NCAA Championships Set For Saturday

Six Southeastern Conference cross country teams and six additional individuals qualified for the upcoming NCAA Division I Men's and Women's Cross Country Championships, to be contested Saturday at Terre Haute, Ind.

Thirty-one teams were selected to participate in each championship. The top two, seven-person teams automatically qualified from each of the nine regions, for a total of 18 teams. Thirteen additional teams were selected at-large. Each of the SEC teams that earned berths to the NCAA Championships qualified automatically.

The SEC teams participating include the Arkansas and Ole Miss men, and the Arkansas, Ole Miss, Mississippi State and Missouri women. Thirty-eight individuals were selected to participate in each championship through an automatic qualifier and at-large selection process. All individual qualifiers finished in the top 25 in their region.

Participating men's individuals include Robbie Farnham-Rose (Alabama), Antibahs Kosgei (Alabama) and Jacob Thomson (Kentucky). Participating women's individuals include Veronica Eder (Auburn), Sara Tsai (Vanderbilt) and Katy Kune (Kentucky).

The NCAA Championships take place Nov. 19 at the Wabash Valley Family Sports Center in Terre Haute, Ind. The women's race will begin at 11 a.m. ET, followed by the men's race at noon.

» Arkansas sweeps 2016 titles

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark.—The Arkansas men's and women's cross country teams won the 2016 Southeastern Conference titles on their home course Friday morning at Agri Park.

This marks the 16th time the Razorbacks have swept both SEC cross country championships. For the Razorback men, it is their seventh consecutive SEC crown and 24th in the last 26 years since joining the league in 1991. The Arkansas women won their fourth straight SEC title and 17th overall.

Arkansas' Alex George claimed the men's individual 8K title with a time of 23:24.9, while Ole Miss' Sean Tobin was second in 23:33.9. Missouri's Karrisa Scweizer took home the women's 6K title in 20:10.6, ahead of Arkansas' Devin Clark (20:18.6).

Arkansas won the men's title with 25 points, while Ole Miss was second with 38 points. Kentucky (100) was third, followed by Georgia (149) and Alabama (152) to round out the top-five.

"It means quite a bit to us to win the SEC title," said Arkansas men's coach Chris Bucknam. "We take a lot of pride in belonging to the SEC and capturing a title for our school and for the state of Arkansas. We have a rich history, but to win it on our home course and keep a good streak going feels great. I am proud of my guys."

The Arkansas women won with 46 points, finishing ahead of Ole Miss (76), Missouri (125), Mississippi State (138) and fifth place Vanderbilt (170).

"Winning an SEC championship never gets old," said Arkansas women's coach Lance Harter. "The SEC is such a competitive conference, and people can adjust their lineups from year-to-year so quickly. If you're not taking care of bringing in talented athletes, you are going to get run over really fast. The SEC always keeps you on your toes."

NCAA Cross Country Regionals take place Friday, Nov. 11 at various sites across the country.

» Arkansas picked to win SEC titles

The University of Arkansas men and the Arkansas women have been predicted to claim the 2016 Southeastern Conference Cross Country Championships, as decided by a vote of the league's head coaches. The SEC on Aug. 29 released its 2016 SEC Cross Country Preseason Coaches' Poll.

Points for the men's poll were awarded on a 1-2-3-4-5-6-7-8-9-10-11-12 basis, while the women's poll was awarded on a 1-2-3-4-5-6-7-8-9-10-11-12-13 basis. Coaches were not permitted to vote for their own teams.

The Arkansas men were predicted to win the 2016 SEC Cross Country Championship. The Razorbacks claimed the 2015 SEC Championship, their sixth consecutive SEC Championship and 23rd in the last 25 years. The No. 8 Razorbacks garnered 10 first place votes, while Ole Miss earned three first place votes.

The Arkansas women, who have won three consecutive SEC Cross Country Championships, were selected to win the 2016 SEC Cross Country Championship. The Razorbacks received 13 first place votes, and Vanderbilt earned one first place vote.

The 2016 SEC Cross Country Championships are slated to take place Friday, Oct. 28 in Fayetteville, Ark.

