SEC PLAYERS OF THE WEEK

OFFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Taylor Grant, Missouri

F • 5-3 • Sr. • The Colony, Texas

Grant scored both Mizzou game-winners as the Tigers earned two wins last weekend to improve to 5-1-2 on the year. Against Montana on Sept. 12, Grant sealed Missouri's 4-3 comeback victory with the game-winner in the 105th minute of play after the team trailed 3-1 late in the second half. Two days later, Grant tallied Mizzou's second goal, the ultimate game-winner, in a 3-1 win over Cal State-Northridge. The goals were the fifth and sixth of the year for Grant to set a new single-season best.

DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Sabrina D'Angelo, South Carolina

GK • 5-8 • Sr. • Welland, Ontario, Canada

D'Angelo continues to close in on the program shutout record of 31 after collecting her 25th and 26th career shutouts at the USF Soccer Classic with clean sheets against USF and FGCU. D'Angelo has seven shutouts this season and allowed just one goal in non-conference play for the second-straight year. Every other league team has allowed four or more goals and no team has registered more than four shutouts. Her goals against average of 0.12 leads the league and ranks in the top six in the country. Entering the weekend with 10 saves, she posted nine in the two weekend matches in the Sunshine State, including seven against USF.

FRESHMAN OF THE WEEK

Savannah McCaskill, South Carolina

F • 5-4 • Chapin, S.C.

McCaskill was one of two Gamecocks to post a three-point weekend at the USF Soccer Classic. McCaskill earned the assist on sophomore Sophie Groff's goal vs. UCF Friday. On Sunday vs. Florida

Gulf Coast, the pair connected again, this time with McCaskill on the scoring end when the freshman netted her first career goal in the 81st minute to cap a 2-0 win and an undefeated weekend. It is McCaskill's first multi-point weekend. The Gamecock leads the team with 18 shots this year and put three of her four weekend shots on frame.

AROUND THE LEAGUE

- The full schedule of conference play begins this weekend with a Thursday night match between Tennessee and Texas A&M that will be televised on the SEC Network at 7 p.m. ET.
- SEC teams have posted a 68-28-10 (.689) record in non-conference action. They have outscored their non-conference opponents 221-102.
- Six SEC teams are receiving mention in the latest NSCAA/Continental Tire poll. Florida is ranked No. 7 while Texas A&M is 11th, South Carolina is 14th and Georgia is 24th. Auburn and Ole Miss are both receiving votes.
- Arkansas and Vanderbilt enjoyed their highest scoring outputs in several years on the final weekend before league play. Arkansas's six goals against Missouri State is its most since 2008 while Vanderbilt's six goals against UT Chattanooga is its most since the 2007 season.
- South Carolina goalkeeper Sabrina D'Angelo has recorded seven shutouts in eight games this season. Georgia freshman Louise Hogrell has four shutouts in seven outings.
- Texas A&M's Kelley Monogue ranks fifth among active NCAA players with 42 goals and 103 points.
- The SEC Network and its accompanying digital platform will air 75 of the 77 SEC league soccer matches this season. The SEC Network will televise 17 regular season league matches while ESPNU will show four. The conference's digital platform - SEC Network+ - will show 54 regular season league matches.

Preseason Poll

Florida narrowly edged Texas A&M as the favorite to claim the 2014 Southeastern Conference women's soccer title in voting by the league's 14 head coaches. This marks the 16th time that Florida has been tabbed by the coaches to win the title.

The Gators received 164 points that included eight first-place votes, topping the Aggies' 162 points (six first-place votes). Florida and Texas A&M shared the 2013 SEC title by posting identical 9-2-0 league records.

Florida returns 11 starters from last season, including MAC Hermann Award candidates Savannah Jordan, Havana Solaun and Christen Westphal. Texas A&M returns 10 starters from 2013, of which five were All-SEC selections, including first-teamers Shea Groom and Meghan Streight and second-teamers Jordan Day, Leigh Edwards and Kelley Monogue.

Points were compiled on a 13-12-11-10-9-8-7-6-5-4-3-2-1 basis, though each coach was not allowed to vote for their own team.

