SEC Nation on The SEC Network

SEC Network's traveling pregame show, SEC Nation presented by AT&T, is back for its fourth season on Saturday, Sept. 2, in a special three-hour edition (9 a.m. – noon ET) from Arlington, Texas, site of the Advocare Classic where the Florida Gators will face off with the Michigan Wolverines (3:30 p.m., ABC) for both teams' season openers. The show marks the first time SEC Nation has opened the season from a neutral site game and only the second time the show has aired from a neutral site city during the regular-season.

The show will include live reports, analysis and features surrounding all the Week One SEC football action.

Laura Rutledge will make her debut as host of SEC Nation. Returning as analysts for a fourth straight year are Paul Finebaum, Marcus Spears and Tim Tebow. The season premiere will also mark the debut of new reporter Lauren Sisler, an award-winning journalist who takes over the role vacated by Rutledge. Sisler, a familiar face on SEC Network's gymnastics coverage and ESPN's football sidelines, brings significant experience covering SEC football for Al.com. Ryan McGee, senior writer for ESPN The Magazine, returns as a contributor to the show as well.

OFFENSIVE	DEFENSIVE	SPECIAL TEAMS
NICK CHUBB, RB, GEORGIA <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • After being announced for Senior Day, Chubb posted a season-best performance of 151 yards rushing on 15 carries (10.1 average) and scored two touchdowns, including a season-long 55-yard run. • With the victory, Georgia went undefeated against its SEC East opponents for the first time since the divisional split in 1992 and undefeated at home for the first time since 2012. • He became the only Georgia player other than Herschel Walker in history to rush for 1,000 yards or more in three different seasons after hitting the 1,045 mark last Saturday. • Chubb currently ranks fourth on the all-time SEC list with 4,469 yards and is one of only five SEC players in history who have had three different 1,000-yard seasons. 	DERRICK TUCKER, S, TEXAS A&M <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • True freshman safety Derrick Tucker led the Aggies with 14 tackles on the day with one coming behind the line of scrimmage for a loss of two yards. • He caused a fumble, broke up two passes and picked off one pass and returned it 19 yards for a touchdown as the Aggies beat Ole Miss, 31-24. 	ZACH VON ROSENBERG, P, LSU <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The left-footer had best game of his career, punting five times for a career-best 49.2 average. • Two of his booming punts resulted in fumbles by Tennessee – one resulting in an LSU field goal and a 3-0 lead in the first quarter and the other led to a TD and a 10-3 advantage in the second quarter. • His fourth punt of the game carried 60 yards (career long) and pinned the Vols on their own 5-yard line. • That punt flipped the field and after a three-and-out by the Vols, LSU scored four plays later for a 17-3 lead. • For game, three of his five punts were downed inside the 20-yard line and two resulted in fumbles.
OFFENSIVE LINEMAN	DEFENSIVE LINEMAN	FRESHMAN
JC HASSENAUER, OL, ALABAMA <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • JC Hassenauer made his first career start, earning Offensive Player of the Week honors from the Alabama coaching staff for his play at left guard and a few snaps at center. • He graded out at 91 percent in 45 snaps before giving way to his backup. • Hassenauer did not allow a sack or a pressure and did not commit a penalty or have a bad snap. • He opened holes for 265 rushing yards and 265 passing yards as Alabama threw for six touchdowns – the second most in a game in school history – and ran for two more scores. 	MONTEZ SWEAT, DL, MISSISSIPPI STATE <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Sweat had another dominating game, collecting a career-high 2.5 sacks in a 28-21 win at Arkansas. • He finished with four overall tackles. Sweat's 2.5 sacks were the most by an SEC player this week and the most by a Bulldog since Chris White had 2.5 vs. Florida on Oct. 16, 2010. • It upped his season total to 9.0, which is tied for ninth in MSU single-season history and tied for the most by a Bulldog in the last 12 years (Preston Smith of the Washington Redskins had 9.0 in 2014). • State limited Arkansas to 221 yards of total offense, the fewest allowed by MSU vs. an SEC foe this season. Arkansas managed only 86 rushing yards against Sweat's unit. 	ALBERT OKWUEGBUNAM, TE, MISSOURI <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Continued his freshman All-American season by adding 2 more receiving touchdowns in Mizzou's bowl-clinching 48-17 win Saturday at Vanderbilt. Now has 9 TDs on the season, which is tied for the most in the nation among all tight ends • Ended the night with career highs in receptions (5) and yardage (116), breaking the 100-yard mark for the first time in his career. • First TD was a diving 7-yard grab in the end zone to cap the opening drive of the game from QB Drew Lock to put the Tigers up quickly, 7-0. His second was a catch-and-run on the left seam that went for 57 yards as he outraced the Vandy secondary for the score. • Of his 5 receptions Saturday, 4 came on third downs and all went for first downs, with 3 of those coming on 3rd-and-long situations, including a 3rd-and-8 (57 yard TD), a 3rd-and-11 (20-yard catch) and a 3rd-and-7 (7-yard TD). • Is tied for 2nd in the SEC this season among all receivers with his 9 touchdowns, and he's got 5 more than next-most on the list (Jr. C.J. Conrad of Kentucky with 4).

