ANDERSON TRAINING CENTER

Tennessee's state-of-the-art Anderson Training Center is one of the most modern and functional buildings of its kind.

The 145,000-square foot building includes an amphitheater-style team room, coaches' offices, position meeting rooms, a dining hall, players' lounge, a 7,000-square foot locker room, a 22,000-square foot, multi-level weight room as well as a new training room and hydrotherapy area.

The building also features several technological upgrades, including a state-of-the-art video delivery system for players and coaches. The locker room features roomy, custom-built and ventilated lockers with electrical outlets for charging portable devices like cellphones, iPods and laptops.

The Anderson Training Center joins with the Brenda Lawson Athletic Center and Neyland-Thompson Sports Center. It provides student-athletes direct access to both the 120-yard indoor football field and Haslam Field, Tennessee's two outdoor football practice fields.

BUTCH JONES

HEAD COACH

SECOND SEASON AT TENNESSEE
FERRIS STATE '90

The University of Tennessee announced on Dec. 7, 2012 the hiring of Butch Jones as the 24th head football coach of the Vols. Jones owns a 55-34 record (.618) in seven seasons as a head coach, and his teams have earned bowl appearances in five of his seven seasons as a head coach. Jones is 34-18 (.654) in conference play and both 44-2 when leading at halftime and 45-3 when leading after three quarters.

Jones joined UT from the University of Cincinnati, where he finished with a 23-14 record (.657) in three seasons with the Bearcats.

In his first season on Rocky Top, the Vols defeated No. 11/9 South Carolina, the first win for UT over a ranked opponent since 2009. Tennessee also rushed for 2,261 yards, the most for the Vols since 2004 and their second-highest total since 1999. The Vols' opportunistic defense in 2013 forced 25 turnovers, tied for the second-most by a UT defense since 2005. UT also played the toughest schedule in the nation in 2013, including seven ranked teams.

Jones and his staff have been relentless on the recruiting trail since arriving in Knoxville. In February 2014, Tennessee signed a consensus top 10 recruiting class that was ranked as high as top five by most media outlets. Jones has prioritized the state of Tennessee in his recruiting efforts, and the recent class featured the overwhelming majority of the top talent in the state of Tennessee signing with the Vols.

Jones was also the head coach for three years at Central Michigan (27-13, .675, from 2007-09). He has won at least eight games in five of his six years as a head coach, including three seasons of nine-plus wins in the last four years (2009, 2011, 2012). Jones also has won 10 or more games twice, finishing 11-2 at Central Michigan in 2009 and posting a 10-3 record and top 25 final national ranking with Cincinnati in 2011. Jones has also finished the season ranked in the top 25 in three of the last four seasons (2009 with Central Michigan and 2011 and 2012 at Cincinnati).

Jones has won four conference championships in his seven seasons as a head coach, including the Big East title in 2011 and 2012 with Cincinnati and the 2007 and 2009

4 Conf. Titles

Mid-American Conference titles at Central Michigan. He earned Big East Conference Coach of the Year honors from the league after his 10-win season with the Bearcats in 2011 and earned the same honor from CBSSports.com in 2012, a year in which the 2012 Cincinnati squad captured its second consecutive bowl victory while also finishing with a top 25 ranking. The Bearcats finished the regular season 9-3 with a 5-2 record in the Big East to share the conference crown.

A staple of Jones's programs has been success in the classroom, and that has certainly continued during his time at Tennessee. The Vols also recorded an exemplary performance in the classroom, posting the highest GPA for a Spring semester in program history and the second-highest GPA in UT annals during a Fall semester since sport-by-sport data began to be recorded in 2003. The team also posted the best APR scores in program history in both semesters, including a perfect 1000 score in Spring 2013 and no eligibility points lost in either semester.

A total of 46 players posted a 3.0 GPA in Spring 2013, with 40 accomplishing this during the season in the Fall 2013 semester. Additionally, of the 24 student-athletes in the senior class during the 2013 season, 23 either already have their degree or are on track to do so by December 2014 (96%).

In 2011, Cincinnati was the only program nationally to win both its conference championship and its league top academic honor, earning the 2010-11 Big East Team Academic Excellence Award. Also that same year, JK Schaffer of the Bearcats named the 2011 American Eagle Outfitters Big East Football Scholar-Athlete of the Year, the second consecutive UC player to earn that honor (John Goebel in 2010).

Additionally, Jones ranks second among all coaches of NCAA FBS programs in turnovers forced over the last three seasons since 2011 with 86 during that time span. Jones' teams have won 20 games that were within four points at the half, tied for second among all coaches since 2007 and trailing only Frank Beamer's 21.

The 2011 Cincinnati team that finished 10-3 improved six wins from the 4-8 finish in 2010, making the Bearcats the most improved team from a BCS automatic-qualifying conference in the nation that season. Cincinnati also recorded its first bowl win over a BCS opponent, defeating Vanderbilt 31-24 in the Liberty Bowl.

The 2011 Cincinnati team led the nation in tackles for loss (8.62 per game) while ranking second in sacks (3.46), sixth in rushing defense (96.2), and 20th in scoring defense (20.31). The Bearcats also led the Big East and ranked ninth in turnover margin (0.92) while the team's 33 turnovers forced were tied for fourth nationally. Offensively, the Bearcats ranked second in the conference in rushing yardage (178.5 ypg) while scoring an average of 33.3 points per game.

Cincinnati placed eight players on the All-Big East Conference team from 2011-12, including Big East Offensive Player of the Year Isaiah Pead and Big East Co-Defensive Player of the Year Derek Wolfe in 2011. Pead closed out his UC career with consecutive 1,000-yard seasons, the first time a Bearcat back has accomplished that in almost 25 years.

Before accepting the head coaching position at Cincinnati, Jones's 27-13 record at Central Michigan included a pair of MAC titles, three consecutive bowl appearances, and a No. 23 postseason ranking in 2009. The Chippewas were 22-3 in the MAC during his tenure, and he was the only head coach to lead the program to consecutive bowl games as well as the first in the history of the MAC to do so in his first three seasons.

In addition to coaching Pittsburgh Steelers Pro Bowl receiver Antonio Brown at Central Michigan, one of Jones' players while coaching the Chippewas, offensive lineman Eric Fisher, was drafted No. 1 overall in the 2013 NFL Draft by the Kansas City Chiefs. Jones recruited Fisher to join the CMU 2009 where he went on to a decorated career. Joining Fisher in Kansas City was another Jones product, Travis Kelce who was selected in the third round after playing at Cincinnati.

Jones was the wide receivers coach at West Virginia from 2005-06 before he moved to Central Michigan, during which time the Mountaineers went a combined 22-3 and the 2005 squad defeated Georgia in the Sugar Bowl. He served as an assistant at Central Michigan for seven years from 1998-2004, as offensive coordinator (2002-04), running backs coach (1999-2004), and as tight ends coach (1998). Jones was also the offensive coordinator at Ferris State from 1995-97 and at Wilkes University from 1993-94 and also served as an assistant at Rutgers from 1990-92.

Jones is a 1990 graduate of Ferris State University in Michigan, where he was a two-year letterman on the football team. His original entry into the coaching ranks was as an intern with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers from 1987-89.

THIRD SEASON AT TENNESSEE TENNESSEE '90

- Antone Davis is entering his third season as the Vol For Life Coordinator for the football team
- A Tennessee football All-American and longtime NFL offensive tackle Antone Davis returned to UT after more than two decades after he played with the Vols and earned the Jacobs Blocking Trophy in his senior season of 1990
- Davis spent seven years in the NFL with the Philadelphia Eagles and Atlanta Falcons, playing from 1991-97. He started 87 of his 97 NFL games on the offensive line. Davis was a first-round draft pick by the Philadelphia Eagles in 1991, who selected him eighth overall
- With the Vols, Davis manned the outside of a highly touted offensive line, lettering from 1987-90. He earned the Jacobs Blocking Award as the SEC's top blocker in his All-American season of 1990. Davis helped create holes for tailback Tony Thompson in 1990, allowing him to rush for 1,261 yards that season. Davis was a part of two SEC Championship teams, in 1989 and 1990. The Vols captured three bowl games in his tenure, winning the 1991 Sugar Bowl over Virginia, the 1990 Cotton Bowl over Arkansas and the 1988 Peach Bowl over Indiana. The Volunteers were ranked eighth in the final AP bowl of his senior season in 1990 and fifth in his junior year of 1989

- The ultimate goal of the VFL program is to reshape the culture of the program into one that produces not only great players and teams, but even greater men
- A native of Fort Valley, Ga., Davis and his wife, Carrie, currently live in Knoxville and have four children, Cailyn, Dakota, Braden and Carley

JOE HARRINGTON

SPORTS TECHNOLOGY COORDINATOR

24TH SEASON AT TENNESSEE
TENNESSEE '90

• Joe Harrington enters his 24th season at Tennessee as the Vols' sports technology coordinator

• His primary responsibilities include compiling and editing game and practice tapes for coaching analysis, cataloging game tapes and producing "cut-ups." He also manages all equipment and design of the video department, including the team's state-of-the-art XOS Technologies editing system

• A Camillus, N.Y., native, Harrington graduated from UT in 1990 with a communications degree. The College Sports Video Association has named him SEC Video Coordinator of the Year three times (1997, 1998 and 2003)

• Harrington and his wife, the former Tammy Mulling, have three children: Connor, Abigail and Hayden Jane. Tammy recently was appointed Blount County Circuit Court Judge by Tennessee Gov. Bill Haslam, becoming the first woman to serve as a judge in the Blount County judicial system

CONDREDGE HOLLOWAY

ASST. AD/STUDENT-ATHLETE RELATIONS

17TH SEASON AT TENNESSEE
TENNESSEE '91

• Condredge Holloway is in his 17th year on the Tennessee staff and continues to serve as a vital link between the current Vols football staff and its storied history

• UT's Assistant Athletics Director for Student-Athlete Relations and Letterman also is one of the most celebrated players in school history

• In 2011, Holloway's amazing career was the subject of an ESPN documentary, "The Color Orange: The Condredge Holloway Story," produced by Kenny Chesney. It recounted the life and playing days of the SEC's first African-American starting quarterback

• Holloway primarily serves as the department's liaison with the Lettermen's Club, assisting with reunions and other projects. Holloway also is the point person for numerous issues surrounding the conduct of a major college football program. Holloway has taken great pride in helping former Vols find their niche in the business world by assisting them with contacts and employment opportunities following graduation

• Holloway remains associated in the minds of Tennessee fans with the razzle-dazzle offense he quarterbacked during his undergraduate days of the 1970s

• Nicknamed "The Artful Dodger," Holloway packed excitement into every play, whether it developed into a pass or a scramble

• In his three seasons (1972-74) as a starter, Holloway directed the Vols to the 1972 Astro-Bluebonnet, 1973 Gator and 1974 Liberty bowls and an overall record of 25-9-2. He ended his career with the best interception-to-attempt ratio in Tennessee history, throwing just 12 interceptions in 407 collegiate attempts

• In addition to being the first black quarterback at Tennessee and in the Southeastern Conference, Holloway also was the first black baseball player in UT history

• The outstanding prospect had been selected out of high school by the Montreal Expos with their first overall pick. Holloway opted instead for a two-sport collegiate career and went on to excel on the diamond. He garnered All-SEC and All-America honors as a shortstop in 1975 and finished with a .353 career batting average

• Holloway -- still the owner of UT's longest hitting streak at 27 games -- was selected to Tennessee's All-Century Baseball Team, making him the only UT student-athlete named to all-century squads in both baseball and football

• Holloway left Knoxville and played 13 seasons in the Canadian Football League, compiling impressive numbers for the Ottawa Rough Riders (1975-80), Toronto Argonauts (1981-86) and British Columbia Lions (1987). He threw for more than 25,000 yards and rushed for another 3,167 while scoring 155 touchdowns. He was league MVP in 1982

• After his professional playing days ended, Holloway returned to UT and earned his degree

