SEC OUTDOOR CHAMPIONSHIPS THIS WEEKEND

A number of the nation's top collegiate track and field teams will converge on Lexington, Ky., this week as the 2014 Southeastern Conference Outdoor Track and Field Championships are slated to take place at the new Kentucky Track and Field Complex Thursday through Sunday, featuring the finest collegiate competition in the sport.

The SEC Outdoor Championships begin at 12 p.m. ET Thursday and continue at 12 p.m. ET Friday, 1 p.m. ET Saturday and 11 a.m. ET Sunday.

Live coverage of the meet will air on ESPN3.com on Saturday and Sunday. The coverage will air from 3:40 p.m. ET-6:50 p.m. ET on Saturday and 1:50 p.m. ET-5:50 p.m. ET on Sunday, including the trophy presentations. ESPNU will air the 2014 SEC Outdoor Championships as part of a two-hour show on ESPNU on Thursday, May 22 beginning at 8 p.m. ET.

A nation-leading 17 SEC men's and women's teams are ranked in the latest U.S. Track and Field and Cross Country Coaches Association Division I National Team Computer Rankings entering the SEC Outdoor Championships.

Nine SEC men's teams appear in the latest rankings, including five teams in the top-10. Florida is the nation's top-ranked men's team, while Texas A&M checks in at No. 2 and Arkansas is No. 4. Georgia is ranked seventh, while LSU is ninth. Alabama is ranked 11th, Ole Miss 18th, Kentucky 19th and Tennessee 21st.

Eight SEC women's teams are among the nation's top-25, including six teams in the top-10. Florida is the nation's No. 1 team. Texas A&M (No. 4), Georgia (No. 5), Kentucky (No. 6), LSU (No. 7) and Arkansas (No. 8) also are ranked among the top-10. Missouri is the nation's 13th-ranked team, while Mississippi State checks in at No. 19.

On the men's side, Tennessee has won a league-leading 25 SEC Outdoor Championships, including most recently in 2007. LSU has won the second most with 22, while Arkansas has claimed 18. The Razorbacks have won 18 of the last 22 outdoor league crowns, including three consecutive.

For the women, LSU has won a league-leading 13 SEC Outdoor Championships, including five of the last seven. Texas A&M won its first-ever SEC Outdoor Championship last May, capturing the women's team title in Columbia, Mo.

MEET NOTABLES

MEN'S NOTABLES

- Tennessee has won a league-leading 25 SEC Outdoor Championships, including most recently in 2007. LSU has won the second most with 22, while Arkansas has claimed 18. The Razorbacks have won 18 of the last 22 outdoor league crowns, including three consecutive.
- The highest point total ever to win an SEC Outdoor meet is 223 by Arkansas in 1994.
- SEC men's track and field teams have won two consecutive NCAA Outdoor Championships. Florida won its first-ever NCAA Outdoor Championship in 2012, while Florida and Texas A&M shared the national outdoor title in 2013.
- Alabama's Diondre Batson looks to defend his SEC Outdoor Men's 100m Championship from 2013. He would become the first SEC athlete to win two career SEC 100m titles since Trindon Holliday of LSU won in 2007 and 2009. He would become the first back-to-back 100m winner since Kentucky's Tim Harden won three in a row from 1994-96.
- Batson currently leads the nation in the men's 100-meter dash (under all conditions) with a season-best time of 10.01 (Tied with Baylor's Trayvon Bromell).
- The SEC 100-meter dash has been a veritable who's who in recent years. This is evidenced by the speedsters who have won the race in the last 15 years. Those athletes include: Jeff Demps, Justin Gatlin, Tyson Gay and Trindon Holliday.
- Texas A&M's Wayne Davis II is looking for his second consecutive men's 110-meter hurdles title after winning last year in 13.46. Since 2008, just three different individuals have won the men's 110mH title, as South Carolina's Jason Richardson won two-in-a-row and LSU's Barrett Nugent won three-in-a-row.
- Other notable athletes who have won the SEC men's 110-meter hurdles over the past 15 years include Aries Merritt, Jason Richardson and Josh Walker.
- Texas A&M's Deon Lendore is looking for his second consecutive men's 400-meter dash title, after winning last year in 45.02. He looks to become the first back-to-back winner in that event since Alabama's Kiri James in 2010 and 2011.
- Mississippi State's Brandon McBride is the national leader in the men's 800-meter run with a time of 1:45.35. The Bulldogs have never had a student-athlete win the SEC men's outdoor 1,500m crown.
- Arkansas has won four of the last five men's 1,500-meter crowns.
- Three different former Florida athletes have combined to win the last four SEC men's triple jump titles – Christian Taylor (2010), Will Claye (2011) and Omar Craddock (2012, 2013).
- Three of the top-five finishers in the men's triple jump at the 2012 London Olympic Games were former Southeastern Conference athletes. In addition to Claye and Taylor, former Auburn standout Leevan Sands was fifth at this the 2012 Olympic Games.
- Kentucky athlete have won five of the last six titles in the men's discus, most recently returning champion Andrew Evans in 2012. Four different UK athletes have accounted for those five titles.
- Arkansas' Andrew Irwin is looking for his third consecutive SEC men's outdoor pole vault championship. He would become the first three-time winner of the event since Tennessee's Joe Berry won in 2008, 2009 and 2011. He is the first person to win three titles in the event in a row since LSU's Russ Buller won four straight from 1997-2000.
- Florida's Kyle Strawn is going for his second consecutive SEC men's hammer throw title after winning in 2013 with a mark of 219-6. Florida athletes have won two consecutive titles in that event as Jeremy Postin was the winner in 2011. Strawn looks to become the first multi-time winner of the event since LSU's Walter Henning won three in a row from 2009-2011.
- Georgia's Maicel Uibo is in search of his second consecutive SEC men's decathlon titles, winning the event in 2013 with a score of 7,781.

