2014 SEC BASEBALL ATTENDANCE BREAKDOWN

2014 SEC ATTENDANCE LEADERS

May 26

Year after year, the SEC continues to be the benchmark in paid college baseball attendance. The SEC and its member schools own virtually all regular season, conference tournament, NCAA Regional and Super Regional attendance records. The SEC and one of its institutions have led the NCAA in total and average attendance for the last 15 seasons in a row, and 20 of the last 26 years. In 2007, the SEC drew nearly 1.7 million and averaged for 4,000 per game for first time in history. New records were once again set in 2011 as the league drew over two million for the first time ever, as well as nearly 5,000 per game. An NCAA-record 2,191,785 total fans and 5,181 per game attended regular season games in the SEC last season. That marked the 11th year in a row the SEC has topped the one million mark in attendance, leading the nation once again in that category by a wide margin.

The Southeastern Conference

Setting the Standard for Intercollegiate Athletics

in Baseball

The Southeastern Conference, with its storied 80-year history of athletic achievements and academic excellence, has built perhaps the greatest tradition of intercollegiate competition in baseball of any league in the country since its inception in 1933.

The SEC posted another tremendous season in 2013 as the conference had nine teams earn selection to NCAA postseason play with LSU and Mississippi State advancing to the College World Series. A SEC squad has now appeared in the College World Series 28 of the last 29 years. Mississippi State advanced to the National Championship Series, marking the ninth time since 2000 a SEC team played for the national championship in Omaha and sixth in a row. LSU won the SEC tournament title over Vanderbilt. Vanderbilt won the SEC regular-season title with a 26-3 conference record, while LSU won the Western Division with a 23-7 record.

The Southeastern Conference boasts 12 former National Players of the Year (Florida's Mike Zunino won in 2012), 11 Baseball America Coach of the Year and 10 Collegiate Baseball Coach of the Year honors. Also, 161 student-athletes have been named first-team All-American, six of which came in 2013.

Three SEC players were taken in the first round of the 2013 Major League Baseball Amateur Draft, held in June in New York City. Mississippi State's Hunter Renfroe was selected 13th overall by San Diego. Jonathan Crawford of Florida was selected 20th by Detroit, while Arkansas' Ryne Stanek was 27th by Tampa Bay. With those three selections this year, the SEC has now had a first round selection in each year since 1991 and 96 total in the first round during that time.

The SEC drew a record of over 2.25 million fans to its on-campus ballparks in 2013, the seventh year in a row to draw over 1.6 million. Nine SEC teams drew in excess of 100,000 fans to their parks in 2013. The SEC averaged nearly 5,000 fans per game in 2013, the seventh straight year to exceed the 4,000 mark. The SEC Baseball Tournament drew a new record-high of 134,496 fans in 2013, 7,912 per game. The event has become the Birmingham metro's highest attended sporting event annually, second in the state only to NASCAR races at Talladega. Birmingham Magazine recently named it the top sporting event in the Birmingham area. The SEC Championship Game was broadcast nationally on ESPN2, with the semifinals airing nationwide on ESPNNews for the first time in 2012.

Notes

- The SEC has sent 48 teams to the College World Series since 1990. That was accomplished despite no SEC teams making the field in 1992. LSU has been to Omaha 13 times, Florida eight times, South Carolina six times, Georgia and Mississippi State five times, while Alabama, Arkansas and Tennessee have been three times each. Auburn has been twice.

- SEC teams have won nine of the last 23 national championships, with LSU winning six (1991, 1993, 1996, 1997, 2000, 2009), South Carolina winning two (2010, 2011) and Georgia claiming the 1990 title. The SEC has finished runner up seven times in that time, 1997, 2002, 2005, 2008, 2011, 2012 and 2013.

- SEC teams are 98-85 since 1990 in Omaha, a 53.6 winning percentage. Not counting games against each other, the SEC has posted a 73-60 record in the College World Series since 1990, a 54.9 winning percentage.

- The SEC has played 46 games in the "Final Four" of the College World Series since 1990, an average of over 1.5 per year. Only five times, 1992, 1994, 2003, 2006 and 2007 has the SEC failed to get a team to the "Final Four" of the CWS.

- The SEC has averaged nearly eight games played per year in the College World Series since 1990. In 2004, 12 of the 15 games played in Omaha involved a SEC team. In 1997, the SEC had a team in 13 of the 14 games played in the CWS. Since 1990, an SEC team has played in 158 of the 344 games in the College World Series, an amazing 46 percent of games. SEC teams played in 8 of the 14 in 2013.

- The SEC has sent 10 of its 12 schools to the College World Series since 1990 - Alabama, Arkansas, Auburn, Florida, Georgia, LSU, Mississippi State, South Carolina, Tennessee and Vanderbilt. Ole Miss has played in four Super Regionals the last nine seasons. Texas A&M also advanced three times since 1990 prior to joining SEC.

- Since 1990, 162 SEC squads have been invited to the NCAA Tournament, an average over seven per season. The SEC set yet another NCAA record in 2004, 2005, 2008 and 2013 with nine teams earning postseason births. The SEC also had a NCAA-record five teams earn regional host sites in 2004 and 2006.

- The SEC has had an NCAA-high 11 different teams compete in the 60-year history of the College World Series. In those appearances, the conference has registered a 120-123 record, a 49.4 winning percentage.

- Since 1990, 31 SEC squads have posted 50+ wins, while 117 have won 40+ games in a season.

- The SEC posted a 254-104 record against non-conference foes in 2013, a 70.9 winning percentage.

- SEC teams have also been strong in the polls. Since 1990, 116 conference teams have appeared in the final ESPN/USA Today Coaches poll.

LEAGUE COACHES NARROWLY SELECT SOUTH CAROLINA TO WIN 2014 SEC BASEBALL CROWN

LSU, Mississippi State and Vanderbilt Also Receive Votes

The South Carolina Gamecocks are predicted to win the 2014 Southeastern Conference baseball championship by a slim one-vote margin, as voted by the league's 14 baseball coaches in the 23rd annual preseason SEC poll.

The Gamecocks, ranked No. 14 nationally in the preseason USA Today Coaches' Poll, seek to capture their fourth SEC Championship. LSU and Mississippi State, ranked second and fourth in the USA Today poll respectively, received four votes each in the overall vote.

LSU has 15 SEC Championships in its program's history, while Mississippi State has 10, the last of which came in 1989. Vanderbilt also received one vote to win the league title.

Since 1996, the SEC has named a regular season champion as well as a tournament champion. Prior to 1996, the tournament champion was considered the SEC Champion.

In addition to picking a preseason SEC champion, the league's head coaches voted a predicted order of finish in the SEC Eastern and Western Divisions. In the Western Division, LSU was the narrow favorite with 84 of a possible 91 points. Mississippi State came in second with 83 points, with Alabama and Texas A&M tied at third with 58. South Carolina received 86 points in the Eastern Division. Vanderbilt was second with 82, while Florida finished third with 69.

Points were compiled on a 7-6-5-4-3-2-1 basis for each division. Coaches were not allowed to vote for their own team. Each coach also voted for one team as an overall conference champion.

The 2014 SEC regular season begins Friday, February 14, with conference play set to begin Friday, March 14. The SEC Tournament will be played at Hoover Metropolitan Stadium in Hoover, Ala., May 20-25. The 2013 SEC Baseball Tournament drew over 134,000 fans, a new record-high for the event. Eight times in the last 11 years the tournament has surpassed the six-digit mark in total attendance.