OTHER OUTSTANDING PERFORMANCES LAST WEEK

JALEN HURTS, QB (Alabama) – The sophomore quarterback was sensational in the Crimson Tide's 56-0 win over Mercer...He completed all seven passes he attempted with three touchdowns and finished with a quarterback rating of 457.4...Hurts threw for 180 yards on seven attempts/completions for an average 25.7 yards per play...He also ran for 30 yards on two carries to account for 210 yards of total offense on just nine total touches for an average of 23.3 yards per touch...He quarterbacked the offense for a total of 22 snaps in just over a quarter of action before giving way to his backup.

DONTAVIOUS RUSSELL, DL (Auburn) – Five tackles, including 3.5 for loss and one quarterback sack in Auburn's win over ULM...Russell's 3.5 tackles for loss were the most by an Auburn interior defensive lineman since Nick Fairley had 3.5 TFLs against LSU in 2010...Russell, who had nine tackles in his first six games of the season, has 26 stops and 4.5 TFLs in his last five contests.

EDDY PINEIRO, PK (Florida) – Pineiro converted on all five of his field goal attempts against the UAB Blazers, including two 50-yard field goals. He became the first Florida player to have made two 50+ yard field goals in a game in UF history. The five field goals in a game is the most by a UF player since Jan. 1, 1992 when Arden Czyzewski made five against Notre Dame in the Sugar Bowl. Overall, it is the third occurrence in school history. With his five makes, Pineiro has connected on 15 straight field goals, third best in school history. He has also made 28 of his last 29 and 37-of-42 overall in his career.

DEVIN WHITE, LB (LSU) – Had seventh double-digit tackle game with 11 tackles to go along with a half-sack and 2.5 tackles for loss in LSU's 30-10 win over Tennessee...Led an LSU defense that limited the Vols to just 38 rushing yards and 287 total yards...Tennessee punted twice in the second half and had its other three second half possessions end on downs...Ran his season total for tackles to 114, an average of 10.4 per game – both tops in the SEC.

NICK FITZGERALD, QB (Mississippi State) – Fitzgerald engineered the largest fourth-quarter comeback of his career in a 28-21 MSU win at Arkansas. With the Bulldogs trailing 21-14 and 7:00 to play, Fitzgerald completed a 37-yard touchdown pass to Reggie Todd on a critical third down that tied the game. On the game-winning drive, he was 2-of-2 and he rushed for 21 yards before completing a 6-yard go-ahead touchdown to Dedrick Thomas with 0:17 remaining. It was State's largest fourth-quarter comeback since Dak Prescott rallied MSU from an 11-point deficit on that same field in 2015. Fitzgerald finished with 254 yards of total offense and three touchdowns. He rushed for one score and tallied 101 yards on the ground for his sixth 100-yard rushing game of the year and 14th of his career, an SEC record by a quarterback. It was also his sixth game of at least 100 yards passing and 100 yards rushing, which ranks second in the FBS.

TERRY BECKNER, DT (Missouri) – Had 3 tackles with 1 tackle for loss on the night to go with an interception and a pass break up, as the Tiger defense continued its stout play of late, and he was a major reason why Vanderbilt was held to 51 yards rushing on 30 carries (1.7 avg.)...Added a highlight-reel interception late in the game that nearly went for a pick six, as he returned it 49 yards from the Mizzou 4-yardline to the Vandy 47-yardline before being tripped up...Is 9th in the SEC in sacks (6.0) and is also 14th in the league in tackles for loss (9.5).