WOMEN'S NOTABLES

- LSU has won a league-leading 13 SEC Outdoor Championships, including five of the last seven. Texas A&M won its first-ever SEC Outdoor Championship last May, capturing the women's team title in Columbia, Mo.
- The highest point total to ever win this meet is 223 by Tennessee in 1983.
- Georgia's Carly Hamilton will be looking for her second consecutive SEC outdoor title in the women's 1,500-meter run after winning last year in a time of 4:14.27. She would become the first athlete to win back-to-back titles in that event since Tennessee's Sarah Bowman in 2008 and 2009.
- Arkansas' Grace Heymsfield is going for her second consecutive SEC women's steeplechase title after setting the meet record last season with a time of 10:01.74. Prior to Heymsfield winning last season, Florida's Genevieve LaCaze had won two event crowns in a row in the steeplechase.
- Texas A&M's LaQue Moen-Davis is seeking her second consecutive SEC women's long jump title, which would make her the first repeat winner in the event since Florida's Shara Proctor won back-to-back in 2009 and 2010.
- The decorated field that has comprised the SEC women's long jump winners in past years includes meet record-holder and Olympian Brittney Reese (Ole Miss), Florida's Shara Proctor and Georgia's Hyleas Fountain, among others.
- Florida's Ciarra Brewer is going for her third consecutive SEC women's outdoor triple jump title. She set the meet record in the event a year ago with a toss of 45-5.25. She would become just the second three-time winner in the history of the event, joining fellow former Gator Shara Proctor. An athlete from the University of Florida has won five of the last six SEC women's outdoor triple jump crowns.
- Missouri's Kearsten Peoples is looking to repeat as the SEC women's shot put champion after winning her school's first-ever individual SEC outdoor title in any event in 2013. She currently leads the nation with a season-best mark of 58-8.75.
- Texas A&M's Shelbi Vaughan is going for her second consecutive SEC women's discus crown. She currently leads the nation with a season-best mark of 199-3.
- Florida's Marija Vucenovic is seeking her second consecutive SEC women's javelin title after winning last season with a mark of 173-7. An athlete from the University of Florida has won five of the last six titles in the event, including decorated three-time winner Evelien Dekkers from 2008-10.

