ALABAMA CRIMSON TIDE

The 2013 Alabama baseball season came to an end on Sunday afternoon with a heartbreaking 9-8 loss to the 26th-ranked and third seeded Troy Trojans in an elimination game of the Tallahassee Regional from Mike Martin Field. Despite outhitting Troy 15-8 on the day, the Tide was unable to close out the game as the Trojans scored four runs in the bottom of the ninth to walk off with the win. With the Tide leading 8-5 heading into the bottom of the ninth, Alabama (35-28) turned the ball over to closer Ray Castillo. Castillo (2-3) blew his third save of the season, allowing four runs on three walks, two hit batters and two hits in a third of an inning. The game-winning run came when Castillo walked Brandon Brown with bases loaded to push across Josh McDorman to end the game. With the win, Troy will take on Florida State tonight at 5 p.m. ET. Jeremy McGowan threw the final 1.1 innings for the Trojans (42-19) to improve to 2-0 on the season. Alabama collected 15 hits as eight of the nine starters had at least one hit in the game. Chance Vincent had a career-high three hits, going 3-for-4 with a run scored. Hitting leadoff for the first time in his career, Mikey White was 2-for-4 with an RBI and a run scored. Seven seniors played their final games for the Tide, as Brett Booth and Andrew Miller finished their career with two hits in the game. Booth was 2-for-5 with two RBI and a run scored and Miller was 2-for-4 and scored twice. Kyle Overstreet was 2-for-5 and Austen Smith was 2-for-4 with a double, an RBI and a run scored. Senior catcher Brett Booth and freshmen middle infielders Mikey White and Kyle Overstreet selected to the NCAA Tallahassee Regional All-Tournament Team, which was announced on Monday. Brett Booth paced the Crimson Tide with a .545 average in three games of the tournament, recording six hits in 11 at-bats. He was also hit by a pitch, had a double, scored twice and tied for the team lead with three RBI. Following his performance in the regional, Booth finished the season with a team-high and career-best .290 batting average. Mikey White hit .300 in the tournament, with two walks, two runs scored and an RBI and Kyle Overstreet hit .231 (3-for-13) with a run scored and an RBI. White finished the year with a .287 average, second to Booth, and Overstreet ended his freshman campaign with a .271 average and 37 RBI. The double play duo of White and Overstreet helped the Crimson Tide turn four double plays in the three games of the tournament, as Alabama finished the year with 80 double plays in 63 games. Bama finished second nationally in total double plays turned, just one behind national leader Towson. The Southeastern Conference has released the schedule for the 2014 baseball season. The Alabama Crimson Tide's 30-game SEC schedule will begin at home on March 14 with a three-game series against Kentucky, and wraps up with a home series against Mississippi State, May 15-17. The Tide will play 10 weeks of conference games with five, three-game series at Sewell-Thomas Stadium and five series on the road. Alabama will play six series against teams from the Western Division and four series against teams from the conference's Eastern Division. Within its games against Eastern Division foes, Alabama will host Kentucky and Florida and travel to Tennessee and South Carolina. Bama's Western Division schedule will have the Tide hosting Mississippi, Auburn and Mississippi State and traveling to Arkansas, Texas A&M and LSU. For the 2014 season, Alabama will not have regular season series against SEC East foes Missouri, Georgia and Vanderbilt.

ARKANSAS RAZORBACKS

The No. 15 Arkansas baseball team saw its season come to an end on Sunday night as the Razorbacks dropped a 4-3 decision to No. 17 Kansas State in the regional final of the Manhattan Regional at Tointon Family Stadium. Arkansas finishes the season with a 39-22 record, while Kansas State improves to 44-17. The Wildcats advance to face Oregon State in the Corvallis Super Regional next weekend. The Razorbacks ended their season in the NCAA Tournament for the 12th straight year, one of only seven teams to advance to the NCAA Tournament the last 12 years, and won at least two games in the postseason for the fifth straight season and sixth time in the last seven years. Arkansas had three players on the all-tournament team as Brett McAfee, Ryne Stanek and Spoon were named to the team. McAfee hit .385 (5-for-13) with three doubles, four RBI and a run scored in the regional. Stanek worked 7.1 innings on Saturday vs. Wichita State, allowing a run on two hits and striking out three. Spoon finished the regional going 5-for-17 with four RBI and two runs scored. The Southeastern Conference recently announced the 2014 SEC baseball schedule and the Arkansas baseball team will play eight series against SEC teams that advanced to the 2013 NCAA Tournament. The Razorbacks will play 30 regular season games against league opponents with six series against teams from the SEC Western Division and four series against teams from the SEC East. Arkansas will host Alabama, South Carolina, Vanderbilt, Auburn and Texas A&M in conference series at Baum Stadium. The Razorbacks will have road SEC series at Florida, Mississippi State, LSU, Ole Miss and Missouri in 2014. Arkansas will not face SEC East foes Georgia, Kentucky and Tennessee during the 2014 regular season. The full 2014 Arkansas baseball schedule will be announced later this year.

AUBURN TIGERS

Auburn is in the market for a new baseball coach after relieving John Pawlowski of his duties Monday after five years on the job. Pawlowski had a 167-126 record at Auburn, including a 71-79 record in the SEC. His 2010 team won the SEC West, but the Tigers had losing conference records in each of his other four years, including the last three. Pawlowski said before this season's SEC Tournament, and again after a first-round loss, that he thought Auburn deserved an NCAA bid. But the Tigers were not one of the nine SEC teams that made the NCAA field that was announced Monday. His 2010 team went 43-21 overall, won the West with a 20-10 conference record and hosted an NCAA regional. But the Tigers couldn't match that the last three years, going 14-16, 13-17 and 13-17 in league play. Pawlowski's four SEC Tournament teams were seeded second, eighth, 10th and 10th, and compiled a 2-7 tourney record. Auburn was eliminated in the first round of this season's tournament in a 6-3 loss to Alabama. Pawlowski leaves Auburn as the third winningest coach in the program's history, trailing Hal Baird and Paul Nix. Pawlowski won his 500th college game in 2013. He was hired before the 2009 season after compiling a 338-192-1 record in nine years at the College of Charleston where he won three Southern League regular-season titles. Auburn's everyday first baseman, Cooper finished the SEC season leading the team and seventh in the SEC in batting average (.352), tied for third in slugging percentage (.581), sixth in on base percentage (.444), tied for ninth in hits (37), tied for third in home runs (six) and tied for sixth in total bases (61). Defensively, he had a .986 fielding percentage and finished third in the league in chances (276) and putouts (259). His 26 fielding double plays tied for fourth in the SEC.

