Senior Cornerback Emmanuel Moseley

On talk about the hot seat and coaching staff changes...

"We don't really worry about that. We only focus on what we can control, and that's summer workouts, on the field workouts, and just trying to have a successful season."

On new defensive back coach Charlton Warren...

"Coach Warren, that's my guy, I like him. He brings a lot of details to the team and that's what we need. In my position as a defensive back and as cornerbacks, we need to focus on the details that he brings to those, and that's something that we can be successful with for him."

On Butch Jones's optimism around the team...

"Coach Jones, he's a positive guy. He's very positive, he knows that that's what we need as a team, he's like that on a day-to-day basis."

On the competition at the defensive back position...

"Competition only makes people go harder, and it only betters people. We're just trying to focus on each other, get each other better, help each other out, and when the time comes, we'll handle it."

On Tennessee's slow starts to games last season...

"That's just the game of football, sometimes it happens. We put ourselves in big holes, we found ways to win some games, some games we didn't, but we've learned from that, and we'll do better this year."
