HEAD COACH BRET BIELEMA

On Dec. 4, 2012 the University of Arkansas captivated the world of college football by naming Bret Bielema the 32nd head coach in Razorback history. Bielema, who had spent seven years at Wisconsin, represented the three qualities Arkansas was looking for: a leader of young men who holds student-athletes academically responsible and a coach who has a proven record of winning championships.

Bielema came to Fayetteville after leading the Badgers to three straight Rose Bowls by winning three consecutive Big Ten titles. Through one season in Fayetteville, Bielema owns a 71-33 (.683) career record as a head coach built behind strong offense, stifling defense and all-around disciplined play.

He made an immediate impact in the classroom as the team posted its highest GPA ever for a fall semester in 2013. The Athletic Department Honor Roll featured 31 of his student-athletes, while 28 were on the SEC honor roll, 10 made the AD list with a GPA of 3.5–3.99, 11 graduated in the fall of 2014, and 43 finished with a GPA of 3.0 or higher in the fall of 2013.

On the field, the future is bright as five players were named Freshmen All-Americans in 2013; running back Alex Collins, offensive linemen Denver Kirkland and Dan Skipper, tight end Hunter Henry and defensive tackle Darius Philon. Collins was named the SEC Freshman of the Year after he became the second Razorback freshman to rush for more than 1,000 yards in a season. Collins and Darren McFadden are the only two to do so in school history and the only two Razorbacks to be named the SEC Freshman of the Year.

In 2012, Bielema guided Wisconsin to its third straight Big Ten championship and the Badgers became the first team to represent the Big Ten in three straight Rose Bowls since Michigan qualified following the 1976-78 seasons. In his most recent game as Wisconsin head coach, Bielema led the Badgers to a 70-31 win over No. 14 Nebraska in the Big Ten Championship Game. Wisconsin became the second team to score 70 points in a conference championship game, matching the number scored by Texas in the 2005 Big 12 Championship Game. Wisconsin also had two 200-yard rushers in the same game for the first time in school history.

Also during the 2012 season, running back Montee Ball broke the NCAA career records for total touchdowns and rushing touchdowns. Ball has scored 82 total touchdowns, breaking the previous record of 78, and 76 rushing touchdowns, besting the old record of 73. As a team, the Badgers rank in the top 25 in the country in rushing offense, total defense, scoring defense, rushing defense, pass efficiency defense and pass defense.

In Bielema's seven seasons as head coach, he has had 16 players earn All-America honors, including 10 first-team All-Americans. At Wisconsin he also coached two Outland Trophy winners, one Doak Walker Award recipient, one winner of the Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award and one Lott IMPACT Trophy winner as well as finalists for numerous other individual awards, including the Heisman Trophy. In the last five years, 16 Badgers were taken in the NFL Draft, including three in the first round.

Bielema, who served as Wisconsin's defensive coordinator for two seasons before becoming head coach, was on staff as UW compiled a 55-6 record at Camp Randall Stadium in his nine years. The Badgers won their first 16 home games under Bielema, the second-longest home winning streak in school history.

In his first two seasons as head coach, Bielema led Wisconsin to 21 wins. Only two other men in Big Ten history, Michigan's Fielding Yost (22) and Ohio State's Jim Tressel (21), have guided their teams to as many as 21 wins in their first two seasons as Big Ten head coaches.

Bielema coached Wisconsin to victories in 17 of his first 18 games. That represents the second-best start to a head coaching career in Big Ten history. Only Michigan's Yost, who went 55-0-1 from 1901-05, had a better beginning to a career.

In 2011, the Badgers won the inaugural Big Ten Championship Game, defeating Michigan State 42-39 to advance to the Rose Bowl for the second straight season. Wisconsin, winners of the Leaders Division, finished the season with an 11-3 record and recorded 11 regular-season victories for just the third time in school history, all under Bielema's watch.

Wisconsin's high-powered offense ranked sixth in the country in scoring in 2011 behind quarterback Russell Wilson and Ball. They became the first teammates in FBS history to throw at least 30 touchdowns and run for at least 30 scores in the same season. Ball, a first-team All-American, was a finalist for the Heisman Trophy and tied Barry Sanders' FBS record for touchdowns scored in a season with 39 and broke Sanders' NCAA single-season scoring record with 236 points. Offensive linemen Peter Konz and Kevin Zeitler also earned first-team All-America recognition. The Badgers had a school-record nine players receive first-team All-Big Ten honors.

2014 @RAZORBACKFB SPRING GUIDE

In 2010, the Badgers won a share of the 12th Big Ten championship in school history and first since 1999. UW tied a school record with seven conference victories and earned their first trip to the Rose Bowl since 1999. Wisconsin finished the season with an 11-2 record and ranked No. 7 in the final Associated Press Poll. The Badgers were explosive on offense, setting a school record and ranking fifth in the country in scoring offense averaging 41.5 points per game. Their 45.2 points per game in conference play was the second-highest average in Big Ten history. Wisconsin nearly became the first team in FBS history to have three running backs gain 1,000 yards in the same season as James White finished with 1,052 yards, John Clay had 1,012 and Ball ran for 996.

Wisconsin was the most disciplined team in the country in 2010, leading the nation in both fewest turnovers with nine and fewest penalties per game with an average of 3.15. UW also ranked in the top 10 nationally in pass efficiency, third-down conversions, fourth-down conversions, red zone offense, time of possession and turnover margin. The Badgers were one of just six teams in the country to rank among the top 25 in both total offense and total defense.

Wisconsin players took home several national awards in 2010, including the Outland Trophy (Gabe Carimi), the Lott IMPACT Trophy (J.J. Watt) and the Unitas Golden Arm Award (Scott Tolzien). Carimi, Clay, Lance Kendricks, John Moffitt and Watt were all named All-Americans, giving Wisconsin its most All-America honorees since 1999. Bielema also garnered national acclaim for the Badgers' tremendous season. He was named a finalist for the Eddie Robinson, Bear Bryant and Home Depot Coach of the Year awards as well as a semifinalist for the Joseph V. Paterno Coach of the Year Award.

Eighteen players received All-Big Ten recognition, including five first-teamers. Carimi, Kendricks, Moffitt, Watt and Antonio Fenelus were all named first-team All-Big Ten, while Carimi was named Big Ten Offensive Lineman of the Year and White was chosen as the Big Ten Freshman of the Year.

Wisconsin's success under Bielema translated to the classroom as well with 131 academic all-conference selections in seven seasons. UW had a school-record 25 members of the football team honored as Academic All-Big Ten in 2012, breaking the previous record of 22 set in 2009 and matched in 2010. Before 2009, the school record was 19, set in Bielema's second season.

In 2009, Wisconsin won 10 games for just the sixth time in school history, capping the season with a win in the Champs Sports Bowl over No. 14 Miami. The Badgers started the season 5-0 before dropping a pair of games to teams ranked in the top 15. Wisconsin then won five of its last six games to finish the season 10-3. After not being ranked to start the season, UW finished the year ranked 16th in both polls.

In addition to team success, a number of Badger individuals earned honors in 2009. Running back John Clay was named Big Ten Offensive Player of the Year while linebacker Chris Borland took home conference freshman of the year honors. A total of five Badgers were named first-team All-Big Ten. Wisconsin led the Big Ten in scoring offense, total offense, rushing offense, rushing defense, sacks, time of possession and red zone offense. In the national rankings, UW ranked among the top 10 in rushing defense, third-down conversions, sacks, time of possession and red zone offense.

In 2008, Bielema guided the Badgers to a school-record seventh consecutive bowl game. UW began the season 3-0, including a road win at No. 21 Fresno State, Wisconsin's first road win over a ranked non-conference opponent since 1958. Bielema took the Badgers to New Year's Day bowl games in each of his two campaigns as head coach. In 2007, the Badgers were 9-4 overall and Bielema was a semifinalist for the George Munger Award, given by the Maxwell Football Club to the national coach of the year. The 2007 Badgers fought through key injuries and other forms of adversity to win four of their last five games and earn an invitation to the Outback Bowl in Tampa, Fla. Tight end Travis Beckum and kicker Taylor Mehlhaff earned All-America honors.