FLORIDA GATORS

Fourth-seeded Valparaiso (32-27) overcame a 4-1 deficit with four runs in the seventh inning to eliminate third-seeded Florida (29-30), 5-4, from the 2013 NCAA Bloomington Regional on Saturday afternoon at Bart Kaufman Field. Junior right-hander Jonathon Crawford (Okeechobee, Fla.) and sophomore right fielder Justin Shafer (Lake Wales, Fla.) were chosen to the 2013 NCAA Bloomington Regional All-Tournament squad announced on Sunday night. Host Indiana captured the Regional with a perfect 3-0 mark and will face Florida State in the NCAA Tallahassee Super Regional for a berth in the College World Series. During the Gators' opening-round contest on Friday afternoon, Crawford limited second-seeded Austin Peay to one run and four hits over 6.1 innings and registered five strikeouts. He was in line for the victory before the Gators overcame a 3-1 deficit with a three-run homer in the eighth inning to notch a 4-3 triumph. Shafer was 4-for-8 (.500) over Florida's two outings at Bart Kaufman Field, highlighted by a three-run round-tripper in the sixth inning versus APSU that had moved the Orange and Blue in front by a 3-1 score. GEORGIA BULLDOGS

Scott Stricklin, who led his alma mater Kent State to five NCAA Regionals and the 2012 College World Series, has been named head baseball coach at the University of Georgia. Director of Athletics Greg McGarity announced Monday. Stricklin, 41, posted a 350-188 record during a nine-year stint with the Golden Flashes, winning five Mid-American Conference regular season crowns and five MAC Tournament titles. Known for developing student-athletes on and off the field, 30 KSU players have been selected in the Major League Baseball draft during his tenure, and from 2010-12 the team has registered a perfect 1,000 score in the NCAA's Academic Performance Rate (APR) report. KSU was one of only 16 schools in the country to reach this academic accomplishment and the only public institution on the list. Also, the Golden Flashes were honored in Omaha in 2012 for having the highest team Grade Point Average (GPA) of all the eight participants at the College World Series (CWS), owning a 3.09 GPA. For the spring semester of 2013, the KSU baseball team registered a 3.06 GPA. Stricklin earned his first head coaching job in July of 2004 when he returned to Kent State following three seasons as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at Georgia Tech under former KSU head coach Danny Hall. Stricklin began his coaching career in 1998 as a volunteer coach for the Yellow Jackets and then spent two years as the pitching coach at Vanderbilt from 2000-01. While at Tech, he landed the consensus No. 1 ranked recruiting class in 2002 as they advanced to the College World Series that year, and they made it to an NCAA Super Regional in 2004 before falling to Georgia in Atlanta. His final recruiting class at Vanderbilt was ranked seventh best by Baseball America. In 2011, he served as an assistant coach for the USA Baseball Collegiate National Team. Stricklin directed Kent State to its finest season in school history in 2012 as the Golden Flashes posted a record 47 victories including a 21-game winning streak and their first trip to the CWS. KSU's post season run featured its fourth consecutive MAC Tournament title to go with its first NCAA Regional and Super Regional championships. The Golden Flashes went on the road and won the NCAA Gary (Ind.) Regional and then upset No. 5 national seed Oregon in a Super Regional in Eugene. At the CWS, they eliminated top-ranked Florida and finished tied for fifth. KSU wound up with a final national ranking of No. 5, the highest ranking in team history. For the second year in a row, Stricklin was honored as the American Baseball Coaches Association (ABCA)/Rawlings NCAA Midwest Coach of the Year and the MAC Coach of the Year. Stricklin, a two-time All-Mid-American Conference catcher, handled pitching staffs that were ranked No. 1 and No. 2 in the nation in earned run average during his final two playing seasons at KSU. A 23rd round draft pick of the Minnesota Twins in 1993, he played five seasons of professional baseball and reached the Triple-A level with the Twins. Stricklin graduated magna cum laude with a bachelor's degree in marketing from Kent State in 1995. He and his wife Cheri have three children: daughters Sydney (11) and Keaton (5), and a son, Cale (8).

KENTUCKY WILDCATS

Kentucky sophomores Austin Cousino, A.J. Reed and freshmen Kyle Barrett and Greg Fettes earned All-Southeastern Conference accolades, in a voting of the league coaches, it was announced on Tuesday by the conference office. Reed, a sophomore left-handed pitcher/first baseman, was named All-SEC first team as the designated hitter and utility player. Cousino earned All-SEC Defensive Team honors for the second straight year and Barrett and Fettes were named to the All-SEC Freshman Team, with Barrett in the outfield and Fettes the All-SEC Freshman Team catcher. Reed is the first UK player to earn first-team All-SEC honors since Thomas McCarthy in 2011. He is the first UK player to earn first-team honors as the designated hitter since Brad Hindersman in 1993. Barrett and Fettes earned Freshman All-SEC honors, joining Reed (2012), Cousino (2012), Ryan Wilkes (2005) and Antone DeJesus (2005) as UK players to earn conference All-Freshman accolades. Fettes is the first UK catcher to earn All-SEC Freshman honors in program history. Cousino was named to the All-SEC Defensive Team for the second consecutive year, as the UK sophomore earned SEC Freshman of the Year, second-team All-SEC and All-SEC Defensive Team a season ago. A native of Terre Haute, Ind., Reed served as UK's Friday-night starter on the mound in 2013 and hit No. 3 or No. 4 in the batting order throughout the year. A 6-foot-4, 245-pounder, Reed hit .280 (60-for-214) at the plate with eight doubles, two triples, 13 homers and 52 RBI. On the mound, Reed had a 2-8 record and a 4.04 ERA in 82.1 innings, walking just 15 and striking out 52. In his two-year career, Reed has hit .290 with 17 doubles, two triples, 17 homers and driven in 92 RBI. On the mound in his career, Reed has a 7-11 record and a 3.44 ERA in 136 innings, walking 24 and striking out 103. Cousino, a native of Dublin, Ohio, manned centerfield for the Wildcats in 2013, making 127 putouts, a year removed from a school-record 142 putouts in 2012. In 2013, Cousino hit .249 (52-for-209) with 12 doubles, one triple, six homers and 27 RBI, stealing 14 bases. In his two-year career, Cousino has hit .288 (135-for-469) with 32 doubles, three triples, 15 homers and 68 RBI, stealing 29 bases. A native of Douglasville, Ga., Barrett stepped into the UK lineup and led the Wildcats in hitting, owning the 10th-best average in the SEC and ranking second among league freshmen, behind only LSU shortstop and SEC Freshman of the Year, Alex Bregman. Barrett hit .349 (51-for-146) with four doubles, one triple, 14 RBI and four steals. Fettes, a native of Madison Heights, Mich., emerged as one of the top freshmen in college baseball while sharing time behind the plate in 2013. A 6-2, 225-pound right-handed hitter, Fettes batted .250 in 23 games and 19 starts, belting five doubles, three homers and nine RBI. Of his first 15 career hits, eight came as extra-base knocks. His three homers all came in SEC play and were clutch hits, at No. 14 South Carolina, at No. 16 Ole Miss and vs. No. 14 Arkansas. The Wildcats completed a 30-win season with back-to-back trips to the SEC Tournament for the first time since 1998-99. UK ranked eighth in the NCAA with 13 wins against top-50 RPI teams and played the third-most games against top-50 RPI teams in college baseball.

