SEC PLAYERS OF THE WEEK

OFFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Shea Groom, Texas A&M

MF • 5-6 • Sr. • Liberty, Mo.

In the Aggies' lone match of the week, Shea Groom recorded a hat trick in a 3-0 win against Tennessee last Thursday. It marked the second hat trick of Groom's career and the 34th in the history of the program. The midfielder put her first goal home with her head just outside the six-yard box on a free kick service from Karlie Mueller from 30 yards out in the first half. In the second half, Groom scored off a Bianca Brinson throw-in that Janae Cousineau flicked towards the six-yard box. After one bounce Groom sent it to the back of the net with her left foot. The final goal came in the 89th minute after she broke clear and blasted a shot from 12 yards out.

DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Karlie Mueller, Texas A&M

D • 5-4 • Jr. • Sioux Falls, S.D.

Mueller helped lead the only defense to not give up a goal on the week. The Maroon and White logged their fourth shutout of the season and Mueller offered up the assist on A&M's first goal of the 3-0 win over Tennessee. The Aggies' backline held Tennessee to just two shots-on-goal. Mueller's assist came on a free kick from 35 yards out, offering a perfect service near the six-yard box that Shea Groom headed into the back of the net for the first of her three goals on the weekend.

FRESHMAN OF THE WEEK

Kaitlyn Clark, Missouri

M • 5-4 • Liberty, Mo.

Clark recorded her first collegiate points with a goal and an assist in Mizzou's 3-1 win over LSU on Sept. 19. The Liberty, Mo., native assisted on Missouri's first goal of the match for the first assist of her career. Then with the game tied at 1-1, she slotted a 19-yard rocket to notch her first career goal, the eventual game-winner, in the 61st minute.

AROUND THE LEAGUE

- Kentucky's Arin Gilliland will be presented with the 2014 Honda Inspiration Award on-campus on Sunday following the Wildcats match with Auburn.

Preseason Poll

Florida narrowly edged Texas A&M as the favorite to claim the 2014 Southeastern Conference women's soccer title in voting by the league's 14 head coaches. This marks the 16th time that Florida has been tabbed by the coaches to win the title.

The Gators received 164 points that included eight first-place votes, topping the Aggies' 162 points (six first-place votes). Florida and Texas A&M shared the 2013 SEC title by posting identical 9-2-0 league records.

Florida returns 11 starters from last season, including MAC Hermann Award candidates Savannah Jordan, Havana Solaun and Christen Westphal. Texas A&M returns 10 starters from 2013, of which five were All-SEC selections, including first-teamers Shea Groom and Meghan Streight and second-teamers Jordan Day, Leigh Edwards and Kelley Monogue.

Points were compiled on a 13-12-11-10-9-8-7-6-5-4-3-2-1 basis, though each coach was not allowed to vote for their own team.

2014 SEC TOURNAMENT November 3-9 • Orange Beach Sportsplex • Orange Beach, Ala.

Format

The format of the tournament is a single-elimination tournament of the top 10 teams in the Conference. The tournament champion shall be the SEC representative to the NCAA championship.

The following point system will be implemented to determine regular season standings and seeding for the tournament: a win counts as three points, a tie as one and a loss as zero points. If a game is canceled, neither team will receive a point and the standings will be determined by average points per game.

The two teams in each division with the highest number of points will be the divisional champions.

The tournament shall be played in a Monday-Wednesday-Friday-Sunday with Thursday and Saturday designated as days off (practice days).

Seeding

The tournament will be seeded 1-10 regardless of division based on the point system implemented to determine regular season standings. If teams are tied, the following procedures, in order as follows, will be used to break the tie:

Two-Team Tie – The following procedure will be used in the following order until the tie is broken:

- A. Head-to-head competition between the tied teams.
- B. Points earned versus common opponents.
- C. Goal differential versus common opponents.
- D. Goals scored versus common opponents.

- E. Won-Lost record of the two teams versus highest seeded common opponent and proceeding through the No. 14 seed, if necessary.
- F. Goal differential versus highest seeded common opponent and proceeding through the No. 14 seed, if necessary.
- G. Goals scored versus highest seeded common opponent and proceeding through the No. 14 seed, if necessary.
- H. Coin flip by the Commissioner.

