They have released three more players this week. I had another scrap with the manager the other day but I guess that is the last one I will have as he has got it himself now. The way the scrap started was he wanted me to play third and I would not do it unless he would give me $175⁰⁰ a month but he would not do it so I had to cover third now I will stay there and won't go back to 33. any more. We would if won yesterday game only we had no catcher.

I hope Mom & Pop & Tom are all right.