Bielema guided the Badgers to a 12-1 overall record and 7-1 mark in the Big Ten during his rookie year in 2006. Wisconsin capped that record-setting season with a 17-14 win over Arkansas in the 2007 Capital One Bowl. No previous Wisconsin team had won more than 11 games in a season. In addition, Bielema became just the third rookie head coach in NCAA Bowl Subdivision history to pilot his team to 12 victories. His efforts were rewarded when he was named the 2006 Dave McClain Big Ten Coach of the Year. Bielema also was named one of five finalists for the Bear Bryant National Coach of the Year Award and was a finalist for the 2006 Schutt Sports Division IA Coach of the Year Award.

Wisconsin surprised most observers outside the program by setting school records for overall wins (12) and regular-season victories (11), as well as tying the UW mark for conference victories (seven). The Badgers did it with a defensive unit that ended the 2006 regular season ranked among the top three nationally in pass defense, pass efficiency defense, total defense and scoring defense. And they did it with an offense led by a pair of seniors (QB John Stocco and All-America tackle Joe Thomas), a young but talented offensive line, the Big Ten Freshman of the Year (P.J. Hill) at tailback and an emerging corps of receivers, including John Mackey Award semifinalist Travis Beckum.

Bielema was Wisconsin's defensive coordinator in 2004 and 2005, a period in which the program produced a 19-6 record under former head coach Barry Alvarez. The 2004 Badgers were ranked sixth nationally in scoring defense and ninth in total defense. The 2005 club, which earned Wisconsin's first shutout since 1999, finished its 10-win season with a 24-10 victory over No. 7 Auburn in the 2006 Capital One Bowl, limiting the high-powered Tigers to just 236 yards of total offense.

During Bielema's two years guiding the Badger defense, two players earned first-team All-America honors and two others were first-team All-Big Ten selections. While coaching the Badgers' linebackers, Bielema developed Mark Zalewski and Dontez Sanders, both of whom earned honorable mention all-conference acclaim.

Bielema was co-defensive coordinator at Kansas State under Bill Snyder in 2002 and 2003. The Wildcats were 22-6 during Bielema's time in Manhattan and finished in the top 10 nationally both seasons in scoring and total defense. The Wildcats won their first Big 12 title in 2003. Among Bielema's standout players at Kansas State were first-team All-American Josh Buhl, 2003 NFL second-round draft pick Terry Pierce and second-team All-Big 12 selection Bryan Hickman.

Prior to his years at Kansas State, Bielema spent nine seasons as an assistant coach at his alma mater, Iowa, where he worked for head coaches Hayden Fry and Kirk Ferentz. The 1997 Hawkeyes posted three shutouts and ranked No. 4 nationally in scoring defense.

Bielema lettered from 1989-92 at Iowa after joining the program as a walk-on. He earned a scholarship after his first year and was a member of Iowa's 1990 Big Ten championship team. A starter as a junior in 1991, he was a team co-captain as a senior. Bielema signed a free agent contract with the Seattle Seahawks and later completed his playing career with the Milwaukee Mustangs of the Arena Football League.

A 1992 graduate of Iowa with a degree in marketing, Bielema married the former Jen Hielsberg on March 10, 2012.

JIM CHANEY OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR / QUARTERBACKS

Jim Chaney, who boasts experience in the NFL, SEC and Big Ten, enters his second season as Arkansas' offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach.

In his first season coordinating the Razorbacks' offense, he oversaw a balanced offense that included contributions from four freshman All-Americans, SEC

Freshman of the Year Alex Collins and first-team All-American Travis Swanson. Arkansas' offense, which included underclassmen starters at quarterback, running back, tight end and two positions on the offensive line, rushed for at least 200 yards in seven of 12 games and broke the single-season school record with just 8.0 sacks allowed. The Razorbacks led the SEC and ranked third in the NCAA with an average of 0.67 sacks allowed per game and also topped the conference and ranked sixth in the country allowing one snap every 37.63 pass attempts.

Arkansas' 5.28 yards-per-carry average from 2013 ranked as the fourth-highest single-season average in school history. The effort was led by freshman Alex Collins, the second freshman in school history and 10th true freshman in SEC history to rush for 1,000 yards, and sophomore Jonathan Williams, the second Razorback duo to each rush for at least 900 yards in the same season.

Chaney's quarterback group withstood adversity throughout the season as sophomore starter Brandon Allen was injured in the third game of the season, pressing transfer backup AJ Derby into service. Before his injury, Allen ranked third in the SEC in passing touchdowns and 17th in the NCAA in passing efficiency. He finished the season with 1,552 passing yards and 13 touchdowns, the 13th-highest single-season total in school history.

Chaney spent the previous four seasons at Tennessee as the Vols' offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach and was the interim coach for UT's 37-17 win against Kentucky in the 2012 season finale. Prior to his time in Knoxville, he coached the St. Louis Rams for three seasons after nine years as offensive coordinator at Purdue. Chaney also has held recruiting coordinator duties at three different schools.

Chaney oversaw the development of UT quarterback Tyler Bray, who was named the Vols' starter as a true freshman. After playing in 28 career games, Bray moved into the top five in many of the school's passing categories, ranking fourth in passing touchdowns, fourth in passing yards, fourth in pass attempts and fifth in completions.

In 2012, Bray passed for 3,619 yards and 34 touchdowns. His touchdowns were the seventh-most in a season in SEC history, and his passing yards ranked 11th in conference history. Bray also broke the Tennessee single-game record with 530 yards passing, a record previously held by Peyton Manning and the second-highest single-game total in SEC history.

Also during the 2012 season, wide receiver Justin Hunter ranked third in the SEC with 1,083 receiving yards and was fourth in the conference with an average of 6.1 receptions per game. His 73 catches ranked as the second-highest single-season total in UT history, and his receiving yards ranked third on the school's single-season list. As a team, Tennessee led the SEC and was fourth in the NCAA allowing an average of 0.67 sacks per game. The Vols also ranked 16th in the country in passing offense, 19th in total offense, 23rd in scoring offense and 33rd in passing efficiency.

In 2011, Tennessee scored at least 40 points in three of their first four games and ended the season third in the SEC in passing offense and fewest sacks allowed. Wide receiver Da'Rick Rogers led the SEC in receptions with 67 and was second in the conference with 1,040 receiving yards on his way to earning first-team All-SEC honors from the Associated Press.

The 2010 offense produced 71 plays of 20-or-more yards, 19 which went for touchdowns, despite fielding a new quarterback, new starting running back and an overhauled offensive line. Hunter set the Tennessee freshman record with seven receiving touchdowns and averaged a team-high 25.9 yards per catch as he earned a spot on the SEC All-Freshman Team. Bray broke Tennessee freshman records with 1,849 passing yards, 125 completions and 18 passing touchdowns and became the first UT quarterback to throw multiple touchdowns in six straight games since Manning. Running back Tauren Poole also excelled, rushing for 1,034 yards in his first season as the starter.

Before his time at Tennessee, Chaney spent three seasons with the St. Louis Rams. He coached the offensive line two seasons and worked with the tight ends in 2008. Chaney's offensive line blocked for running back Steven Jackson, who rushed for more than 1,000 yards all three seasons Chaney was in St. Louis.

Chaney made the move to professional football after nine years as Purdue's offensive coordinator. In his first four seasons, he also was the Boilermakers' recruiting coordinator and helped break a 13-year bowl drought in his first season. In his time there, Purdue led the Big Ten in passing offense five times and total offense three times. The Boilermakers were ranked in the top 10 in the NCAA in total offense six times, including in 2000 when they were fourth in the country.

While at Purdue, Chaney tutored quarterback Drew Brees, who was drafted in the second round of the 2001 NFL Draft by the San Diego Chargers and was named Super Bowl XLIV MVP and the NFL's Offensive Player of the Year in 2008 and 2009. Brees led the NCAA in total offense in 2000, averaging 349.1 yards per game, and won the Maxwell Award. Chaney also helped direct Tim Stratton to the inaugural John Mackey Award, given to the nation's best tight end, in 2000. The 2000 team also won the Big Ten and advanced to the Rose Bowl for the first time in 33 years.

As recruiting coordinator, Chaney helped Purdue sign some of the country's top high school talent. The 1998 class ranked second in the Big Ten and 11th nationally, and each of his final five signing classes were in the top 30 in the nation.

Before Purdue, Chaney was at Wyoming for four years, serving as offensive line coach and recruiting coordinator from 1994-96 and was a graduate assistant coaching tight ends coach in 1993. Chaney began his coaching career at Cal State Fullerton in 1985. He served in many areas, including offensive coordinator and recruiting coordinator.