ALABAMA

ARKANSAS

Men - The No. 3 Razorbacks took the week off in preparation for the 2014 Southeastern Conference Championships in Lexington, Ky. The men enter this week as the defending conference champions, completing the SEC Triple Crown with last year's outdoor title. This year, the Razorbacks are going for their fourth-consecutive outdoor title and third-consecutive SEC Triple Crown Title. The defending champions combine for 28 top-10 places on the SEC top-times list, with Stanley Kebenei (5,000-meter), Gabe Gonzalez (10,000-meter) and Anthony May (TJ) In addition, NCAA Indoor Long Jump Champion Jarrion Lawson is currently on the Bowerman Watch List. Women - The No. 8 Razorbacks are prepared for the SEC Championships following a week of rest to gear up for the conference meet. Two weeks ago at the Payton Jordan Invitational Grace Heymsfield broke the school record, which she owned, in the 3,000-meter steeplechase with a time of 9:53.65. It marked her first steeplechase event of the season and only her third meet overall. Heymsfield originally broke the school steeplechase record last season with a 9:57.18 finish at the 2013 NCAA Outdoor Championships in Eugene, Ore. Heymsfield stands as the only Razorback to ever break the 10-minute mark in the steeplechase. The Razorbacks currently own 23 top-10 rankings in the SEC top times list with Stephanie Brown (1,500-meter), Dominique Scott (5,000-meter), Grace Heymsfield (3,000-meter steeplechase) and Sandi Morris (pole vault) owning No. 1 positions in their respective events. Arkansas finished third at last season's conference championships.

AUBURN

The Auburn track and field team heads to Lexington, Ky., for the 2014 SEC Outdoor Championships at the Kentucky Track & Field Complex on May 15-18. Last season, the Tigers got event wins from Marcus Popenfoose (shot put) and DJ Smith (high jump). The shot put title was the third in a row for Auburn following Stephen Saenz's wins in 2011-12. The Tigers have now won 11 titles in the event all-time. Auburn athletes have won eight men's shot put titles since 2003. Smith won his first career high jump title with clearance at 7-2.25 (2.19m). The title is the second high jump championship all-time for Auburn after World Champion Donald Thomas' win in 2007. Additionally, Auburn got runner-up performances by Valentina Muzaric (women's shot put) and Jessie Johnson (women's pole vault). The men's program totaled 37 points to finish ninth overall, while the women were 11th with 32.5 points. The Tigers have won 67 SEC titles (36 men, 31 women) during Ralph Spry's tenure as Auburn head coach, including a high of six by the women's team in 2006. Auburn's women's team had at least one SEC champion in each of the last 11 seasons, until that streak was broken in 2012. The men's team has won at least one in 14 of the last 15 seasons.

FLORIDA

The No. 1 Gator track and field squads will embark on Lexington, Ky., for the SEC Outdoor Championships May 15-18, hosted on the University of Kentucky campus. Florida owns nine SEC outdoor championships, four on the men's side ('53, '56, '87, '10) and five in women's action ('92, '97, '98, '03, '09). The Gators were the 2014 SEC Indoor Champions on the women's side and the SEC runner-up indoors in men's action this year. Both Florida teams took third at NCAA Indoors in March. Most recently, Florida junior thrower Stipe Zunic tossed a PR of 19.92m/65-4.25 to take the men's shot put title at the FSU Twilight in Tallahassee Friday evening at Mike Long Track, putting a stamp on the outdoor regular season for the No. 1 Gators. Zunic turned in the second-best performance in school history, the second-best performance in the Southeastern Conference and the sixth-best mark in the country heading into the 2014 SEC Outdoor Championships. Zunic was just shy of the 22-year-old shot put school record 20.10m/65-11.5 set by Dwight Johnson in 1992. For his performance, Zunic was named the SEC Men's Field Athlete of the Week. Entering 2014 Outdoors, the Gators have at least one athlete in the top three in 16 different events on the men's and women's sides, including the top marks in the league thus far in the men's & women's 200m (Dukes: 19.97, Jefferson: 22.78), women's 400m (Reynolds: 51.57), men's long jump (Dendy: 7.93m/26-0.25), women's triple jump (Brewer: 13.58m/44-6.75) and women's javelin (Vucenovic: 56.73m/186-1). Florida's men's 4x1 (38.29) and 4x4 (2:59.73) relays both rank first, while the women's 4x4 (3:27.38) and 4x1 (43.41) are first and second, respectively, in the league.

