Junior Wide Receiver Pharoh Cooper

On Last Season Being a Disappointment

"Last year, we were predicted to do very well. It started off bad and it was a bad season for us. We aren't expected to do that at South Carolina. Everybody knows that. We have kind of forgotten about last year. We're focused on this year. We are a whole different team. We've got some new guys on offense and defense. We are kind of young, but last year is over with, and we're going to turn it around this year."

On the Momentum From Winning the Bowl Game

"It's always a good feeling coming into the season on a winning note, rather than a losing note. We've got confidence coming into the first game. Like I said, we are a different team this year. People left for the league (NFL), some people just left, but we will be ready on offense and defense."

On If He Should Be Considered Among the Best at His Position

"Yes, I should be looked at as one of the nation's elite at my position. As an athlete, I feel like I am one of the more versatile players in the nation. What I can do with the ball, on offense, that's my mentality to go out there and score every time I touch the ball."