SKAI MOORE, LB (South Carolina) – Moore changed the momentum of the game with a key interception in the second quarter, sparking the Gamecocks' 31-10 win over Wofford. With Carolina trailing 3-0 early in the second quarter, Moore intercepted a Terrier pass at midfield, setting up the Gamecocks' first touchdown and a lead they would not relinquish. It was Moore's 14th career interception, tying him with Bo Davies for the school record. Moore also recorded five tackles to take over the team lead in tackles on the season. He is attempting to become the 15th player in Division I history to lead his team in tackles in four seasons.

SHANE TRIPUCKA, P (Texas A&M) – Shane Tripucka, a senior former walk-on, punted eight times on Saturday in Oxford for an average of 46.0 and a long of 64 yards. He killed five of the kicks inside the 20 and three of those were killed inside the 10-yard line.

- The SEC is the only conference in college football history to send at least 10 teams to bowl games in four consecutive seasons (2013-2016).
- The SEC sent 12 teams to the postseason for the second time in the last three seasons. No other league has ever sent that many in a single year.
- In the stands, the SEC remained the national leader in attendance (77,565 fans per game, down 1 percent from a record-breaking 2015 season).
- Since Florida in Jan. 2007, four different teams from the SEC have played for the national title - all of them with multiple appearances.
- For the 10th time in the last 11 seasons, a team from the SEC has now advanced to the national championship game.
- The SEC Championship on December 3 was the highest-rated and most-watched Conference Championship game – as it has been every year since 2007 – averaging 11.1 million viewers and a 6.6/15 HH rating/share.
- For the eighth consecutive year the SEC ON CBS was the highest-rated regular season college football package on any network. CBS Sports' national coverage of SEC football averaged a national household rating/share of 3.4/8 topping all other networks. The 17-game SEC ON CBS slate delivered four of the Top 10 most-watched games of the regular-season.
- Five of the Top 10 highest rated games across all networks in 2016 involved a team from the SEC.

2017 SEC FOOTBALL VIDEO REPLAY

THE OBJECTIVE

To allow for specific types of officiating calls to be immediately reviewed during all games hosted by SEC teams.

THE COACHES' CHALLENGE

The head coach may challenge the ruling of any reviewable play. He retains a challenge if his initial challenge is successful and thus results in a reversal by the replay official. The head coach will then have a single challenge that he may use anytime during the game if his team has not used all its timeouts. Thus a team may have a total of two challenges in the game, but only if the first results in a reversal of the on-field ruling. A head coach may not challenge an on-field ruling if all of the team's timeouts have been used for that half or extra period.

THE SOURCE

All reviewable video comes direct from either the television network broadcasting the game or other TV production facilities that meet established conference standards and the coach's high end zone and high 50 yard line cameras. The coach's video is also made available to the TV producer. The Southeastern Conference has used instant replay since 2005.

THE PLAYS

Scoring Plays

Reviewable plays involving a potential score include:

- A potential touchdown or safety. [Exception: Safety by penalty for fouls that are not specifically reviewable with the exception of the location of the passer when an intentional grounding foul results in a safety.]
- Field goal attempts if and only if the ball is ruled (a) below or above the crossbar or (b) inside or outside the uprights when it is lower than the top of the uprights. If the ball is higher than the top of the uprights as it crosses the end line, the play may not be reviewed.

Passes

Reviewable plays involving passes include:

- Pass ruled complete, incomplete or intercepted anywhere in the field of play or an end zone.
- Forward pass touched by a player (eligible or ineligible) or an official, including whether the touching is behind or beyond the line of scrimmage.
- Forward pass or forward handing when a ball carrier is or has been beyond the neutral zone.
- A forward pass or forward handing after a change of team possession.
- Pass ruled forward or backward when thrown from behind the neutral zone.
 - If the pass is ruled forward and is incomplete, the play is reviewable only if the ball goes out of bounds or if there is clear recovery of a loose ball in the immediate continuing football action after the loose ball or if the ball is out of bounds. If the replay official does not have indisputable video evidence as to which team recovers, the ruling of incomplete pass stands.
 - If the replay official reverses an incomplete forward pass ruling and the ball is recovered, it belongs to the recovering team at the spot of the recovery and any advance is nullified.

