

2016 SEC Women's Basketball Tournament

Game 4 – Thursday, March 3 – 2:30 p.m.

#13 LSU vs. #5 Kentucky

TOURNAMENT NOTES

- Session 2 Attendance – 2,445

LSU NOTES

- LSU's all-time record in SEC Tournament games is now 35-36
- Fifth-year head coach Nikki Fargas falls to 6-5 in SEC Tournament games
- The Tigers held Kentucky to a season-low one three-point field goal
- Redshirt junior forward Alexis Hyder logged her second consecutive 20-point game, becoming the first Tiger since Danielle Ballard (March 1 & 6, 2015) to post back-to-back 20-point outings
 - Hyder's game-high 23 points also matched her season high
 - Hyder has scored in double figures in each of LSU's last eight games
- Hyder also finished with 10 rebounds to notch her 10th double-double of the season
- Freshman guard Shanice Norton scored in double figures for the sixth time this season
- Redshirt senior forward Akilah Bethel finished recorded her fourth 10-plus-rebound game of the season

KENTUCKY NOTES

- Kentucky improves its all-time SEC Tournament record to 32-36
 - The Wildcats also improve to 13-8 in SEC Tournament play under ninth-year head coach Matthew Mitchell
- UK will make its seventh consecutive SEC Tournament quarterfinals appearance, and improves to 2-0 in the SEC Tournament second round games
- Kentucky extends its winning streak seven games, and its won all but this afternoon's game by at least 10 points
- The Wildcats are now 23-6 when scoring 70-plus points in an SEC Tournament game
 - Since 1995, Kentucky is 11-1 in such games
- For the fourth time this season, three Wildcats scored at least 15 points—Makayla Epps (17), Jane Thompson (17), Evelyn Akhator (15)
 - It's the 26th time in 28 games this season three Wildcats scored 10-plus points
- Kentucky made just one three-pointer for only the third time this season
 - Prior to today's win, it was 1-1 in such games
- The Wildcats posted season highs in free throws made (28) and attempted (40)
- Junior forward Evelyn Akhator scored 15 points and nabbed 13 rebounds to post her 11th career double-double, all of which have come this season
- Junior guard Makayla Epps scored her 17 points on 6-of-10 shooting, marking the sixth time this season she's shot at least 60 percent (minimum of 10 attempts) this season