Dear Joe;

We arrived all safe and sound in Providence this morning about ten O'clock I thought I would have a chance to go home but we came by the way of Boston. I was around looking at the Common for about an hour it is an awful pretty piece of ground. We went through the Hoose tunnel the longest tunnel in the country passed through Lexington and was going up to Bunker Hill only we had to take an early train for Providence. I have seen more sights since I been playing ball than I saw all the rest of my life. Wilson got hurt

Last Monday in Troy he got his arm strained he said but I don't believe him he was afraid to come to Providence the games are for blood and he had a scrap with Jim Knoules and he thought he would get done you know he done. Then Murphy my roommate the fellow caught for N.Y. the first of the season. Murphy sprained his ankle and was laid up for about two weeks and Nickerson done all the catching until one day he said he had a sore arm and could not catch and they put in for Murphy and he lost the game and got released. I would not be a bit surprised to see Wilson get it in the neck every body on the ^{train} is down on him he is no good. don't say anything to anybody about though. Where does that cousin of ours live in Troy I might go up to see her the next time we go to Troy make thing disagreeable for her fetch up the greatest gang of indians playing baseball if you see Wilson ask him about the gang go up around Alex station and you will see him.

Do you want to come up and stay with me for the rest of the season if you do I will stand all the expenses I have a hundred an fifty saved and I guess you and I can live on $150⁰⁰ dollars a month here. You don't want to say a word about that girl of mine though her old man raised an awful stink about her going with a ballplayer if you come fetch a trunk with you.