LSU TIGERS

North Carolina pitcher Trent Thornton limited top-ranked LSU to two runs over seven innings and a comeback bid came up short as the Tar Heels eliminated the Tigers from the College World Series by a score of 4-2 on Tuesday afternoon at TD Ameritrade Park. LSU (57-11) concluded a memorable season, tying the school and Southeastern Conference record for wins (57), while claiming an SEC West championship, an SEC Tournament championship, an NCAA regional title and an NCAA super regional crown. LSU is No. 1 in the final 2013 college baseball attendance rankings, marking the 18th straight season in which the Tigers have led the nation in total attendance. LSU posted an NCAA-record total attendance figure of 473,298 in 43 games this season in Alex Box Stadium, Skip Bertman Field, including 38 regular-season games, three NCAA Regional games and two NCAA Super Regional contests.

The Tigers' total attendance mark was nearly 200,000 greater than second-place Mississippi State (281,840). LSU is the only school in NCAA history to exceed 400,000 in baseball attendance. The Tigers also surpassed the 400,000 mark in 2010 (404,916) and in 2012 (472,391). LSU in 2013 was also No. 1 in average attendance for the 17th time in 18 years, recording a figure of 11,006 tickets sold per game. LSU established a school single-game record for actual attendance on June 8 when 11,401 fans witnessed the Tigers' Super Regional win over Oklahoma that clinched a berth in the College World Series. The Tigers' paid attendance figure of 12,727 for the LSU-South Carolina game on April 27 also established a school record. LSU sold more than 10,000 tickets for 40 of its 43 games in Alex Box Stadium, Skip Bertman Field this season. LSU's Alex Box Stadium, Skip Bertman Field is ranked No. 1 in a listing of the Top 10 College Baseball Stadiums published by College Baseball Daily. The other stadiums appearing in the Top 10 are No. 2 Dudy Noble Field (Mississippi State), No. 3 Dick Howser Stadium (Florida State), No. 4 Baum Stadium (Arkansas), No. 5 Haymarket Park (Nebraska), No. 6 Carolina Stadium (South Carolina), No. 7 Doug Kingsmore Stadium (Clemson), No. 8 Swayze Field (Ole Miss), No. 9 PK

OLE MISS REBELS

Missed opportunities were the difference on Sunday as No. 23 Ole Miss (38-24) fell to William & Mary (39-23) by a score of 4-1 in an elimination game at the NCAA Regional hosted by N.C. State University. With the loss, the Rebels end the 2013 season at the NCAA Regional after advancing to the post season for the 11th time in the last 13 seasons and 18th time in program history. Sam Smith (3-1) took his first loss of the season, allowing four runs on seven hits with no walks or strikeouts. Brett Koehler (7-5) picked up the win, working a complete-game and allowing the one unearned run on seven hits with a walk and five strikeouts. William & Mary struck first on Sunday, using a pair of two-out doubles from Michael Katz and Ryan Lindemuth to push a run home and take the early lead on the Rebels. Ole Miss got out of the inning with a fly out in the next at bat, but the Tribe held the one-run lead after the first. Ole Miss tied things up in the fourth, loading the bases with a single, a walk and a throwing error on a sac bunt before Austin Anderson would score on a double play ball to short from Preston Overbey. The Rebels got nothing else in the inning, as Will Jamison hit a fly ball to right that dropped in at the warning track to end the inning a batter later. The Tribe answered immediately in the bottom half of the inning, using a hit batter and a single to right to put two men on. A sac bunt moved both runners into scoring position for Jackson Shaver, who singled up the middle to drive in both runners for the 3-1 lead. A leadoff double in the bottom of the sixth sent the Rebels to the bullpen for left-hander Jeremy Massie. The next batter singled through the left side, bringing the runner home and William & Mary took the 4-1 lead on the Rebels. Massie then got a strikeout and a double play ball to limit the inning and send things to the seventh. Neither team would score down the stretch as the Tribe held on for the 4-1 win, keeping the Rebels off the board in the final three frames. Junior catcher Stuart Turner has been named one of three finalists for the 2013 Johnny Bench Award, the Greater Wichita Sports Commission announced on Tuesday afternoon. The Bench Award, presented annually by BaseballSavings.com in conjunction with the Greater Wichita Sports Commission, honors the nation's top collegiate catcher. Turner is a finalist along with Mitchell Garver of New Mexico and Zane Evans of Georgia Tech.

MISSISSIPPI STATE BULLDOGS

Mississippi State's best baseball season in the program's rich history came to a close Tuesday night. Playing before a TD Ameritrade Park record crowd of 27,127, the Bulldogs battled hard before falling in the final game of the championship series at the College World Series. UCLA won its first-ever baseball national championship with an 8-0 victory over MSU. The Bulldogs dropped both games in the best-of-three championship series, also losing 3-1 to the Bruins Monday night. For MSU, the season ends at 51-20. The Bulldogs won the second most games in program history and advanced to play for the national championship for the first time. The Bulldogs matched a school record by playing a total of 71 games during the 2013 season.

UCLA pitching proved too much for MSU in the championship series. The Bruins allowed only four runs in five College World Series victories and finished with an incredible team ERA of 0.80 in the event.

MSU won its first three games in Omaha for the first time in program history. The Bulldogs knocked off Oregon State twice and Indiana to breeze to the Bracket One championship. The good fortune ran out in the championship series, as the Bulldogs scored only once in 18 innings of play and never led in either game. On offense, Hunter Renfroe led the way with first-team honors. Renfroe earned the nod after hitting .345 with 16 home runs, 16 doubles and 65 RBIs in 66 games in his final campaign for the Maroon and White. Since agreeing to a $2.68 million dollar contract with the San Diego Padres after being drafted 13th overall in June's MLB Draft, the Crystal Springs, Miss., native is hitting .297 overall with five homers and 22 RBIs in 31 games into his professional career. Standing on the mound, southpaw Ross Mitchell was named to the first team after being the only pitcher in the NCAA to rack up 13 or more wins without a single loss. Fellow sophomore Jonathan Holder earned second-team accolades following a season which saw the right-hander save a school-record 21 games, ranking third in the country and tying the 11-year Southeastern Conference Record. Rounding out the quintet of Bulldogs were shortstop Adam Frazier and left-handed pitcher Chad Girodo, who were named honorable mention All-Americans. Frazier led the NCAA in hits with 107 and is currently hitting .345 in 42 games with the Jamestown Jammers of the Pittsburgh Pirates organization. Girodo earned the selection after finishing top 30 in the NCAA in wins to go along with a miniscule 1.36 ERA. The lefty currently owns a 3.24 ERA in 11 appearances with the Lansing Lugnuts of the Toronto Blue Jays organization. Boasting 12 players who were either 2013 Major League Baseball Draft picks or All-Americans on the high school or junior college level, Mississippi State's 2012-13 baseball signing class has been ranked second nationally in the annual recruiting survey compiled by Collegiate Baseball. The ranking is the second-highest ever for the Bulldogs by the newspaper based in Tucson, Ariz., which began ranking classes three decades ago in 1983. Continuing a trend from earlier this summer, a school-record five Mississippi State baseball players were named CollegeBaseballInsider.com/Louisville Slugger All-Americans, the website announced this past Friday.

