Junior Offensive Lineman Javon Patterson

On being back as a second-year starter and the large amount of returners with him on the offensive line...

“Our offensive line is really a strong part of our team. We are like the leaders around here. We have a special time and we truly all gel together, and we really put emphasis on the run game. We are making some big things happen for this offense, and I am excited about that. These boys are my brothers, and we are just trying to make a name for the Ole Miss offensive line.”

On his health with recently being cleared...

“I am feeling really good. A doctor cleared me yesterday and I am excited. It is a blessing to be here. It was tough but the adversity makes us stronger and I am excited to get this season started.”

On progression of quarterback through end of last season and into the spring and summer...

“I’ve seen a lot of progression. Everyone saw what he could do against Texas A&M and we had a little downfall with the other games, but he has potential. He is a great kid and a great worker. He is a gym rat and he is the first one in and last one to leave. He has really been using his potential, and I look forward to seeing him bring that to the fall.”

On the team responding to all the stuff surrounding Ole Miss...

“We don’t pay attention to anything like that. We are a brotherhood and we pay attention to our brothers. We have something special here, and I am excited about our team. We go out there every day at 6:30 to work out and then again at 4:00. Things like that really build our team and our culture. Things like that make us special.”

On starting every game on the offensive line last year and preference between center and guard...

“I don’t really have a preference. I am just here to help the team. Starting every game didn’t really give me a sense of pride as much as it was a humbling experience. Not everybody gets that chance. Being an SEC offensive lineman, you take a lot of hits from big and freakish players. It is hectic out there. It is just a blessing to be put in a position, and I am blessed to be here.”