A native of Holden, Mo., Chaney earned his bachelor's degree in physical education from Central Missouri State in 1985. He played nose guard for Central Missouri State and was named an all-conference performer as a senior.

Chaney and his wife, Lisa, have two daughters, Elizabeth and Sara.

ROBB SMITH DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR / SECONDARY

Robb Smith, who was instrumental in Rutgers achieving a stunning college football turnaround that included winning a share of the 2012 Big East championship behind a top-10 nationally ranked defense, was named Arkansas' defensive coordinator and secondary coach Feb. 8, 2014.

Smith spent the 2013 season as linebackers coach for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers after 14 years of collegiate coaching experience, which included four seasons at Rutgers University where he was defensive coordinator and secondary coach in 2012. That season, Rutgers ranked fourth in the nation in points allowed per game (14.2), sixth in rush yards allowed per game (95.2), 10th in total defense (311.6 yards per game) and tied for third in rushing touchdowns allowed (6).

Last season in Tampa Bay, Smith coached second-year linebacker Lavonte David. David was named a first-team All-Pro in 2013, one of just 12 defensive players in the NFL recognized on the first-team defense, after he started all 16 games and recorded 144 tackles, including 6.0 sacks, five interceptions, 10 passes defended, two forced fumbles and one fumble recovery. Since sacks became an official statistic in 1982, David was the first linebacker in NFL history and third player to register at least 100 tackles with at least six sacks and five or more interceptions in a season, joining Rodney Harrison in 2000 and Dave Duerson in 1986.

The 2012 season saw Rutgers claim its first conference title since 1961 and the fifth in school history. Rutgers allowed just 91 points against seven Big East opponents in Smith's season as defensive coordinator, which ranked as the eight-lowest total in conference history. The defense held opponents to 95.2 rushing yards per game, which marked only the third time in school history the Scarlet Knights kept the opponent average below 100 yards.

While at Rutgers, Smith coached linebacker Khaseem Greene who became an All-American and was selected in the fourth round of the 2013 NFL Draft by the Chicago Bears. As a junior in 2011, Greene switched from safety to weak side linebacker. He led the Big East Conference with 141 tackles, 3.5 sacks and two forced fumbles. As a senior in 2012, Greene recorded 136 tackles, including 12 for loss with six sacks, six forced fumbles, two interceptions and three fumble recoveries with two returned for touchdowns. He was named the Big East Defensive Player of the Year and was named a first-team All-American by ESPN. Greene's 15 career forced fumbles stand as the NCAA record.

Prior to 2012, Smith served in various capacities on the Rutgers staff including special teams coordinator and linebackers coach in 2011, special teams coordinator and cornerbacks coach in 2010 and special teams coordinator and outside linebackers coach in 2009.

Under Smith's guidance, Rutgers became one of the best special teams units in college football. The Scarlet Knights ranked in the top 10 in blocked punts each of his three years coordinating the unit. Rutgers led the country in 2010 with nine blocked punts, tied for second in 2011 with nine and ranked eighth in 2009 with five. While Smith was at Rutgers, the Scarlet Knights led the nation with 31 blocked punts. They were also one of the best in the nation in punt and kick returns for touchdowns, tying for fifth with five punt return touchdowns and tying for ninth with four kickoff return touchdowns. Their nine combined special teams touchdowns tied for the fifth-highest total in the NCAA during that time.

Before going to Rutgers, Smith worked at the University of Maine as assistant head coach and defensive coordinator (2006-08), special teams and linebackers coach (2005) and defensive backs coach (2002-04). Under Smith, Maine boasted one of the top defenses in the FCS, highlighted by the 2006 team that ranked first in rush defense, second in total defense, third in sacks and fourth in scoring defense.

A 1997 graduate of Allegheny (Pa.) College with a bachelor's degree in economics, Smith was a three-year letterwinner at strong safety. He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant with Iowa from 1999-2001 and earned his master's degree in communications from Iowa in 2002.

Born on May 10, 1975, Smith graduated from Leechburg (Pa.) High School. He and his wife, Amy, have two children: Charlie and Jack.

RANDY SHANNON
LINEBACKERS

Randy Shannon, who has won three national titles as a player and coach, was named Arkansas' linebackers coach on Dec. 30, 2012, and promoted to Senior Associate Head Coach in February of 2014.

In his first season at Arkansas, Shannon inherited the Razorbacks' youngest position group and had five different linebackers make their first career start in 2013. Junior Braylon Mitchell and senior Jarrett Lake led the group and tied for second on the team with 77 tackles. Each also contributed three pass breakups and two quarterback hurries, and Lake was named third-team Midseason All-SEC. True freshman Brooks Ellis started the final four games at middle linebacker and recorded 30 tackles, including a career-high 11 at Ole Miss and 10 at No. 15 LSU, with 2.0 sacks and one pass breakup in those starts.

Shannon coached linebackers at TCU in 2012 following a four-year stint as head coach at the University of Miami, where he led the Hurricanes to a 28-22 record from 2007-10. Before rising to the head position, Shannon was the defensive coordinator for Miami from 2001-06 and was an assistant coach for the Hurricanes from 1991-97. In between his stints on the Coral Gables campus, Shannon spent three seasons as an assistant coach with the Miami Dolphins. Shannon, who lettered at Miami from 1985-88, was part of three of the Hurricanes' five national championships as a player and assistant coach.

Shannon's linebacker unit excelled in TCU's first season in the Big 12. Kenny Cain was a second-team All-Big 12 selection by the Associated Press and the conference's coaches, and Joel Hasley was an AP honorable mention all-conference performer. Cain made a career-high 14 tackles in a victory at Texas, the most for a TCU linebacker in a game since 2004, and Hasley ranked ninth in the conference in tackles for loss per game.

As a team, the Horned Frogs led the Big 12 in rushing defense and total defense and ranked second in the conference in scoring defense and pass efficiency defense. TCU's average of 103.92 rushing yards per game allowed was 10th in the NCAA, and the team's average of 332.00 total yards allowed per game ranked 18th in the country despite facing five of the nation's top-12 offenses. TCU also led the Big 12 in third-down defense, first downs allowed and three-and-outs per game.

In 2010, Miami earned a 7-5 record, including a 5-3 mark in the ACC, and a berth in the Sun Bowl. In 2009, Shannon guided his team to the program's best mark since the 2005 campaign as Miami made its 35th overall bowl appearance, finishing 9-4 overall and 5-3 in ACC play. Four Hurricanes earned first team All-ACC honors, and Miami was one of only nine teams to rank in the top 35 in both total offense and total defense. Miami knocked off three teams ranked in the Top 25 in its first four games, had nine players earn All-ACC postseason honors and saw its offense put up 5,199 yards, the most since 2002 when the team played for the national championship.

All of Shannon's Miami teams were able to uphold UM's academic success off the field. His UM football teams achieved NCAA Academic Progress Rates (APR) of 978, 977, 969 and 966, which have all ranked in the top 10 nationally. The 978 APR in the 2010 APR report was tied for the sixth-highest rate in the country. The 977 APR in the 2009 report was the seventh-highest rate in the country out of 119 Bowl-Subdivision football programs. Those rates also were the second highest in the Atlantic Coast Conference and highest among all schools in Florida.

In his second season in 2008, he guided the Hurricanes to the program's 34th overall bowl appearance at the 2008 Emerald Bowl. Miami finished the season 7-6 and one game out of first place with a 4-4 mark in the ACC. The squad had a five-game winning streak, which was the longest for the Hurricanes since 2005. Freshman linebacker Sean Spence was named the ACC Defensive Rookie of the Year and kicker Matt Bosher was a semifinalist for the Lou Groza Award given to the nation's best kicker. Linebacker Sean Spence, defensive tackle Marcus Forston, defensive end Marcus Robinson and returner Travis Benjamin earned Freshman All-America honors. Miami also ranked No. 7 nationally in pass defense, 25th in tackles for loss and 28th overall in total defense yielding 317.56 yards per game. The 2008 Hurricanes also ranked in the top four in the ACC in punt returns, pass defense, scoring offense, net punting and tackles for loss.

Shannon coached Miami to a 31-3 win over Marshall in his head coaching debut on Sept 1, 2007. The Hurricanes went on to finish 5-7 and 2-6 in the Atlantic Coast Conference. His Hurricanes showed promise for the future of the program. Miami's 2008 signing class ranked as the top class in the country by ESPN.com. The 2009 signing class ranked in the top 10 nationally as Miami signed six players ranked in the ESPN.com Top 150.