MISSOURI TIGERS

Mizzou baseball standouts Keaton Steele (St. Joseph, Mo.) and Josh Lester (Columbus, Ga.) were named to the All-Southeastern Conference Teams, as announced by the league office on Tuesday (May 28). Steele was named to the All-SEC First Team as a utility player and Lester earned the first base position on the All-Freshman Team. Steele is the first Tiger to land on an All-Conference First Team since both Aaron Senne and Brett Nicholas earned a spot on the All-Big 12 First Team in 2010. Steele was arguably the top two-way player in the SEC this season, and the league's 14 coaches recognized that by naming him All-SEC First Team as a utility player. The Tiger rightly led Mizzou with five wins on the mound, two saves and hit .276 at the dish with 24 RBIs and a team-high five homers. He was the only player in a power conference to lead his team in wins, saves and home runs this season. Steele was even better in SEC play, earning four of his five wins and both of his saves while hitting all five of his homers in league games. In SEC play, Steele led Mizzou in batting (.306), slugging (.542), homers (five) and on-base percentage (.435). He also had an ERA of 3.00 in league games and struck out 45 batters in 48.0 innings in SEC play. Not only were his numbers as a two-way player remarkable, but he also earned a pair of SEC weekly honors during the regular season, being named SEC Pitcher of the Week following Mizzou's series with South Carolina and was then named SEC Player of the Week after doing it all in a series win at Georgia. He was the first player in 16 years to be named SEC Pitcher of the Week and Player of the Week in the same season. In his first year in black and gold, Lester was arguably one of the Tigers' most consistent hitters and fielders in 2013. He hit .260 on the year, but was sensational with runners in scoring position, driving in 25 runs, just three off of the team-lead, and he led the team with nine doubles and tied for the team-lead in extra-base hits with 11 as he also tallied a pair of homers. His numbers were excellent in SEC play as well, driving in 14 runs while hitting six of his nine doubles and both homers in league play. But as impressive as Lester was with his bat in his freshman season, he was even better in the field. In fact, he played all four infield positions for Mizzou and was the most reliable infielder defensively, committing only four errors in 281 chances, good for a .986 fielding percentage, a team-best among Tiger infielders. His four errors were the fewest among Tiger infielders despite playing all four positions.

SOUTH CAROLINA GAMECOCKS

North Carolina scored three times in the bottom of the sixth and held on for a 5-4 win in the third and deciding game of the Super Regionals at Boshamer Stadium Tuesday afternoon. With the win, the Tar Heels (57-10) advance to the College World Series and will take on NC State in the 3 p.m. ET game on Sunday, June 16 in Omaha, Neb. The Gamecocks (43-20) have their season come to an end one game short of a fourth-straight trip to the CWS. South Carolina got on the board first for the third straight game in the series with a run in the top of the second. Connor Bright stroked a one-out double to left off Tar Heel starter Benton Moss and scored on Tanner English's two-out single to center. North Carolina answered right back in the bottom of the inning. After the first two batters were retired, Michael Russell was hit by a pitch. Brian Holberton followed with his 11th home run of the season, a two-run shot over the right field wall. It was the first round tripper allowed by Gamecock starter Jack Wynkoop this season and put the Tar Heels on top 2-1. The game was then turned over to the team's bullpen. North Carolina head coach Mike Fox called on Trent Thornton in the third inning. None of the three North Carolina starters in the series lasted more than 2.1 innings. South Carolina head coach Chad Holbrook countered with senior left-hander Adam Westmoreland in the third as well. The Gamecocks retook the lead in the top of the fifth with the help of some shaky Tar Heel defense. Kyle Martin walked to lead off the inning. English laid down a sacrifice bunt and reached base safely when first baseman Cody Stubbs was unable to handle the throw from Thornton. Both runners moved up a base on Graham Saiko's sacrifice bunt. Thornton appeared to have worked out of the jam as Chase Vergason struck out and Joey Pankake lofted a ball to medium-deep centerfield, but Chaz Frank dropped the routine fly for a two-base error, scoring both Martin and English, giving the Gamecocks a 3-2 lead. South Carolina added a single run in the sixth to open up a two-run advantage at 4-2. Grayson Greiner and Max Schrock lined back-to-back singles to left to open the frame. Greiner was forced at third on Bright's bunt attempt and Kyle Martin fanned before English dropped one just inside the left field line for a double, scoring Schrock. Once again, the Tar Heels responded quickly, batting around in the deciding three-run sixth. Landon Lassiter led off with a liner off the glove of Pankake at short for a single. Colin Moran laced a triple into the right field corner, scoring Lassiter and cutting the lead in half. After Skye Bolt was hit by a pitch, Stubbs lofted a shallow fly to center. Moran held at third on the catch, but Bolt tagged up and advanced to second on the throw from English that was cut off by Martin. Martin threw wildly to second trying to nail Bolt, allowing Moran to score the tying run and Bolt to advance to third. It marked the Gamecocks' third error of the game and ninth error of the series. Westmoreland was one out away from working out of the inning after Russell grounded out, but after Holberton was walked intentionally, Mike Zolk walked to load the bases. Tyler Webb relieved Westmoreland and, after getting ahead in the count 0-2, walked Parks Jordan, forcing in Bolt with the eventual game-winning run before getting Frank to fly out to end the uprising. Thornton (11-1) was credited with the win after working 4.2 innings of relief in which he allowed three hits and three runs, one earned, with two walks and four strikeouts. Westmoreland (7-4) was tagged with the loss. He worked 3.1 innings, surrendering three runs, all earned, on two hits with two walks and no strikeouts. Webb, making his school-record 110th and final appearance, allowed one hit and one walk in 2.1 innings of work. Left-hander Kent Emanuel, the fourth Tar Heel pitcher of the game and the starter in game 1, recorded the final two outs for his first save of the season.