• In addition to his induction in Alabama Sports Hall of Fame, Holloway is a member of the Canadian Football Hall of Fame, Tennessee Sports Hall of Fame and the Tennessee Baseball Hall of Fame, among others

• Holloway is married to the former Courtney Haralson of Meigs County and is the father of Jasmine and Condredge III

• Allison Maurer's commitment to excellence in sports nutrition is a big part of the Tennessee winning edge

• Maurer is one of only 21 full-time Sports Dietitians at the NCAA Division I level. She is responsible for all nutrition education with the Vols and Lady Vols athletes

• As part of her duties, Maurer conducts grocery-shopping tours for student-athletes, weight-gain and weight-loss programs and performance nutrition -- what Maurer calls "fueling for performance"

• She handles meal planning for football and assists with meal planning for baseball, women's basketball, women's swimming and rowing. Maurer works closely with Team ENHANCE and Team EXCEL in working with eating disorders, disordered eating, and substance abuse. She conducts body composition testing for various sports teams and educates athletes on how to fuel to improve body composition

• Maurer also teaches an undergraduate nutrition class, "Sports Nutrition for Athletes," while handling the budgeting, ordering and distribution of NCAA-compliant nutritional supplements for all UT sports

• The Holland, Mich., native began her work with the Vols and Lady Vols in October 2007 after three years at Colorado. Her responsibilities there were as sports nutritionist for all programs and assistant strength and conditioning coach for football, tennis, golf and cheerleading

• Maurer earned her undergraduate degree in nutrition and dietetics from Olivet Nazarene University in 2002. She completed her master's in nutrition and her dietetic internship from Georgia State University in 2003

• She and her husband, Dan, of Addison, Ill., are the parents of Manny, Emilio and Nico

DR. JIMMY G. CHEEK

UT KNOXVILLE CHANCELLOR

SIXTH YEAR AT TENNESSEE
TEXAS A&M '69

Dr. Jimmy G. Cheek became the seventh chancellor of the University of Tennessee, Knoxville, on Feb. 1, 2009.

Through his leadership, the campus is focused on improving the student's educational experience, enhancing faculty research and scholarship as well as outreach and service. A first-generation college student, Dr. Cheek has set in motion several initiatives to broaden UT Knoxville's diversity and student access to the university.

As the state's flagship research campus, UT Knoxville is currently ranked as a Top 50 public institution. In early 2010, the campus launched its quest to become one of the Top 25 public research universities in the nation. It helped solidify strategies for growing the research base and graduate programs, improving graduation rates and attracting and retaining top faculty.

Dr. Cheek chairs the Board of the International Fertilizer Development Center Advisory Committee, a new global research effort to develop and commercialize clean, environmentally sustainable, cost-effective and renewable fertilizers for the developing world. He serves of the board of directors for the Association of Public and Land Grant Universities (APLU), as chairman of the group's Commission on Food, Environment and Renewable Resources and as a member of the APLU Presidential Advisory Committee on Energy. He serves on the UT-Battelle Board of Governors, the UT Health Sciences Center Board of Directors, the Tennessee Higher Education Commission Master Plan Steering Committee and the UT Athletics Board of Directors.

Prior to his UT appointment, Dr. Cheek was a member of the faculty and an administrator at the University of Florida for 34 years, last serving as senior vice president of agricultural and natural resources.

Dr. Cheek earned his bachelor's degree with high honors and his doctorate from Texas A&M University. He received his master's degree from Lamar University. A native of Texas, he is married to Ileen, and they have two children and two grandchildren.

DR. DONALD BRUCE

FACULTY ATHLETIC REPRESENTATIVE

16TH YEAR AT TENNESSEE
DREW UNIVERSITY '94

Donald Bruce is the Douglas and Brenda Horne Professor of Business in the Center for Business and Economic Research (CBER) and the Department of Economics at the University of Tennessee, Knoxville.

He joined the UTK faculty in 1999 after receiving his M.A. and Ph.D. in Economics from Syracuse University and his B.A. with honors in Economics from Drew University.

As a CBER economist, Dr. Bruce regularly provides objective, non-partisan policy research and evaluation under contracts with an array of government agencies at the federal and state levels. His recent work in CBER has included an ongoing evaluation of Tennessee's welfare program, Families First, for the Tennessee Department of Human Services, an analysis of teacher supply and demand in Tennessee for the Governor's Office of Education Policy, and a forecast of expenditures on Tennessee Education Lottery Scholarships for the Tennessee Higher Education Commission.

In addition to his CBER research, Dr. Bruce studies the economic and behavioral effects of tax policies on such things as small business activity and owner-occupied housing. His work has been presented and published in a variety of academic journals, edited volumes, and professional meetings. He has testified before Congress on the topic of internet taxation, and he presented his work on taxes and small business activity before the President's Advisory Panel on Federal Tax Reform in 2005.

Dr. Bruce regularly teaches graduate and undergraduate courses on the economics of taxation and the economics of health and health care. He has recently served as the Director of Graduate Studies in Economics and the Director of the Undergraduate Major in Public Administration. Before becoming Faculty Athletics Representative, Dr. Bruce served for two years as chair of the Athletics Board's Fiscal Integrity and Long-Range Planning Committee. He has also served as chair of the UTK Faculty Senate's Budget and Planning Committee. Dr. Bruce is an active member of the National Tax Association, the International Institute of Public Finance, and the American, Southern, and Western Economic Associations. His community service has included numerous economic and policy presentations for state and local organizations, volunteer assistance for the Blount County 4-H Program, and a three-year term on the Board of Directors of the Lisa Ross Birth and Women's Center, with two of those years as Treasurer.

Dr. Bruce lives in Walland, Tenn, with his wife Jennifer, a mathematics professor at Maryville College, and their daughter Annie, age 5.

DAVE HART

VICE CHANCELLOR/DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

FOURTH YEAR AT TENNESSEE
ALABAMA '71

The University of Tennessee named Dave Hart vice chancellor and director of athletics on Sept. 5, 2011. Hart has held leadership roles in athletics administration at East Carolina University, Florida State University and the University of Alabama.

"Dave has done an excellent job of positioning our athletics department to achieve excellence both on and off the field," said Chancellor Jimmy G. Cheek. "The achievements of our student-athletes are a point of pride for our university, I am especially proud of their record performance in the classroom."

Among the many challenges and goals being addressed in the first two years of his tenure at Tennessee, Hart has led efforts which included the following:

- Restructured the athletics department to provide for greater efficiency.
- Redefined the athletic department Mission Statement, Vision and Values to focus on the student-athlete.
- Created a new Governance Structure going through a "right-sizing" effort in conjunction with the implementation of combining the men and women's athletic programs into one while setting a direction and vision for all units within the department.
- The Compliance Department has been reorganized and capital projects have been reprioritized to dovetail into a strategic plan for the future.
- Policies and procedures have been strengthened throughout the department, as has overall communication.
- Fan experience enhancement options at Neyland Stadium and Thompson-Boling Arena have been prioritized.
- Launched the Campaign for Comprehensive Excellence, creating an opportunity for donors to partner with the athletic program toward achievement of this collective goal, prioritizing capital projects.

"It is an honor to serve in this leadership role at the University of Tennessee," Hart said. "Our mission to inspire student-athletes to achieve comprehensive excellence is one that everyone in our athletics department strives for every day. I am proud of the positive energy that our staff, coaches and student-athletes are generating. I am optimistic about what is on the horizon. The future is bright for Tennessee Athletics."

In December, Hart hired Butch Jones from the University of Cincinnati as the head football coach at the University of Tennessee. Since assuming his new role, Jones has brought a renewed sense of energy and optimism.

Hart also hired Holly Warlick to follow the legendary Pat Summitt as the head coach of Tennessee's women's basketball program, and Warlick led the Lady Vols to the SEC championship, an Elite Eight appearance, and a 27-8 record in her first season.

In 2012-13, Tennessee also won national championships in three events and finished third nationally in women's swimming and diving under Matt Kredich, the former UT women's coach whom Hart chose to lead a combined men's and women's swimming and diving program. Hart also hired Brian Pensky to lead the Tennessee soccer program, and the squad made an NCAA tournament appearance in Pensky's first season.

In just under two years at Tennessee, Hart has worked with Chancellor Jimmy Cheek, Provost Susan Martin, and Vice Chancellor for Finance and Administration Chris Cimino to strengthen the long-term financial model for Tennessee Athletics while making considerable strides in improving the academic support structure for UT student-athletes, including the hiring of Dr. Joe Scogin as senior associate athletics director and assistant provost to lead the Thornton Student Life Center.

Comprehensive athletic success exemplified Hart's tenure as the Florida State athletic director, as a combined 35 ACC Championships were won by 10 different Seminole athletic programs during his tenure. Additionally, the Seminole football team won nine ACC titles and appeared in four national championship games, winning the 1999 BCS National Championship with a Sugar Bowl victory over Virginia Tech.

The men's outdoor track and field team also claimed two national championships during his tenure, while the baseball program appeared in the College World Series five times and the softball program won nine ACC titles and played in the Women's College World Series. During Hart's last year at Florida State, the Seminoles finished 15th in the Directors' Cup, an all-time high for the institution at that time.

Additionally, during Hart's three years at Alabama, the Crimson Tide football team claimed the 2009 BCS National Championship and the individual athletic teams posted a combined eight top-three finishes nationally over the last three years. Hart has more than 20 years of service as a director of athletics.

Highly respected as a visionary and industry leader, Hart's career has featured service as the president of both the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics and the Division IA Athletics Directors' Association. A former recipient of the Robert R. Neyland Award honoring lifetime achievement, Hart has also been named by his colleagues as the Athletic Director of the Year for the Southeast Region in both 2000 and 2005, one of a few select individuals to receive the honor multiple times.

During his 13 years at Florida State, Hart negotiated unprecedented, multi-million dollar contracts for the department totaling in excess of $175 million. He also devised and executed an extensive and comprehensive facilities master plan for athletics that eclipsed the $150 million mark. Hart initiated a multi-faceted Student Development/Life Skills program for all student-athletes at FSU, an endeavor recognized nationally as a "Program of Excellence" by the Division I-A Athletics Directors' Association. He spearheaded the rewriting of the department's mission statement to put the student-athlete at the core of athletic department priorities in its goal to build comprehensive excellence throughout all components of the department.

"Dave is as good an athletic director as there is in the country," legendary Florida State Head Football Coach Bobby Bowden said. "He's as sharp of an AD as I've been around in 57 years. He knows what's important, and he's a builder."

In recognizing Hart's position within intercollegiate athletics,

ACC Commissioner John Swofford said, "Dave Hart is one of the best and most respected athletics administrators in the business. He thoroughly understands the nuances of major college athletics, and he has superb values to go along with his vast experience in the field. He is a proven leader at the conference and national levels."

While at FSU, Hart made many key hires, including the hiring of FSU's first two African-American basketball coaches, including current men's coach Leonard Hamilton, as well as their first African-American senior-level administrator. Under Hart's direction, FSU formalized a varsity club to encourage the participation of former student-athletes in athletic department activities. He also placed a significant focus on the growth of women's athletics at FSU, a commitment reflected in increased funding, competitive success and facility upgrades.

Academic success also accompanied Hart's time at FSU, as the school became home to the inaugural National Student-Athlete of the Year, a State of Florida Woman of the Year recipient, and two Rhodes Scholars. A record number of FSU student-athletes made the ACC Academic Honor Roll, were recipients of NCAA post-graduate scholarship awards and obtained degrees. Student-athlete community service involvement became a priority under Hart with student-athletes contributing more than 5,000 hours in community outreach projects.

Hart has also earned the Athletics Directors' Award for advancing the quality and progress of student-athletes and the athletics program while at Florida State. In 2008, he received the James J. Corbett Award, the highest honor bestowed by National Association of College Directors of Athletics.

Hart's commitment to service includes considerable time on numerous national and conference committees, including the NCAA Council, the NCAA Honors and Awards Committee and the NCAA Special Events and Postseason Bowls Committee, and he has been a consultant to the NCAA Student-Athlete Advisory Council.