» SEC in the NCAA: Cross Country History

- The SEC has won eight NCAA Men's Cross Country Championships, with Arkansas claiming seven and Tennessee winning one. The last SEC NCAA Championship came in 2000, with Arkansas winning its third consecutive.
- The SEC has won one NCAA Women's Cross Country Championship, with Kentucky holding the only title, which the Wildcats won in 1988.
- The SEC boasts two NCAA Cross Country individual titles, as Godfrey Siamusiye of Arkansas won back-to-back national crowns in 1995 and 1996.
- No SEC woman has ever claimed an NCAA Cross Country individual championship. Four SEC women have finished as the NCAA runner-up: Shelly Steely, Florida (1984); Valerie McGovern, Kentucky (1989); Deena Drossin, Arkansas (1992) and Amy Yoder, Arkansas (1999).

» About the SEC

- Since its formation in 1933, the SEC has directed and organized interscholastic athletic competitions, conducted tournaments and prescribed eligibility rules for student-athletes. The Conference also facilitates and assists its member institutions in maintaining intercollegiate athletic programs compatible with the highest standards of education and competitive sports.
- The Southeastern Conference crowns champions in 21 sports 12 women's sports and nine men's sports. They include baseball, men's and women's basketball, men's and women's cross country, equestrian, football, men's and women's golf, gymnastics, soccer, softball, men's and women's swimming and diving, men's and women's tennis, men's and women's indoor and outdoor track and field, and volleyball.
- In the fall of 2012, the University of Missouri and Texas A&M University became the 13th and 14th members of the Southeastern Conference. It marked the first expansion for the SEC since 1991 and the second-ever increase for the league since its founding in 1933.
- The SEC's mission statement reflects the priorities of the league. "The purpose of the Southeastern Conference is to assist its member institutions in the maintenance of programs of intercollegiate athletics which are compatible with the highest standards of education and competitive sports."

» Alabama

With third- and sixth-place finishes, respectively, at the NCAA South Regional in Tallahassee, Fla. on Nov. 11, seniors Robbie Farnham-Rose and Antibahs Kosgei qualified for the 2016 NCAA Cross Country Championships as individuals. The 2016 championships will take place Nov. 19 at the Wabash Valley Family Sports Center in Terre Haute, Ind. Indiana State University will serve as the host institution. The men's 10,000-meter race is scheduled for 11 a.m. CT. The duo will be looking to become the 12th and 13th men's cross country All-Americans in Alabama history and the first for the Tide on the men's side since 2010. The championships appearance is the second in a row for Kosgei and the first for Farnham-Rose.

» Arkansas

Men: Following a first-place finish at the NCAA South Central Region Championship last Friday at Agri Park, the Arkansas men's cross country team remains among the top programs in the nation, resting at No. 6. Head coach Chris Bucknam was recognized for his team's dominance this season named the NCAA Men's South Central Coach of the Year by the USTFCCCA on Tuesday afternoon. Bucknam represented the Southeastern Conference in receipt of regional recognition along with Ole Miss coach Ryan Vanhoy, whose team finished first in the South region following its runner-up showing at the conference meet. In his ninth year heading up the Arkansas men's program, Bucknam led his team to meet titles at each of the three home competitions this season, including the Chile Pepper Festival and the SEC Championship. Since taking the helm in 2008, Bucknam has brought home seven-consecutive SEC titles and six regional victories. Under his watch, junior Alex George raced to his first SEC cross country gold and was named to the All SEC first team along with teammates Jack Bruce, Frankline Tonui and Andrew Ronoh. Junior Austen Dalquist and newcomer Carter Persyn added to Bucknam's impressive coaching achievements with spots on the All-SEC second team and SEC All-Freshmen team, respectively. Bucknam and his squad seek to bring home a 12th national championship this Saturday, November, 19 in Terre Haute, Indiana at the NCAA Championship starting at 11 a.m. CT. Women: The Arkansas women's cross country team rounded out a perfect record at home this season with a first-place finish at the NCAA South Central Regional meet last Friday. Sitting at No. 9 in the nation, head coach Lance Harter's team has continued to establish its place among the country's best. Arkansas' impressive finish at the regional bout secured two NCAA awards for the program. Harter was named the NCAA Women's South Central Coach of the Year and sophomore Devin Clark was named the NCAA Women's South Central Runner of the Year by the USTFCCCA on Tuesday afternoon. Currently in his 27th year as the head coach for the Arkansas women, Harter remains the winningest coach in Southeastern Conference history. Additionally, his cross-country title claim includes 20 NCAA regional championships. Newcomer Abby Gray picked up the SEC Freshman of the Year award under Harter's guidance, along with being selected for the All-SEC second team. She was joined on the list of conference honorees by teammates Valerie Reina, Therese Haiss, and Nikki Hiltz. Fellow freshman Taylor Werner and Carina Viljoen were also named to the SEC All-Freshman team, adding to Harter's impressive coaching resume. Already a conference silver medalist and SEC Scholar-Athlete of the Year, Clark has finished amongst the top-8 on three separate outings this season, including two times as runner-up. Her impressive performances throughout the year has helped define her as the Razorbacks' top runner. Harter's crew looks to put forth another solid effort Saturday, Nov. 19 at the NCAA Championship in Terre Haute, Indiana at 10:00 a.m. CT.