TENNESSEE VOLUNTEERS

Tennessee closed out the 2013 campaign on a high note on Saturday, defeating Texas A&M, 7-5, on Senior Day at Lindsey Nelson Stadium. After falling behind by four early, the Volunteers responded with six unanswered runs with Scott Price and A.J. Simcox driving in two runs each. Price finished 3-for-4 in the contest to give him a team-leading .361 batting average for the season, the highest by a UT player since Cody Hawn hit .364 in 2009. Eric Martin picked up his first career win, throwing 4.0 scoreless innings of relief in which he struck out four and allowed just four hits. It was actually the first decision of his career - win, loss or save - as he was making his team-leading 22nd appearance of the season and 31st of his career. Trevor Charpie recorded his second save of the year, tallying the final five outs of the game without allowing a hit. The save was the ninth on the season for Tennessee, all of which were recorded by true freshmen. Prior to the game the Vols honored seniors Zack Godley and Zach Luther, as well as senior student assistants Hunter Mitchem and Andy Yates. Godley got the start in centerfield to open the game before being lifted before the first pitch, allowing him to take a curtain call to put the final touches on a stellar collegiate career. The Aggies wasted little time jumping out to a quick lead on Saturday as the first two batters of the game reached base and Cole Lankford followed with a three-run shot over the wall in right to give A&M a 3-0 lead before the first out was recorded. The Vols would settle down to keep them off the board the rest of the frame though and then got one of the runs back in the home half of the inning when Simcox lined a single to right, stole second, moved to third on a groundout and scored on a single through the right side by Price. A leadoff home run by Krey Bratsen to start the second pushed the A&M lead back to three before an RBI single in the top of the fourth put the Orange and White in a 5-1 deficit. Tennessee cut that down to two with a pair of runs in the bottom of the stanza when Smart followed singles by Price and Ethan Bennett with a two-RBI double down the left-field line. The score would remain 5-3 in favor of the Aggies until the Vols put together a three-run frame in the bottom of the seventh to take their first lead of the day. Jeff Moberg and Parker Wormsley got things started with back-to-back singles and a sac bunt by Luther moved them both into scoring position. Simcox then laced the first pitch he saw into the gap in right-center for a game-tying stand-up triple, the first three-bagger of his career. Although A&M got a strikeout for the second out, Price pulled an RBI single through the left side to give UT a 6-5 lead. The Big Orange tacked on an insurance run in the bottom of the eighth with pinch-runner Heath Loyd scoring from third on a wild pitch. Charpie then closed the book on the 2013 campaign by getting three consecutive groundouts to third to end the game. Fittingly, senior Zach Luther was on the receiving end of all three plays at first to finish off the game, the season and his playing career. The Volunteers finish the 2013 season with an overall record of 22-30 and an 8-20 mark in Southeastern Conference play.

TEXAS A&M AGGIES

After staving off elimination twice, the Texas A&M Aggies were unable to keep the 2013 campaign alive, losing a 6-1 decision to the host Oregon State Beavers at the Corvallis Regional of the NCAA Division I Championship. The Aggies season ends with a 34-29 mark. A&M advanced to the NCAA Championship for a school-record seventh consecutive season. Texas A&M kept the 3,362 in attendance at Goss Stadium quiet early by staking claim to a 1-0 advantage in the bottom of the first, but the Beavers tied the game with a run in the fifth, tallied two in the seventh to wrestle the lead away and tacked on three in the ninth. Grayson Long allowed one unearned run on six hits and two walks while striking out three over 5.2 innings. Jason Jester (3-4) was saddled with the loss. He allowed two runs on four hits and two strikeouts over 2.1 innings. Ben Wetzel (8-1) earned the victory with a complete-game effort. He allowed one run on four hits and four walks while striking out 10. Jonathan Moroney had two of the Aggies' four hits on the evening. The freshman was 2-for-4 with two doubles. Ryan Barnes led all players with three hits, going 3-for-5 with one RBI. Danny Hayes, Michael Conforto, Tyler Smith and Jake Rodriguez had two hits apiece.

Hayes was 2-for-5 with one double, one run and three RBI. Conforto went 2-for-5 with one double and one run. Smith hit 2-for-5 with two runs. Rodriguez was 2-for-3 with two walks. The Aggies drew first blood in the bottom of the first inning. Mikey Reynolds drew an eight-pitch walk to start the inning and stole second base. After Blake Allemand struck out looking, Cole Lankford drove a ball past a falling leftfielder for an RBI triple and the 1-0 lead. Lankford was unable to score from third, getting retired after a rundown on a Hunter Melton ground-er. Long played with fire in the second inning as Oregon State loaded the bases with two singles and a walk, but he induced a fly out to rightfield by Max Gordon to end the frame. Moroney got his first double in the bottom of the second inning, but Krey Bratsen struck out looking and Jace Statum flied out to centerfield to quell the rally. The Beavers tied the game in the top of the fifth. Rodriguez laced a single through the left side of the infield to start the inning and moved to second on a sacrifice bunt by Gordon. Tyler Smith seemed to deliver the equalizer when he singled through the right side of the infield, but Statum gunned Gordon out at the plate for the second out of the inning. Andy Peterson was hit by a pitch to put two runners on. The Aggies appeared to evade danger again when Conforto grounded to Reynolds at short, but an error on his throw allowed Smith to score, knotting the game at 1-1. Moroney gave A&M an opportunity to deliver an immediate response in the bottom of the sixth, but the Aggies failed to capitalize. Moroney dropped a leadoff double in front of a diving Gordon in centerfield and moved to third on a sacrifice bunt, but he was stranded on the hot corner when Statum struck out looking and Gordon redeemed himself by making a diving catch running towards the fence to rob Reynolds of an extra-base hit. Oregon State (48-10) brewed up trouble in the top of the sixth with a one-out single by Barnes and a two-out walk by Rodriguez, but Matt Kent got Gordon to fly out to end the inning with the game still on an even keel. After failing to score in the bottom of the sixth despite drawing a pair of walks, the Aggies called on Jester, who earned his school-record 14th save of the season in A&M's 5-4 win over UC Santa Barbara earlier in the day. Smith greeted him with a single up the middle and a miscommunication on a sacrifice bunt attempt by Peterson resulted in a single to put two runners on. Jester fanned Conforto for the first out and got Davis to line out to short for the second. Hayes provided heroics for Oregon State driving a full-count offering past a diving Lankford and down the rightfield line for a two-run double and the 3-1 lead. Texas A&M got two runners on base in the seventh as Statum singled to short with two outs and Reynolds drew a walk, but Beavers' catcher Rodriguez was able to keep a full-count offering from hitting the dirt and Allemand was called out on strikes, looking. Oregon State put the game out of reach with three runs in the ninth. The inning featured consecutive RBI singles by Hayes, Barnes and Kavin Keyes. Cole Lankford (1B), Hunter Melton (3B) and Mikey Reynolds (SS) were all named to the 2013 NCAA Corvallis Region All-Regional Team.