GEORGIA

Men - The seventh-ranked Bulldogs competed in their final home meet of the year during the Georgia Invitational in Athens on May 10. Georgia recorded five top collegiate finishes and a handful of noteworthy performances in the team's field events. Freshmen Alex Poursanidis (213 feet, 3 inches) and Alex Larsson (209-8) went 1-2 in the collegiate portion of the hammer throw (2-3 overall) as they prepare for their first Southeastern Conference Outdoor Championships. Also in the throws, junior Braydon Anderson built up to a sixth throw of 224-6 to win the javelin, which also improved his No. 9 spot in the school record books. The Bulldogs had a dominating performance in the shot put to take second, third and fourth overall. Junior Nick Vena let go of a season-best mark of 63-8.75 to lead the group, grab the top collegiate finish and move to No. 15 on the national list. Senior Caleb Whitener (60-11.25) and sophomore Ashinia Miller (60-2.50) also passed the 60-foot mark as the trio now has three meets where all three passed that 60-foot mark together this season. Vena returned to take second (top collegiate finisher) in the discus with a season-best mark of 168-2. Miller was fourth (season-best 165-2). Junior Caleb Ebbets notched the first collegiate win of his career in the pole vault after soaring over the bar at 16-6.75. Also of note, sophomore Maurice Freeman, who will be in the sprints at SECs as well, matched his personal best with a jump of 6-10.75 to take second in the high jump. Georgia travels to Lexington, Ky., for SECs with 19 athletes or relays ranked in the top eight scoring spots in their individual events, including junior Garrett Scantling and sophomore Maicel Uibo ranked first and second in the decathlon. Women - The fifth-ranked Lady Bulldogs wrapped up the Georgia Invitational with seven top collegiate finishes, a national-leading mark and a school record over the weekend. Despite no other competitors clearing 6 feet, sophomore Leontia Kallenou reached a second attempt clearance of 6 feet, 3 1/4 inches to win the high jump in record-breaking fashion. Kallenou moved to the top of the national rankings, took over the No. 2 spot in the school record books and bested an 11-year-old Cyprus Senior national record. Her jump tied her at No. 7 on the current world list. True freshman Kendell Williams sped to a school record in the 100-meter hurdles as she continued her preparations for heptathlon competitions in the postseason. The 2014 NCAA pentathlon champion and American Junior record holder in the heptathlon clocked a 13.06, which topped Gudrun Arndardottir's 13.10 set at the 1996 NCAA Championships in the open hurdles. Williams' time is No. 12 on the national performance list for 2014. Her teammate in the heptathlon, junior Quintunya Chapman, also blasted a huge personal best with a 13.87 for fourth place in the hurdles, which ranks ninth in school history. Returning to action for the first time in 2014 was senior Hilenn James. James swept the shot put (50-4.50) and discus (167-4) as she cranks up for the postseason run. Senior Elizabeth Tepe, who had graduated a day earlier in Biology, was the top collegiate finisher (second overall) in the hammer with the second-best mark of her career at 206-6. Tepe will be attempting to defend her SEC title in Lexington. Sophomore Freya Jones, who is the defending NCAA champion in the javelin, was the top collegiate finisher in Athens with a mark of 155-8 in wet conditions. On the track, sophomore Rashaun Brown won the 200 (23.77) and had a personal-best time of 11.56 for second-place honors in the 100. The Georgia women have 14 individuals or relays ranked in the top eight scoring spots headed into the league meet.

KENTUCKY

Kentucky will host the SEC Outdoor Track and Field Championships for the first time since 1996 this weekend. The Kentucky women's team will enter the meet as the sixth-ranked team in the country. The UK men's team goes into the SEC Championships ranked No. 19 nationally. Two nation-leading times/marks will help give UK track and field momentum entering the postseason. Andrew Evans recorded an American, and NCAA-leading, 66.37 meters/217-9, to win at the Tennessee Challenge two weeks ago. The mark leads the NCAA by 1.36m. The throw ranks No. 3 in the world this year. With the mark, he moved to fifth on the all-time collegiate list in the discus. For his efforts, Evans was named USTFCCCA National Athlete of the Week last week. Dezerea Bryant ran a wind-aided 100m time of 10.96 (+4.0), which is the fastest in the world year in her final SEC tune up as well. Bryant also broke 11 seconds for the first time in her career, and the first time in school-history. Dezerea Bryant moved to the top of the NCAA 100m descending order list, but multiple other Wildcats also positioned themselves near the top of the collegiate tables. Keilah Tyson ran a massive wind-aided PR 11.14 to move to No. 4 nationally in the 100m. Tyson also ran a 200m season-best 23.37. The women's 4x100m relay returned to strong form after a pair of shaky performances last week at the Penn Relays. The team of Dominique Booker, Bryant, Tamyah Pipkin and Tyson ran 43.75, which was 0.1 seconds off UK record set earlier this year. Sha'Keela Saunders was second in the long jump with a 4.25 inch PR mark 6.38m/20-11 1/4, which extended her UK freshman record. Saunders' mark ranks eighth nationally. Matt Hillenbrand leads the SEC in the 1,500m and the 5k. Additionally the SEC Javelin Championship will match the top two javelin throwers in the country in UK's Raymond Dykstra and Tennessee's Kyle Quinn.