Hart was one of 11 athletic directors nationally who worked with an advisory group of athletic directors to presidents and conference commissioners in ongoing meetings and discussions regarding post-season football format options and similar issues related to the football postseason. In addition to his prominent leadership roles nationally, Hart chaired and had direct involvement with the renegotiations of both of the ACC's football and basketball television contracts and chaired the ACC Television Committee as well as the ACC Men's Basketball and Football committees.

He also served as Chairman of the NCAA Football Board of Directors where he represented NACDA and served with commissioners of Division I-A conferences as well as past NCAA President Myles Brand.

Hart served as Executive Director of Athletics at Alabama from August 2008 until accepting his leadership role with the Volunteers. A 1971 Alabama graduate, Hart played basketball for the Crimson Tide under legendary head coach C.M. Newton and earned a master's degree from UA in 1972 while working as a graduate assistant basketball coach.

A popular speaker at the national level, Hart has made numerous speaking presentations nationally and presented seminars on such topics as student-athlete welfare, marketing, gender equity, facility master planning, negotiation skills and personnel transition. He was an instructor at the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics Management Institute for 10 years and currently is an annual presenter at the Division I-A Athletics Directors' Institute sharing with peers his knowledge and experiences relating to athletics administration.

Hart met his wife, the former Pam Humble, while at Alabama. Pam is a 1970 graduate of The University of Alabama, and the couple has three children: Rick, who serves currently as the athletic director at SMU, Jamie and Kelly. The Harts are the grandparents of five grandchildren: Trevor, Caroline, McKinley, Olivia and Kingsley.

REVIEW

TENNESSEE VOLUNTEERS (5-7, 2-6 SEC)

2013 SEASON REVIEW

THE BASICS

Record: 5-7 (2-6 SEC)

VOLUNTEER STAT LEADERS

RUSHING	Rajion Neal - 215-1, 163, 12 TD, 93.7 ypg
PASSING	Justin Worley - 109-196, 1239 yds., 10 TD/8 INT, 154.9 ypg
RECEIVING	Alton Howard - 44-388, 3 TD, 35.3 ypg
DEFENSIVE	A.J. Johnson - 106 tkls, 8.5 TFL, 3 QBH

The 2013 Tennessee football team finished with a 5-7 record under Head Coach Butch Jones during his first season at the helm of the Volunteer program. This was the third consecutive year the Vols have finished with that record.

The Vols excitingly ended a 19-game losing streak to ranked opponents with a 23-21 victory over No. 11 South Carolina at home on Oct. 19 while earning Butch Jones his first SEC victory as Vols head coach. The previous last win for UT over a ranked team was vs. then-No. 21 South Carolina on Oct. 31, 2009.

The win over South Carolina also marked the first over an AP Top 15 team since defeating the then-No. 15 Gamecocks on Oct. 27, 2007, a 27-24 overtime win.

The Vols finished 2-6 in the conference, the most wins in the conference for UT since a 3-5 finish in 2010. Tennessee also snapped an 11-game SEC road losing streak and a 12-game road losing streak overall since 2010 with a 27-14 season-ending win over Kentucky.

The win over Kentucky also marked the 30th time in the last 31 seasons that Tennessee has won its last scheduled game of the regular season.

Tennessee also held the lead over No. 6 Georgia late in the game before a 34-31 overtime loss to the Bulldogs on Oct. 5.

TEAM NOTES

SCHEDULE NOTES

■ According to NCAA.com, Tennessee played the toughest schedule of NCAA Division I FBS team this season, as opponents posted a cumulative .658 winning pct.

▲ Toughest Schedule by Opp. Winning Pct., 2013

Team (Ranked Opponents in 2013)	Pct.
TENNESSEE (7)	.658
Purdue (4)	.643
Georgia (5)	.637
Mississippi State (5)/Virginia (2)	.634

■ Tennessee played arguably the most difficult schedule in the nation in 2013, facing off against seven ranked opponents, the most in the nation during the regular season.

▲ Most AP-Ranked Opponents, 2013 Regular Season

7: TENNESSEE

6: Stanford*

5: Arizona State, Auburn*, Georgia, Missouri*, UCLA

*Stanford played a 7th ranked team in the postseason (Pac-12 Championship Game, vs. Arizona State for the 2nd time in 2013). The Auburn vs. Missouri postseason matchup in the SEC Championship Game was the sixth ranked opponent for each.

■ In 1991, UT played a previous school-record six ranked teams in the regular season (#21 UCLA, #23 Mississippi St., #13 Auburn, at #10 Florida, at #14 Alabama, at #5 Notre Dame). UT also played #6 Penn State in the Fiesta Bowl that season.

■ According to Stats, Inc., UT is the first team since Pitt in 1993 to play seven ranked teams in an eight-game span.

■ This season is the first since 2005 that UT has played four ranked teams on the road, all consecutively (1995: #6 Florida, #4 LSU, #5 Alabama, #8 Notre Dame).

TOP 10...

■ The Vols also played five of the top 10 in the final BCS rankings: #2 Auburn, #3 Alabama, #8 Missouri, #9 South Carolina, and #10 Oregon.

■ With consecutive games against #1 Alabama, #10 Missouri, and #7 Auburn, Tennessee played three consecutive top 10 opponents for the first time since 1964 (#3 Alabama, at #7 LSU, #7 Georgia Tech).

■ The Vols tied the school record for the most top 10 opponents in a single season with five (also: at #2 Oregon, #6 Georgia). UT also played five Top 10 foes in 2005 (at #6 Florida, at #4 LSU, #5 Georgia, at #5 Alabama, at #8 Notre Dame).

VICTORY #800 FOR THE VOLS

■ The victory over Austin Peay in the season opener was the 800th in the history of the Tennessee program, and only seven schools in NCAA history have more wins.

4. 2007	1,946	9. 2005	1,411
5. 2012	1,924	10. 2011	1,081

■ This season also marks only the third 2,000-yard rushing season for Tennessee since 2000. The Vols reached the milestone with a 2,418-yard effort in 2004.

■ The 2,261 yards rushing eclipses UT's full-season rushing total of the last eight consecutive seasons (2005-12). UT rushed for 200-plus yards in five games this season, their most since posting seven 200-yard rushing efforts in 2004.

THE GRADUATES

■ A total of 10 Tennessee football players graduated this December: TE Joseph Ayres, OL Alex Bullard, DL Maurice Couch, WR/H Tyler Drummer, LB Gregory Grieco, DL Daniel Hood, OL Ja'Wuan James, DB Byron Moore, PK/P Michael Palardy, and DL Marlon Walls.

■ Three other Vols played the 2013 season having already received their degrees: LS J.R. Carr, LB Greg King, and WR Dylan West.

ALL-AMERICAN SELECTIONS

■ Junior OL Antonio Richardson earned his first ever All-American honors from CBSports.com marking the second straight season that a Vol OL has earned the distinction from CBSports.com.

ALL-CONFERENCE SELECTIONS

■ LB A.J. Johnson earned First Team All-SEC honors from both the AP and the league's coaches. Johnson is the first UT linebacker to earn first team distinction since Jerod Mayo in 1997.

■ OL Antonio Richardson was named to the second team in both All-SEC squads as well, while OL Ja'Wuan James was named Second Team All-SEC by the AP. Richardson announced his intention to enter the NFL Draft on Dec. 6, and earned Second Team All-SEC honors for the second consecutive year.

■ PK/P Michael Palardy earned Second Team All-SEC accolades from the league's coaches, the first kicker or punter to earn any form of All-SEC distinction since PK Daniel Lincoln and P Britton Colquitt were both named Second Team All-SEC in 2007.

■ WR Marquez North and DB Cameron Sutton were named to the SEC's All-Freshman squad.

TURNSTILE TICKER

■ In seven home games, a total of 669,087 fans attended Tennessee games at Neyland Stadium, an average attendance of 95,584 per game. UT ranked sixth in average attendance and eighth in total attendance nationally this season. The average attendance of 95,584 is a 6.2% increase from the 2012 full-season total of 89,965.

▲ 2013 FBS Season Home Attendance By Average

Team	Avg.	Home Games	Total
1. Michigan	111,592	7	781,144
2. Ohio State	104,933	7	734,528

5. Penn State	96,587	7	676,112
6. TENNESSEE	95,584	7	669,087

■ Additionally, student attendance was up by an average of nearly 2,300 fans per game, an increase of 31.5% from the 2012 season.

■ Tennessee drew sellout crowds of 102,455 against both Georgia and Auburn, the 18th consecutive year in which Neyland Stadium has seen a 100,000-plus crowd. Only Michigan (39 consecutive seasons since 1975) has a longer streak nationally of consecutive years with at least one game of 100,000-plus attendance.

■ The season-opening crowd of 97,169 against Austin Peay was nearly 10,000 more than the 2012 home opener (87,821).

MR. CONSISTENCY

■ By making his 49th career start on Nov. 30 vs. Kentucky, senior offensive lineman Ja'Wuan James set the Tennessee record for most career starts by an offensive lineman. James eclipses the previous mark of 48, set by Jeff Smith from 1992-95.

■ James has started every game at right tackle since the season opener his freshman year in 2010, and finishes his career tied for second in career games played by an offensive lineman, trailing only the 50 played by Dallas Thomas (2009-12).

TURNOVER TALES

■ UT finished 4th in the SEC in turnovers forced this season with 25. The Vols were +1 in turnover margin this season.

■ The 25 turnovers forced are tied with the 2007 team for the second-most for Tennessee over the last nine seasons since 2005. UT forced 28 turnovers in 2010.

■ UT ranked tied for 2nd in the SEC with 11 fumble recoveries, while the Vols were tied for 5th in interceptions with 15.

■ The 25 turnovers forced represented an increase from a year ago, when UT forced only 18 turnovers.

TRIO OF STARTING QB'S

■ For the second time in three seasons, Tennessee has utilized three starting quarterbacks in a season.

■ Back in 2011, Tyler Bray, Matt Simms and Justin Worley all started games for the Vols, with Worley making his debut as a true freshman.

■ Before 2011, the last time the Vols had three starting QB's in a season was 2004 when Brent Schaeffer, Erik Ainge and Rick Clausen started.

■ Since 1980, the Vols have started three quarterbacks in a season seven times.

■ WR Marquez North and DB Cameron Sutton became the 10th and 11th players to start as true freshmen in a season opener for UT since 2004 while Josh Smith became the third true freshman to start this season earning a start at Oregon (Sept. 14).

■ UT had 33 starts by true freshmen in 2013: Sutton (12), North (11), Joshua Dobbs (4), Josh Smith (4), Devaun Swafford (2).

■ North was the first true freshmen to start the season opener at receiver since Marsalis Teague in 2009 vs. Western Kentucky, while Sutton is the first true freshman defensive back to start a season opener since fellow cornerback starter Justin Coleman in 2011 vs. Montana.

RED ZONE DEFENSE

■ Tennessee ranked third in the SEC and 15th in FBS this season in red zone defense. Opponents scored at a 73.5% rate in the red zone, trailing only Alabama (63.6%) and Auburn (70.8%) in the league this season.

■ The 73.5% red zone defense percentage was the highest for the Vols in the last nine seasons. Tennessee allowed a 71.4% scoring pct. in the red zone during the 2004 season.

■ Tennessee was tied for the second-most red zone turnovers forced in the NCAA with six. Middle Tennessee led with seven.

3. 9:23 (1)	Devaun Swofford (DB) 62-yd INT	UF
4. 1:28 (2)	Jacques Smith (DL) 18-yd INT	AUB

■ Jacques Smith took the first interception of his career to the house against Auburn (Nov. 9) becoming the fourth Vol with a pick-six this season.

■ Smith was the first Tennessee defensive lineman with an interception returned for a touchdown since Wes Brown's 25-yard pick six vs. Vanderbilt on Nov. 21, 2009.

■ True freshman DB Devaun Swofford returned an interception for a touchdown in the first quarter at Florida, giving the Vols three defensive touchdowns this season (Justin Coleman and Cameron Sutton returned interceptions for touchdowns vs. Western Kentucky).

