make his MLB debut just two years later in 1997. His 13-year major league career would span seven teams with a .256 career batting average, 101 home runs, and almost 400 RBI. Dellucci's professional career was almost short-lived, after suffering a wrist injury initially deemed career-ending midway through his 1999 season that saw him approaching a .400 batting average on the season. He would overcome the injury and return to play almost ten more years, playing professional ball until 2009. Dellucci is also heavily involved in much charity work, including Easter Seals, Special Olympics, Children with AIDS, and Make a Wish. Dellucci is a current baseball analyst for SEC Network.

Ron Polk, Mississippi State

The winningest coach in the history of the Southeastern Conference, Ron Polk spent 29 seasons leading the Mississippi State baseball program (1976-1997, 2002-2008). Polk currently ranks ninth all-time in NCAA Division I career head coach victories. Polk concluded his 35-year career as a head coach with a record of 1,373-700-2 (.662). In his career, which also included stints at Georgia Southern (1972-75) and Georgia (2000-01), Polk led his teams to a total of eight College World Series appearances, five

SEC Championships and 23 Regional appearances. He is one of only three coaches in college baseball history to take three different programs to the College World Series. In July 2009, Ron Polk was inducted into the College Baseball Hall of Fame. He is also a member of the American Baseball Coaches Association (ABCA) Hall of Fame, having been inducted in 1995. In 1988, he was presented with the Lefty Gomez Award, the highest award given by the ABCA. At Mississippi State, Polk recruited and coached some of the game's all-time greats including MLB standouts Jeff Brantley, Will Clark, Rafael Palmeiro, Bobby Thigpen and Jonathan Papelbon. A three-time National Coach of the Year, Polk returned to coaching Georgia in 2000 where he spent two years before making the move back to Mississippi State for his final seasons. Perhaps Polk's most talented Mississippi State squad ever was the 1985 version. That club finished the year 50-15 and was SEC Champion before going on to appear in the College World Series. In his 35-years as a head baseball coach, Polk produced 35 All-American and more than 75 All-SEC performers.

Alan Cockrell, Tennessee

Alan Cockrell played center field for Tennessee in 1983 and 1984, earning first-team All-America honors by The Sporting News in 1984 after batting .329 with 11 home runs and 38 RBI that season while also leading the team with a .467 on-base percentage. Cockrell also spent time as a quarterback on the UT football team and still ranks 11th on Tennessee's all-time passing yards list with 3,823 career yards. Following his career at Tennessee, Cockrell was selected with the ninth overall pick in the first round of the 1984 MLB Draft by the San Francisco Giants. Cockrell ended up having a 13-year professional career as a player, reaching the major leagues with Colorado in his final professional season in 1996. After his playing career ended, Cockrell got into coaching and has served as the hitting coach for three major league franchises for a total of eight seasons. Cockrell's first major league coaching experience came in 2002 with the Colorado Rockies. After working in Colorado's development system for the next few years, Cockrell returned to MLB in 2006 for his second stint as the Rockies' hitting coach and helped lead the team to the World Series in 2007. Colorado led the National League in batting, on-base percentage and total hits that year. Cockrell went on to serve as the hitting coach for the Seattle Mariners in 2009 and 2010 and most recently was the hitting coach for the New York Yankees from 2015 to 2017.

Mark Ross, Texas A&M

Mark Ross is one of the top pitchers to ever put on the Texas A&M Maroon & White. He owns the Aggies' career records for wins (34), innings pitched (397.0) and complete games (26). His 232 strikeouts and 2.54 ERA both rank 12th on A&M's all-time lists. Ross earned all-conference recognition in 1977 and '79. In 1977, he helped the Aggies win the SWC title with an 11-3 record, 2.41 ERA, eight complete games and three shutouts. Texas A&M won a second consecutive league crown in 1978 as Ross went 11-4 with a 2.63 ERA and seven complete games. As a senior, he was 10-5 with a 2.22 ERA and nine complete games in 15 starts. Following the 1979 campaign, Ross was drafted in the seventh round by the Houston Astros. He enjoyed a six-year Major League career, including three seasons with the Astros. Following his playing career, he worked as a pitching coach in the Atlanta Braves organization, including stops in Danville, Macon and Jamestown. In 2018 he joined the Arizona Diamondbacks as an area scout after serving in scouting roles with the Astros from 2002-17. A four-year letterwinner at A&M, Ross earned his bachelor's degree in finance. He earned the Aggies' Wally Moon Award for most improved player in 1977 and Marion Pugh Most Valuable Player Award in 1979.