Carson Fulmer was excellent for the second straight week in relief, working a season-best 5.1 innings and giving up just two hits with two walks and two strikeouts. The Commodores missed a chance to take an early lead in the second inning, stranding the bases loaded. Conrad Gregor was hit with one out and Zander Wiel walked before a sharp single to left by Vince Conde loaded the bases. Spencer Navin fell behind 0-2 but battled back to a full count before taking a called third strike. Jack Lupo popped out to second base to end the inning with the game still scoreless. Louisville put together four hits in the bottom of the inning to get on the board first. Coco Johnson was hit to leadoff but was erased trying to steal second. Jeff Gardner drew a one-out walk before consecutive singles from Kyle Gibson and Wasserman, the second one an RBI grounder through the right side. With two outs Whiting singled through the middle, plating Gibson for a 2-0 Louisville advantage. The Cardinals nearly added to the lead in the fourth, loading the bases with walks to Wasserman and Whiting and Alex Engel was hit, but Cole Sturgeon's hard grounder to second started an inning-ending double play to keep it a 2-0 contest. Tony Kemp singled with two outs in the fifth and Xavier Turner followed with a walk, but Yastrzemski struck out to end the inning, with Thompson battling back from a 3-1 count and Yastrzemski chasing a high fastball for the third out. Ty Young and Johnson both singled to start the bottom of the inning for Louisville, but Fulmer worked out of the inning with three fly balls. The Commodores finally got on the board in the sixth when Wiel lifted a high drive down the leftfield line that just stayed fair, his fifth homer of the season, cutting the deficit in half. In the seventh Kemp reached on a two-out error and stole second, his 34th stolen base of the season, but Thompson battled back from a 2-0 count and got Turner to pop out to end the threat. Vanderbilt stranded two more in the eighth when Harrell was hit and Wiel drew a two-out walk, but Conde grounded out to third on a 2-0 pitch against UL reliever Kyle Funkhouser, keeping the Cardinals in the lead, 2-1. In the ninth John Norwood, who made a great diving catch in leftcenter in the bottom of the eighth, singled to center with one out against Louisville closer Nick Burdi. Ege came on to get a line out from Kemp, but Turner singled to right with two outs, putting runners on the corners. Yastrzemski's strikeout came on a 2-2 pitch, sending the Cardinals to Omaha.

VANDERBILT COMMODORES

Jeff Thompson worked seven strong innings and Louisville made two early runs stand up, as the Cardinals advanced to the College World Series with a 2-1 victory over Vanderbilt Sunday in Super Regional action at Hawkins Field. The Cardinals (51-12) knocked off the No. 2 national seed in the field of 64 after a 5-3 win in the first of the three-game series Saturday. Zak

Wasserman and Sutton Whiting drove in runs for Louisville in the second inning and five Louisville hurlers limited the Commodores (54-12) to just five hits. Vanderbilt stranded 11 runners in the loss, including six in scoring position, and left the bases loaded in the second inning as well as a pair of runners in the fifth, eighth and ninth. Louisville stranded nine runners as well, leaving the bases loaded in the third and two on in the fourth and fifth innings. Thompson (11-1) did everything the Cardinals could have asked, working seven innings and allowing just one run on three hits. The righthander walked two, hit one batter and struck out nine among his 124 pitches. Louisville used four hurlers to get the final six outs, including lefthander Cody Ege, who picked up his first save, striking out Mike Yastrzemski to end the game. Vanderbilt starter Tyler Beede (14-1) lasted just 2.2 innings and took the loss, allowing two runs on five hits. He walked three, hit a batter and struck out two while suffering his only loss of the season.

SEC ANNOUNCES ANNUAL BASEBALL HONORS

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. -- Vanderbilt's Tony Kemp was selected 2013 SEC Baseball Player of the Year, Aaron Nola of LSU was named SEC Pitcher of the Year and LSU shortstop Alex Bregman was named SEC Freshman of the Year by a vote of the league's 14 head baseball coaches. The coaches also tabbed Vanderbilt head coach Tim Corbin SEC Coach of the Year. Sam Frost of Mississippi State was named SEC Baseball Scholar-Athlete of the Year.

Vanderbilt's 26 SEC wins set the conference record, breaking South Carolina's record of 25 set in 2000. The Dores have now won 18 straight series dating back to last season, including all 14 this year. The Commodores wrapped up the regular season a school record 48-7 and were the No. 1 seed in the SEC Tournament last week in Hoover, Ala.

Coaches were not permitted to vote for their own players. The complete 2013 All-SEC Team follows:

SEC CHAMPIONSHIP FORMATS

1933 - 1947	SEC Champion based on conference winning percentage.
1948 - 1950	SEC divided into two divisions (Eastern and Western) but composite standings still kept. Division leaders meet in best-of-five-game championship series for SEC Championship.
1951 - 1952	Championship series discontinued; SEC Champion based on conference winning percentage.
1953 - 1976	Division leaders meet in best-of-three-game championship series for SEC Championship.
1977 - 1985	Top two teams from each division meet in a double-elimination tournament at alternating site of division champion for SEC Championship.
1986	League abolishes divisions; Round-robin play begins; Top four teams meet in a double-elimination tournament for SEC Championship.
1987	Tournament field increases to top six regular-season finishers for SEC Championship.
1988 - 1991	Team finishing with highest conference winning percentage over 27-game round-robin schedule is SEC Champion; Tournament is played to award NCAA automatic bid.
1992	SEC Champion is team finishing the 24-game conference schedule with the highest winning percentage; League recognizes team finishing with highest overall winning percentage as Eastern and Western Division Champions in their respective divisions.
1993-1995	SEC Tournament games count toward all SEC Championships; SEC Champion is team with highest overall conference winning percentage; Eastern and Western Division Champions are teams in each division with the highest overall conference winning percentage; NCAA automatic bid is awarded to the team which wins its divisional tournament and has the highest overall conference winning percentage.
1996-1997	SEC Champion is the team with the highest conference winning percentage based on 30-game regular season schedule; Neutral site, eight-team conference tournament; Tournament field consists of top three teams (based on conference winning percentage) from Eastern and Western Divisions and two at-large teams chosen based on their conference winning percentage. NCAA automatic bid is awarded to tournament winner.
1998	SEC Champion is the team with the highest conference winning percentage on 30-game regular season schedule; Neutral site, eight-team double elimination conference tournament; Tournament field consists of top three teams (based on conference winning percentage) from Eastern and Western Divisions and two at-large teams chosen based on their conference winning percentage. Divisional winners guaranteed top two seeds. NCAA automatic bid is awarded to tournament winner.
1999-current	Format remains the same as 1998 except tournament field consists of top two teams from each division and four at-large teams chosen based on their conference winning percentage.