» Auburn

Auburn senior Veronica Eder punched her ticket to the NCAA Cross Country Championships in Terra Haute, Ind., with a second-place finish at the NCAA South Regional on Friday. Eder's second-place finish is the top finish by an Auburn female since Holly Knight finished second in 2008. The Pennsylvania native posted a personal best 20:08.60 in the women's 6k and was named to the All-Region team. On the men's side, junior Wesley Pectol finished 23rd in the men's 10k with a personal best 31:12.20 to earn All-Region honors. Junior Kevin Wyss also posted a personal best in the men's 10k with a time of 31:20.60 to finish 28th. Eder will advance to the 2016 NCAA Cross Country Championships in Terra Haute, Ind. on Nov. 18.

» Florida

The University of Florida cross country program saw its season come to a close Friday (Nov. 11) morning at the NCAA South Regional Championship, but not before sophomore Elisabeth Bergh and senior Carlos Miranda collected USTFCCCA All-South Region accolades. Bergh led the women's team with a ninth-place finish, well within the top-25 requirement for All-Region honors. The Norwegian clocked a 6k personal record of 20:26.1, topping her previous PR by six seconds. Freshmen Jessica Pascoe (32nd) and Hannah Brookover (34th) were the only other Gators to crack the top 50, resulting in UF's sixth-place finish as a team. On the men's side, Miranda nabbed an All-South Region plaudit for the second consecutive season, crossing 15th overall. The Naples, Fla. native is the 17th Gator in program history to earn multiple All-South Region laurels. Sophomores Jack Guyton (39th) and Magnus Pettersen (51st) both set 10k personal records and crossed second and third, respectively, for the Gators. The men's eighth-place finish as a team marks just the third time since 1996 the team finished outside the top four of the NCAA South Regional Championship.

» Georgia

Both Bulldog cross country teams exceeded their rankings to finish in the top five at the NCAA South Regional in Tallahassee, Fla., on Friday morning. Bolstered by four All-Region performers, the Georgia men scored 105 points to finish third overall and be the second of seven teams from the Southeastern Conference to place. This marked the Bulldogs' first 10K of the season and improved the team's finish last season by one spot. Georgia's best recent finish at the meet was winning the South Regional in 2013. Ole Miss (46) managed to top Middle Tennessee State (61) for the men's team title as both have now automatically qualified for the NCAA Cross Country Championships in Terre Haute, Ind., on Nov. 19. The Lady Bulldogs started the day with a fifth-place finish (195) in the 6K race at the Apalachee Regional Park. Ranked 12th in the South Region coming into the meet, the Georgia women shaved five spots off their 2015 finish thanks in part to three individual finishers in the top 50 and an All-Region performer of their own.

» Kentucky

Kentucky juniors Katy Kunc and Jacob Thomson's spots in the NCAA Cross Country Championships were confirmed as the full meet field was announced Saturday. Kunc booked her spot in her first NCAA Championship field with her third-place finish at the Southeast Regional, Friday. She became the first Kentucky women's team member to earn a NCAA individual bid since Cally Macumber in 2013. Kunc earned the Southeastern Conference Bronze Medal, two weeks ago. Thomson made the NCAA Championships individually for the second year in a row. He was initially left out of the field, but further inquisitiveness showed the NCAA Division I Selection Committee omitted him from the field. Thomson placed seventh in the men's race at the Southeast Regional on Friday. UK has not qualified for the NCAA Championships as a team since the women's squad did so in 2008. The Kentucky men's team last made NCAAs in 2003 – placing 28th with 642 points. The Kentucky women's team finished third overall at Regionals on Friday, missing a spot in the NCAA Championships field by one point. The UK men's team finished fifth.

