NFCA Division I National Freshman of the Year

Florida's Amanda Lorenz was named 2016 Schutt Sports / NFCA Division I National Freshman of the Year, announced Tuesday, May 31 at the 2016 NCAA Women's College World Series banquet. Lorenz is the fourth (co-recipients in inaugural year) winner and the third from the SEC, in the brief history of the award, which was established in 2014. She joins a small but prestigious list that includes 2015 selection Paige Parker of Oklahoma and inaugural co-winners, Kasey Cooper of Auburn and Annie Aldrete, at the time a player at Tennessee. A first-team NFCA All-Southeast region selection, Lorenz ranks among the SEC leaders in several offensive categories with a team-leading .403 batting average, 73 hits, 14 doubles, 48 walks and 56 runs scored. Starting every game, the Moorpark, Calif. native also left the yard eight times and drove in 48 runs. In addition, she was named the SEC Freshman of the Year and garnered first-team all-conference honors, the first Gator in program history to do so.

2016 Senior CLASS Award for Softball

All-American outfielder Haylie McCleney from Alabama has been selected as the 2016 Senior CLASS Award® winner in softball. To be eligible for the award, a student-athlete must be classified as an NCAA Division I senior and have notable achievements in four areas of excellence: community, classroom, character and competition. An acronym for Celebrating Loyalty and Achievement for Staying in School®, the Senior CLASS Award focuses on the total student-athlete and encourages students to use their platform in athletics to make a positive impact as leaders in their communities. McCleney is the fifth student-athlete from Alabama to win a Senior CLASS Award. Recently named a 2016 first-team NFCA All-American—the sixth softball student-athlete from Alabama to earn All-America honors all four years—McCleney continues to receive accolades from her on-field performance. One of the greatest to ever take the diamond for the Crimson Tide, McCleney owns Alabama career records in batting average, walks and on-base percentage and ranks in the top 10 in slugging percentage, hits, runs and stolen bases. She is a four-time All-SEC honoree, a four-time first-team NFCA All-South Region selection and a top-10 finalist for the USA Softball Player of the Year award this season. For the second-straight year, she was selected as the CoSIDA Softball Academic All-American of the Year, earning first-team honors for the third-straight season after owning a 4.0 cumulative grade-point average in exercise science throughout her college career. McCleney also earned the SEC's H. Boyd McWhorter Female Scholar-Athlete of the Year this season and was the 2015 SEC's Softball Scholar-Athlete of the Year. With her commitment to competition and classroom excellence, McCleney prioritizes community involvement, volunteering for a number of causes throughout her college career. She and her teammates participate annually in the Halloween Extravaganza, through which Alabama student-athletes create a safe and fun Halloween environment for area youth, as well as Project Angel Tree and ReadBAMARed. McCleney also has made visits to the local Manderson Cancer and VA Hospital to encourage patients.
