

2016 SEC Men's Basketball Tournament Nashville, Tenn. – Bridgestone Arena

Quarterfinals Round – Game #7 Notes LSU 84, Tennessee 75 LSU advances to face Texas A&M Saturday at noon CT

Series Notes:

- All-Time Series: Tennessee leads 64-45
- SEC Tournament: Tennessee leads 7-4
- Season Series: Tied at 1-1

Game Notes:

- With Tennessee leading 57-56 with 6:37 remaining in the game, LSU ignited a 17-4 run to take a 73-61 at the 1:26 mark to secure the win.
- The Tigers scored the game's first eight points and led by as much as nine in the first half at 26-17 with 5:11 left till halftime. From that point, Tennessee went on a 14-4 run to take their first lead of the game, 31-30 at the 1:10 mark.
- There were eight lead changes and four ties.
- LSU enjoyed a 44-30 edge in points in the paint.
- Bench points were 39-8 in favor of Tennessee.

LSU Notes:

- LSU improves to 19-13 and has won three of its last four games.
- The Tigers advance to the SEC Tournament semifinals for the first time since 2009.
- All five LSU starters scored in double figures.
- Antonio Blakeney posted his sixth game of 20 or more points in the last 10 outings with a game-high 22.
- Blakeney was a perfect 9-for-9 from the free throw line and is 19-for-19 over the last three games.
- Tim Quarterman matched his season high for assists with seven to go with 18 points and five rebounds.

Tennessee Notes:

- Tennessee falls to 15-19.
- Detrick Mostella continued his strong tourney play with 19 points. He averaged 18.0 points in three SEC Tournament games after scoring at a 7.5 clip in the regular season.
- Robert Hubbs III posted his second-highest point total of the year with 19.
- Armani Moore was credited with a career-high eight assists.