* - SEC and Eastern Division Champion / ^ - Western Division Champion / # - National Champion

In 2006, the SEC led the nation in non-conference winning percentage (82.4) and had the most teams ranked in the final polls ... The SEC led the nation with more than 6.5 million fans attending games in 2006 and had an average capacity of 96.5 for its home games ... In 2006, the SEC was the most competitive conference in the nation with an average scoring margin of 11.14 in its conference games and more than 61 percent of its conference games decided by 10-points-or-less ... Eight SEC players have earned first-team All-America honors in 2006 ... The SEC posted a 6-3 mark in post-season bowl games, the most wins by the SEC in bowls ... In the BCS era (since 1998), the SEC has more national championships (three) than any other conference.

2006 SEC FOOTBALL NOTES

With Florida's 41-14 victory over Ohio State, the Gators won their second national championship and the Southeastern Conference's 16th in history. Below are some notes about the SEC, national championships and final polls.

- The SEC is the only league to currently have four football coaches who have won national championship.

Phillip Fulmer, Tennessee (won title in 1998)

Nick Saban, Alabama (won title in 2003 while head coach at LSU)

Urban Meyer, Florida (won title in 2006)

The Big Ten has three coaches (Jim Tressel, Lloyd Carr and Joe Paterno) while the Big 12 has two coaches (Mack Brown, Bob Stoops).

- Since the first season of the Bowl Championship Series in 1998, the SEC leads all conferences with three national championships.

Tennessee won the BCS' first national title in 1998 (Tennessee 23, Florida State 16), LSU won the crown in 2003 (LSU 21, Oklahoma 14) and Florida's 41-14 win on Jan. 8 against Ohio State. The Big 12 (Oklahoma 2000, Texas 2005) has won two while the ACC (Florida State 1999), Big Ten (Ohio State 2002), Pac-10 (Southern California 2004) and Big East (Miami 2001) have won BCS titles.

- The SEC had six teams ranked in the final Associated Press poll and five teams ranked in the final USA Today coaches poll. The last time the SEC had six teams ranked in the final poll was in 2000 when the league had six in both AP and USA Today polls. This marks the 10th time in SEC history that six teams have been ranked in the final polls. The most that the SEC has had ranked was seven in the final 1999 and 1965 polls.

- The SEC had three teams ranked in the top 10 in the final AP and USA Today polls. This has been done 22 times in history with the latest in 2005 in both polls. The most in the top 10 has been five in the 1971 final UPI poll while the league has had four teams ranked in the final AP poll in 1942, 1952 and 1959. This is the fourth year in a row that the SEC has had multiple teams ranked in the final top 10 polls.

- Since conference expansion in 1992, the SEC has had had least three teams ranked in the top 10 of 88 weekly Associated Press polls, an average of 5.8 polls per year. In every season since 1992, the SEC has had at least one week in a year that three SEC teams have been ranked in the top 10.

- The SEC finished the 2006-07 bowl season with a 6-3 record. The six wins are the most bowl victories in conference history. The league had won five bowl games six times in history with the latest coming in 2003.

- The SEC edged out the Big East Conference for the highest non-conference winning percentage in 2006. Counting bowl games, the SEC was 47-10 against non-conference foes, an 82.45 winning percentage. The Big East, with a 5-0 bowl record, finished with a 37-8 non-conference record, which equates to an 82.22 winning percentage. The SEC had its best non-conference winning percentage since 1997 when it finished with a 37-5 mark (88.10 winning percentage).

- The SEC had eight football student-athletes earn first-team All-America mention in 2006. Included are consensus All-Americans: Arkansas RB Darren McFadden, Ole Miss LB Patrick Willis and Florida DB Reggie Nelson. Also earning first-team mention are: LSU DT Glenn Dorsey, Tennessee WR Robert Meachem, LSU DB LaRon Landry, Tennessee OL Arron Sears and Auburn OL Ben Grubbs.

2006 SEC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

Florida outscored Arkansas 24-7 during the game's final 20 minutes in a come-from-behind 38-28 Gator victory in the 2006 SEC Football Championship Game against the Razorbacks.

Florida scored the game's first 17 points until Arkansas scored with 1:55 left in the first half when Casey Dick connected with Marcus Monk for a 48-yard TD reception to make the halftime score, 17-7.

The Razorbacks continued its scoring in the third quarter. Darren McFadden threw a two-yard TD pass to Felix Jones at the 12:06 mark and then the Hogs' Antwain Robinson returned an interception 40 yards for another score to put Arkansas ahead, 21-17.