» LSU

LSU's cross country teams wrapped up the 2016 season at the NCAA South Central Regional on Friday morning with three runners finishing in the Top 60 at the Agri Park XC Course. Sophomore Dajour Braxton led the Tigers' efforts with an 11th-place finish to earn all-region honors for his performance. The Agri Park XC Course played host to the regional championship where the men raced the 10k course and the women raced the 6k course. Braxton finished the men's 10k with a time of 30 minutes, 48.5 seconds to finish just one at-large spot shy of NCAA Championship qualification with Tulane's regional champion Emmanuel Rotich and Louisiana-Lafayette's bronze medalist Stanley Limoh advancing as individuals. Braxton's 11th-place individual finish at the NCAA South Central Regional is the best by a Tiger since Joseph Simuchimba was eighth overall in the 2007 championship. Simuchimba remains the last men's cross country runner to qualify for the NCAA Championships when he did so that season.

» Ole Miss

For the first time in school history, both the Ole Miss men's and women's cross country teams will conclude their season at the NCAA Championships. The 11th-ranked men claimed the team title and the No. 14 women claimed second at the 2016 NCAA South Region Championships, punching their tickets to the 2016 NCAA Championships. The men ran away with the team title for their second regional championship in three years (2014). They defeated No. 26 Middle Tennessee by a margin of 46 to 61, with SEC foes Georgia (105) and Alabama (122) coming in third and fourth place, respectively. Five Rebels finished in the top 15 of the 10K race, with senior MJ Erb leading the charge for the Rebels finishing seventh overall with a mark of 30:33.7, 22 seconds faster than his 2015 mark. The women continued their historic season with a second-place finish Friday morning, punching their first ever ticket to the NCAA Championships. It was an All-SEC team finish with Mississippi State edging out the Rebels 66 to 67, followed by Vanderbilt (138), Alabama (177), Georgia (195) and Florida (205). Junior Emily Bean led the way for the women with a 10th-place finish with a 6K mark of 20:27.8, which is the second-best finish by an Ole Miss woman at the South Regional. Bean was followed closely by senior teammates Bo Ummels and Mary Alex England, who finished 11th and 12th, respectively.

» Mississippi State

Cross Country is the definition of a team sport. Mississippi State epitomized that definition Friday morning, winning the first South Regional Championship in program history by one point. MSU's sixth place runner, freshman Stephanie Peterson, made a push at the very end of the race to propel her past No. 14 Ole Miss' fifth place runner. That surge secured MSU's victory against the Rebels and their second-straight trip to Nationals in Terre Haute, Ind. A program-record five Bulldogs made the All-Region team, with Rhianwedd Price, Shannon Fair, Ffion Price, Antonia Hehr and Mia Meydrich earning the honor after finishing inside the Top 25. Senior All-American Rhianwedd Price was MSU's top performer, placing fifth in the 6K event with a time of 20:16.1 and earning four points. Just behind Price was sophomore Shannon Fair, whose time of 20:26.9 was good enough for a 13th place finish and 12 points.

» Missouri

A historic season for the Mizzou Cross Country program garnered regional recognition on Tuesday, as the United States Track & Field and Cross Country Coaches Association announced its cross country regional awards. In the Midwest region, Head Coach Marc Burns was named Women's Coach of the Year, while junior Karissa Schweizer (Urbandale, Iowa) was named Women's Athlete of the Year. Burns is the first Mizzou Cross Country coach to win the award since Rebecca Wilmes in 2004, while Schweizer is the first Tiger to receive the Midwest Athlete of the Year award since Amanda Bales in 2003. In his third year at the helm of Mizzou Cross Country, Burns has elevated the Tigers to national prominence, as the women's team entered the USTFCCCA National Coaches' Poll at No. 13 on Monday, its first time in the poll since 2005. The top-15 ranking came largely as a result from the Tigers winning the NCAA Midwest Regional Meet on Nov. 11, their first regional title since 2004. With the win, Mizzou earned an automatic bid to the NCAA Championships, the first time the Tigers will race as a team at the meet since 2004.