Prior to being named head coach at Miami, Shannon was the school's defensive coordinator for six seasons and coached top 10 defenses in five of those six seasons. In his first season back, 2001, the Hurricanes won their fifth national championship and he became the first UM coach to be named the winner of the Frank Broyles Award, presented annually to the nation's top assistant coach. The Hurricanes had 25 defensive players taken in the NFL Drafts from 2002-07, including 12 first-round picks.

Shannon produced defenses that rank among the best in the history of the program. Despite a 7-6 record in 2006, the defense ranked seventh in the country in total defense, allowing just 255.5

yards per game, fourth in rushing defense with a school-record 67.9 yards allowed per game and 13th in scoring defense at 15.5 points allowed per game.

In 2005, Shannon was named defensive coordinator of the year by Rivals.com. His aggressive 4-3 scheme led the nation most of the season in nearly every category and finished No. 1 in pass defense with a mark of 152.17 yards per game allowed and pass efficiency defense at 89.48. The Hurricanes also ranked fourth in total defense at 270.08 yards per game allowed and scoring defense with a mark of 14.25 points per game allowed, and their average of 117.92 rushing yards per game allowed ranked 23rd in the nation.

In 2004, Shannon's defense ranked ninth in the country in pass defense despite having three new starters in the secondary. The UM defenses in 2002 and 2003 led the nation in fewest passing yards allowed, and the 2003 unit was fourth nationally in pass efficiency defense with a mark of 96.16 rating while finishing second in the nation in total defense at 257.5 yards per game allowed. The 2003 Hurricanes also ranked fourth in the country with an average of 15.1 points per game allowed.

His 2002 unit led the nation with 119.7 passing yards per game allowed and in pass efficiency defense with an 83.91 rating, while finishing seventh in the nation in total defense at 285.0 yards per game allowed. That year, Miami fielded an entirely new starting unit in the defensive secondary.

In 2001, Miami led the nation in turnover margin by forcing a school-record 27 interceptions and 45 turnovers. Miami defenders allowed a national-best 9.4 points per game, led the nation in pass efficiency defense with a 75.60 rating, ranked second in pass defense with an average of 138.2 yards per game allowed through the air and was sixth in total defense with an average of 270.9 yards per game allowed. The 2001 Hurricanes gave up just 12 touchdowns while adding seven touchdowns of their own.

In his six seasons as defensive coordinator, the Hurricanes had seven All-America players, and he tutored eight other All-Americans as a position coach. As a head coach and defensive coordinator, he's coached 14 defensive players who were selected in the first round of the NFL Draft.

He was a graduate assistant in 1991 when the Hurricanes won their fourth national championship and in 1992 became a full-time assistant coach working with the defensive line. From 1993-97 he coached linebackers, including Ray Lewis, a 13-time Pro Bowl selection and two-time NFL Defensive Player of the Year who was a first-round pick by the Baltimore Ravens in the 1996 NFL Draft. Shannon was a defensive assistant with the Miami Dolphins in 1998 and 1999 before assuming the role of linebackers coach in 2000.

As a player at Miami, Shannon was a four-year letterman at linebacker and the starter on the 1987 national championship team. He received the Christopher Plumer Award for most inspirational player as a senior in 1988. Shannon concluded his career in 1988 when he ranked fourth on the team in tackles, sacks and tackles for loss, while leading the team in passes broken up and forced fumbles.

Shannon attended Miami's Norland High School and earned all-state and honorable mention All-America recognition from Street & Smith's as a senior linebacker. He also lettered in basketball, averaging 19 points per game, and competed in the triple jump on the track and field team.

An 11th-round draft choice of the Dallas Cowboys in 1989, he became the first rookie to start at outside linebacker for Dallas since 1963 and also was a standout on special teams. Shannon played for the Cowboys for two seasons before going into coaching.

SAM PITTMAN

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH/

RECRUITING COORD./OFFENSIVE LINE

Sam Pittman, who is universally considered one of the nation's best offensive line coaches and recruiters, is in his second season as associate head coach, recruiting coordinator and offensive line coach.

In Pittman's first season at Arkansas, he tutored a first-team All-American and Rimington Trophy finalist as well as two Freshman All-Americans. Center Travis Swanson led the offensive line and was flanked by true freshmen at both guard positions for the final eight games of the season. The offensive line broke the Arkansas single-season record by allowing just 8.0 sacks, and the average of 0.67 sacks allowed per game led the SEC and ranked third in the NCAA. Arkansas also led the conference and was sixth in the nation allowing one sack every 37.63 pass attempts. The Razorback offensive line kept opponents out of the backfield all season, and finished first in the SEC and fourth in the NCAA with an average of 3.75 tackles for loss allowed per game.

On the ground, the offensive line paved the way for seven 200-yard rushing games and a team average of 5.28 yards per carry, which was the fourth-highest single-season rushing average in school history. True freshman running back Alex Collins became the first freshman in SEC history to rush for at least 100 yards in three straight games to start a career and finished the season as the conference's 10th 1,000-yard freshman rusher. Collins teamed with sophomore Jonathan Williams to be the second pair of Razorbacks to rush for at least 900 yards in the same season, joining first-round NFL Draft picks Darren McFadden and Felix Jones. Williams' average of 6.0 yards per carry was 12th on Arkansas' single-season list.

Pittman oversaw the offensive line for offensive coordinator Jim Chaney in 2013 at Tennessee, when the Volunteers led the SEC and ranked fourth in the NCAA in fewest sacks allowed per game, following five seasons coaching the offensive line at North Carolina.

In 2012, Tennessee quarterback Tyler Bray passed for 3,619 yards and 34 touchdowns. His touchdowns were the seventh-most in a season in SEC history, and his passing yards ranked 11th in conference history. Bray also broke the Tennessee single-game record with 530 yards passing, a record previously held by Peyton Manning and the second-highest single-game total in SEC history.

Also during the 2012 season, wide receiver Justin Hunter ranked third in the SEC with 1,083 receiving yards and was fourth in the conference with an average of 6.1 receptions per game. His 73 catches ranked as the second-highest single-season total in UT history, and his receiving yards ranked third on the school's single-season list. As a team, Tennessee led the SEC and was fourth in the NCAA allowing an average of 0.67 sacks per game. The Vols also ranked 16th in the country in passing offense, 19th in total offense, 23rd in scoring offense and 33rd in passing efficiency.

The 2011 North Carolina team, with Pittman having been promoted to associate head coach, averaged 6.3 yards per play in the regular season, the second-best mark in the ACC. The UNC offensive line helped running back Giovanni Bernard to 101.8 yards per game, a mark that led all NCAA freshmen and included seven 100-yard rushing games. Bernard's 14 rushing touchdowns ranked second nationally among freshmen.

Additionally, sophomore quarterback Bryn Renner led the Atlantic Coast Conference in passing efficiency, a category in which UNC led the conference as a team as well. The Tar Heels ranked fifth in the ACC in total offense at 396.6 while earning a berth in the AdvoCare V100 Independence Bowl.

Named one of the nation's top 25 recruiters by ESPN.com, Pittman twice signed the No. 2-rated offensive tackle in the country with Alex Hurst in 2010 and Kiara Holt in 2011. Hurst, who started all 12 games at left tackle for UNC as a sophomore during the 2011 season, joined teammate and left guard Jonathan Cooper as the first Tar Heel tandem to earn All-ACC lineman honors since 1993.

Pittman also developed offensive lineman Garrett Reynolds, who earned second team All-ACC honors in 2008 and was selected in the fifth round of the 2009 NFL Draft by the Atlanta Falcons.

Pittman joined the Tar Heels after four seasons as the offensive line coach at Northern Illinois from 2003-06, including three seasons as assistant head coach from 2004-06. During that time frame, the Huskies produced a pair of standout rushers in Garrett Wolfe and Michael Turner.

Wolfe led the nation in rushing with 1,928 yards in 2006, while Turner, who has earned two Pro Bowl selections with the Atlanta Falcons and has led the NFC in rushing in 2010 and 2011, finished second in the nation as a senior at Northern Illinois in 2003 with 1,648 yards.

Pittman's first stint as offensive line coach for Northern Illinois was for two years, from 1994-95. Pittman also previously coached the offensive linemen at Kansas, Missouri, Western Michigan and Oklahoma (1997-98). He also coached offensive tackles and tight ends at Cincinnati.