That's when the Gators began their comeback. At the 3:47 mark of the third quarter, Florida's Wondy Pierre-Louis recovered a Reggie Fish fumble punt return in the end-zone to put the Gators ahead for good, 24-21. Percy Harvin added a 67-yard TD run opening the fourth quarter to give the Gators a 31-21 lead.

Arkansas pulled to within three at 31-28 on a 29-yard TD pass from Cedric Washington to Felix Jones but the Gators responded on a 5-yard TD pass from Andre Caldwell to Tate Casey with nine minutes left to make the final margin, 38-28.

Harvin was named the game's MVP with 105 yards rushing and a TD and five catches for 62 yards and another score.

SEC FOOTBALL VIDEO REPLAY

THE OBJECTIVE

To allow for specific types of officiating calls to be immediately reviewed during all games hosted by SEC teams.

THE COACHES' CHALLENGE

Each head coach is allowed one Instant Replay challenge per game, which is exercised by requesting a team timeout. A head coach may issue a challenge only if his team has one or more timeouts remaining in the half. If the challenged ruling is overturned, the timeout is not charged, but the coach has no more challenges during that game.

THE SOURCE

All reviewable video comes direct from either the television network broadcasting the game (CBS Sports, ESPN, ESPN2, Lincoln Financial) or other TV production facilities that meet established conference standards. The Southeastern Conference, following approval by the NCAA Football Rules Committee, will implement the use of video replay on an experimental basis beginning with the 2005 football season.

THE PLAYS

Reviewable

1. Plays governed by Sideline, Goal Line, End Zone, and End Line:
 - a. Scoring Plays, including a runner breaking the plane of the goal line
 - b. Pass complete/incomplete/intercepted at sideline, goal line and end line
 - c. Runner/receiver in or out of bounds [if ruled out of bounds, play is finalized]
 - d. Recovery of loose ball in and out of bounds
2. Passing Plays:
 - a. Pass ruled complete/ incomplete/ intercepted in the field of play and end zones
 - b. Touching of a forward pass by an ineligible receiver
 - c. Touching of a forward pass by a defensive player
 - d. Quarterback (Passer) forward pass or fumble (if ruled incomplete, play is finalized)
 - e. Illegal forward pass or illegal handing off beyond the line of scrimmage
 - f. Illegal forward pass or illegal handing off after change of possession
 - g. Forward or backward pass thrown from behind the line of scrimmage
3. Other Detectable Infractions:
 - a. Runner ruled not down [if ruled down, play is finalized]
 - b. Forward progress with respect to first down
 - c. Touching of a kick
 - d. Number of players on field
 - e. Clock adjustments (in conjunction with overturned plays)
 - f. Fourth-down/try fumble plays

THE PROCESS

Each SEC football stadium has a secured replay booth equipped with a DVSPORT Digital Replay System. Three individuals work in the booth for the duration of the game: 1. Replay Official, 2. Communicator, 3. Technician. The Replay Official is selected and assigned by the Conference Office.

A live video feed is sent directly to the replay booth. The Technician watches the feed on an input monitor while capturing/digitizing it into the DVSPORT Digital Replay System. The Technician also marks the beginning of each play as well as any replays as they occur in real time.

Each play and subsequent replay then appears on a touch screen in front of the Communicator. As the Technician marks the incoming video, each view (by mark) will appear as a small picture on the computer touch screen. At any time, the Communicator can touch/click on a thumbnail and immediately send that play/replay to the Replay Official.

With the Communicator's assistance, the Replay Official can quickly jump between replays while playing back the video. All replay video navigation is done via a remote device controlled by the Replay Official. All replays/video are viewed on an output monitor. The touch screen is only used to select the replays.

While most plays are reviewed between the whistle and the beginning of the next play, the Replay Official can stop play on the field by using a pager system. Five onfield officials wear pagers. If play is stopped the Referee announces on the stadium PA microphone that play has been stopped so the previous play can be reviewed. The Referee then proceeds to the sideline headset, which provides direct communication to the Replay Official in the booth. Once the play has been reviewed, the Replay Official notifies the Referee, who then announces the decision on the stadium PA system.

THE EQUIPMENT

Each SEC member institution uses the Digital Replay System developed by DVSPORT of Pittsburgh, Pa. The replay systems are maintained by the home institution with technical support from DVSPORT.

THREE-OR-MORE SEC TEAMS IN SINGLE WEEK AP TOP TEN SINCE 1992

In every season since expansion (1992), the SEC has had at least one week where three teams were ranked in an AP poll. In only two of those years, there was only one week.

