Senior Quarterback Bo Wallace

What offseason moves did you do to improve on success?

“Well I went to go see Tom House in LA (Los Angeles). He’s a mechanics guru that has worked with a lot of guys that have had shoulder injuries. I went out there just to get some velocity back and things like that. I feel like it’s one of the best decisions I’ve made.”

Is there any pressure on being a legitimate dark horse in the west?

“Well no we don’t feel any pressure at all. We are confident that we can get into late game with those teams. That is our goal to get late into the fourth quarter and see what happens. Like I said we are a dark horse and we know that and we working everyday to try and win an SEC Championship.”

Is there a field you want to play on one last time?

“No doubt it’s LSU. My sophomore year we got beat late in the game, but it was one of the most fun times I’ve had playing football and it’s a fun atmosphere to play in, especially being a rivalry game. So I’m very excited to play LSU.”