Before coaching at NIU, Pittman spent two seasons as the head coach at Hutchinson Community College from 1992-93 after serving as the school's offensive line coach in 1991. He was a head coach in the high school ranks at Trenton High School in Missouri from 1989-90 and at Princeton High School, also in Missouri from 1987-88. He began his coaching career with a two-year stint as a student assistant at Pittsburg State from 1984-85, followed by one season as an assistant coach at Beggs High School in Oklahoma.

Pittman played defensive end at Pittsburg State, where he was a first-team NAIA All-American and twice earned all-conference recognition. He graduated with a bachelor's degree in 1986 and was inducted into the PSU Athletics Hall of Fame in 1998. He is married to the former Jamie Conrad.

CLAY JENNINGS
DEFENSIVE BACKS

Clay Jennings was announced as Arkansas' defensive backs coach Feb. 20, 2014. Jennings, who earned a reputation as TCU's ace recruiter, brings 16 years of coaching in the secondary and more than a decade at schools in the state of Texas to the position.

Jennings joined the TCU football staff as cornerbacks coach in January 2008. In his first three seasons with the Horned Frogs, TCU led the nation in total defense. From 2008-10, TCU became just the third program in NCAA history to lead the nation in total defense in three consecutive seasons.

In 2012, Jennings coached Jason Verrett to All-America honors in addition to being the San Antonio Express-News Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year. Verrett was also tabbed by CollegeFootballNews.com as the nation's top cornerback. He topped the Big 12 in interceptions (six) and passes defended (22) while being the only player nationally to rank in the top 10 in both categories. Verrett and Greg McCoy, a 2012 draft pick of the Chicago Bears, earned All-Mountain West honors in 2011. Jason Teague was a 2010 second-team All-MWC selection.

Both Rafael Priest and Nick Sanders were first-team All-MWC picks in 2009. Priest was ranked by Rivals.com as the nation's sixth-best cornerback, while Sanders was tabbed by Sporting News as the MWC's hardest hitter. The duo also received all-conference accolades in 2008.

Jennings, who has coached six NFL defensive backs, came to the Horned Frogs after serving as the cornerbacks coach at Baylor in 2007.

Jennings worked two seasons (2005-06) as safeties coach at Houston. He helped the Cougars to back-to-back bowl appearances and the 2006 Conference USA championship. In 2006, Cougars' free safety Will Gulley earned Conference USA Defensive Player of the Year honors while Brandon Brinkley was named to the league's all-freshman squad.

In his first season at Houston, Jennings saw Rocky Schwartz earn Conference USA third-team all-conference honors and Kenneth Fontennette be named an honorable-mention Freshman All-American by Sporting News.

Prior to his two-year stint at Houston, Jennings spent two seasons (2003-04) as the defensive backs coach at Louisiana-Lafayette, where he helped the Ragin' Cajuns to a No. 11 national ranking in pass defense. At Louisiana-Lafayette, Jennings tutored NFL players Antwain Spann (New England Patriots), C.C. Brown (Houston Texans) and Michael Adams (Arizona Cardinals).

Jennings also worked two years (2001-02) as secondary coach and recruiting coordinator at Sam Houston State. He helped the Bearcats to a share of the 2001 Southland Conference championship and the quarterfinal round of the NCAA Division I-AA playoffs. At SHSU, Jennings coached All-American and Buck Buchanan Award finalist Keith Davis, who just completed his fifth season with the Dallas Cowboys.

Jennings also coached the secondary at Southern Arkansas (2000), Morningside College in Sioux City, Iowa (1999) and Morehouse College in Atlanta (1998). At SAU, Jennings mentored Jordan Babineaux of the Seattle Seahawks. At Morningside, Jennings coached first-team All-American Matt Walker.

A four-year letterwinner (1992-95) as a defensive lineman and special teams standout at North Texas, Jennings was a member of the Mean Green's 1994 Southland Conference championship team and the school's first NCAA Division I-A squad in 1995. He began his coaching career as a student assistant (1996) and then graduate assistant (1997) at North Texas before moving on to Morehouse.

Jennings is a 1992 graduate of Waco's La Vega High School and a 1996 North Texas alumnus (Bachelors of Science in kinesiology). Jennings and his wife, Belinda, have two children: son Kirby and daughter Kenzie.

BARRY LUNNEY JR.
TIGHT ENDS

Barry Lunney Jr., a former UA letterman and graduate assistant coach, is entering his second season as tight ends coach at his alma mater.

In his first season coaching the Razorback tight ends, Lunney led fellow Arkansas native Hunter Henry to second-team All-SEC, Freshman All-America and SEC All-Freshman Team recognitions.

Henry made 28 receptions for 409 yards and a team-high-tying four touchdowns, including two at No. 15 LSU in the season finale. Hunter's receiving yards ranked third in the nation among freshmen tight ends, and he was the only freshman tight end in the SEC with a 100-yard receiving game, a number he hit with 109 yards vs. No. 10 Texas A&M. Henry also led SEC tight ends and ranked third in the conference by gaining a first down on 78.6 percent of his receptions.

The tight end group, which also included redshirt freshmen Mitchell Loewen and Jeremy Sprinkle and senior Austin Tate, combined for 513 yards and five touchdowns on 30 catches. The group also helped block for a rushing attack that topped 200 yards in seven games and produced the second duo in school history to rush for at least 900 yards each in the same season. Arkansas also set a school record and ranked third in the NCAA by allowing just 8.0 sacks, an average of 0.67 per game.

Before returning to the Razorbacks, Lunney served as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Bentonville High School since 2005. He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Arkansas before coaching at Tulsa and as the co-offensive coordinator at San Jose State.

In his eight years at Bentonville, the Tigers won 78 games, including 25 straight in 2010-11, played in four state championship games, claiming state titles in 2008 and 2010, and won six straight 7A West Conference crowns from 2007-12. Bentonville played in each of the last three 7A state championship games and won at least 12 games in four of the last five seasons.

Bentonville quarterback Dallas Hardison broke the Arkansas state single-season completion percentage record in 2010 and bettered the record in 2011 under the direct guidance of Lunney. In 2011 and 2012, the Tigers won their first 12 games to advance to the state championship game with an offense that averaged 42.5 and 36.8 points per game, respectively.

The 2010 Bentonville team finished the season 13-0 and won the 7A state championship. The offense averaged 47.0 points per game and scored at least 40 points nine times, including 49 points in the semifinal round and the state championship game. In 2009, the Tigers averaged 38.5 points per game and scored more than 40 points in six games while advancing to the quarterfinal round of the state playoffs and finishing with a 9-2 overall record.

Lunney's first state title at Bentonville came in 2008 as the Tigers won 12 games for the first time since 2001. The offense averaged 30.2 points per game and scored more than 30 points in seven of 13 games. In 2007, Bentonville won the first of its six straight conference crowns and advanced to the semifinal round of the state playoffs behind an offense that averaged 31.1 points per game. The 2006 Tigers qualified for the state playoffs for the first time since 2001 as the offense averaged 34.2 points per game. In 2005, Lunney's first year in charge of the Bentonville offense, its per-game scoring average improved by more than 20 points from the previous year.

Before moving to the high school coaching ranks, Lunney compiled seven years of collegiate coaching experience. His coaching career began with two seasons as a graduate assistant at Arkansas. In 1998, Arkansas won its first eight games and rose to No. 9 in the national rankings on the way to sharing the SEC Western Division title and earning a berth in the Florida Citrus Bowl. Lunney served as the Razorbacks' running backs coach for the bowl game and throughout the spring of 1999. Arkansas spent the majority of the 1999 season in the top 25 of the national rankings and finished the year with a 27-6 win over No. 14 Texas in the Cotton Bowl.

After his time as a graduate assistant, he spent three seasons at Tulsa, first working with quarterbacks in 2000 and 2001 and then moving to wide receivers in 2002. In 2000, quarterback Josh Blankenship, who was named to the conference's all-academic team, ranked fifth in the WAC in total offense and receiver Don Shoals led the conference and ranked 11th in the NCAA in receptions per game.

Lunney was hired from Tulsa to be the co-offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at San Jose State. In his two seasons there, the offense produced six all-conference performers, and tight end Courtney Anderson was selected by the Oakland Raiders in the 2004 NFL Draft. In 2003, the Spartans ranked 17th in the NCAA in passing offense and quarterback Scott Rislov ranked third in the WAC in passing efficiency and total offense.