■ Swofford became the first Vol since Eric Berry to have a pick-six in The Swamp (Sept. 15, 2010).

■ Before Sept. 7, 2013, the last time Tennessee had two pick-sixes in one game came in 2010 vs. Ole Miss, when Eric Gordon took one back 46 yards and Prentiss Waggner returned another 10 yards.

■ Swofford and Sutton are the first UT true freshmen to return an interception for a touchdown in a season since Eric Berry in 2007 at Florida, which was also the last time a true freshman recorded a pick-six vs. Florida.

■ In the last 4:24 of the first quarter, Tennessee's defense forced five Western Kentucky turnovers in a span of six plays over five consecutive series, including four turnovers on consecutive defensive plays.

■ The four consecutive turnovers are an NCAA-record.

1,000-YARD RUSHER

■ Senior RB Rajion Neal finished his Tennessee career with a 134-yard effort in a 27-14, season ending-victory at Kentucky.

■ Neal finished 2013 with a career highs in rushing yards (1,124) and rushing touchdowns (12), becoming the first 1,000-yard rusher for the Vols since Tauren Poole in 2010 (1,034) and the first to do so by the end of the regular season only since Montario Hardesty in 2009.

■ Neal finishes his career 12th on the UT career rushing list with 2,163 yards from 2010-13.

▲ UT Career Rushing Yards

14. Aaron Hayden	1991-94	2,061
15. Stanley Morgan	1973-76	1,952

■ Neal also posted 626 receiving yards in his career and finishes with 19 rushing touchdowns and 25 TDs overall.

■ Neal is just the second Tennessee running back to rush for 2,000+ yards and receive for 600+ yards in his career (Arian Foster - 2,964 rush, 742 receiving)

■ With Neal's 3-yard TD run against Alabama (Oct. 26) he became the first opponent to tally a touchdown against Alabama at Bryant-Denny Stadium in 2013.

■ After tallying 102 yards on 13 carries in the first half, against South Alabama, Rajion Neal finished with a career-high 169 yards and a TD, the most since Montario Hardesty piled up 179 yards vs. Kentucky in 2009.

■ The last Vol to rush for three TDs in a game was also Hardesty, vs. Kentucky on Nov. 28, 2009.

■ It was the third multi-touchdown game of Neal's career, following two-TD efforts vs. his homestate schools Georgia State and Georgia in 2012.

■ Neal's 104 yards in the first quarter were the most rushing yards for a Vol in one quarter since Tauren Poole rushed for 111 against Oregon in 2010 (See chart below for 100 yard rushers in a quarter since 2000)

▲ 100-Yard Rushing Quarters Since 2000

Player	Yards (Q)	Opponent, Year
Cedric Houston	134 (3rd)	at So. Carolina, 2004
Travis Henry	129 (3rd)	vs. Arkansas, 2000

Cedric Houston	102 (3rd)	vs. Marshall, 2003
Travis Stephens	101 (4th)	at Florida, 2001
Travis Henry	100 (3rd)	at Vanderbilt, 2000

■ Against South Alabama, both Neal (53) and backfield mate Marlin Lane (54) raced for 50-yard runs, the first time the Vols had two carries of 50+ yards in the same game since Cedric Houston notched carries of 54 and 65 at South Carolina on Oct. 30, 2004.

■ The last time two different Vols had rushes of 50 or more yards in one game came on Nov. 18, 2000 vs. Kentucky when Travis Stephens had a carry for 80 and Travis Henry toted one for a 53-yard gain.

PIG REELS 'EM IN

■ Sophomore WR Pig Howard caught a career-high 11 passes on the night for the Vols for 89 yards vs. Missouri (Nov. 2).

■ Howard became the first Vol since Mychal Rivera to have 10 catches in a game. Rivera achieved the feat last season against Missouri (Nov. 10, 2012 in a 4OT game, 10 rec. 129 yds. 1 TD).

■ Howard's 11 catches were the most since Kelley Washington had 11 vs. LSU on Sept. 29, 2001. The 11 catches, tied for the fifth-most in a game in Tennessee history.

NORTH TOPPING THE CHARTS

■ With his 38 catches and 496 receiving yards, true freshman Marquez North is in the midst of one of the greatest freshman receiving seasons in Tennessee history.

■ In 2001, Kelley Washington set the standard for a freshman with 64 catches for 1,010 yards.

■ North stands second to Washington's catches by a freshman and third on receiving yards, also behind Stanley Morgan, who had 511 in 1973 in his first season.

▲ UT Receptions By Freshmen

Player	Year	Rec-Yards
1. Kelley Washington	2001	64-1,010
2. Marquez North	2013	38-496
3. Reggie Harper	1977	30-331
4. Robert Meachem (RS)	2004	25-459
5. Keith Davis (RS)	1985	25-168

4. Robert Meachem (RS)	2004	25-459
5. Justin Hunter	2010	16-415
6. Donte' Stallworth	1999	23-407

■ North had his first 100-yard receiving game vs. South Carolina (Oct. 19), catching three key passes for 102 yards.

■ North's performance was the first 100-yard- receiving effort by a Vol rookie since Justin Hunter had 114 vs. Ole Miss on Nov. 13, 2010. That was, consequently, the last time Tennessee beat an SEC school other than Kentucky or Vanderbilt.

DOBBS' DEBUT

■ Joshua Dobbs made his first career start at Missouri (Nov. 2), making his first career start at Neyland Stadium the following week vs. Auburn (Nov. 9).

■ Dobbs finished the night vs. Missouri with 26-of-42 passing for 240 yards while also rushing for 45 yards on seven carries.

■ One of Dobbs' rushes went for 33 yards down the far side of the field, the longest by a Tennessee true quarterback this season and longest since Tee Martin rushed for 38 yards vs. Notre Dame on Nov. 6, 1999.

■ Dobbs' 26 completions were the most by a true freshman in his first start in Tennessee history besting Tyler Bray's 18 vs. Memphis in 2010.

■ His 42 attempts were the most by a true freshman in his debut besting Erik Ainge's 35 vs. Auburn in 2004.

GIVE THAT FRESHMAN 6

■ Marquez North became the fifth different Vol freshman to score a touchdown this season when he hauled in a 19-yard score vs. Georgia (10/5).

■ He joins fellow true freshmen Devaun Swafford (2), A.J. Branisel, Josh Smith and Cameron Sutton as rookies to score touchdowns.

■ With five freshmen scoring TDs this season, that marks the most since the 2001 season when six freshmen (four true and two redshirt) scored.

2013: 5 Devaun Swafford (2), A.J. Branisel, Marquez North, Josh Smith, Cameron Sutton (all true freshmen).

2001: 6 Kelley Washington-RS (5), Jabari Davis (2), Corey Larkins-RS (2), Julian Battle, Cedric Houston, Derrick Tinsley.

LINE EM UP, KNOCK EM DOWN

■ Tennessee has notched 13 through 11 games this year.

■ The Vols have also posted 35 quarterback hurries, including a season-high nine vs. South Alabama (9/28).

■ Marlon Walls leads the team with 4.5 sacks. Walls came into the season with one career sack.

■ True freshman Cameron Sutton registered his first career sack in the first quarter on Auburn's 3rd down and 13 at the Tigers' 37.

■ It was the first sack by a Tennessee DB this season and the first by a UT DB since Prentiss Waggner against South Carolina on Oct. 28, 2011.

■ The Tennessee front seven put the heat on SC QB Connor Shaw (Oct. 19) and forced the senior QB into an 0-for-5 start in pass attempts and a 7-21 day.

■ Walls finished with 2.5 sacks, including a first-quarter sack of Shaw and a sack-and-a-half in the fourth quarter (sharing with senior defensive tackle Daniel McCullers).

DEVIRN DASHES

■ Junior Devrin Young has played in seven games this season after suffering a broken hand after the season opener.

■ Young, who with 74 yards vs. Auburn (Nov. 9) became the seventh Vol with 1,000 career kick return yards, finished the 2013 season fourth on the UT career list with 1,263 kickoff return yards.

▲ UT Career Kickoff Return Yards

3. Corey Larkins	1,307	2001-04
4. Devrin Young	1,263	2011-pres.
5. David Oku	1,175	2009-10

SWAFFORD JOINS THE ELITE LIST

■ After true freshman walk-on Devaun Swafford recovered classmate Jalen Reeves-Maybin's blocked punt and returned it for a touchdown vs. Georgia (Oct. 5), Swafford became just the seventh Vol to have a special teams TD and an INT return for TD (Sept. 21, Florida) in the same season.

■ He was the first true freshman to achieve the feat.

■ Swafford became the first Vol since Dale Carter, who in his first year as a junior college transfer in 1990, returned an interception and a kickoff return for touchdowns.

▶ THE WRAPUP

For the Record

• Tennessee Captains: #14 Justin Worley, #41 Dontavis Sapp, #45 A.J. Johnson, #72 Zach Fauton.

Game Notes

• Tennessee earned its 800th program victory in Butch Jones' first win as head coach of the Vols. UT now 800-354-53 all-time

• Butch Jones became the fourth consecutive Tennessee head coach to make a victorious debut. Jones followed in the footsteps of Phillip Fulmer (1993, 50-0), Lane Kiffin (2009, 63-7) and Derek Dooley (2010, 50-0).

• The victory over Austin Peay marks the fifth consecutive win in a season opener since 2009.

• The Vols claimed their 18th-consecutive win to open the season at home dating to a 26-26 tie vs. UCLA in 1985.

• Ten true freshmen made their Tennessee debuts while 12 others played in their first game as Vols.

• Tennessee was not penalized vs. Austin Peay. The last time the Vols finished a game with no penalties was Dec. 1, 2007, vs. LSU in the SEC Championship game.

• The Vols scored on their first seven possessions, producing six TDs.

• The last time the Big Orange scored on seven drives in a row was on Nov. 6, 2010, vs. Memphis, when UT turned the ball over on downs on its first series before reeling off seven straight scoring drives.

Vols Down APSU 45-0 To Open

KNOXVILLE - The football team opened up the Butch Jones era Saturday with the program's 800th win, trouncing Austin Peay State University, 45-0 in front of an opening night crowd of 97,169 at Neyland Stadium.

From the start, the Vols hit the ground running - literally. Senior running back Rajion Neal carried the ball for 141 yards on 16 carries and one score while junior Marlin Lane ground out 38 yards rushing on six carries and two touchdowns. Both exited the game after the first half.

Neal's 47-yard run in the beginning of the first quarter broke the scoreless tie and ignited the Volunteer attack.

From there the Vols' offense cruised scoring five more touchdowns in the first half. Three Justin Worley passes resulted in points as the junior quarterback connected with wide receivers Devrin Young and Alton Howard and tight end Brendon Downs.

Worley, who played only the first half as well, finished 11 for 13 with 104 yards passing and three touchdowns, keeping the Vols from having to punt in the first half.

Just as impressive as the offense was Jones' defense which only allowed 211 total yards and created two turnovers, helping lead to the shutout.

It was the first time in 84 games that Austin Peay had been held scoreless. The last time they failed to score in a game was on Sept. 24, 2005 when they lost to Drake University 54-0.

Defensive lineman Daniel Hood's early tipped pass and interception set up a Lane 14-yard touchdown run putting Volunteers up 14-0 early.

The first team defense would allow only 99 first half yards, shutting out the visiting Governors in the half in route to a 42-0 halftime blow out. The third quarter saw the removal of many Volunteer first team players and veterans and with them the threatening offense of the first half.

Nathan Peterman replaced Worley at quarterback in the second half and a Michael Palardy 37-yard field goal proved to be the only score.

Consequently, several Vol newcomers made their collegiate debuts including receivers Josh Smith, Marquee North, Paul Harris and Johnathon Johnson who all contributed catches to the young receiving corps.

Freshman Malik Foreman's interception early in the fourth quarter also helped to stop an Austin Peay drive that had reached the Volunteer red zone.

Leading the way for Austin Peay was junior quarterback Andrew Spivey who passed for 94 yards and completed 11 of his 22 attempts.

