

2017 SEC Women's Basketball Tournament
Bon Secours Wellness Arena – Greenville, S.C.
Game 4 – Wednesday, March 2, 2017

#5 Tennessee vs. #12 Alabama

Tournament Notes

With a 72-64 victory, Alabama extended its program-best winning streak against the Lady Vols to three games.

It is also the Tide's first win against Tennessee in the SEC Tournament since March 3, 1984, when the Tide took down the Lady Vols 85-66 in the second round.

With today's win, Alabama moves on to play in Friday's quarterfinal round for the first time since 2005.

This is the first time since the tournament's inception in 1980 that the Lady Vols will not advance the quarterfinal round. Tennessee had advanced until at least Friday in 37-consecutive tournaments.

Alabama improves to 27-37 all-time in the SEC Tournament, and 3-9 against Tennessee in the event.

Tennessee falls to 77-21 all-time in the SEC Tournament, moving its SEC-best winning percentage to .786.

The Lady Vols are now 33-5 in their opening game of the SEC Tournament.

Today's session two attendance of 3,746 is the largest since March 2, 2012 when the tournament was hosted in Nashville, Tenn.