LSU

Men - The Tigers will head into the championship season as the No. 9-ranked team in the country in the latest U.S. Track & Field and Cross Country Coaches Association Top 25 national power rankings released Tuesday, and they will open up at the 2014 SEC Outdoor Track & Field Championships on Friday as the meet will run through Sunday at the Kentucky Outdoor Track & Field Facility in Lexington, Kentucky. The Tigers have cracked the Top 10 of the national rankings in each of the last two weeks after wrapping up their regular season by hosting the LSU Invitational on May 3. Junior discus thrower Rodney Brown and the Tigers' 4x100-meter relay team will each look to defend their SEC Outdoor titles won a year ago when they compete this weekend as both rank among the SEC and NCAA leaders again this spring. Brown was crowned the SEC discus champion a year ago during his sophomore season, and he will defend his title as the LSU school record holder in the event after throwing a seasonal best of 210 feet, 10 inches in a meet-record-setting performance at the Penn Relays back on April 26. Brown is the third-ranked discus thrower in the field this week and the fourth-ranked performer nationally heading into the championship season. The Tigers claimed their seventh SEC Outdoor crown all-time in the 4x100-meter relay a year ago, and they are back to defend their crown as the NCAA's No. 3-ranked team with sophomore Nethaneel Mitchell-Blake, junior Aaron Ernest, freshman Tremayne Acy and senior Shermund Allsop running a seasonal-best time of 38.83 seconds this spring. They must defend their conference title against a field that features the two fastest teams in the country this season with Florida (38.29) and Texas A&M (38.30) also strong favorites to take the relay title. Ernest is also a gold-medal contender in the 200-meter dash after running a wind-legal PR of 20.14 (+1.7) in his first and only 200-meter race for the season at the LSU Invitational in the team's regular-season finale. Ernest's season-opening 20.14 ranks No. 2 in the NCAA and No. 4 in the World rankings this season. The Tigers are threats to take home two other SEC event titles this weekend as NCAA Indoor silver medalist Vernon Norwood looks to find another gear in the 400-meter dash and the Tigers' NCAA Indoor champion 4x400-meter relay team has its sights set on outdoor glory as they head into the championship season. Norwood anchors LSU's mile relay team that also features the likes of junior Quincy Downing, sophomore Darrell Bush and sophomore Cyril Grayson as they'll line up as the NCAA's No. 3-ranked team with a seasonal-best time of 3 minutes, 2.81 seconds to this point of the campaign. Women - The Lady Tigers will head into the championship season as the No. 7-ranked team in the country in the latest U.S. Track & Field and Cross Country Coaches Association Top 25 national power rankings released Tuesday, and they will open up at the 2014 SEC Outdoor Track & Field Championships on Thursday as the four-day meet will run through Sunday at the Kentucky Outdoor Track & Field Facility in Lexington, Kentucky. Their top title threats heading into the weekend are certainly seniors Jasmin Stowers and Denise Hinton. Stowers has a chance to join elite group of hurdlers as she lines up in the 100-meter hurdles this weekend as she could become just the fourth athlete in SEC history to win three SEC Outdoor titles in the event for a collegiate career. Stowers, who won back-to-back league titles in the sprint hurdles as a freshman in 2011 and as a sophomore in 2012, looks to join the likes of Tennessee's Benita Fitzgerald (1981-83) and LaVonna Martin (1985-88) and LSU's Lolo Jones (2002-04) as the only three-time champions in meet history. And Stowers has already smashed her personal best in the event this season with a career-best time of 12.81 (+1.9) run at the LSU Alumni Gold meet on April 19. Stowers will already wrap up her collegiate career as a three-time SEC Indoor champion and two-time NCAA Indoor bronze medalist in the 60-meter hurdles as one of the most prolific hurdlers in the history of the Lady Tiger program. Hinton tops the charts in the women's hammer throw as she steps into the circle this weekend as LSU's school-record holder and the SEC's leading performer in the event with a career-best mark of 218 feet, 0 inches set in her last appearance at the LSU Invitational on May 3. Hinton's personal best of 218-0 leads the SEC by more than 10 feet and ranks her No. 3 in the NCAA rankings for the 2014 outdoor season. She looks to win her first career SEC Outdoor title in the hammer throw after scoring the SEC silver medal for her best career finish in the event a year ago. Hinton has already won back-to-back SEC Indoor Championships in the weight throw in 2013 and 2014, while also earning her first All-America honor in the event to wrap up her senior season indoors. After competing at the SEC Outdoor Championships this weekend, the Lady Tigers will open up their NCAA competition at the NCAA East Preliminary Rounds being held May 29-31 at North Florida's Hodges Stadium in Jacksonville, Fla.

