Junior Defensive Back Landon Collins

On Using Auburn As Motivation During Off-Season Work Outs

“Well, we haven’t gotten to them yet, but that’s going to motivate us because it was a dramatic loss for us to them this past year, but it’s going to be...we’re going to see how the team comes together.”

On His Role In His Brother’s Decision To Leave Louisiana

“Clearly I had a big factor in that because he questioned me day in and day about ‘what I should do, what I should do’ ...it’s never easy for her (mom) to have both of her sons away from home.”

On Holding Together The Team While Not Knowing Who The Quarterback Is

“Well, we just take each step. Each player has different techniques, I mean, we just play with each one and if one goes down, we have to know the other’s techniques and his keys that he throws to and what he’s best at. So, we take each one...and we just keep our stance.”