This season, the SEC had four teams in the AP Top 10 for weeks 3-6. In the final rankings, the SEC has three teams ranked again in the Top 10 - Florida, Auburn and LSU.

In the 88 different weeks that the SEC has had three-or-more teams ranked, those teams have consisted of eight teams - Alabama, Arkansas, Auburn, Florida, Georgia, LSU, Miss. State and Tennessee.

The SEC has five teams ranked in this week's AP Top 25 poll.

SEC BOWL AGREEMENTS

The Southeastern Conference has agreements to send eight of its member institutions to postseason bowl games following the 2006 season. The winner of the SEC Championship Game will automatically participate in the Bowl Championship Series comprised of the Sugar, Rose, Orange and Fiesta Bowls.

The Capital One (2nd), will then make its pick following the BCS selections. The bowl must select the team with the next best overall record or a team that is within one win of the team with the next best overall record.

The Outback, Chick-fil-A and AT&T Cotton Bowls will work with the conference office to determine picks 3-5. The Cotton Bowl has the first preference of teams from the Western Division and the Outback Bowl has first preference of teams from the Eastern Division. The Cotton or Outback Bowl can select teams outside of its divisional preference, but must not select them before the opposite bowl selects from its divisional preference. The Chick-fil-A Bowl has the selection of preference following the Cotton and Outback Bowls.

In selections 6-7, the AutoZone Liberty and Gaylord Hotels Music City Bowls will make their selections, not in any specific order, but in consultation with the SEC Office. The Bowls will rank available qualified teams in order of preference. If there are no similarities in the order of selection, the bowls will be granted its selection. If the bowls rank the same teams in preference, the team involved in the process would get its preference of which bowl to participate.

The PetroSun Independence Bowl will receive the eighth selection of available SEC teams.

2007 BOWL CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES SCHEDULE

Following the 2006 college football regular season, the Bowl Championship Series will determine the National Championship. This season will also mark the debut of the BCS National Championship Game, which will stand alone from the four traditional BCS bowls but will be hosted by each of the bowls once during a four-year cycle.

Beginning this season, the BCS will consist of the FedEx Orange, Allstate Sugar, Rose, Tostitos Fiesta Bowl and the BCS National Championship Game. The conferences with automatic berths include the Atlantic Coast, Big East, Big Ten, Big 12, Pac-10 and Southeastern Conferences.

FOX Sports will televise all of the Bowl Championship Series games, with the exception of the Rose Bowl, which will be televised by ABC Sports.

The Bowl Championship Series guarantees a matchup between college football's top two teams in a true national championship game.

At the conclusion of the 2006 regular season, the BCS National Championship Game will be hosted in Phoenix, Ariz. on Jan. 8 at 8 p.m. EST. The BCS National Championship Game will have the top two teams ranked in the BCS final regular season standings.

The BCS uses regional consideration regarding team selection. Specifically, as a member of the BCS, the Rose Bowl will host the Big Ten and Pac-10 champions in those years in which either the Rose Bowl does not have the national championship game or the Big Ten and Pac-10 champion is not ranked No. 1 or No. 2. Other "regional consideration" tie-ins include the SEC champion in the Sugar Bowl, the ACC champion in the Orange Bowl and the Big 12 champion in the Fiesta Bowl.

Other BCS games following the 2006 regular season include the Rose Bowl on Jan. 1 at 5 p.m. EST, Fiesta Bowl on Jan. 1 at 8:30 p.m. EST, Orange Bowl on Jan. 2 at 8 p.m. ET, Sugar Bowl on Jan. 3 at 8 p.m. EST.

STATE OF THE SEC

Georgia has the SEC's best record during the last five and ten seasons. The Bulldogs are 53-13 (.803) during the last five seasons and 96-30 (.762) during the last 10 seasons. Georgia is the only SEC team to be ranked in the AP Top 25 ten straight seasons. Below is a look at how each SEC team has fared during the last five and ten seasons (Includes full seasons plus current season):

SEC HAS FOUR MAKE AFCA GOOD WORKS TEAM

The Southeastern Conference boasts four schools with student-athletes selected to the 2006 American Football Coaches Association Division I-A Good Works Team®.

Candidates have to display sincere concern and reliability, while also having made a favorable impression on the organizations with which they are involved. Athletic ability is not a criteria.

AFCA Good Works Team recipients from the SEC include: South Carolina junior offensive lineman William Brown, Georgia senior defensive end Quentin Moses, Kentucky junior tight end Jacob Tamme and Tennessee senior kicker James Wilhoit.