As a player for the Razorbacks, Lunney lettered from 1992-95, starting 40 games at quarterback, and was a team captain on the 1995 team that played in the SEC Championship Game for the first time in school history. In his first game as the starting quarterback, he led Arkansas to an upset win at No. 4 Tennessee. He left Arkansas holding UA career records for passing yards, passing touchdowns, pass completions, pass attempts and total offense plays. Lunney also played baseball at Arkansas. He was drafted by the Montreal Expos out of high school in 1992 and by the Minnesota Twins in 1996 and played one season of minor league baseball in the Twins organization.

Lunney graduated from Arkansas in 1996 with a bachelor's degree in kinesiology. He and his wife, Janelle, have two sons, Luke and Levi. His grandfather, John lettered at Arkansas from 1946-49.

RORY SEGREST DEFENSIVE LINE/SPECIALISTS

Rory Segrest, who helped the Philadelphia Eagles advance to the NFL playoffs three times and make one NFC Championship Game appearance in five seasons, was named Arkansas' defensive line coach and specialists coach on Jan. 8, 2014.

Segrest came to Arkansas after the third year of his second stint on the Samford coaching staff after returning as the team's defensive line coach and special teams coordinator in 2011. He previously coached at Samford from 2002-05 when he was defensive line coach, special teams coordinator and recruiting coordinator.

Samford finished the 2013 season ranked 18th in the final coaches poll after earning the program's first NCAA Division I - FCS Playoff berth since 1992. Fabian Truss was named to the AFCA Football Championship Subdivision Coaches' All-America Team as an all-purpose player as he ranked second nationally in kickoff return average at 32.1 yards per return. The Samford defense also led the SoCon in sacks and tackles for loss.

In 2012, Samford defensive lineman Nick Williams was named first-team all-conference, finished second in the Southern Conference in sacks and 36th nationally (FCS) with seven sacks. Williams was drafted by the Pittsburgh Steelers in the seventh round of the NFL Draft. Samford's defense tied for first in the SoCon and finished 27th in the FBS in sacks with 27. Additionally, Samford ranked 29th in the FCS in total defense.

Segrest's special teams units also had success in the 2012 season finishing sixth in kickoff returns with a 24.91 yard-per-return average and first in the SoCon in kickoff coverage. Punt returner Riley Hawkins finished first in the SoCon and 14th in the FCS in punt return average, and Truss finished third in the SoCon and 13th in the FCS in kick return average. Kicker Cameron Yam was named first-team All American as well as first team all-conference.

Segrest's 2011 special teams units improved in every category over the previous season. The kickoff return unit was ranked 12th in the FCS, and Truss ranked seventh in the FCS and the punt return unit was ranked 19th in the FCS. Redshirt freshman punter Peranich ranked 24th in the FCS and was named to the SoCon All-Freshman Team. Kicker Cameron Yaw ranked second in the FCS in field goals, connecting on 23-of-28, and was tied for eighth in total scoring.

Segrest returned to Samford after coaching with the Philadelphia Eagles from 2006-10. While with the Eagles, Segrest was the special teams quality control/assistant defensive line coach (2006-07), special teams coordinator (2007-09) and defensive line coach (2009-10). In 2006 and 2010, the Eagles were the NFC East champions and made it to the NFC Championship game in 2008. Segrest also coached in the 2009 Pro Bowl.

Segrest's 2009 and 2010 defensive line units with the Eagles ranked second and fourth, respectively, in the NFL in sacks by defensive linemen. They ranked third (2010) and ninth (2009) in the league for tackles for a loss by defensive linemen and in 2010 was ranked second in the NFL in quarterback knockdowns and hurries by defensive linemen. Segrest coached defensive line Pro Bowl players Trent Cole (2009, 2010) and Broderick Bunkley (2009).

Segrest's special teams units with the Eagles finished third in the NFL in 2008 in field goals made, and Pro Bowl kicker David Akers broke franchise records with 33 field goals and 144 points scored. Akers set his career high that year with 17 touchdowns. Punter Sav Rocca set a franchise record with his single-season net punt average of 37.9. Rocca and Akers were both named NFL's Special Teams Player of the month.

Segrest's previous coaching stops include Southeast Missouri State where he coached the defensive line in 1999 before adding recruiting coordinator duties for 2000-01. He was also the defensive graduate assistant at Auburn University from 1997-99 working with the defensive line and special teams units.

His coaching career began under Gene Stallings as a student assistant at Alabama in 1994 after his playing career was cut short by an injury. He was a member of the Crimson Tide's 1992 National Championship Team and was also awarded the team's 1995 Co-Leadership Award. Collegiately, Segrest has been a part of six bowl games as either a player or coach.

A native of Waycross, Ga., and a graduate of Waycross High School, he earned his B.S. in health-care management from Alabama in 1996 where he met his wife, Jackie. They have a son, James (12).

MICHAEL SMITH WIDE RECEIVERS

Michael Smith, a record-setting receiver at Kansas State who went on to earn a reputation as one of the best recruiters in college football, enters his second season as Arkansas' wide receivers coach in 2013.

Last season, he took over a group that had seen four wide receivers selected in the last two NFL Drafts and produced contributions from seniors and freshmen alike. Senior Javontee Herndon enjoyed a breakout final season, leading the team with 31 receptions and 437 yards and tying for the team lead with four receiving touchdowns. Herndon also served as the Razorbacks' punt returner and finished the year ninth in the SEC in punt return yards. Sophomore Keon Hatcher caught 27 passes for 346 yards and two touchdowns and added 140 yards on 11 rushes, an average of 12.7 yards per carry. Hatcher also averaged 22.0 yards on nine kickoff returns. Senior Julian Horton averaged 11.8 yards per reception and added one touchdown. Freshman Eric Hawkins caught three passes and averaged 22.5 yards on four kickoff returns.

Smith, who was named one of the top 10 recruiters in the Big 12 Conference in 2012 by Rivals, spent the first 11 years of his coaching career at Kansas State and was the running backs coach at Rice in 2006 before moving to Arizona for the 2007 and 2008 seasons, coaching running backs his first season before moving to coach inside receivers. He returned to Kansas State in 2009 as the Wildcats' wide receivers coach.

The 2012 season saw Kansas State capture their second Big 12 title and play in the Fiesta Bowl as the Wildcats posted an 11-2 record and finished the year ranked No. 12 in the AP poll. Chris Harper led the Wildcats with 58 receptions for 857 yards and three touchdowns and earned second-team All-Big 12 honors. In 2011, true freshman Tyler Lockett earned All-America honors as a kick returner and made an immediate impact at the wide receiver position. He set the Big 12 and Kansas State single-season record for kickoff-return average at 35.2 yards per return.

In 2010, Smith tutored a wide receiver group that featured numerous players stepping up and contributing throughout a season that saw several injuries at the position. Aubrey Quarles provided the most consistency throughout 2010 en route to All-Big 12 honors, while newcomers Tramaine Thompson, Brodrick Smith and Chris Harper all proved they had playmaking abilities.

In 2009, Kansas State was led by All-American Brandon Banks, who set school and Big 12 records in kickoff returns as well as leading the squad in receptions. Banks led the Big 12 and was eighth nationally with his average of 174.8 all-purpose yards per game and ranks third in school history with 3,828 career all-purpose yards. At wide receiver, Banks also led the team in receptions (56) and receiving yards (705) and also ranks seventh in Kansas State history with 123 career receptions and ninth in career receiving yards with 1,754.

Smith helped lead Arizona to a 2008 Las Vegas Bowl win over BYU while he tutored Mike Thomas, who became the Pac-10 career receptions record holder with 259 grabs. In 2007, Smith coached true freshman tailback Nic Grigsby to a 700-yard performance in seven starts, emerging from reserve to full-time duty.

At Rice, Smith helped the Owls to a 7-6 record in 2006, advancing to their first bowl game in 45 seasons. He coached senior Quinton Smith to 1,096 yards in 2006, making him only the sixth Owls' running back to eclipse the 1,000-yard mark.

The 1995 Kansas State graduate has coached the top three career rushing leaders in Kansas State history in Darren Sproles, Eric Hickson and Mike Lawrence.

Smith also directed a running back to the single-season rushing record in three of his last five seasons at Kansas State during his first tenure, including Sproles, a first team All-American. Sproles surpassed the mark during the 2003 season with 1,986 yards, which ranked as the 10th-best rushing total in NCAA history. At the conclusion of the 2003 regular season, Sproles finished fifth in Heisman Trophy voting and was the runner-up for the Doak Walker Award.