Three-Team Tie (or more) – The following procedure will be used until the tie is broken. If at any time this tie breaker results in only two remaining tied teams, then the two-team tiebreaker will be used beginning with Subsection A in that procedure and continuing from that point:

- A. If all teams have played one another, then most points earned in those matches only.
- B. If all teams have not played, but one team has defeated all teams in the tie break, then that team breaks the tie and shall be placed highest. Remaining teams will continue with the tie break procedure.
- C. If all teams have not played one another and a team does not have all wins over the tied teams, then use Subsection B in the two-team tie break procedures and continue through the two team tie-break procedures until ties between all teams are broken (except Subsection H will read "if three or more teams are still tied, the Commissioner will conduct a draw").

ALABAMA CRIMSON TIDE

Overall: 5-3-1
SEC: 0-1-0

@AlabamaSoccer

The Alabama soccer team fell to No. 7 Florida, 2-1, in a Friday night match at the Alabama Soccer Complex. The Tide was outshot 20-7, but stalled the Gators from producing many breakaway chances. UA was outshot 9-1 in the first half, but narrowed the gap in the second half as Florida produced 11 shots to Alabama's six. It took over 70 minutes to produce the game's first goal, with all three tallies – two by Florida and one by Alabama – coming in a four-minute span. The momentum favored Alabama for the last 10 minutes, including a shot by freshman Lacey Clarida in the 85th minute that seemed destined for the back of the net. However, the ball struck the crossbar and was cleared away by the Gators' defense. The Tide was unable to put one in the net to tie the game before the clock eventually ran out, with Florida coming out on top, 2-1. Alabama followed Friday's loss with an 8-0 victory over Alabama State in its first midday competition and last non-conference game of the season on Sunday afternoon at the Alabama Soccer Complex. The Tide outshot Alabama State, 31-7, and only allowed one shot on goal by the Hornets. Alabama also collected eight assists, the fourth-most all-time by an Alabama soccer team. Junior Annalika Steyn collected three goals, while senior Laura Lee Smith accumulated three assists by the end of the game. Freshman Ally Ocon added two goals and an assist; the goals were her first two as a member of the Alabama soccer team. UA will take to the road for the first time in nearly a month when the team heads back to Tennessee, this time traveling to Knoxville and Nashville. The Tide will face the Tennessee Volunteers on Friday, Sept. 26 at 6 p.m. and then take on Vanderbilt on Sunday at 7 p.m.

AUBURN TIGERS

SEC: 0-1-0

The Auburn Tigers dropped their Southeastern Conference opener on Sunday to the 14th-ranked South Carolina Gamecocks, 2-1 in overtime, to fall to 6-3-0 on the season. The match was a defensive battle that lasted into the final minutes of regulation, but three goals were scored in a matter of 15 minutes of playing time and it was the Gamecocks that came out on top. Stevi Parker hit the game-winner for South Carolina in the 99th minute after a corner from Chelsea Drennen pinballed around before settling in front of Parker. 85 minutes had gone by in the match with neither team able to find the back of the net before South Carolina's Sophie Groff scored her fourth goal of the season off a penalty kick, giving the Gamecocks what many thought was the game-winning goal. However, Auburn, never a team to back down, kept fighting and found its own equalizer just three minutes later as sophomore Brooke Ramsier received one from 10 yards out and finished to tie the game at one and send it to overtime. Freshman Kristen Dodson scored an assist on the play, upping her consecutive point streak to five games. Dodson has tallied at least one point in all but one match this season. Auburn will hit the road next weekend for its first away conference matches of the season, traveling to Vanderbilt and Kentucky. Friday's match against the Commodores is set for a 6 p.m. start, while Sunday's match with the Wildcats will be at 5 p.m. Both games can be seen on the SEC Network's digital platform, SEC Network+ on the WatchESPN app or WatchESPN.com.

GEORGIA BULLDOGS

SEC: 1-0-1

No. 24 Georgia had a rare off-date on Friday night before taking on Vanderbilt on Sunday afternoon. The Bulldogs went down 1-0 to Vandy in the seventh minute, marking the first time all season Georgia has failed to score first in a game. It was also the first time since 2007 that the Commodores had scored a goal vs. UGA. But the Bulldogs responded with three after halftime to post the comeback win, Georgia's first since 2011. The Bulldogs got two goals from sophomore forward Marion Crowder, who has scored multiple goals in back-to-back games – the first time a Georgia player has done so since 2011. The game-winner went to freshman Kelsey Killean, while Louise Hogrell recorded five saves in goal and has still allowed more than one goal in a game just once this season. Georgia is 6-1-1 on the year and 1-0-1 in conference play, riding a five-game winning streak in next weekend's games at Florida and South Carolina.