» South Carolina

South Carolina's cross country team wrapped up its 2016 season in the NCAA Southeast Regional on Friday morning, finishing 24th in the event. Senior Mary Reiser led the team as she did all season, finishing 74th with a time of 22:06.4. Freshman Anna Kathryn Stoddard posted her best career 6K time (22:27.1) while ranking 103rd. Sophomore Allison Mueller ranked third on the team (22:42.8, 123rd), while junior Kaylee Wessel (23:24.8, 160th) and freshman Emily Crounse (23:35.4, 172nd) rounded out the scoring.

» Tennessee

Zach Long finished 14th, Megan Murray took 35th and the men's squad recorded a top 10 finish as Tennessee competed at the NCAA South Regional Championship at Apalachee Regional Park on Friday morning. Long, a sophomore, topped the men's squad in the 10K race with a time of 30:56.0; helping the men's team place 10th out of 21 total teams. Long continued his streak of leading the Vols in each race this season. Sophomore Wesley Robinson came in second for the Volunteers with a time of 32:17.8, followed by Gashaw Duhamel who finished with time of 32:35.9 to round out the men's top three. Long shaved 1:58 off of his 32:54.45 finish in last year's NCAA South Region Championship and Wesley Robinson scraped 29 seconds from his 32:46.24 finish at last year's Championship. Junior Andre Hillsman finished with a time of 32:39.7 placing 77th overall and 10 spots behind him, Nick Brey placed 87th with a time of 32:46.5. Dartanian Oakley finished 113th overall with a time of 33:18.8 followed by Tyler Woodroome with a time of 33:59.6, which earned him 132nd.

» Texas A&M

Texas A&M had a pair of runners earn region honors for placing among the top 25 finishers in the NCAA South Central region cross country meet hosted by Arkansas on Friday. Christian Farris placed 14th in the 10,000-meter race at Agri Park while Elliott Farris finished 25th to lead the Aggies to a fourth-place team finish as the squad scored 150 points. Karis Jochen led the Texas A&M women in placing 29th over a 6,000-meter course as the team totaled 209 points to finish seventh. Arkansas swept both team titles, with the men scoring 40 points and the women producing a tally of 48. Both Razorback squads are nationally ranked, with the men ranked sixth and the women seventh. In the men's team scoring it was Texas placing second with 81 points with UT Arlington (135), Texas A&M and Baylor (170) rounding out the top five. On the women's side Baylor finished runner-up with 62 points as Rice (93), Texas (108) and SMU (109) rounded out the top five. Tulane's Emmanuel Rotich claimed the men's individual honors, clocking 29:58.9 for the victory over Andrew Ronoh of Arkansas, who ran 30:00.2, and Stanley Limoh of Louisiana-Lafayette (30:04.7). Razorback Devin Clark posted a time of 20:17.4 to secure the women's individual title over the Baylor tandem of Maggie Montoya (20:21.7) and Lindsey Bradley (20:24.6). In leading the Aggie men, C. Farris covered the 10,000-meter course in 30:55.5 while E. Farris posted a time of 31:15.3. Freshman Jon Bishop finished third among the team, finishing 34th in 31:14.4 while Alex Riba placed 43rd in his first race of the season, clocking 31:49.0. The fifth runner for Texas A&M, completing the team score, was Cameron Villarreal as he placed 49th in 31:59.2. Jacob Perry was 92nd with a time of 33:05.3 while Austin Wells did not finish the race.

» Vanderbilt

The Vanderbilt women's cross country team posted a third-place finish on Friday morning at the NCAA South Regionals in Tallahassee, Fla. The Commodores needed to finish either first or second to lock up an automatic bid to the NCAA Championships. Vanderbilt has qualified for the national meet in each of the past five seasons. Sophomore Sara Tsai posted an impressive sixth-place finish, but narrowly missed earning an automatic individual bid to the national championships. Tsai posted a time of 20:16.2. The race's top four finishers - among runners who are not members of the automatic-qualifying teams -- clinch spots to the NCAA meet. Tsai, who has paced the Commodores in every race this season, was fifth among those runners. Tsai has a strong possibility to earn an at-large invite to the national meet when the field is announced tomorrow. Maddie Criscione was the second Commodore to cross the finish line and placed 23rd overall with a time of 20:51. Criscione's time earned her a spot on the all-region team. Carmen Carlos was next for the Commodores, placing 31st with a time of 21:06.2, followed by Reagan Anderson (21:12.9, 37th), Ginger Hutton (21:30.2, 51st), Mailin Struck (21:49.6, 69th) and Megan Huebner (21:52.7, 73rd).