2014 SEC TOURNAMENT November 3-9 • Orange Beach Sportsplex • Orange Beach, Ala.

Format

The format of the tournament is a single-elimination tournament of the top 10 teams in the Conference. The tournament champion shall be the SEC representative to the NCAA championship.

The following point system will be implemented to determine regular season standings and seeding for the tournament: a win counts as three points, a tie as one and a loss as zero points. If a game is canceled, neither team will receive a point and the standings will be determined by average points per game.

The two teams in each division with the highest number of points will be the divisional champions.

The tournament shall be played in a Monday-Wednesday-Friday-Sunday with Thursday and Saturday designated as days off (practice days).

Seeding

The tournament will be seeded 1-10 regardless of division based on the point system implemented to determine regular season standings. If teams are tied, the following procedures, in order as follows, will be used to break the tie:

Two-Team Tie – The following procedure will be used in the following order until the tie is broken:

- A. Head-to-head competition between the tied teams.
- B. Points earned versus common opponents.
- C. Goal differential versus common opponents.
- D. Goals scored versus common opponents.

- E. Won-Lost record of the two teams versus highest seeded common opponent and proceeding through the No. 14 seed, if necessary.
- F. Goal differential versus highest seeded common opponent and proceeding through the No. 14 seed, if necessary.
- G. Goals scored versus highest seeded common opponent and proceeding through the No. 14 seed, if necessary.
- H. Coin flip by the Commissioner.

Three-Team Tie (or more) – The following procedure will be used until the tie is broken. If at any time this tie breaker results in only two remaining tied teams, then the two-team tiebreaker will be used beginning with Subsection A in that procedure and continuing from that point:

- A. If all teams have played one another, then most points earned in those matches only.
- B. If all teams have not played, but one team has defeated all teams in the tie break, then that team breaks the tie and shall be placed highest. Remaining teams will continue with the tie break procedure.
- C. If all teams have not played one another and a team does not have all wins over the tied teams, then use Subsection B in the two-team tie break procedures and continue through the two team tie-break procedures until ties between all teams are broken (except Subsection H will read "if three or more teams are still tied, the Commissioner will conduct a draw").

The Tide takes on UAB this weekend in a Friday in-state matchup. UAB owns the all-time series 7-6-1, but UA has won the last four contests. Alabama fell to No. 3-ranked Virginia, 3-0, on Friday night in women's soccer action. The game was played front of a crowd of 1,308 fans, the second-biggest crowd in the history of the Alabama Soccer Complex. The team scored a goal in each half and cruised to a 2-0 victory over Jacksonville State on Sunday night at the Alabama Soccer Complex. The Crimson Tide dominated play from the opening whistle, outshooting the Gamecocks, 30-3, on the night, which included a 10-1 edge in shots on goal and an 11-1 advantage on corner kicks. Alabama is now 3-2-1 on the season.

The Tigers split the final non-conference weekend with Samford and Milwaukee, falling to the Bulldogs on Friday 2-1, but coming back strong on Sunday to defeat the Panthers, 2-0. Looking to extend its five-match winning streak, the Tigers struggled to get open offensive opportunities against Samford and fell behind early, 1-0. However, the equalizer came in the 21st minute as sophomore Casie Ramsier netted her second goal of the year off a couple of crisp passes across the box from Kristen Dodson and Samantha Solaru. For Ramsier, she now has 11 goals in her young career. However, Samford was able to get the game-winner as a foul in the box by Auburn set up a penalty kick, which keeper Alyse Scott could do nothing with. Auburn came back in a big way Sunday against Milwaukee, starting on its defensive front. The Tigers only gave up eight shots, three coming on goal, while Scott was solid again in the net with three saves. Auburn nearly fell into the same trap as Friday only notching one shot in the first half against the Panthers, but made the halftime adjustments needed, tallying 12 shots in the second half. Milwaukee netted an own goal in the 46th minute to break the scoreless tie and Auburn put the game out of reach in the 87th minute off a goal from freshman Ellie Leek, her third of the year. Leek made a nice interception at midfield and put Auburn on the counterattack where she found a streaking Kristen Dodson. Leek finished into the wide open net, giving Auburn the 2-0 victory. The Tigers return to the field on Sunday for its first SEC match of the year against South Carolina at the AU Soccer Complex. The match is slated for a noon kick and will be televised on the SEC Network.