OLE MISS

Men - Ole Miss enters this week's SEC Championships as the 18th-ranked team in the country and one of nine top-25 teams from the Southeastern Conference in the current USTFCCCA rankings. The Rebels will look to improve upon their eighth-place finish at last year's SEC outdoor meet. This year's squad is led by veterans Sam Kendrick and Ricky Robertson, with a big boost from newcomers Jalen Miller, Phillip Young, Sean Tobin, Robert Domanic and Nathan Loe. Kendrick is the reigning NCAA outdoor champion and SEC indoor champion in the pole vault. Robertson has won six SEC high jump titles (four indoor, two outdoor) in his illustrious career. Rebels who currently rank among the nation's top 50 are Jalen Miller in the 100m (23rd, 10.24), Mike Granger in the 100m (46th, 10.34), Sean Tobin in the 800m (14th, 1:47.99) and 1500m (17th, 3:42.07), Robert Semien in the 110m hurdles (31st, 13.91), the 4x100m relay (29th, 40.06), 4x400m relay (31st, 3:08.38), Ricky Robertson in the high jump (2nd, 7-6), long jump (30th, 25-0.75) and triple jump (26th, 51-2.25), Sam Kendrick in the pole vault (1st, 18-8.25), Phillip Young in the long jump (44th, 24-9.75) and triple jump (4th, 52-10.25) and Nathan Loe in the hammer throw (26th, 210-3). Women - The Ole Miss women will go toe-to-toe with the nation's best at this week's SEC Championships. There are eight SEC women's squads among the top 25 in the country in the most recent USTFCCCA rankings. The Rebels will look to improve upon their 14th-place finish at SEC Outdoors last year. They were led last year by Mary Ashton Nall, who placed fourth in the heptathlon. Now a senior, Nall will again look to guide the Rebels. Ole Miss athletes that currently rank among the nation's top 50 are Kierra White in the long jump (26th, 20-6.25) and Nall in the heptathlon (39th, 5,278).

MISSISSIPPI STATE

Following a two-week break from action, the Bulldogs will return to competition on May 15-18 as the University of Kentucky hosts this year's Southeastern Conference Outdoor Championships in Lexington.

MISSOURI

The Missouri Tigers took a break from competition this past weekend in preparation for the SEC Championships in Lexington, Ky., this week. The Tigers enter the weekend with the two leading female shot putters in the country with juniors Kearsten Peoples and Jill Rushin. Peoples will defend her pair of consecutive SEC titles in the shot put which began at last year's Championships. Rushin will also compete to earn her fourth career All-SEC finish in the shot put. Sophomore Markesh Woodson will also return to the track; he was the 60-meter dash Champion in 2013 and was third at last year's Championships in the 100-meter dash. Rounding out the returning All-SEC competitors is junior Jonathan Ilori, who finished third in the triple jump during the indoor season, and junior Katrine Haarklau, who was third in the pole vault last year. Events at the Kentucky Track & Field Complex will begin at noon on Thursday, May 15th, and will continue through Sunday, May 18th.

