Sophomore Running Back Leonard Fournette

On University of Georgia running back Nick Chubb

"I met Nick in high school. He's a great person. He's a great running back. I think he is hands-down the best running back in the SEC. I'm competing against him every day."

On how Hurricane Katrina shaped him as a person

"It humbled me a lot. Knowing where I came from, I made it out. A lot of people made it out to see the next couple of days and the next couple of years. I'm thankful that my family made it out alive. It made me stronger. Every decision that I make, I think about that."

On his fashion and Heisman trophy expectations

"The pants were $6.99 at Dillard's. Y'all can buy them too. I'm not focused on the Heisman. At the end of the day, the national championship wins the trophy for the team. That's my main goal."

On if Nick Chubb is a Lamborghini, then what car would he be

"[I would be] a Bugatti. That's my favorite car. I want to buy that when I get older. Lamborghinis are fast too. I had no problem when he said [he would be a Lamborghini]."