The Governors' Darryl Clack had 3 catches for 80 yards, leading the team in receiving while running back Tim Phillips accounted for 38 yards rushing on 8 carries.

Part of the success for the Volunteers was a result of their composure. Jones has stressed the importance of playing fundamentally sound football and it showed Saturday as the Vols finished the game without a penalty.

The last time Tennessee committed no penalties was on Dec. 1, 2007 against Louisiana State University in the SEC Championship game.

THE WRAPUP

For the Record

- Tennessee Captains: #41 Dontavis Sapp, #45 A.J. Johnson, #70 Ja'Wuan James, #97 Daniel Hood.

Game Notes

- The Vols' five interceptions were the most since having five picks against Kentucky in 1999.
- With 52 points, Tennessee accumulated the most points in its first two games of a season since also having 97 combined points in 1996 (against UNLV and UCLA).

- The victory over Austin Peay marks the fifth consecutive win in a season opener since 2009.

- The Vol defense finished the game with seven turnovers, including four on consecutive defensive plays.

- The four consecutive turnovers, according to the NCAA, has never occurred prior to Saturday's game.

- Saturday marked the first time since the Nov. 10, 1984 game against Memphis that the Vols recorded seven turnovers in a game.

- Rajion Neal finished the game with three touchdowns marking the first time since the Vol has rushed for three TDs since Montario Hardesty achieved the feat vs. Kentucky on Nov. 28, 2009.

- Butch Jones became the first Vol head coach to begin his career with a 2-0 record since Phillip Fulmer achieved the feat in 1992.

Tennessee Topples Toppers 52-20

KNOXVILLE - The Tennessee Volunteers capitalized on six first half turnovers to top the Western Kentucky Hilltoppers 52-20 on Saturday at Neyland Stadium, making new head coach Butch Jones the first to start his Volunteer tenure 2-0 since Phillip Fulmer in 1992.

The Vol defense finished the game with seven turnovers, including four on consecutive defensive plays, and proved instrumental in staking them an early 31-3 lead as Tennessee was able to hold on from there, defeating the potent offense of Western Kentucky's new coach, Bobby Petrino.

The four consecutive turnovers, according to the NCAA, has never occurred prior to Saturday's game.

Saturday marked the first time since the Nov. 10, 1984, game against Memphis that the Vols recorded seven turnovers in a game.

Justin Worley finished the game 11-of-19 with one touchdown and one interception while senior running back Rajion Neal led the way with 74 yards rushing and three touchdowns.

Also leading the charge for the Volunteers on the ground was Marlin Lane who scampered for 97 yards on 16 carries and an additional touchdown.

Johnathon Johnson reeled in a team-high 57 yards on two catches for the Vols while Josh Smith had three grabs for 36 yards.

After a drive by Western Kentucky to start the game which only netted the Hilltoppers three points, junior Justin Coleman took advantage of a deflected ball and returned his interception 23 yards for the Vols first score of the game.

When it rained, it poured for Western Kentucky's offensive woes. On their next possession's second play, freshman defensive back Cameron Sutton stepped in front of a Brandon Doughty pass for a 36-yard interception return for a touchdown, his first career interception and pick-six.

Western Kentucky's following three possessions also resulted in turnovers. The Vols capitalized on their shortened field position, scoring two more TDs and a field goal.

The Hilltoppers threatened that lead late in the second quarter, closing the gap to 31-17. A dropped pass on third down by Jason Croom and a blocked punt on the Volunteers resulted in a Western Kentucky touchdown just before the half.

A motivated Volunteer offense entered the third quarter and promptly marched down the field. Worley connected with Johnathon Johnson for 37 yards to put Tennessee in position for a Rajion Neal 1-yard touchdown run, giving the Vols a 38-17 lead.

Tennessee let up a field goal midway through the third quarter before Neal punched in his third TD of the game, a career best, to cap an eight play, 75-yard drive.

Neal's three touchdowns were most since Monterio Hardesty rushed for three against Kentucky in 2009.

A big sack by Jordan Williams on third-and-goal from the UT 10-yard line in the third quarter and an early fourth quarter interception in the Western Kentucky end zone by Brian Randolph helped to halt Hilltopper drives and secure a Volunteer victory.

▶ THE WRAPUP

For the Record

• Tennessee Captains: #41 Dontavis Sapp, #45 A.J. Johnson, #70 Ja'Wuan James, #72 Zach Fulton

Game Notes

- The Vols are now 0-2 all-time vs. Oregon.
- UT is now 17-15-4 all-time against Pac-12 schools.
- Tennessee is now 7-8-1 all time against No. 2 ranked teams.
- Tennessee suffers its first loss on this date, now owning a 1-1-2 record.
- With the loss, the Big Orange snapped a 12-game win-streak vs. non-conference opponents, the last loss also coming against Oregon on Sept. 11, 2010.
- Butch Jones is now 2-1 at Tennessee and owns a career record of 52-28.
- Tennessee is 2-1 in coin tosses this season after winning today's flip.
- UT is 1-1 when winning the coin flip and 1-0 when losing the toss.
- Today's attendance was 57,895, the 91st straight sell-out at Autzen Stadium.
- The Vols 45-point loss was the worst of the modern era (since 1937) besting a 44-0 loss at Georgia in 1981.
- The margin of defeat (-45) was the worst since a 48-0 loss to Mississippi A&M in 1910.

Vols Fall at #2 Oregon 59-14

EUGENE, Ore. - The Tennessee football team suffered a 59-14 loss to the Oregon Ducks in Eugene, Ore., at Autzen Stadium in front of a sellout crowd of 57,895, including 5,000 Vol fans, in UT's first road trip of its 2013 campaign.

Despite the defeat, several Vols stood out in the second part of the Oregon-Tennessee series.

Quarterback Justin Worley threw for 126 yards on 13-of-25 passes and looked especially good early on, completing a long pass to Josh Smith for a 51-yard strike and finishing the drive with a 4-yard touchdown pass to sophomore wide receiver Jason Croom - his first receiving touchdown of his career.

Marlin Lane ground his way for 63 yards but failed to reach the end zone.

After a Rajion Neal fumble, the Volunteer defense held the dangerous Oregon offense to a missed field goal opportunity and the Worley to Croom touchdown gave the Volunteers a 7-0 lead early in the first quarter.

Oregon would not be silenced for long though. The Ducks opened their scoring with a 38-yard field goal by Matt Wogan, favorable for the Vols who were fortunately on the other end of an Oregon offensive pass interference call that saw De'Anthony Thomas walk into the end zone.

Oregon quarterback Marcus Mariota would connect with Johnny Mundt for a 16-yard touchdown reception, giving Oregon their first lead of the game with 3:34 left in the first quarter.

With the Ducks hyper offense, Mark Helfrich's team would start their run of 59 unanswered points.

Mariota followed up his first passing touchdown with a rushing touchdown on an option keeper and would start the Volunteer bleeding.

After a short unsuccessful drive in which the Oregon defense was able to pressure Worley into a deflected throw, Mariota met a streaking Josh Huff for another quick Oregon score, extending their lead to 24-7.

Two more subsequent touchdowns by Oregon, including one more passing by Mariota, gave the Volunteers a 38-7 deficit to overcome.

The third quarter proved to be all Oregon just like the others. They would tack on 21 more points and extend their lead to an imposing 59-7.

Tennessee would show some late life after Alden Hill powered his way to the Vols' second score early in the fourth quarter.

The score was a little too late however as the Volunteers were unable to make a significant dent in the steep Oregon lead.

THE WRAPUP

For the Record

- Tennessee Captains: #3 Byron Moore, #41 Dontavis Sapp, #45 A.J. Johnson, #64 James Stone

Game Notes

- The Vols are now 19-24 all-time against Florida.

- Tennessee is now 3-3 all-time on September 21. Last three games on this date came vs. Florida in 1996 (L, 29-35), 2002 (L, 13-30) and 2013 (L, 17-31).

- With the loss, the Gators extended their win-streak over Tennessee to nine games dating back to Sept. 29, 2004.

- Tennessee has still scored at least 30 points vs. Florida only twice in the last 12 meetings, winning both games 2001, 34-32 and 2004, 30-28.

- Jones suffered his first conference opening loss as a head coach after going 6-0 at Central Michigan and Cincinnati.

- Freshman walk-on DB Devaun Swafford helped the Vols to an early lead with a 62-yard pick-six.

- The interception and touchdown were the first of Swafford's career.

- Swafford became the third Vol to record an interception for a touchdown this season and notched the eighth Tennessee interception of the season.

- Swafford became the first Vol to record a pick-six at Florida since Eric Berry had one in 2007.

- Pig Howard's four catches and 75 yards were career bests for the sophomore.

Vols Drop 31-17 Decision At #19 Florida

GAINESVILLE, Fla. - The Vols couldn't overcome four first-half turnovers and dropped a 31-17 decision to 19th-ranked Florida at Ben Hill Griffin Stadium before 90,074 on Saturday afternoon.

Tennessee (2-2) dropped its second game in a row as it continues its gauntlet of a schedule. Florida, coming off a bye week moved to 2-1 and rebounded after a loss to in-state foe Miami, two weeks ago.

The Vols made a change at quarterback, as redshirt freshman and native Floridian Nathan Peterman drew his first career start and played nearly the entire first half before he was replaced by junior Justin Worley in the final seconds.

Peterman was ineffective, completing 4-of-11 for five yards with two interceptions. Worley came on to throw for 149 yards on 10-of-23 passing and a touchdown.

Florida overcame three of its own first-half turnovers including an interception returned for a touchdown by Tennessee and the loss of its starting quarterback Jeff Driskel to extend its winning streak over the Vols to nine games. Tennessee last beat Florida in 2004 and last won at The Swamp in 2003.

Gator backup signal caller Tyler Murphy threw for 134 yards on just 8-of-14 passing with a touchdown in his most extensive playing time. The redshirt junior, who had never taken a snap under center in his four seasons with the Gators, also added 84 yards on the ground and a touchdown to head up the Gators' ground attack. Mack Brown rushed for 86 yards and a score.

Solomon Patton had three catches for 73 yards and his first-career touchdown. Quinton Dunbar hauled in four catches for 63 yards.

The Vols were limited to 220 yards on offense by Florida, which came into the game third in the nation in fewest yards per game allowed (208.5).

Rajion Neal (42) and Marlin Lane (16) combined for just 58 rushing yards. Marquee North had four catches for 43 yards, including a career-long 32-yard reception. Pig Howard was the Vols leading receiver and had four catches for 75 yards and a touchdown.

The teams combined for nine turnovers which resulted in 24 of the game's 48 points.

Freshman walk-on Devaun Swafford gave the Vols a 7-0 lead on a 62-yard interception return with 9:23 left in the first quarter. It was Tennessee's first 'Pick 6' at The Swamp since another true freshman -- Eric Berry -- had one back in 2007.

The Gators gained its first lead of the day at 10-7 on a 52-yard screen pass from Murphy to Patton with 13:25 left in the first half.

Florida took advantage of the Vols' fourth first-half turnover as the Gators took a 17-7 lead on a Mack Brown 3-yard rush with 37 seconds left in the first half.

After the Vols cut the lead to 17-10 on a Michael Palardy 44-yard field goal early in the second half, Florida answered back with a 79-yard drive covering 11 plays as Matt Jones rumbled in to the end zone over left tackle. Which put the Gators ahead 24-10 with 7:03 left in the third quarter.

Murphy finished off a 84-yard drive on a 7-yard rush up the middle to put Florida ahead 31-10 with 13:52 left in the fourth.

The Vols continued to fight and cut the deficit to 31-17 on an 18-yard connection between Worley and Howard with 10:20 on the clock.

THE WRAPUP

For the Record

• Tennessee Captains: #1 Michael Palardy, #41 Dontavis Sapp, #45 A.J. Johnson and #72 Zach Fulton.

Game Notes

• UT is 9-0 all-time vs. teams from the Sun Belt.

• On this date, Tennessee won its fourth straight game and owns a 9-3 mark.

• The Vols have been victorious in 11-consecutive home games vs. non-conference opponents since starting that streak vs. UAB in 2010.