Since 2000, 23 SEC student-athletes have earned this honor. Georgia ranks second all-time with 10 student-athletes named to the Good Works Team. Kentucky is third with nine selections. Nebraska is the all-time leader with 11.

* - Of the 67 previous times that an SEC team has been ranked in an AP preseason poll since 1993, only 21 times has that team improved its position in the final poll.

* - On 19 occasions, an SEC team that has been unranked in the preseason poll has finished in the Top 25 of the final poll. The highest ranked team at the end of the season, which was unranked at the beginning, was Auburn in 1993 (finished fourth). Arkansas was unranked at the start of the 2006 season.

SOUTHEASTERN CONFERENCE FOOTBALL SECond to None

BCS NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

Since the inception of the BCS in 1998, the SEC leads all conferences with three national champions. Tennessee won the BCS' first national title in 1998, LSU won the crown in 2003 and Florida's claimed the national championship in 2006. The Big 12 has two BCS national titles followed by the ACC, Big Ten, Pac-10 and Big East with one each.

NATIONAL CHAMPIONS SINCE 1992

Since SEC expansion in 1992, the SEC and the Big 12 are tied for the most national championships (AP, USA Today) with five each. During that time, the SEC has had more teams with national titles than any other conference (4). Here is a breakdown:

- SEC - Florida (2006, 1996), LSU (2003), Tennessee (1998), Alabama (1992)
- Big 12 - Texas (2005), Oklahoma (2000), Nebraska (1994, 1995, 1997)
- Big Ten - Ohio State (2002), Michigan (1997)
- Pac-10 - Southern California (2004, 2003)
- ACC - Florida State (1999, 1993)
- Big East - Miami, Fla. (2001)

TOP 25 FINISHES

Since 2000, the Southeastern Conference has had more teams ranked in the final USA Today Coaches Poll than any other conference. The SEC has had 34 teams ranked in the last seven final USA Today Coaches polls, an average of almost five per season. The Big 12 is second with 26 teams ranked since 2000. The SEC has led or tied for lead in most teams ranked in the final USA Today Coaches Polls in six of the last seven seasons.

THIS IS THE SOUTHEASTERN CONFERENCE

THE SOUTHEASTERN CONFERENCE

- The Southeastern Conference sponsors championships in 20 sports - 11 women's sports and nine men's sports. They include baseball, men's and women's basketball, men's and women's cross country, football, men's and women's golf, gymnastics, soccer, softball, men's and women's swimming and diving, men's and women's tennis, men's and women's indoor and outdoor track and field, and volleyball.
- The SEC's mission statement reflects the priorities of the league. "The purpose of the Southeastern Conference is to assist its member institutions in the maintenance of programs of intercollegiate athletics which are compatible with the highest standards of education and competitive sports."

ACADEMIC ACHIEVEMENTS

- During the last four years, the SEC has had more student-athletes honored as CoSIDA/ESPN The Magazine Academic All-Americans than any other conference. The league has had 136 student-athletes named CoSIDA/ESPN The Magazine Academic All-Americans, including 63 named to the first-team.
- During the last 10 years, the SEC has had 18 winners of the NCAA Today's Top VIII Award, which is given annually to eight outstanding senior student-athletes. Since 1997, no other conference has had as many student-athletes honored with this prestigious award. In 2006, Georgia swimmer Samantha Arsenault and Alabama football player DeMeco Ryans were named recipients of this award.
- Florida's Chris Leak was named by the National Football Foundation as a National Scholar-Athlete. During the last five years, the SEC has had 11 student-athletes honored, the most of any conference. LSU's Rudy Niswanger won the Vincent dePaul Draddy Award given by the National Football Foundation in 2005 as the nation's top football scholar-athlete. Niswanger became the sixth SEC student-athlete to claim the "Academic Heisman" since the award was established in 1990.

FOR THE STUDENT-ATHLETE

- The 12 member institutions of the SEC provide nearly $65 million in scholarships for the more than 4,200 student-athletes each year.
- The SEC distributed nearly $675,000 during the 2005-2006 academic year from the NCAA Special Assistance Fund for Student-Athletes. This program was implemented to provide financial aid to student-athletes with specific needs such as clothing and shoes, medical or vision care, academic course supplies and family emergencies.
- During the 2005-06 academic year, the SEC will distribute more than $1 million to directly benefit student-athletes from the Student-Athlete Opportunity Fund.
- The SEC awards post-graduate scholarships totaling $130,000 to 24 student-athletes each year. The top male and female nominee each receive the H. Boyd McWhorter Scholar-Athlete Award, named for the league's fourth commissioner, and a $10,000 scholarship. Last year, 22 additional student-athletes (11 female and 11 male) received $5,000 to continue their education. LSU football player Rudy Niswanger and Florida women's basketball player Sarah Lowe were named McWhorter Scholar-Athlete Award winners in 2005-06.
- The SEC has established a Community Service Award to honor a male and female student-athlete with a $5,000 scholarship for outstanding service in the community. Arkansas gymnast Hannah McLeod and Kentucky football player Antoine Huffman were named recipients of this award in 2005-06.