SEC NOTES

SECOND TO NONE

In the past 24 years, the Southeastern Conference has been the top college baseball conference in the nation. Consider:

- Since 1990, 162 squads have received NCAA Tournament bids to lead the nation.
- A nation-leading 48 SEC teams have recorded College World Series berths since 1990, winning nine of the last 24 NCAA titles (1990, 1991, 1993, 1996, 1997, 2000, 2009, 2010 and 2011) and seven runner-ups (1997, 2002, 2005, 2008, 2011, 2012 and 2013).
- Ten different SEC squads (Alabama, Arkansas, Auburn, Florida, Georgia, LSU, Mississippi State, South Carolina, Tennessee, Vanderbilt) have made CWS appearances since 1990, the most squads from a conference to appear in Omaha since that time.
- SEC squads have appeared in 28 of the last 29 College World Series, with the lone miss in 1992.
- Since 1990, 31 SEC squads have posted 50+ wins.

SEC IN THE COLLEGE WORLD SERIES

Since 1990, the Southeastern Conference has been the most successful baseball conference in the country. The SEC has won nine of the last 24 NCAA titles (1990, 1991, 1993, 1996, 1997, 2000, 2009, 2010 and 2011), finished runner-up seven times and has put more teams in the College World Series than any conference in the country. Take a look at the SEC's success in the last 24 years:

- Not counting games against each other, the SEC has posted a 73-60 record in the College World Series since 1990, a 54.9 winning percentage.
- Since 1990, an SEC team has played in 158 of the 344 games in the College World Series, an amazing 46 percent of games. SEC teams played in 12 of the 15 games of the 2004 College World Series and in 8 of the 14 in 2013.
- The SEC has sent 10 of its 14 schools to the College World Series since 1990. Texas A&M also advanced three times since 1990 prior to joining SEC.
- The SEC has played 46 games in the "Final Four" of the College World Series since 1990, an average of over 1.5 per year.

SEC FIRST ROUND MAJOR LEAGUE PICKS

Three SEC players were taken in the first round of the 2013 Major League Baseball Amateur Draft, held in June in New York City. Mississippi State's Hunter Renfroe was selected 13th overall by San Diego. Jonathan Crawford of Florida was selected 20th by Detroit, while Arkansas' Ryne Stanek was 27th by Tampa Bay. With those three selections this year, the SEC has now had a first round selection in each year since 1991 and 96 total in the first round during that time.

SEC ENDS 79TH SEASON OF CONFERENCE PLAY

This marked the 79th season of conference play in the SEC. In 1933, baseball became one of the first sports in which the SEC crowned a champion. The league did not sponsor teams in 1945 and 1946 due to World War II.

The SEC standings below include all regular-season games from 1933-2013, with SEC Tournament games counting in 1993 and 1994.

NATIONAL PLAYER OF THE YEAR AWARD WINNERS

DAVE MAGADAN

1983, Alabama

Alabama's David Magadan was named the sixth recipient of the Golden Spikes Award, college baseball's answer to football's Heisman Trophy, for his banner season in 1983, one in which he led the Crimson Tide to a second place finish nationally. Magadan, who hit .439 for his Alabama career, hit an amazing .525 his last year, which included a phenomenal 10 for 11 series in the SEC Tournament. In a 15-2 triumph over Florida, Magadan was 5-for-5 with a pair of home runs and doubles. For the season, Magadan was 114 for 217, including 31 doubles, just one of many SEC records then owned by the Tampa, Fla., native.

Magadan was also voted "Player of the Year" by Baseball America making him the first SEC player ever to be named the nation's best.

WILL CLARK

1985, Miss. State

Mississippi State's Will Clark was the eighth winner of the Golden Spikes Award after a stellar career under Coach Ron Polk and a banner 1985 collegiate season.

Clark batted .420 while slugging SEC-leading totals of 25 homers, 77 RBI and 158 total bases in leading the Bulldogs to a tie for third place with Arkansas in the '85 NCAA College World Series. Mississippi State finished the season with a 50-15 mark, then the most overall wins ever by an SEC team.

The New Orleans, La., native ended his career with a Mississippi State career record batting average of .391 and 61 career homers (second-highest total in SEC history behind teammate Rafael Palmeiro with 67) in three seasons. Clark then signed as the second player chosen in the '85 Major League Baseball Draft by the San Francisco Giants. He led the '84 Olympic Team with a .429 average and three home runs in four games at Dodger Stadium and was selected as Amateur Baseball Player of the Year in 1985 by the U.S. Olympic Committee.

DERICK LILLIQUIST

1987, Georgia

Georgia's Derick Lilliquist, pitcher for the SEC regular season champion and College World Series participant Bulldogs, was named the national Pitcher of the Year by Baseball America in 1987. He was also chosen an All-America by the American Baseball Coaches Association, The Sporting News and Baseball America.

In 1987, Lilliquist posted a 14-3 record with an earned run average of 2.24. He continues to hold the Georgia record for strikeouts in a season with 190, achieved in 1987.

Drafted by the Atlanta Braves in 1987, Lilliquist reached the major leagues with the Braves in 1989 and has also played with the San Diego Padres and Cleveland Indians. The Winter Park, Fla. native, also belted 19 home runs and 63 runs batted as a designated hitter during his junior season in 1987.

BEN MCDONALD

1989, LSU

LSU pitcher Ben McDonald was the 12th winner of the prestigious Golden Spikes Award in 1989 after leading his team to its second College World Series appearance in his three-year career.

In 1989, McDonald notched a 14-4 record and a 3.49 ERA while setting the SEC mark for strikeouts with 202. He also recorded four saves in leading LSU to an 18-9 second place SEC showing and a 55-17 overall mark. The squad earned a fourth place finish in the CWS. McDonald was tabbed a consensus All-America and the recipient of the Collegiate Baseball/ESPN Pitcher of the Year Award.

McDonald also knew success on the international level. He led the U.S. to the gold medal in the 1988 Olympics in Seoul, Korea by posting complete game wins over Korea (5-3) and Puerto Rico (7-2). The right-handed fireballer allowed only two earned runs in 18 innings at the Olympics, while striking out 17 and walking four.

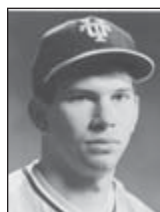

LLOYD PEEVER

1992, LSU

LSU's Lloyd Peever, pitcher for the SEC Champion Tigers, was the winner of the Collegiate Baseball Player of the Year Award in 1992. Peever was also a first-team All-America selection by the American Baseball Coaches Association and Baseball America.

Peever recorded a perfect 14-0 record in 1992 with an earned run average of 1.978. He led the SEC in wins and was second in ERA. In 104.2 innings, he allowed just 67 hits and 20 walks.