A second-team All-Big 12 pick in 2002, Sproles rushed for 1,465 yards and 17 touchdowns. Sproles concluded his four-year career as the Big 12's leader in all-purpose yards with 6,812 and the Wildcats' career rushing leader with 4,979 yards. In 2001, Josh Scobey set the single-season rushing record with 1,263 yards and also broke the school's career rushing touchdown record with 31.

After spending the 1992 season in the NFL with Kansas City, Smith returned to Kansas State as a student assistant. As a graduate assistant in 1995 and 1996, Smith assisted Greg Peterson with the receivers and helped tutor wideouts Kevin Lockett and Mitch Running, who became just the fifth receiving tandem in Big Eight history to snag at least 50 passes in the same season.

In nine seasons as running backs coach, Smith coached seven former backs in the NFL, including David Allen (Jacksonville and St. Louis), Rock Cartwright (Washington), Thomas Clayton (New England), Joe Hall (Kansas City), Frank Murphy (Chicago, Tampa Bay, Houston and Miami), Scobey (Arizona) and Sproles (San Diego).

During his playing career, Smith was one the Big Eight's all-time great receivers. He concluded his playing career as the Big Eight's second-leading receiver with 179 receptions, trailing just All-American Hart Lee Dykes. The total of 179 catches ranked 40th in NCAA history at the time.

Smith was named third-team All-American in 1991, honorable mention All-American in 1989 and a two-time All-Big Eight selection (1989 and 1991).

His career total of 2,457 receiving yards was third-best in Big Eight history behind Dykes and 1972 Heisman Trophy winner Johnny Rodgers. The total was bolstered by nine 100-yard receiving games, which was a school record at the time. Smith also posted three of the top four games in Kansas State history with 179 yards vs. New Mexico (1990), 174 yards vs. Washington (1991) and 172 vs. Nebraska (1991). Smith also owned three of the top five reception games in school history. He led the Big Eight as a sophomore in 1989 and was seventh in the nation with 70 catches for 816 yards. In 1990, he had 46 receptions for 796 yards and tallied 55 for 768 in 1991.

Smith graduated from Kansas State with a bachelor's degree in social science. He is married to the former Karyn Tieken. Smith has four children: Kylie, Kenzie, Kason and Kamryn.

JOEL THOMAS RUNNING BACKS

Joel Thomas, who produced record-breaking players in the Big Ten, Pac-12 and now SEC, is entering his second season in charge of the Razorback running backs.

In 2013, Arkansas ranked third in the SEC in rushing offense with an average of 208.7 yards per game on the ground. The Razorbacks had seven games of more than 200 yards rushing and averaged 5.28 yards per carry, the fourth-highest single-season average in school history.

True freshman Alex Collins and sophomore Jonathan Williams benefitted immediately from Thomas' tutoring. Collins became the first freshman in SEC history to begin his career with three straight 100-yard rushing games and finished the year as the conference's 10th true freshman 1,000-yard rusher. Williams added 900 yards as the duo became just the second pair of Razorback teammates to each rush for at least 900 yards in the same season, joining first-round NFL Draft picks Darren McFadden and Felix Jones. Collins and Williams showed versatility throughout the season as well, combining for 18 receptions for 135 yards and two touchdowns.

Senior team captain and fullback Kiero Small served as the lead blocker and another contributor to the rushing attack. In addition to his blocking duties, Small had zero negative-yard plays among his 40 rushes and 19 receptions. He recorded 151 yards and three touchdowns rushing and 128 yards and one touchdown receiving. He also gained a first down or scored a touchdown on 47.5 percent of his rushes.

Thomas spent the previous four seasons as running backs coach at Washington, coaching a 1,000-yard rusher in each, and added the title of associate head coach for offense prior to the 2012 season. Thomas also has experience as running backs coach at Purdue, Louisville and Idaho.

In 2012, Thomas tutored honorable mention All-Pac-12 running back Bishop Sankey, who ranked third in the Pac-12 and tied for 13th in the NCAA with 16 rushing touchdowns, the second-highest single-season total in school history. Sankey rushed for 1,439 yards, the third-highest single-season total in school history, and his average of 110.69 rushing yards per game was fifth in the conference.

In Thomas' final game at Washington, Sankey was named MVP of the MAACO Bowl Las Vegas after he compiled a career-high 205 rushing yards, breaking the UW bowl record, as part of his 279 all-purpose yards in the game. Sankey became the seventh running back named MVP in the 21-year history of the bowl, joining a list that includes current NFL running backs Steven Jackson and Marshawn Lynch.

The 2011 season was another highly successful campaign for Washington running backs as Chris Polk became just the second player in school history to rush for more than 1,000 yards in three straight seasons and one of only seven players in Pac-12 history to reach the 4,000-yard mark for a career.

Polk ran for 1,488 yards, the second-most in the long history of UW football, and his 4,049 career yards also ranked No. 2 on the school's all-time list. Polk also broke school records for career rushing attempts with 799, career yards per game average at 101.2, career 50-plus-yard carries with six and career 100-yard games with 21. He also became the first player in school history to compile 100 or more rushing and receiving yards in the same game, as he did vs. Arizona. Polk earned first-team All-Pac-12 and honorable mention All-America honors following the season and made the Philadelphia Eagles 53-man roster as an undrafted rookie free agent.

Ball security, one of Thomas' most prominent teaching points, paid off in 2011 and 2010 as Washington running backs lost just three fumbles combined over those two seasons.

The 2010 season was highlighted by the play of Polk, whose 1,415 yards were, at the time, second-most in Washington history and ranked No. 2 in the Pac-10 Conference. Polk posted the best game of his career in the Apple Cup win over Washington State, when he ran for 284 yards, just six shy of Hall of Famer Hugh McElhenny's 59-year old single-game record.

In his first season with the Washington running backs in 2009, Thomas coached Polk to the first 1,000-yard season by a freshman in Husky history. Polk's 1,113 yards ranked seventh on the school's single-season list at the time. As a team, Washington gained an average of nearly 40 more rushing yards per game than they did in 2008.

In 2007, the Boilermakers led the Big Ten in total offense and scoring offense. In 2008, the Boilermakers set a school record for fewest fumbles in a season with 12. Also in 2008, running back Kory Sheets rushed for 1,131 yards to become Purdue's first 1,000 yard rusher in six seasons and post the fourth-highest single-season rushing total in school history. Sheets tied the school's single-season rushing touchdowns record with 16 in 2008 and broke the career record with 48. He also ended his career second on the school's career rushing list with 3,341 yards.

Thomas was also at Purdue in 2000 and 2001, working as a graduate assistant under offensive coordinator Jim Chaney. In 2000, quarterback Drew Brees led the NCAA in total offense, averaging 349.1 yards per game, and won the Maxwell Award. Tight end Tim Stratton also won the inaugural John Mackey Award, given to the nation's best tight end, that year as the team won the Big Ten and advanced to the Rose Bowl for the first time in 33 years.

In between stays at Purdue, Thomas served as co-offensive coordinator at Idaho in 2004-05 and as running backs coach at Louisville in 2002-03. In 2003, Louisville averaged 228.2 rushing yards per game to rank 10th in the NCAA and broke the UL record with an average of 5.7 yards per carry. The Cardinals also gained a school-record 445 rushing yards as part of 779 yards of total offense, also a school record, vs. Houston. The 2004 Idaho squad set a school record for completion percentage, and the 2005 team ranked 28th in the country in passing yards per game.

Thomas gained NFL experience from two training camp internships, serving with the Pittsburgh Steelers in 2008 and the New Orleans Saints in 2012. He also was a member of the NCAA Championship Forum in 2011.

Thomas lettered at running back at Idaho from 1995-98 and still holds Vandals' career records with 3,929 rushing yards, 51 rushing touchdowns and 765 rush attempts. He was a two-time first-team All-Big West selection and rushed for 272 yards, the third-highest single-game total in school history, in a game against rival Boise State. As a senior, he was named the Big West Player of the Year and also earned the Humanitarian Award prior to the 1998 Humanitarian Bowl victory over Southern Miss. Following his senior season, he was invited to play in the Senior Bowl and the East-West Shrine Game.