Dead Ball and Loose Ball

Reviewable plays involving potential dead balls and loose balls include:

- Loose ball by a potential passer ruled a fumble.
- Loose ball by a passer ruled incomplete forward pass when there is clear recovery in the immediate continuing action after the loose ball.
 - If the replay official does not have indisputable video evidence as to which team recovers, the ruling of incomplete pass stands.
 - If the replay official rules fumble, the ball belongs to the recovering team at the spot of the recovery and any advance is nullified.

2017 SEC Football

- c. Live ball not ruled dead in possession of a ball carrier.
- d. Loose ball ruled dead (Rule 4-1-2-b-2), or live ball ruled dead in possession of a ball carrier when the clear recovery of a loose ball occurs in the immediate continuing football action.
 - 1. If the ball is ruled dead and the replay official does not have indisputable video evidence as to which team recovers, the dead-ball ruling stands.
 - 2. If the replay official rules that the ball was not dead, it belongs to the recovering team at the spot of the recovery and any advance is nullified.
- e. Ball carrier's forward progress, spot of fumble, or spot of out of bounds backward pass, with respect to a first down or the goal line.
- f. Catch or recovery of a fumble by a Team A player other than the fumbler before any change of possession during fourth down or a try.
- g. Ball carrier in or out of bounds. If a ball carrier is ruled out of bounds, the play is not reviewable, except as in Rules 12-3-1-a and 12-3-3-d.
- h. Catch, recovery or touching of a loose ball by a player in bounds or out of bounds.
- i. A loose ball touching on or beyond a sideline, goal line, or end line, touching a pylon, or breaking the plane of a goal line.
- j. Catch or recovery of a loose ball in the field of play or an end zone.
- k. Forward fumble that goes out of bounds with respect to a first down.
- l. Live ball declared dead under Rule 4-1-2-b-2 and b-3 (inadvertent whistle).

Kicks

Reviewable plays involving kicks include:

- a. Touching of a kick.
- b. Player beyond the neutral zone when kicking the ball.
- c. Kicking team player advancing a ball after a potential muffed kick/fumble by the receiving team.
- d. Scrimmage kick crossing the neutral zone.
- e. Blocking by Team A players before they are eligible to touch the ball on an on-side kick.

Targeting

- a. All targeting fouls shall be reviewed. The review includes all aspects of the targeting foul to ascertain whether there is at least one indicator of targeting action.
- b. The Replay Official may create a targeting foul, but only in egregious instances in which a foul is not called by the officials on the field. Such a review may not be initiated by a coach's challenge.

Miscellaneous

Situations that may be addressed by the replay official:

- a. The number of players on the field for either team during a live ball.
- b. Clock adjustment and status when a ruling is reviewed.
- c. Clock adjustment at the end of any quarter. If at the end of any quarter the game clock expires, either during a down in which it should be stopped by rule through play when the ball becomes dead or following the down upon a request for an available team timeout, the replay official may restore time only under these conditions:
 - 1. The replay official has indisputable video evidence that time should have remained on the game clock when the ball became dead or when the team timeout was granted;
 - 2. In the second and fourth quarters only, the team in possession when the ball became dead would next put the ball in play from scrimmage (not the try);
 - 3. In the fourth quarter only, either the score is tied or the team that will next snap the ball is behind by eight points or fewer; and
 - 4. The replay official's video evidence includes the timeout signal by an official in the case where the game clock should have stopped for a requested team timeout.
- d. Correcting the number of a down.
 - 1. This includes the result of a penalty enforcement that includes an automatic first down or loss of down.
 - 2. The correction may be made at any time within that series of downs or before the ball is legally put in play after that series.
- e. Any person who is not a player interfering with live-ball action occurring in the field of play (Rule 9-2-3).
- f. An injured player at the initiation of the medical observer.

Limitations on Reviewable Plays

No other plays or officiating decisions are reviewable. However, the replay official may correct egregious errors, including those involving the game clock, whether or not a play is reviewable. This excludes fouls that are not specifically reviewable (Reviewable fouls: Rules 12-3-2-c and d, 12-3-4-b and -e and 12-3-5-a).

Reviewable Fouls

The following plays are reviewable and the replay official may create a foul when there is no call by the on-field officials:

- a. Player making a forward pass or forward handoff when beyond the neutral zone or after a change of possession.
- b. Player beyond the neutral zone when kicking the ball.
- c. Blocking by Team B players before they are eligible to touch the ball on an onside kick.
- d. The number of players on the field for either team during a live ball.
- e. Illegal touching of a forward pass by an originally eligible receiver who has gone out of bounds.
- f. Player who is out of bounds touching a free kick that had not been touched inbounds.
- g. Forward pass that becomes illegal as a second pass after an on-field ruling of a backward pass is reversed.
- h. A clear, obvious and egregious targeting foul.