Peever, a junior from Stonewall, Okla., turned pro following the 1992 season and was a fourth-round draft selection of the Rockies.

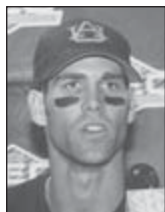

TODD HELTON

1995, Tennessee

Tennessee's Todd Helton, standout first baseman and pitcher for the SEC Champion Volunteers, was the winner of the Mizuno/Collegiate Baseball, Baseball America and the Baseball Weekly/USA Today Player of the Year awards. He was also the recipient of the Dick Howser Player of the Year Award.

Helton batted .407 with a league-high 105 hits, 20 home runs, 92 runs batted in, 86 runs scored, 27 doubles and a .775 slugging percentage. On the mound, he was equally as impressive. The Knoxville, Tenn. native, had a SEC-best 1.66 earned run average while achieving an 8-2 record. His hits per 9 innings ratio of 5.68 was the best in the league and he recorded 12 saves, second best in the league.

TIM HUDSON

1997, Auburn

Auburn's Tim Hudson, standout outfielder and pitcher for the Tigers, was the winner of the Smith Award, given annually to the top collegiate baseball player in the country.

Hudson batted .396 with 18 home runs and 95 RBI, which was second in the SEC. On the mound, Hudson recorded a 15-2 mark with a 2.97 ERA. His win total was tops among all NCAA Division I pitchers. He led the SEC in wins, strikeouts (165), hits allowed per 9 innings (6.62) and his opponents batting average was a league-low .199.

Hudson ended his collegiate career after his Tigers' appearance in the College World Series and was a 6th round pick by the Oakland A's.

BRAD WILKERSON

1998, Florida

Florida's Brad Wilkerson, an outstanding pitcher, first baseman, outfielder and designated hitter, was named the National Player of the Year by the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association.

Wilkerson batted .347 and led the SEC Champion Gators with 23 home runs and 70 runs batted in. He also led Florida in pitching with a 10-5 record, a 4.98 earned run average while striking out 136 batters, an SEC-best.

Wilkerson was a two-time All-SEC first-team selection and consensus All-America pick in 1998. Wilkerson was the 33rd selection in the 1998 Major League Baseball Amateur Draft, taken by the Montreal Expos.

EDDY FURNISS

1998, LSU

LSU's Eddy Furniss, the Tigers' standout first baseman, was named the recipient of the Dick Howser Award, given annually to the nation's outstanding collegiate player.

Furniss led the SEC in slugging percentage (.898) and on-base percentage (.545). Furniss, a four-year star for the College World Series-bound Tigers, hit a team-high .403 with 28 home runs and 76 runs batted in.

Furniss was a two-time All-SEC first-team selection and a unanimous choice among the league's coaches in 1998. A consensus All-America in 1998, Furniss was a fourth round selection in the 1998 Major League Baseball Amateur Draft by the Pittsburgh Pirates.

KIP BOUKNIGHT

2000, South Carolina

South Carolina's Kip Bouknight, pitcher for the SEC Champion Gamecock's, was named the recipient of the Rotary Smith Award, as well as National Player of the Year by Collegiate Baseball and the American Baseball Coaches Association.

Bouknight led the nation in wins with 17, while only having one loss on the year. His 2.81 ERA was second in the league while he led all SEC pitchers in strikeouts with 143.

A consensus All-America in 2000, Bouknight was also named SEC Player of the year. Recipient of SEC Pitcher of the Week honors for the week of April 10. Bouknight was also recognized for his roll in the classroom by being named to the 2000 SEC Baseball Academic Honor Roll.

DAVID PRICE

2007, Vanderbilt

David Price of Vanderbilt won the fourth annual Brooks Wallace Award for national collegiate player of the year. Price was consensus All-America and 2006-07 Southeastern Conference Male Athlete of the Year. He also recently captured the Dick Howser Trophy and Golden Spikes Award as well as being named American Baseball Coaches Association Player of the Year.

He led the SEC in five different pitching categories and helped Vandy to a school-record-season victories' total at 54-13 overall and is the Commodores' first men's athletics national player of the year in any sport. Price was chosen as the first player in the 2007 Major League Baseball Draft by the Tampa Bay Devil Rays and closed the year at 11-1 overall with 194 strikeouts in 133 1/3 innings pitched (13.1 strikeouts every nine frames). He did not lose a decision in his 17 starts and struck out 10 or more batters in 12 of those first 17 appearances.

MIKE ZUNINO

2012, Florida

Mike Zunino capped off one of the greatest individual seasons by a University of Florida student-athlete when USA Baseball announced him as the recipient of the 2012 USA Baseball Golden Spikes Award (GSA). The prestigious award, now in its 35th year of recognizing the nation's top amateur baseball player, was presented live on MLB Network. Zunino joined fellow catcher Buster Posey (2008) as the only player to collect the Golden Spikes Award, the Dick Howser Trophy and the Johnny Bench Award in the same campaign. Zunino is the first GSA winner and highest draft pick in Florida's history, and he marked the first GSA finalist for the Gators since Matt LaPorta in 2007. The Cape Coral, Fla., native was a consensus first-team All-American, the first Dick Howser Trophy recipient from Florida, Baseball America's 2012 College Player of the Year, the initial Johnny Bench Award winner from UF and the 2012 National Player of the Year by CollegeBaseballInsider.com. He finished as the Gators' "Triple Crown" winner, leading the team in batting average (.322), RBI (67) and homers (19), and paced the Orange and Blue in total bases (164), doubles (28), sacrifice flies (11) and slugging percentage (.669).

In 1984 the Southeastern Conference developed the Academic Baseball Honor Roll. The new format was adopted to recognize those athletes who had a 3.0 grade point average (either cumulative or during the past year), and had 24 semester or 26 quarter hours countable toward a degree. Prior to the 1996-97 season, the SEC dropped the requirement of earning a letter for that season.

2013 SEC BASEBALL ATTENDANCE BREAKDOWN

2013 SEC ATTENDANCE LEADERS

June 12, 2013 - Final

Year after year, the SEC continues to be the benchmark in paid college baseball attendance. The SEC and its member schools own virtually all regular season, conference tournament, NCAA Regional and Super Regional attendance records. The SEC and one of its institutions have led the NCAA in total and average attendance for the last 15 seasons in a row, and 20 of the last 26 years. In 2007, the SEC drew nearly 1.7 million and averaged for 4,000 per game for first time in history. New records were once again set in 2011 as the league drew over two million for the first time ever, as well as nearly 5,000 per game. An NCAA-record 2,191,785 total fans and 5,181 per game attended regular season games in the SEC last season. That marked the 11th year in a row the SEC has topped the one million mark in attendance, leading the nation once again in that category by a wide margin.