In the nation's only match last weekend featuring a pair of top-10 teams, the No. 6 Gators lost 1-0 in overtime Friday at No. 4 Stanford. The game-winning goal came when a penalty kick was awarded at 92:47. Lo'eau LaBonta converted the kick to push Stanford's 2014 record to an unbeaten 5-0-1. The Gators finished non-conference play with a 4-0 win at New Mexico on Sunday. Florida got goals from junior Lauren Smith and Brooke Sharp. Savannah Jordan registered her first double goal match of the season and the eighth of her career with her goals in each half at UNM. Florida opens Southeastern Conference play at Alabama on Friday, Sept. 19. That match will stream live on SECNetwork+.

The Bulldogs saw their Friday evening game against Mercer get cancelled due to lightning in the Athens area, and the squad responded to post a 4-0 road win over Furman on Sunday in Greenville. Georgia got two goals from Marion Crowder on the night, including the game-winner in the 15th minute, while both Rachel Garcia and Gabby Seiler each had two assists in helping the Bulldogs to their fourth straight win entering the start of SEC play. Goalkeeper Louise Hogrell came away with five saves in collecting her fourth shutout of the season and third in a row. Georgia stands at 5-1-1 on the year. Seiler has now registered at least one point for Georgia in all seven games of 2014 – the longest such streak since the 2011 season.

The No. 24 University of Kentucky women's soccer team fell 3-2 in overtime on Sunday afternoon to No. 12 Pepperdine at the Wendell & Vickie Bell Soccer Complex in the Wildcats' only match of the weekend. Arin Gilliland scored with 28 seconds left in regulation, as the Wildcats pulled even at 2-2, before conceding a goal 1:38 into the first overtime frame to suffer just its second loss on the season. Gilliland now leads the Wildcats with 14 points this season, as she has charted four goals and six assists through the opening seven matches of the season. Sophomore Michaela Dooley kept her scoring streak alive with an assist on UK's first equalizer in the 61st minute, with an assist to Kelli Hubby. Dooley has now scored a point in five matches running. Kentucky opens SEC play this weekend at Arkansas on Friday night at 8 p.m. ET. The match will be live on SEC Network +, as well as ESPN3 and the WatchESPN app. As was the case this weekend, next weekend will be a single-match weekend for UK.

The LSU Tigers (3-2) head into their Monday Night Futbol contest against Stephen F. Austin on the back of a split week on the field in which they ended a four-game season-opening homestand with a 3-0 shutout of Nicholls State on Sept. 2 before dropping a 2-0 decision to TCU on Friday night in their first road match of the campaign in Fort Worth, Texas. The Tigers have been led by their two star strikers early in the season with All-SEC sophomore Summer Clarke and freshman Jorian Baucom each scoring their team-leading third goals of the season in the team's 3-0 win over Nicholls State. Junior Fernanda Pina also opened her account with the first goal of the match that proved to be the game-winner to help lead the Tigers to victory. After playing host to the three-time defending Southland Conference Champion Stephen F. Austin Lady Jacks on Monday night, LSU will head out on a four-game road trip that kicks off this weekend with a match in Provo, Utah, against No. 23-ranked BYU on Thursday at 7 p.m. CT before traveling to Durham, North Carolina, for a match against No. 22-ranked Duke on Sunday at noon CT.

Ole Miss improved to 5-1-2 on the season after posting a pair of shutout victories over the weekend that included a 2-0 win on the road at Austin Peay and a 4-0 win at home over Middle Tennessee. Junior forward Olivia Harrison scored both goals in a three minute span at Austin Peay on the way to the Rebel win, taking her season total to six goals to lead the team. Ole Miss had four players score against Middle Tennessee, including three players who notched their first goals of the season. Sophomore forward Addie Forbus brought her season total to four goals with the first goal of the afternoon, while junior midfielder Jennifer Miller, sophomore forward/defender Georgia Russell and sophomore midfielder Gretchen Harknett also scored. It was the first collegiate goal for Russell. Harknett scored on a PK to give the Rebels the final margin of victory. With the pair of wins, senior goalkeeper Kelly McCormick extended her school record win total to 39 for her career and her career shutouts to 20 solo shutouts. She has started in goal for 23 shutouts in her career. Ole Miss will resume SEC play this weekend with a road trip to Mississippi State on Friday night in a match televised by the SEC Network. The Rebels opened the season against SEC foe Georgia on the SEC Network and earned one point in the standings after playing the Bulldogs to a 1-1 tie. Ole Miss will then travel to UCF for the final non-conference contest of the regular season on Sunday.