THE PROCESS

Each SEC football stadium has a secured replay booth equipped with the HD Instant Replay system provided by DVSport. Three individuals work in the booth for the duration of the game: 1. Replay Official, 2. Communicator, 3. Technician. The Replay Official and the Communicator are selected and assigned by the Conference Office.

A live HD video feed is sent directly to the replay booth from the TV truck. The Technician watches the feed on an input monitor while recording it into the DVSport Replay System. The Technician also marks the beginning of each play while the Communicator marks all incoming replays.

Each play and subsequent replay then appears on a touch screen in front of the Replay Technician. As the Technician and the Communicator mark the incoming video, each view will appear as a small picture on the computer touch screen. At any time, the Replay Technician can touch the thumbnail and immediately send that play or replay to the Replay Official.

With the Communicator's assistance, the Replay Official can quickly jump between replays while playing back the video. All replay video navigation is done via a jog shuttle remote controlled by the Replay Official. All video is viewed on an HD monitor that sits in front of the Replay Official. The touch screen is only used to select the replays and to log specific play data in the event a call is overturned.

While all plays are reviewed between the whistle and the beginning of the next play, the Replay Official can stop play on the field by using a pager system. Seven of the eight on-field officials wear pagers. If play is stopped the Referee announces on the stadium PA microphone that play has been stopped so the previous play can be reviewed. The Referee then proceeds to the sideline headset, which provides direct communication to the Replay Official in the booth. Once the play has been reviewed, the Replay Official notifies the Referee, who then announces the decision on the stadium PA system.

RECENT ADDITIONS

*For the 2016 season, the SEC will utilize the new experimental rule that allows personnel in a separate secure location identified by the conference to assist the Instant Replay Official at the stadium in making decisions. The SEC will locate 3 Instant Replay Officials in the SEC Video Center each week to collaborate with the onsite Replay Official during any replay stoppage. The 3 Replay Officials in the Video Center will have real time video and communications with the Replay Official in the stadium to aid in this collaboration. The goal of this process will be consistency in decision making and to help avoid incorrect outcomes.

* Monitors may be used to view a live telecast or webcast in the football coaching booth. The home team is responsible for assuring identical television capability in the coaches' booths of both teams. This capability may not include replay equipment or recorders.

* If at the end of any quarter the game clock expires, either during a down in which it should be stopped by rule through play when the ball becomes dead or following the down upon a request for an available team timeout, the replay official may restore time only under these conditions:

- 1. The replay official has indisputable video evidence that time should have remained on the game clock when the ball became dead or when the team timeout was granted;
- 2. The team in possession when the ball became dead would next put the ball in play from scrimmage;
- 3. In the fourth quarter only, either the score is tied or the team that will next snap the ball is behind by eight points or fewer; and
- 4. The replay official's video evidence includes the timeout signal by an official in the case where the game clock should have stopped for a requested team timeout.

THE EQUIPMENT

Each SEC member institution uses the new multi-view HD Replay System developed by DVSport. The replay systems are maintained by the home institution with technical support from DVSport.

SEC FOOTBALL BOWL AGREEMENTS

The Southeastern Conference has agreements with nine postseason bowls, not including College Football Playoff/New Year's Six games, and a process for the assignment of SEC member schools to bowl games that began with the 2014 season and extending for six years.

The new SEC bowl process coincided with the beginning of the new College Football Playoff that followed the 2014 college football season. The SEC also participates in the Allstate Sugar Bowl and the Capital One Orange Bowl (in selected years). Under the current SEC bowl system, the Citrus Bowl in Orlando (vs. Big Ten), a longtime SEC bowl, will have the first selection of available SEC teams after any conference schools have qualified for the College Football Playoff, the Allstate Sugar Bowl or the Capital One Orange Bowl.

Following the Citrus Bowl, there will be a pool of six bowls comprised of the Outback Bowl in Tampa (vs. Big Ten), Franklin American Mortgage Music City Bowl in Nashville (vs. ACC/Big Ten), TaxSlayer Bowl in Jacksonville (vs. ACC/Big Ten), AutoZone Liberty Bowl in Memphis (vs. Big 12), Texas Bowl in Houston (vs. Big 12) and Belk Bowl in Charlotte (vs. ACC).