A LEADER IN WOMEN'S SPORTS

- The SEC has developed a "Principles for Gender Equity," which, calls for each league school to provide equitable funding for women's sports, promotions and marketing and other support services. The SEC currently conducts championships in 11 women's sports and nine men's sports.
- The SEC had three sport winners of the Collegiate Woman of the Year Award sponsored by Honda. LSU's Seimone Augustus won for women's basketball, Georgia's Mary DeScenza won for swimming & diving and Alabama's Ashley Miles won for gymnastics.
- Tennessee diver Lauryn McCalley was named the 2005 NCAA Woman of the Year. This award recognizes senior student-athletes in intercollegiate athletics for their outstanding achievements in athletics, academics and community service. Since 1991, the SEC has had five winners of this award.

- Since 1987, SEC schools have won 62 NCAA women's national championships, an average of more than three per year in the 11 women's sports the SEC sponsors. Eight of the 12 SEC institutions have won a national women's team championship since 1987.

COMPLIANCE AND EDUCATION

- The SEC Task Force Committee on Compliance and Enforcement has issued a report of recommendations that represents an important initial step in a formal process of establishing a new standard of compliance excellence within the Southeastern Conference. Among the recommendations included in this report was how institutions will handle reports of allegations, strengthening the relationship between the league's institutions and the conference office, developing new orientation programs and establishing an annual review of compliance issues.
- The SEC also conducts a New Coaches Orientation Program four times a year, which supplements institutional orientation programs and enhance the professional development of coaches. Topics of discussion range from the role of the SEC and NCAA to the role of athletics in higher education.

SPORTSMANSHIP

- The SEC has developed a sportsmanship statement for its institutions to follow. It states:
"Coaches and student-athletes of a member institution, as well as individuals employed by or associated with that institution, including alumni, fans, patrons and boosters, shall conduct themselves with honesty and good sportsmanship. Their behavior shall at all times reflect the high standards of honor and dignity that characterize participation in the collegiate setting. For intercollegiate athletics to promote the character development of participants, to enhance the integrity of higher education and to promote civility in society, coaches, student-athletes and all others associated with these athletics programs and events should adhere to such fundamental values as respect, fairness, civility, honesty and responsibility. These values should be manifested not only in athletics participation but also in the broad spectrum of activities affecting the athletics program. It is the responsibility of each member institution to establish policies for sportsmanship and ethical conduct in intercollegiate athletics consistent with the educational mission and goals of the institution. Furthermore, member institutions are responsible for educating on a continuing basis all constituencies about these policies."

IN THE COMMUNITY

- The SEC launched its education initiative in 2002, utilizing the platform of intercollegiate athletics to provide elementary school teachers with relevant resources they can use to educate and prepare children for life. The SEC became the nation's first conference to develop customized educational software, providing a CD-ROM containing SEC-branded content correlating to national educational standards. Since the CD-ROM was produced, the SEC has initiated an online program for K-8 students on education content and character development.
- SECKids.com is a website uniquely designed for school-age students. Now fans of all ages can access exciting, interactive and educational information on the SEC and its universities. SECKids.com features exclusive behind-the-scenes access at championship events, profiles of student-athletes and coaches, along with games and video highlights. Teachers can also register online to utilize the SEC Kids's college software in their classroom. The SEC is the only conference in the country to develop a site of this kind.

OVERALL ATHLETICS SUCCESS

- Since 1990, the SEC has won 110 team and 753 individual national championships. Since that time, the SEC has had at least one team ranked in the top five nationally in 76.9 percent of the total sports win which the league has competed (253 of 329). Nine of the SEC's 12 schools have won at least one national championship since 1990.
- In the SEC's 20 sponsored sports since 2000, the SEC has won more team national championships than any other conference in the nation. The SEC won 42 team titles since 2000, while the Pac-10 won 37 and the Big 12 won 19. The SEC won team titles in 14 different sports since 2000, also the most of any conference.
