SEC NOTES

SECOND TO NONE

In the past 24 years, the Southeastern Conference has been the top college baseball conference in the nation. Consider:

- Since 1990, 162 squads have received NCAA Tournament bids to lead the nation.
- A nation-leading 48 SEC teams have recorded College World Series berths since 1990, winning nine of the last 24 NCAA titles (1990, 1991, 1993, 1996, 1997, 2000, 2009, 2010 and 2011) and seven runner-ups (1997, 2002, 2005, 2008, 2011, 2012 and 2013).
- Ten different SEC squads (Alabama, Arkansas, Auburn, Florida, Georgia, LSU, Mississippi State, South Carolina, Tennessee, Vanderbilt) have made CWS appearances since 1990, the most squads from a conference to appear in Omaha since that time.
- SEC squads have appeared in 28 of the last 29 College World Series, with the lone miss in 1992.
- Since 1990, 31 SEC squads have posted 50+ wins.

SEC IN THE COLLEGE WORLD SERIES

Since 1990, the Southeastern Conference has been the most successful baseball conference in the country. The SEC has won nine of the last 24 NCAA titles (1990, 1991, 1993, 1996, 1997, 2000, 2009, 2010 and 2011), finished runner-up seven times and has put more teams in the College World Series than any conference in the country. Take a look at the SEC's success in the last 24 years:

SEC FIRST ROUND MAJOR LEAGUE PICKS

Three SEC players were taken in the first round of the 2013 Major League Baseball Amateur Draft, held in June in New York City. Mississippi State's Hunter Renfroe was selected 13th overall by San Diego. Jonathan Crawford of Florida was selected 20th by Detroit, while Arkansas' Ryne Stanek was 27th by Tampa Bay. With those three selections this year, the SEC has now had a first round selection in each year since 1991 and 96 total in the first round during that time.

SEC ENDS 79TH SEASON OF CONFERENCE PLAY

This marked the 79th season of conference play in the SEC. In 1933, baseball became one of the first sports in which the SEC crowned a champion. The league did not sponsor teams in 1945 and 1946 due to World War II.

The SEC standings below include all regular-season games from 1933-2013, with SEC Tournament games counting in 1993 and 1994.