TIGERS

@LSUSoccer

The Tigers (4-5-1, 0-1 SEC) wrapped up a four-game cross-country road swing last weekend with trips to Audrey J. Walton Stadium in Columbia, Missouri, to face the Missouri Tigers in their Southeastern Conference opener on Friday night and to Valley Fields in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, to take on the two-time defending Big East Conference champion Marquette Golden Eagles in their non-conference finale on Sunday afternoon. Rookie striker Jorian Baucom scored the equalizer in the 54th minute to draw the Tigers level at 1-1 against Missouri before the team conceded two late goals to fall by a 3-1 margin in their league opener last Friday night. All-SEC striker Summer Clarke pulled one back for the Tigers in the 74th minute to cut Marquette's lead to 2-1 late in the match, but the visitors were unable to find an equalizer as they suffered their third defeat on the spin while reaching the midway point of the 2014 season. Baucom and Clarke are now tied as the team's leading goal scorers as they have each found the back of the net five times on the year while combining for 10 of the team's 17 goals on the campaign. Junior midfielder Natalia Gomez-Junco assisted Clarke's goal at Marquette for her team-leading fourth assist of the campaign. The Tigers are excited to return home this weekend as they play host to the No. 6-ranked Texas A&M Aggies in their SEC home opener on Friday night at 7 p.m. CT in a match that will be featured by the SEC Network+ online platform. LSU will then play host to the Arkansas Razorbacks on Sunday afternoon at 3 p.m. CT as the Tigers will make their debut on the SEC Network.

Ole Miss moved to 6-2-2 on the season after playing a pair of road matches this past weekend that included a Southeastern Conference showdown with in-state rival Mississippi State and a non-conference matchup against UCF. The Rebels retained the Magnolia Cup and improved to 12-6-3 all-time against Mississippi State with a 1-0 victory over the Bulldogs, sparked by a goal from sophomore Addie Forbus in the first minute of play. Forbus now has five goals on the season, second on the team behind junior forward Olivia Harrison's six goals. Leigh Edwards is tied with Florida's Annie Speese for ninth place with 81 matches. Annie Kunz and Bianca Brinson are tied for 11th place with 79 matches. Nine of the Aggies' 23 goals this season have come on set pieces, including four corner kicks, three free kicks, one throw-in and one penalty kick. A&M scored on a corner kick in each of its first four matches. The Aggies current home win streak stands at 15 matches dating back to September 8, 2013. The streak ranks fifth all-time. It is the fourth-longest win streak for the Aggies at Ellis Field. Shea Groom booked her second career hat trick with three goals against Tennessee in the Aggies' lone match of the week. Groom's other hatter came against Massachusetts in 2013 in a 3-1 win. It marked the 34th hat trick in A&M history and the fourth by a current member of the squad. With the Aggies win, A&M has recorded a win against every SEC squad in regular-season or SEC tournament play since joining the league in 2012 except Kentucky. The Aggies and Wildcats played to a 2-2 draw in their lone meeting as SEC brethren in Lexington in 2012. Shea Groom leapfrogged teammate Annie Kunz (32) for ninth place on the A&M career goals list with 33. It marks the first time since the end of the 1996 season that the Aggies have three 30-goal scorers on the same squad (Monogue – 42, Groom – 33, Kunz – 32).

Vanderbilt dropped its SEC opener to No. 24 Georgia, 3-1 on Sunday on the road in its only game of the week. The Commodores (5-4, 0-1) scored in the seventh minute when sophomore Simone Charley notched her third goal of the season into the bottom left corner of the net. It was the first time Vanderbilt had scored against Georgia since the 2007 season – a span of seven games and more than 520 minutes. But the Commodores couldn't hold onto the 1-0 halftime lead. Georgia scored three goals in the second half, and took the lead in the 76th minute. After taking 11 shots in the first half, Vanderbilt mustered only five after halftime. Freshman goalkeeper Christiana Ogunsami tied a career-high with seven saves. The Commodores were trying to get their first win over Georgia since 2006. They did continue their streak of not allowing a first-half goal all season. Vanderbilt now returns to Nashville for a two-game homestand against Auburn on Friday and Alabama on Sunday. The Commodores look to stay perfect at home as they're 4-0 at the VU Soccer Complex this year.