Mississippi State split its last weekend of non-conference action, dropping a tough 2-0 decision to South Alabama Friday before bouncing back to close the pre-SEC slate with a 2-1 win against Louisiana Tech... Senior Shannen Jainudeen put MSU in front early on Sunday, notching her team-leading fifth goal of the season six minutes in... Freshman Morgan Ferrara tallied her winner in the second half, heading home her second goal of the season off a Bulldog free kick... The common link between the two goals was freshman Mallory Eubanks, who setup both strikes... Eubanks now has a team-leading four assists on the campaign... Freshman goalie Rhylee DeCrane surrendered her first goal in three halves of action, a run that encompassed over 170 minutes... The Bulldogs stay on the home pitch Friday, hosting in-state rival Ole Miss in the battle for the Magnolia Cup to open SEC play... It will be the 21st meeting between the teams... Ole Miss leads 11-6-3, but the series is 4-4-1 all-time in Starkville with MSU having won the last two home contests.

Mizzou improved to 5-1-2 on the season after a pair of wins last weekend. The Tigers earned a 4-3 double overtime win over Montana on Sept. 12 and a 3-1 victory over Cal State-Northridge on Sept. 14. Senior midfielder Kaysie Clark tallied five points over the weekend on a goal and three assists. Clark now has eight assists on the young season, which is tied for ninth on Mizzou's single-season list. Senior forward Taylor Grant scored both game-winners over the weekend to give her six total goals on the year, a career best. Grant notched the game-winner in the 105th minute against Montana and scored in the 55th minute against Cal State-Northridge. The Tigers open SEC play on Friday, Sept. 19 with a home contest against LSU at 6:30 p.m.

SOUTH CAROLINA GAMECOCKS

Overall: 7-1-0

The Gamecocks (7-1-0) wrapped up another sweep over the weekend with shutout victories over USF and FGCU at the USF Soccer Classic in Tampa, Fla. For the second-straight season, South Carolina has allowed just one goal in non-conference play. The Gamecocks have seven shutouts and a lead-leading 0.12 goals against average. Every other league team has allowed four or more goals and no other team has more than four shutouts. In Friday's win over USF, the Gamecocks scored a season-high three goals with tallies from Coryn Bajema, Chelsea Drennan and Sophie Groff. On Sunday vs. FGCU, South Carolina saw two net their first career goals in sophomore Claire Studebaker and freshman Savannah McCaskill. Groff and McCaskill posted three-point weekends, scoring and assisting on each other's tallies. Netminder Sabrina D'Angelo collected her 25th and 26th career shutouts and nearly doubled her season saves total with nine over the weekend. After taking Friday off, the Gamecocks make their SEC Network debut as they begin conference play at Auburn on Sunday at 1 p.m. ET.

Tennessee went 1-1 last week at the Virginia Nike Soccer Classic, falling to No. 2 Virginia, 2-1, on Friday and bouncing back with a 3-1 win over Richmond on Sunday. UT was the first team to hold a lead against Virginia thanks to Hannah Wilkinson's goal in the 10th minute off a free kick by Kiah Allen. The Cavaliers rallied back with two scores in the second half. Anna McClung scored the first two goals of her UT career on Sunday in a 3-1 victory vs. Richmond, scoring unassisted in the seventh minute and netting the game-winner in the 52nd minute. Aaran Parry scored her first career goal in the 78th minute on a one-timer off a Michele Christy cross. UT opens SEC play at No. 12 Texas A&M on Thursday. Tennessee is 3-0 all-time against Texas A&M, defeating the a ranked Aggies team in each of the last three seasons. The Big Orange will also face ETSU on Sunday in Johnson City, Tenn.
