Junior Running Back Todd Gurley

On playing Clemson and South Carolina in the first two games of the season...

“Last year we lost to Clemson by three or four points. This year we get the chance to redeem ourselves. They get to come to Athens and it’s the first game, so people are going to be pumped up about that. Then, we have a bye week and then we go play South Carolina and that’s always a good game. That game is always for bragging rights and a lot of guys from Georgia are on the South Carolina team. The whole state of Georgia and state of South Carolina get excited for that. To win those two games against that state would be good for us.”

On being a Heisman candidate...

“I’m not really too big on it. People say it a lot, but it’s not the thing I’m going after. I feel like the Heisman is a team award. You could be a great player, but if your team’s not winning, you’re not going to get the award. It would be great to win to get, but I’m just happy to play the game of football. I don’t do it for all the awards.”

On Hutson Mason...

“He’s definitely taken on a bigger role as far as leading the team. We believe in Hutson and have a lot of confidence in Hutson. He’s took notes from Aaron (Murray) and Aaron thought him a lot of things this offseason. He just got back from the Manning camp and he learned some things from that. He’s been on the receivers the last couple of days, as far as getting more reps in.”