• Tennessee has won 15 in a row vs. opponents from non-BCS conferences since the 2009 season opener vs. Western Kentucky.

• UT is 2-2 when winning the coin flip and 1-0 when losing the toss.

• After picking off three passes vs. South Alabama, Tennessee now has forced 15 turnovers in five games.

• Brian Randolph thwarted South Alabama's potential game winning drive with an INT in the end zone, his third career pick with all of them coming this season and taking place in the end zone.

• Senior defensive end Corey Miller came up with Tennessee's only sack of the day, giving him a career season-best of two in 2013.

• The two runs (by Lane and Neal) of more than 50 yards marked the first time since the Volunteers faced Kentucky in 2000 that two different Vols have had rushes of 50 yards or more in the same game. Travis Stephens' 80-yard rush along with a 53-yard scamper by Travis Henry helped the Vols defeat Kentucky 59-20.

Vols Top South Alabama 31-24

KNOXVILLE - Tennessee moved to 3-2 on the season with a 31-24 victory over South Alabama on Saturday afternoon. Brian Randolph's interception in the final minutes secured the win.

The Vols overcame three of their own turnovers, but in the end the Jaguars' third miscue of the game enabled Tennessee to remain perfect at Neyland Stadium this season.

Rajion Neal ran for a career high 169 yards on 25 carries including a 53-yard run that set the Vols up for a Marlin Lane score. Lane also added a 54-yard rush as a part of his 66 yards on the ground.

Tennessee gained 278 yards on the ground. Butch Jones-coached teams are now 26-2 all-time in games where his teams run for 200-plus yards and 16-1 when his squads go over 250-plus yards.

Justin Worley was 20-for-36 through the air for 204 yards with two touchdown passes. He did throw three interceptions leaving room for a near comeback by South Alabama.

The Vols' yielded a quick touchdown to the visiting Jaguars as South Alabama quarterback, Ross Metheny, took off on a 32-yard touchdown run on the opening drive.

Tennessee was able to put points on the scoreboard after LaDarrell McNeil intercepted a tipped South Alabama pass giving the Vols prime position for a Michael Palardy field goal.

UT went on to score 21 more unanswered first half points giving them a 24-7 lead at the half.

Worley had a pair of first half touchdown passes to true freshmen A.J. Branisel and Josh Smith.

After a beautiful play action pass, he found A.J. Branisel in the back of the end zone wide open. On the next drive, Worley hit Smith in stride for the Knoxville-native's first career touchdown catch.

The touchdown receptions were the first of Branisel and Smith's career and gave the Volunteers a lead that they wouldn't relinquish for the remainder of the game.

The Vols continued to stride past the Jaguars despite several turnovers. Lane's two-yard score after he stretched over the goal line made it 24-7 Volunteers.

After winning the coin toss and deferring to the second half, UT took their initial second half possession into the checkerbords. Neal scored from 11 yards out after the Vols drove 76 yards on seven plays and used only two minutes and 24 seconds of game clock to extend their lead to 31-7. The touchdown would be the ultimate game-winner.

The momentum shifted drastically however. The two teams traded turnovers, giving South Alabama the ball inside the UT 10-yard line. Two plays later, Metheny scrambled left and dove just inside the pylon for South Alabama's second score.

The Jaguars scored 10 more points and drove to within eight yards of a game-tying score with just minutes to go in the half.

It was all for naught though as redshirt sophomore Brian Randolph sealed the Volunteer victory, 31-24, with an interception in the end zone with just 1:51 left on the clock. A huge sack by Corey Miller on second-and-goal pushed South Alabama back to the 14-yard line.

The interception was the third of Randolph's season and career. All three of Randolph's interceptions have come in the end zone.

THE WRAPUP

For the Record

- Tennessee Captains: #20 Rajion Neal (Fayetteville), #41 Dontavis Sapp (Valdosta), #45 A.J. Johnson (Gainesville) and #70 Ja'Wuan James (Suwanee), all natives of the state of Georgia, represented the Vols for the pregame coin toss.

Game Notes

- The Big Orange still leads the all-time series with Georgia, 21-20-2, including 11-10-1 in Knoxville.

- Georgia has won four straight in the series.

- Jones is 1-2 in overtime games and stands 11-8 all-time in games decided by four points or fewer and 40-6 when his team scores 30 or more points.

- Tennessee is 4-2 in coin tosses this season after winning today's flip.

- UT is 2-3 when winning the coin flip and 1-0 when losing the toss.

- Today's attendance was 102,455 (a sellout), moving the season average to 93,418.

- The game marked the first time the Vols have donned their new adidas Smokey Gray uniforms.

- The game marked just the third time since the 1930s that a UT team has worn anything other than orange at home. The other occasion came in the 2004 season opener vs. UNLV, when the Vols wore throwback white jerseys in a 42-17 conquest of the Runnin' Rebels.

- Tennessee fell to 10-5 all-time in overtime games while Georgia improved to 5-4.

Vols Drop OT Heartbreaker To #6 UGA 34-31

KNOXVILLE - The Tennessee football team fell 34-31 in overtime to No. 6 Georgia in front of a sold-out crowd of 102,455 at Neyland Stadium on Saturday.

The Vols came up just short of upsetting their visiting opponent when Georgia sophomore Marshall Morgan connected a 42-yard field goal in overtime to give the Bulldogs the victory.

A strong Vol defense, who held Georgia to 4-of-13 on third down, helped to keep Tennessee in the game and slow down a Georgia offense headed by quarterback Aaron Murray who became the SEC career passing leader during the game after a 19-for-35, 196-yard, 3-touchdown passing effort.

For the Vols Justin Worley put together 17-of-31 passing for 215 yards and one touchdown while Rajion Neal led the Vols on the ground rushing for 148 yards while scoring two touchdowns, his fourth career multi-touchdown effort as a Vol.

After going into the half down 17-3, Tennessee outscored the Bulldogs 28-17 in the second half, tying up the game at 17-all at the end of the third quarter.

On the Volunteers second possession out of halftime, Worley connected with freshman Marquez North as he was diving out of the end zone for the Vols first touchdown of the day and giving Georgia only a one possession lead.

The touchdown was the first of North's career and he became the fifth true freshman to record a touchdown for the Vols this season.

The Vols were able to hold Georgia on the ensuing possession as true freshman Corey Vereen had a timely sack on third down to give Tennessee the ball back. After the Tennessee offense failed to get a first down, Michael Palardy pinned the Georgia offense and Murray deep in their own territory.

As a result, momentum began to shift within Neyland in the Volunteer's favor. With UGA punter Colin Barber backed up near his own end zone, Jalen Reeves-Maybin snuck through the Georgia defenses and blocked the punt. Devuan Swofford scooped up the loose ball and sprinted into the checkerbords for a game tying score.

The 15-yard punt return for a touchdown was the second of Swofford's young career, this one coming on his 19th birthday.

The two teams would swap scores for the rest of the half. After a quick Georgia touchdown run by Brendan Douglas, UT drove 75 yards on nine plays, capped off by a Neal 1-yard run to tie things at 24-all.

Tennessee would march down the field again on their next possession, eating up more than six minutes of the game clock and moving the ball 80 yards, including two fourth-and-one conversions to set up a 7-yard Neal score that gave the Volunteers their first lead of the game, 31-24.

With just less than two minutes to go in the game, Murray took the ball on the Georgia 25 yard line and orchestrated a drive that resulted in a two-yard touchdown pass to Rantavious Wooten with five seconds left in the game and forcing overtime play.

Still the Volunteer team didn't give up. The Vols looked as though they had the go-ahead touchdown in overtime when Pig Howard dove for the pylons in the first overtime period, but the ball slipped from Howard's fingers resulting in a touchback.

The Tennessee defense allowed the Georgia offense no yards in their ensuing overtime possession, but Marshall Morgan connected on a game-winning 42-yard field goal to give No. 6 Georgia the 34-31 victory.

With the loss, the Vols fall to 10-5 all-time in overtime while Georgia improved to 5-4.

THE WRAPUP

For the Record

The Tennessee captains were #1 Michael Palardy, #2 Pig Howard, #14 Justin Worley and #80 Corey Miller. Worley and Miller are South Carolina natives, from Rock Hill and Wellford, respectively.

Game Notes

The Big Orange now leads the all-time series with South Carolina, 23-7-2, including 15-2 in Knoxville.

Tennessee snapped South Carolina's three-game winning streak in the series, which began in 2010.

Tennessee is 79-37-9 all-time coming off an open date, while Butch Jones is 9-1 as a head coach in that scenario.

Tennessee's Vol For Life (#VFL) Legends of the Game were the more than 200 former players who returned to Rocky Top for the contest.

They took part in the Vol Walk, the pregame reading of General Neyland's Maxims and ran through the "T" prior to kickoff.

The Vols wore pink equipment on Saturday in recognition of Breast Cancer Awareness Month in October. The players donned pink gloves, wrist bands, socks, knee braces and more.

Tennessee donned orange jerseys and orange pants vs. South Carolina, marking the first time the Vols wore an all-orange ensemble since a 26-22 home loss vs. Auburn on Oct. 3, 2009.

While wearing all orange, the victory marked UT's first in that apparel since edging Memphis, 17-16, at Neyland Stadium on Sept. 25, 1999.

Vols Upset #11/9 SC, 23-21

KNOXVILLE - Tennessee added another Brick to Butch Jones' Brick-By-Brick mantra by rallying to upset No. 11/9 South Carolina on Saturday afternoon, 23-21, at Neyland Stadium in front of 95,736.

The Vols' victory ended a 19-game losing streak against ranked teams that dated to a 31-13 victory, also over South Carolina (No. 21) on Oct. 31, 2009. It was also UT's first win over a Top 15 team since an Oct. 27, 2007 win also against the Gamecocks, who were 15th prior to that game.

On the game-winning drive, Justin Worley hit Marquez North for a clutch 39-yard pass on third and 10 to the South Carolina 36 who reeled in the grab with just one hand. Marlin Lane took over scampering for 25 yards on four plays to the one-yard line where Jones smartly let the clock run down to three seconds setting up senior Michael Palardy for the game-winning 19-yard field goal.

Palardy drilled the ball through the uprights giving the Vols the upset victory and the Vols' first game-winning field goal since James Whitoff kicked a 50-yard field goal with six seconds to go to lift No. 13 Tennessee to a 30-28 victory over 11th-ranked Florida on Sept. 18, 2004.

Worley, who two years ago made his first career start against his home state Gamecocks, managed the UT game plan and threw for 179 yards on 19-of-34 passing with one touchdown and no interceptions.

The Vols' running back tandem of Rajion Neal (24-77, TD) and Lane (12-55) combined for 132 yards. South Carolina's Mike Davis, the SEC's leading rusher, rumbled for 137 yards.

Freshman Marquez North finished with three catches for 102 yards, the first Vol freshman to go over 100 receiving yards since Justin Hunter had 114 vs. Ole Miss on Nov. 13, 2010. Hunter's two 100-yard games as a freshman were the first by a Vol since Robert Meachem in 2004 vs. Kentucky.

Pig Howard had a career-high eight catches for 33 yards including a 6-yard TD reception. Tight end Brendan Downs also posted a career-high in catches with three.

Tennessee's defense played strong against a team that piled up 52 points and 537 yards of offense at Arkansas a week ago. The Vols forced Connor Shaw (7-of-21 for 161 yards) into his first interception of the season, ending his streak of 177 consecutive attempts without an INT. Freshman Cameron Sutton picked off Shaw at the UT 27 to thwart the Gamecocks' first drive of the second half.

The Tennessee victory was Shaw's first loss to an unranked team in his career as a starter.

The Vols front line also sacked Shaw four times on the day, the most for the quarterback this season, including a career best 2.5 sacks by senior Marlon Walls.

After leading for 32 of the game's first 42 minutes, before falling behind, 21-17, Tennessee put together a drive to get within one at 21-20 on a Michael Palardy 33-yard field goal with 10:11 left in the fourth. A 48-yard connection from Worley to freshman Marquez North set the Vols up on the Gamecocks' 16-yard line.