Thomas was inducted into the University of Idaho Athletic Hall of Fame in 2008. He earned his bachelor's degree in public communications from Idaho in 1998. He is married to the former Ebbie Metzinger, who was a three-time Big Ten champion in the pole vault at Purdue. The couple has two sons, Teyo and Niko.

Arvada, Colo.
Ralston Valley HS

2013: Skipper played in all 12 games and started the last eight at offensive guard and blocked a school-record three field goal attempts. He was the only player in the SEC and one of eight nationally to have at least three blocked kicks. His blocked field goals total tied for the 2nd-highest single-season total in SEC history and for the 8th-highest single-season total in NCAA history. Only 22 teams in the country had more blocked kicks, including punts, than Skipper. He was named a Freshman All-American after blocking as Alex Collins became the second freshman in school history and 10th true freshman in SEC history to rush for 1,000 yards. The offensive line also allowed the Razorbacks to produce eight individual 100-yard rushing performances and rush for more than 200 yards as a team nine times. Collins and Jonathan Williams became the second Razorback duo to each reach at least 900 rushing yards in one season, joining Darren McFadden and Felix Jones from 2006 and 2007. The offensive line also broke the single-season school record by only allowing 8.0 sacks. Arkansas led the SEC and tied for second in the NCAA with an average of 0.67 sacks allowed per game. The Razorbacks' average of one sack allowed for every 37.63 pass attempts was the best in the conference and seventh in the nation. Arkansas also ranked fourth in the SEC and 23rd in the NCAA in rushing offense with an average of 208.7 yards per game on the ground.

2013 Season In Review

Underclassmen made 98 starts this season, with true freshmen making 30 starts, redshirt freshmen starting 11 times and sophomores making 57 starts.

Underclassmen accounted for 91.7 percent of Arkansas' total rushing yards, 90.2 percent of total offense, 88.3 percent of total passing yards, 98.5 percent of kickoff return yards, 78.9 percent of all-purpose yards, 58.6 percent of receiving yards, 60.0 percent of touchdowns scored and 50.0 percent of forced fumbles and fumble recoveries.

Arkansas was the only team in the SEC with multiple 100-yard rushing games from a freshman and a freshman with a 100-yard receiving game. Alex Collins rushed for at least 100 yards in four games, and Hunter Henry totaled 109 receiving yards vs. No. 10 Texas A&M.

Arkansas allowed 8.0 sacks in 2013, the lowest single-season total in school history and the second straight year an offensive line coached by Sam Pittman only allowed 8.0 sacks. The previous Arkansas low was 9.0 in 2006.

The Razorbacks led the SEC and ranked 3rd in the NCAA with an average of 0.67 sacks allowed per game and also led the conference and ranked 6th in the nation by allowing one sack every 37.63 pass attempts.

The Razorbacks led the SEC and ranked 4th in the NCAA in tackles for loss allowed with an average of 3.75 per game.

Arkansas led the SEC and tied for 12th in the NCAA with an average of 4.1 penalties per game. UA finished the year with 49 penalties, with only 19 before the snap. Last year, Arkansas committed 72 penalties including 38 pre-snap penalties.

Arkansas ranked 6th in the SEC and 24th in the NCAA in net punting, gaining an average of 39.02 yards per punt.

The Razorbacks rushed for at least 200 yards in seven of 12 games this season. From 2009-12, UA rushed for 200 yards in a game six times in 51 games.

Arkansas averaged 5.28 yards per carry in 2013, the 4th-highest single-season average in school history.

Arkansas tied a school record by facing five teams during the regular season ranked in the top 15 at the time of the game. In 2006 and 2011, UA played a sixth top-15 team in a bowl game.

Alex Collins became the 2nd Razorback freshman, joining Darren McFadden, 10th SEC true freshman and 68th true freshman in NCAA history to rush for 1,000 yards. The Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., native finished his first collegiate season with 1,026 rushing yards.

Alex Collins was the 11th Razorback and first since Knile Davis in 2010 to rush for 1,000 yards in a season. Collins finished the year with 1,026 yards, the 15th-highest single-season total in school history.

Alex Collins and Jonathan Williams became just the 2nd pair of Razorbacks to rush for at least 900 yards in one season. Darren McFadden and Felix Jones were the only previous pair of teammates to each rush for 900 yards in one season, both topping the mark in 2006 and 2007.

Alex Collins' four 100-yard rushing games tied for 2nd in the NCAA among freshmen. Collins was the only freshman in the SEC with multiple 100-yard rushing games. His four 100-yard rushing games also ranked 2nd on the school's freshman list, behind only Darren McFadden's five from 2005.

Alex Collins ranked 2nd in the SEC and 13th in the NCAA with 355 fourth-quarter rushing yards. He also tied for the conference lead and for 19th in the nation with nine rushes of 10 or more yards in the fourth quarter.

Jonathan Williams' average of 6.0 yards per carry ranked 12th on Arkansas' single-season list.

Hunter Henry ranked 3rd among the NCAA's freshmen tight ends with 409 receiving yards. He gained a first down on 78.6 percent of his receptions, first among SEC tight ends and tied for the 3rd-best percentage overall in the conference, and his average of 14.6 yards per catch ranked 2nd among tight ends in the SEC.

Travis Swanson became the first Razorback to start 50 consecutive games and just the second to start 50 games in a career, joining Jerry Franklin (50, 2008-11).

Kiero Small finished the season with no negative-yard plays among his 40 carries and 19 receptions. He gained a first down or scored a touchdown on 47.5 percent of his rushes.

Brandon Allen's 13 touchdown passes tied for 13th on Arkansas' single-season list.

Chris Smith finished his Arkansas career with 21.5 sacks, which ranks as the 4th-most in school history. Smith also recorded 8.5 sacks during the 2013 season, which ranked 4th in the SEC and tied for 31st nationally. Smith's sack total also tied for the 8th-most in a single season in school history. Smith also tied for 9th in the conference with 11.5 tackles for loss and ranked 2nd in the SEC with 1.23 tackles for loss per game.

Trey Flowers led the team and tied for 4th in the SEC and for 54th nationally with 13.5 tackles for loss in 2013. Flowers also tied for 2nd in the conference with three forced fumbles.

Alan Turner led the team and ranked 7th in the conference with 97 tackles. Turner averaged 8.1 tackles per game, which was the 7th-highest average in the SEC.

Zach Hocker finished his Razorback career as the school's record holder in total points with 354, points scored by a kicker with 354, field goal percentage with a 77.2 percent success rate, PATs made with 171, PAT attempts with 173. Hocker also tied the school record for career field goals made with 61.

Zach Hocker closed his collegiate career ranking 6th in SEC history in PATs made, 7th in PAT attempts, 8th in points scored, tied for 10th in field goals made and 17th in field goal percentage.

Zach Hocker made three field goals in 2013 that rank among the 15 longest in school history. Hocker converted a 54 yarder vs. Mississippi State, which ranks as the 8th-longest in school history. He made a 53 yarder vs. Samford, which was tied for the 9th-longest in school annals. Hocker also made a 51-yard field goal at Ole Miss, which was tied for the 15th-longest in school history.

Zach Hocker recorded a touchback on 34 of his 50 kickoff attempts in 2013 and averaged 63.2 yards per kickoff. Hocker ranks 4th in the conference and 16th nationally in average yards per kickoff, 8th in the conference and 33rd nationally in total touchbacks and 2nd in the SEC and 5th nationally with a touchback percentage of 68 percent.

Dan Skipper blocked a school-record three field goal attempts during the 2013 season. Skipper is the only player in the SEC and one of eight players nationally to have at least three blocked kicks this season. Skipper's three blocked field goals are tied for the 2nd-highest single-season total in SEC history and for the 8th-highest single-season total in NCAA history. Only 22 teams in the country have more blocked kicks, including punts, than Skipper.

Zach Hocker and Sam Irwin-Hill each had punts in 2013 that ranked among the five longest in the country. Irwin-Hill had a 79-yard punt vs. South Carolina, which is the 2nd-longest in the country this season and tied for the 7th-longest punt in school history. Hocker had a 77-yard punt at Rutgers, tied for the 5th-longest in the country and tied for the 13th-longest in school history.

Sam Irwin-Hill averaged 44.3 yard per punt, which ranks 4th in the conference and 14th nationally. Irwin-Hill placed 20 punts inside the 20-yard line, which was the 4th-highest total in the league.

Korliss Marshall gained 422 yards on 19 kickoff returns, the 11th-highest total in the SEC and 3rd-highest in the conference with less than 20 returns.