SOUTH CAROLINA

In its final regular season meet of the 2014 outdoor season, South Carolina captured seven wins from two relays and five individuals at the Georgia Invitational in Athens, Ga. Chris Royster and Ahtyana Johnson delivered a South Carolina sweep of the men's and women's 100-meter dashes. It was the third win of the season for each Gamecock with Royster crossing in 10.36 and Johnson in a personal record 11.50. The pair also contributed to wins in the 4x100-meter relays. On the men's side, Brandon Sanders, Royster, Dondre Echols and Eric Winfrey posted a 40.28. The women employed a team of Tyler Brockington, Tamera Harris, Briana Haith and Johnson for their winning time of 45.27. Harris also collected an individual win in the 400-meter hurdles, clocking in at 59.47 to notch her second win of the year. In the distance races, Mary Reiser took the 3,000-meter run (10:07.52) and Sarah Falta took first place in the 3,000-meter steeplechase with a time of 11:44.17. The Gamecocks begin the postseason at the 2014 SEC Outdoor Championships in Lexington, Ky., this week.

TENNESSEE

Tennessee track and field looks to improve upon performances this season at the 2014 SEC Championships in Lexington, Ky. This year has proven to be a positive one for the program highlighted by 28 wins and breaking two school records. Chelsea Blaase set a new record in the 10k at the Stanford Invitational, while Tavis Bailey established a new discus record for the second time this season at the Tennessee Challenge on May 3. Thrower Kyle Quinn remains the top performer nationally in the javelin this season. Entering the weekend, the Big Orange has 15 athletes qualified for NCAA East Regional competition in Jacksonville. The team looks to increase that number against very stiff nationally ranked competition this weekend in Lexington.

TEXAS A&M

The Aggies enter their second SEC Outdoor Championships with the Texas A&M women defending the team title they claimed a year ago while the A&M men aim to improve upon a third place finish. Men – The Aggie men are ranked No. 2 in the nation and one of six SEC programs holding a top 10 national ranking going into the conference meet. Defending champions for A&M includes Deon Lendore in the 400, Wayne Davis II in the 110 hurdles and the 4x400 relay. Lendore, a junior, has not lost a conference race in either the 400 meters or 4x400 relay in 10 races (three indoor and two outdoor meets). As the collegiate leader at 44.90, Lendore seeks a third consecutive outdoor conference title in the 400 to complete sweeps of the indoor and outdoor league title for the third time in his career. Senior Wayne Davis II will also contend for a third straight conference title in the 110 hurdles, where he leads the collegiate ranks with a windy 13.24. Texas A&M has won four consecutive 4x400 conference titles, which includes three victories in the Big 12 from 2010 to 2012 as well as the 2013 SEC race. Women – With a No. 4 national ranking the Aggie women are one of six SEC squads ranked among the top 10 nationally heading into the conference showdown. Three defending champions for A&M include LaQue Moen-Davis in the long jump, Shelbi Vaughan in the discus and the 4x100 relay. Vaughan is the collegiate leader in the discus with her school record toss of 199-3. The Aggie sprint relay, the current collegiate leader at 43.11, has claimed seven consecutive conference victories, six in the Big 12 dating back to 2007 and last season's SEC title. In addition Kamaria Brown returns as a runner-up in the 200 and 400 meters. Indoors she claimed titles in both events with times of 22.50 and 50.94. Others who placed second a year ago include Jennifer Madu in the 100 as well as Moen-Davis in the triple jump. Newcomer Shamier Little tops the 400 hurdle field with a 56.55 that lead the collegiate ranks for a few weeks and has the second fastest SEC time in the 400 at 52.26.

VANDERBILT

After taking last weekend off, the Vanderbilt track team heads for Lexington, Ky., this weekend for the SEC Championships. The Commodores are looking to build on last year's success, when they scored 16 points -- their most at the outdoor SEC meet since 2005. Scheduled to compete this weekend for Vanderbilt are: junior Liz Anderson (5k); freshman Reagan Anderson (800/1500); sophomore Sara Barron (1500); freshman Sarah Bell (PV); junior Claire Benjamin (10k); freshman Carmen Carlos (1500/5k); sophomore Skyler Carpenter (400h); junior Rebecca Chandler (Steeple); freshman Simone Charley (TJ); sophomore Katherine Delaney (1500); junior Erin Edmond (400/200); freshman Sarah Goodale (Hept); junior Amira Joseph (Steeple); sophomore Vanessa Valentine (10k); senior Brionne Williams (HJ); and sophomore Lily Williams (1500).