Down 7-3 early in the second quarter, the Vols talked back-to-back touchdowns in less than five minutes to take a 17-7 lead with 6:11 left in the first half. The Vols put together a steady 10-play, 75-yard drive that finished with a 6-yard TD strike from Worley to Howard with 8:36 left in the second quarter to make it 10-7. Then after a 3-and-out, including a 4-yard sack by Danny O'Brien, the Vols went back to work on offense.

Tennessee maintained that 17-7 lead at halftime for the team's largest lead at the half vs. a ranked team since leading South Carolina, 21-3 at half in that 2009 win -- the Vols' last win over a ranked squad.

Butch Jones maintained his nearly perfect record when his teams lead at halftime, as his squads are now 43-2 when leading after 30 minutes.

THE WRAPUP

For the Record

- #1 Michael Palardy, #14 Justin Worley, #72 Zach Fulton and #98 Dan McCullers represented the Vols for the pregame coin toss.

Game Notes

- On this date, Tennessee is 9-5-1
- The Vols are now 5-6 in Tuscaloosa all-time.
- The game's attendance was 101,821, the second crowd of 100,000+ that the Vols have played in front of this season.
- Joshua Dobbs came into the game for the Vols in the second half becoming the 15th true freshman to play this season for Tennessee.

- Dobbs also became the third true freshman quarterback to play in the last four years.

- Linebacker A.J. Johnson recorded 10 tackles against Alabama, his 16th career 10-tackle game and third of the season.

- With a 3-yard touchdown run in the fourth quarter, Rajion Neal became the first opposing player to score a touchdown against Alabama at home in 2013 and the first since Jarvis Landry (LSU) caught a TD with 12:58 left in the fourth quarter on Nov. 3, 2012.

- The Vols recorded three of the six biggest plays against Alabama this season during the game, a 43-yard catch by Cody Blanc, a 43-yard run by Rajion Neal and a 38-yard grab by Marquez North.

- Devrin Young finished the day against Alabama with five kick returns for a career-high 146 yards and moved into eighth all-time on the Vols career kick return yards list.

Vols Fall At #1 Alabama, 45-10

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. - A week after knocking off No. 11 South Carolina, the Vols lost to the top team in the land, No. 1 Alabama, 45-10, before 101,821 at Bryant-Denny Stadium.

Alabama's T.J. Yeldon ran for three touchdowns and 72 yards. Quarterback A.J. McCarron threw for 275 yards on 19-of-27 passing with two scoring tosses. Kevin Norwood hauled in six catches for 112 yards and a touchdown.

Vols' quarterback Justin Worley started, but was banged up and played the first half only, finishing with 120 yards. Freshman Joshua Dobbs made his college debut and led the Vols to their first scoring drive of the day, early in the third quarter.

Tennessee made sure it wouldn't be shutout for the 238th consecutive game as Michael Palardy kicked a 37-yard field goal with 12:53 left in the third quarter. That ended a run of 104 consecutive points by Alabama dating back to the Kentucky game on Oct. 12.

Dobbs then led the Vols to the first touchdown against Alabama at home in 2013. Early in the fourth quarter, Dobbs engineered a 9-play, 55-yard drive that culminated with a 3-yard touchdown run by Rajion Neal (13 carries for 70 yards). The score, which was originally ruled down outside the end zone, was corrected by video review for Neal's ninth TD of the season and the first allowed by Alabama at Bryant-Denny Stadium this season.

Dobbs, who became the 15th true freshman to play for the Vols in 2013, finished the day with 75 yards on 5-of-12 passing. Fellow freshman Marquez North topped the Tennessee receiving chart with 87 yards on four catches.

Tennessee and Alabama, played to a 10-10 score in the second half. The Crimson Tide continued its first-half dominance, outscoring the Vols 35-0 in the first 30 minutes. Dating to its second game vs. Texas A&M, Alabama has scored 179 consecutive first-half points, over a span of more than 200 minutes.

Alabama came right out of the gates, scoring just 1:28 into the game as Amari Cooper scored on a 54-yard swing pass from McCarron. That came three plays after a 49-yard kickoff return by Christian Jones to open the game.

The Tide took a 14-0 lead on a Yeldon 1-yard burst up the middle with 8:44 left in the first quarter. The lead expanded to 21-0 on a 22-yard pass from McCarron to Kevin Norwood with 28 seconds left in the first half. That drive consumed 12 plays and 5:34.

Yeldon added his second 1-yard TD run for a 28-0 lead for Alabama with 7:18 left in the first half.

Alabama appeared to be taking a 35-0 lead when Kenyan Drake fumbled going in for a score and Cameron Sutton recovered the ball for the Vols at their own 2-yard line. It was the first turnover by Alabama in three weeks.

With Tennessee driving late in the first half -- looking to end the Crimson Tide's first-half dominance, Worley was intercepted by Landon Collins, who returned the pick 89 yards for a 35-0 lead with a dozen seconds left in the first half.

It was the Vols' seventh consecutive loss to Alabama dating back to a 2006 UT victory, 16-13, in Knoxville.

▶ THE WRAPUP

For the Record

• #20 Rajion Neal, #41 Dontavis Sapp, #45 A.J. Johnson and #72 Zach Fulton represented the Vols for the pre-game coin toss.

Game Notes

• On this date, Tennessee is 11-4.

• The Vols are now 0-1 in their first appearance in Columbia.

• Johnathon Johnson made his first career start at wide receiver while Joshua Dobbs became just the eighth true freshman to start at quarterback in Tennessee history.

• With Dobbs starting at quarterback, UT became the eighth team in FBS football to start three or more quarterbacks this season.

• Tino Thomas and Riyahd Jones were out on special teams for the Vols, the 28th and 29th Vols to debut this season.

• Thomas was the ninth red-shirt freshman and the 24th freshman overall.

• Pig Howard had 11 catches against Missouri, the most since Kelley Washington had 11 vs. LSU on Sept. 29, 2001.

• The 11 catches tied for the fifth-most in a game in Tennessee history.

• Howard's 11 catches were a career high, besting his eight against South Carolina earlier this season (Oct. 19)

• Dobbs became the eighth ever true freshman to start a game at QB in Vol history.

• Dobbs' 26 completions and 42 attempts were the most by a true freshman in his first start in Tennessee history.

Vols Drop 31-3 Decision at #10 Missouri

COLUMBIA, Mo. - Tennessee continued its gauntlet of a schedule, playing a ranked team for the sixth time in seven weeks as the Vols suffered a 31-3 loss at No. 10 Missouri on Saturday night at Faurot Field.

The Vols (4-5, 1-4 SEC) were unable to knock off the Tigers (8-1, 4-1), who suffered their only defeat of the season last week against South Carolina in overtime, 27-24.

In a battle of freshman quarterbacks, Missouri's Maty Mauk had the best game of his young career, as he threw for three touchdowns and was 12-of-25 for 163 yards through the air. In his debut as a starter, Tennessee's Joshua Dobbs threw for 240 yards on 26-of-42. Dobbs became the eighth true freshman to start in Tennessee history.

Mauk ran for a career-high 114 yards as Mizzou racked up 339 yards on the ground, including 197 yards in the first half.

In the first half, Mauk connected on TD passes to Dorial Green-Beckham (9 yards), L'Damian Washington (26 yards) and Marcus Lucas (40 yards).

Dobbs also led the Vols in rushing with 45 yards, including a 33-yarder where he dashed down the sideline. The run was the longest by a Vols' quarterback since a 38-yard run by Tee Martin back in 1999.

Vols' sophomore Alton "Pig" Howard had a career-high 11 catches for a team-best and career-high 89 receiving yards. Marquez North had seven catches for 68 yards.

Howard's 11 catches are the most since Kelley Washington had 11 vs. LSU on Sept. 29, 2001. The 11 catches, tied for the fifth-most in a game in Tennessee history.

For the second week in a row the Vols had a rough first half. Last week at Alabama, UT trailed 35-0 after 30 minutes. Missouri held a three-touchdown advantage on Saturday.

Missouri took a 24-3 lead on a 40-yard bomb from Mauk to Lucas with 1:44 left in the first half. The Vols got on the scoreboard on the previous drive on a 51-yard field goal by Michael Palardy, the second-longest kick of his career. That made it 17-3.

The opportunistic Tigers converted an E.J. Gaines interception into a 17-0 lead one play after the Tigers secured a turnover for the 39th consecutive game. Mauk connected with a wide open Washington on a 26-yard touchdown with 6:35 left in the first half.

Mizzou took a 7-0 lead on a 9-yard TD pass from Mauk to Green-Beckham with 2:20 left in the first quarter.

The three points scored by the Vols were the fewest since tallying three against South Carolina in a 14-3 loss on Oct. 29, 2011.

▶ THE WRAPUP

For the Record

• #64 James Stone, #45 A.J. Johnson, #41 Dontavis Sapp, #1 Michael Palardy represented the Vols for the pregame coin toss.

Game Notes

• Today's Vol For Life Legend of the Game was Tony Robinson, the QB who guided the Vols to a 35-20 win over No. 1-ranked Auburn and Heisman Trophy winner Bo Jackson on Sept. 28, 1985.

• On this date, Tennessee is 9-6-1.

• Auburn holds a 28-21-3 edge in the all-time series and has won six straight.

• Tennessee played in front of its second sell-out crowd at Neyland Stadium in 2013 (102,455).

• Auburn tallied 444 rushing yards on the day, marking the first time an opponent has rushed for over 400 yards since Nebraska tallied 409 in the 1998 Orange Bowl.

• Auburn's 444 rushing yards are the most by a Tennessee opponent since Alabama set the record at 457 in 1986.

• Nick Marshall's 214 rushing yards are the fourth-most by an opposing player in the history of Tennessee football. The record of 217 is shared by Mike Pritchard (Colorado, 1990) and Bobby Humphrey (Alabama, 1986).

• Daniel McCullers surged up the middle to block an Auburn PAT on the Tigers first touchdown (Marshall to Uzomah). Tennessee last blocked a PAT on Sept. 29, 2012, at Georgia when McCullers swatted away a Bulldog attempt.

#7 Auburn Tops Vols, 55-23

KNOXVILLE - UT's difficult schedule continued on Saturday as the Vols faced their fifth Top-10 opponent of the season and third in as many games in front of a sellout crowd of 102,455.

The Vols offense under the direction of freshman signal caller Joshua Dobbs had 354 yards on offense. Dobbs combined for 178 yards of total offense with 128 passing yards and 50 rushing yards.

Senior tailback Rajion Neal had his sixth career 100-yard rushing game finishing the game with 124 yards.

The Vols' Ray Guy Award semifinalist Michael Palardy was a weapon all day tying his career-high with three made field goals (39, 42, 40) while punting 5 times for a 46.6 average.

Freshman receiver Marquez North had five catches for 58 yards while Pig Howard had four catches for 13 yards.

Auburn quarterback Nick Marshall ran for two TDs (7, 38 yards) and threw for another score. He accounted for 249 total yards with 214 on the ground and 35 through the air.

Tailback Tre Mason ran for three touchdowns (13, 4, and 1 yards) as he galloped for 117 yards in the game, the first time the Vols have let up two 100-yard rushers in a game this season.

With the game tied at 13, Chris Davis returned a punt 85 yards to put the Tigers ahead, 20-13 with 9:51 left in the first half. It was the longest punt return in Auburn history since 1970. Less than four minutes later Marshall finished off a 6-play drive (all of which were rushes) for 85 yards with his own 7-yard rush, putting the Tigers ahead, 27-13.

Senior Jacques Smith got the Vols back within one score with his first-career interception, which he returned 18 yards for a touchdown.

But 37 seconds later Marshall ran for his second TD of the day from 38 yards out to put the Tigers up 34-20.

Tennessee opened the game with a scoring drive for just the second time all season and first since the opener vs. Austin Peay (Aug. 31) as Dobbs guided the Vols into Auburn territory. Palardy finished the drive with a 39-yard field goal, 4:03 into the game giving UT a 3-0 lead.

Auburn took a 6-3 lead on 25-yard pass from Marshall to C.J. Uzomah. Daniel McCullers blocked the second PAT of his career to keep the Tigers at six points. Auburn's Cody Parkey missed a PAT for just the second time in 111 career PAT attempts.

Palardy finished an 11-play drive with a 42-yard field to tie the game at 6-6 with 3:26 left in the first quarter.

The Vols took a 13-6 lead on the first play of the second quarter as Rajion Neal tip-toed and then high-stepped into the end zone for a 17-yard score. But Auburn answered two plays later as Tre Mason ran in from 13 yards on the heels of a 62-yard rush by Marshall. The Tigers needed only 32 seconds to tie the game, 13-13.

The second half began with Corey Grant returning the opening kickoff 90 yards to put Auburn ahead 41-20. After Palardy added his third field goal of the game from 40 yards, Auburn answered with Mason's second score of a day on a 4-yard rush. That put the Tigers ahead, 48-23.

• On this date, Tennessee is 11-2 and is now 27-2 on Senior Day since 1985.

• The Vols finished the season with an average of 95,584 fans at each home game at Neyland Stadium, fifth in the nation.

• The kickoff temperature of 42 degrees was the coldest kickoff temperature at Neyland Stadium since it was 42 degrees when UT hosted Kentucky on Nov. 29, 2008.

• Ja'Wuan James made his 48th career start, tying Jeff Smith (1992-95) for the Tennessee record for most starts by an offensive lineman.

• James has started every game at right tackle since the season opener of his freshman year in 2010. James is also tied with Will Offenheusele (99-02), Jeff Smith and Scott Wells (00-03) for most career games played by an offensive lineman (48).

• The Vols wore the Smokey Gray uniforms for Senior Day as voted on by the Tennessee seniors.

• The four forced turnovers by the Vols against Vandy were a season high for the Commodores. Entering the game Vandy had just two fumbles, they finished the game with

Last-Second TD Pushes Vandy Past UT, 14-10

KNOXVILLE - The Volunteers fell in dramatic fashion to Vanderbilt Saturday, 14-10 in front of 97,223 fans who came out to support the 27 Tennessee seniors appearing in their final home game at Neyland Stadium.

Vanderbilt, after initially being ruled short on a 4th-and-1 with 34 seconds remaining in the game, saw the spot of the ball overturned after review. The Commodores took advantage of the fresh set of downs as Maryville, Tenn., native Patton Robinette faked the handoff and ran for the game-winning, five-yard touchdown with just 16 seconds left in the ballgame.

Robinette was just 3-of-4 passing for 14 yards in the game, but rushed for 33 yards on eight carries including the game-winning touchdown run.

Vanderbilt's starting quarterback Austyn Carta-Samuels finished 21-of-27 for 181 yards including a key 25-yard completion to Biletnikoff semifinalist Jordan Matthews to set up first and goal from the eight.

Matthews finished with 133 yards on a career-high 13 receptions. On his fourth catch of the night, Matthews became the SEC's all-time receptions leader.

For the Vols, Joshua Dobbs was 11-of-19 for 53 passing yards. Dobbs also rushed for 23 yards on 11 carries.

Senior running back Rajion Neal surpassed 2,000 career rushing yards after boasting 95 yards and one touchdown on the evening. Neal became the 14th Volunteer to rush for 2,000 yards while at Tennessee.

Tennessee forced Vanderbilt to a season-high four turnovers (three fumbles lost and one interception). Coming into the game, Vanderbilt had lost just two fumbles all season.

The loss clinches Tennessee's fourth consecutive losing season.

Junior A.J. Johnson finished with a game-high 13 tackles and stands at 97 heading into the final game. Junior Justin Coleman added eight stops.

Tennessee took its only lead of the game at 10-7 on a 32-yard field goal by Michael Palardy which banked in off the left upright, 5:54 into the second half.

The Vols looked to add to their lead early in the fourth quarter. Dobbs rushed into the checkerboards but an illegal block in the back call negated what would have given Tennessee a 17-7 lead.

Three plays later, Palardy went out to attempt a 39-yard field goal. Instead, Palardy took the snap and threw an interception to Paris Head as Vanderbilt took over with 12 minutes left in regulation.

The first half saw the teams combine for five turnovers (three by Vanderbilt and two by the Vols) as the teams stood deadlocked at 7-7 after 30 minutes.

On the first play of the second quarter, Neal rushed in from five yards to tie the game at seven.

Vanderbilt jumped out to a 7-0 lead on a Jerron Seymour 4-yard TD rush up the middle with 6:09 left in the first quarter. The Commodores made good on Kenny Ladler's interception of Dobbs, on the freshman's first passing attempt of the game.

THE WRAPUP

For the Record

• #41 Dontavis Sapp, #64 James Stone, #72 Zach Fulton, #97 Daniel Hood represented the Vols for the pregame coin toss.

Game Notes

• With his 49th consecutive start at right tackle today, Ja'Wuan James set the Tennessee record for most career starts by an offensive lineman, eclipsing the previous mark of 48 set by Jeff Smith from 1992-95.

• Corey Miller finished the night with 4.5 sacks -- his first career multi-sack game in the final game of his Tennessee career.

• The 4.5 sacks set a UT sack record besting Football Hall of Famer Reggie White's four sacks vs. The Citadel on Oct. 1, 1983.

• Leading the way of the Vols run game was senior running back Rajion Neal who dashed for a career-best 1,124 yards and career-best 12 touchdowns.

• With his 134 yards, Neal became the first 1,000 yard rusher since Tauren Poole went for 1,034 yards in 2010 and the first running back to eclipse 1,000 yards during the regular season since Montario Hardesty achieved the feat in 2009.

• Senior Michael Palardy finished off his Tennessee career handling all three aspects of the kicking game in each and every game of the 2013 season.

Vols Close 2013 With 27-14 Win At UK

LEXINGTON, Ky. - Tennessee finished the 2013 season on a winning note, posting a 27-14 victory at Kentucky. The Vols finish Butch Jones' first season at the helm with a 5-7 record overall and a 2-6 mark in the SEC.

The win broke Tennessee's 11-game SEC road losing streak and 12-game overall losing streak dating to a 2010 win at Vanderbilt.

Freshman quarterback Joshua Dobbs engineered his first win with 251 total yards, throwing for 199 yards and two scores while rushing for 52 yards and a TD.

Senior Rajion Neal went over 100 yards for the seventh time in his career, finishing his final college game with 134 yards. Neal became the 14th Vol to run for 1,000 rushing yards in a season and finished with 1,124 in his final campaign. That stands 12th on the career rushing list for the Vols.

Defensively, A.J. Johnson posted nine tackles for his second consecutive 100-tackle season (106). He became the first Vol with consecutive 100-tackle season since Earnest Fields in 1990-91. Johnson and Brian Randolph led Tennessee with nine tackles.

In his final game, Corey Miller posted 4.5 sacks, setting a new UT sack record besting Football Hall of Famer Reggie White's record of four sacks recorded vs. The Citadel on Oct. 1, 1983.

Kentucky dropped to 2-10 and went winless in the league with an 0-8 mark in Mark Stoops' first season in Lexington.

Tennessee jumped out to 14-0 lead in the first quarter and never trailed the rest of the way. The Vols were able to convert on long scoring plays of 60, 43 and 40 yards in the first half to gain a 20-0 lead midway through the second quarter.

On the second play from scrimmage, Neal ripped off a career-long 60-yard rush for a touchdown. The score was the longest offensive play of the season for Tennessee and longest rush since Cordarrelle Patterson's 67-yard rush in the 2012 season opener.

Dobbs threw his first career touchdown pass on a 43-yard bomb to Jason Croom. On the play, Croom pulled the ball out of Jaleel Hytchye's hands after he had appeared to intercept the ball and ran in for his second-career score. That put the Vols ahead 14-0 with 19 seconds left in the first quarter.

Early in the second quarter, Kentucky looked to have a great opportunity to get on the scoreboard, but Miller sacked Maxwell Smith for an 8-yard loss on third down which forced Kentucky to punt.

Dobbs took to the ground himself to give the Vols a 20-0 lead on a 40-yard rush. That rush concluded a 98-yard drive, the longest of the season for the Vols. Dobbs' run for a score was the longest by a Vols quarterback since a 43-yard TD run by Alan Cockrell in 1983 vs. LSU.

Kentucky broke the shutout with a 19-yard TD pass from Smith to Anthony Kendrick with 1:45 left in the first half. That made the score 20-7.

Tennessee extended its lead to 27-7 on a 7-yard dart from Dobbs to Devrin Young with 3:14 left in the third quarter.

The Vols defense stood tall as they stopped Kentucky's Mobley on a 4th-and-1 short of the goal line. Justin Coleman tripped him up and Dontavis Sapp finished him off to give the Vols the ball.

In his final game, Michael Palardy had a stellar day punting with a career-long 69-yard boot. Palardy landed five of his six punts inside the 20-yard line and three inside the 10-yard line. Four of his six punts went for 50-plus yards.

The Vols open the 2014 season against Utah State on Aug. 30, 2014 at Neyland Stadium ... 273 days from the 2013 finale at Kentucky.

MEDIA INFORMATION

The following is a list of media policies for coverage of 2014 University of Tennessee spring football practice. We appreciate the cooperation in adhering to these policies.

Coach Jones, assistant coaches and selected players will be available to the media for interviews per the schedule listed below. When the team practices at Haslam Field, interviews will take place following practice on the indoor field of the Neyland-Thompson Sports Complex in the south end zone. For those days when practices occur at Neyland Stadium, those interviews will take place in the south end zone.

The early enrollees who are true freshmen are not available for interviews, and student-athletes should not be contacted by the media for interviews by any method outside of scheduled interview times.

Interview requests for Coach Jones outside of standard interview times should be made through Associate AD/Communications Jimmy Stanton at 865-974-4167 (office) or 865-306-2052 (cell). Requests for player interviews should be made at least 24 hours in advance of the practice for which you are requesting an interview by contacting Assistant AD/Media Relations Jason Yellin at 865-974-9494 (office) or 865-314-0273 (cell).

The pre-spring football press conference for Coach Jones and selected players will begin at 12 Noon on Thursday, March 6 at the Stokely Family Media Center at Neyland Stadium. Practices will typically be held at Haslam Field, and media will be notified in advance when practice is being held in Neyland Stadium.

GENERAL PRACTICE COVERAGE GUIDELINES

Tennessee football practices will be open for viewing during individual periods. Still photography and video will be allowed during selected individual periods. Team periods will be closed to the media. All practices are closed to the general public. Scrimmages will open for observation to media throughout the entire practice, but video and still photography are still limited to individual periods. Scrimmage dates are to be announced.

Media members are required to sign in daily at the field entrance gate off Pat Head Summitt Drive across from Lindsey Nelson Stadium to obtain practice coverage credentials. Please notify the media relations department if you wish to attend practice. There is a practice viewing area and designated shooting area for media on the sideline adjacent to Pat Head Summitt Drive.

Members of the media are not permitted to use cell phones at practice, report on injuries or player attendance, or any other relevant news items witnessed during practice (including Tweets) until after Coach Jones's post-practice comments have concluded. All dialogue between players and coaches at practice is considered confidential. Please use discretion in reporting practice in such areas as plays, formations and injuries. If there is any question in your mind about what may be reported, please consult with the head coach or the media relations department.

Photographers can only shoot from the sidelines at practice, with no end zone shots or any shots depicting team formations. Media Relations personnel will inform media when viewing/filming sessions end and can answer any questions regarding practice protocol. Interviews are not allowed during practice or while the players are going to, or leaving, the practice field. The training and locker room areas are off limits for interviews.

The head coach will provide all information regarding injuries and administrative information (discipline, etc.) during his post-practice media sessions. Any additions to/or updates will be provided by the Media Relations office, and any questions concerning these areas should be directed to the Media Relations office.

Outside of designated practice times, members of the media should not be in the complex unless by appointment through Media Relations. The working space for media, including phone and internet access, is in the media relations office on the ground floor of the Football Training Center/Lawson Center.