In consultation with SEC member institutions, as well as these six bowls, the conference will make the assignments for the bowl games in the pool system.

The SEC also has a relationship with both the Birmingham Bowl (vs. American) and the Independence Bowl in Shreveport (vs. ACC). The Birmingham Bowl will have the first selection of available teams following the pool of six bowls. The Independence Bowl will have the next selection of available teams following the Birmingham Bowl.

2017 SEC Bowl Selection Process

CFP BOWLS: Sugar (Semifinal), Rose (Semifinal), Orange, Peach, Fiesta, Cotton, CFP National Championship

Contract Bowls: Sugar (SEC vs. Big 12 when Sugar is not a semifinal game)
 Rose (Pac 12 vs. Big Ten when Rose is not a semifinal game)
 Orange (ACC vs. highest ranked SEC/Big Ten non-champion or Notre Dame when Orange is not a semifinal game)

Access Bowls: Fiesta
 Peach
 Cotton

1) Which SEC Team qualifies for the CFP?

The winner of the SEC Championship Game automatically qualifies for a spot in the Peach, Cotton or Fiesta Bowls if that team is not selected to participate in the four-team playoff. If the SEC Champion is selected to participate in the four-team playoff it will play in the Sugar or Rose Bowl.

2) How can additional SEC teams be selected for the CFP?

Additional SEC teams may be selected for the CFP Semifinals (Sugar or Rose) or one of the CFP access bowls (Fiesta, Peach or Cotton Bowls) based on its ranking in the final CFP Selection Committee rankings. There is no limit on the number of teams from any one conference that can be selected to participate in the CFP bowls.

3) How can a SEC Team be selected to participate in the Orange Bowl?

When the Orange Bowl is not a semifinal game and a SEC team is the highest ranked team among the non-champions of the SEC and Big Ten and ranked higher than Notre Dame after the CFP semifinal games have been filled, then that team will participate in the Orange Bowl. There are eight years in which the Orange Bowl is not a semifinal game and the SEC is guaranteed three of the eight years, the Big Ten is guaranteed three of the eight years and the remaining two years can be filled by Notre Dame, the SEC or the Big Ten based on CFP Selection Committee rankings. To be clear, the SEC Champion can never participate in the Orange Bowl unless it is a semifinal game.

4) How does the CFP selection process work in 2017-18?

The CFP Selection Committee ranks the top 25 teams and selects the four teams to participate in the semifinal games (Sugar and Rose). Then, after the contract bowls (Orange) are filled based on conference agreements, the Committee will assign teams to fill the remaining access bowls (Cotton, Fiesta and Peach). The Orange Bowl is filled with an ACC representative and the highest ranked non champion from the SEC and the Big Ten or Notre Dame after the CFP semifinal games have been filled. Each conference champion from the contract bowls (ACC, Big Ten, Big 12, SEC & Pac 12) has a guaranteed spot in its contracted bowl or in an access bowl (Cotton, Fiesta or Peach) if the contracted bowl is a semifinal game and the conference champion is not selected to participate in a semifinal game. The highest ranked champion from the Mountain West, American, Conference USA, Sun Belt or MAC is guaranteed a spot in a CFP bowl and the remaining spots are filled based on the rankings of teams after the contract bowls have been filled.

BIRMINGHAM, Alabama – Twelve Southeastern Conference football teams learned their post-season bowl destinations on December 4, including No. 1-ranked Alabama which played No. 4 Washington in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl on December 31 in a semifinal game in the College Football Playoff. The SEC has advanced to the College Football Playoff in each of the first three seasons, earning the No. 1 slot two of the three years.

The College Football Playoff committee first selected teams for the national semifinal games, the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl and the PlayStation Fiesta Bowl. SEC IN THE CFP/BCS ERA (Since 1998)

• The SEC has won eight of the last 11 national championships, 10 of the 19 BCS/CFP-era National Championships, three runner-up finishes and 24 overall national titles (AP, BCS, FWAA, coaches poll) in SEC history. The SEC has appeared in 10 of the last 11 National Championship Games and in 10 of the 16 BCS Championship Games, winning nine.

• Four different SEC schools have won the National Championship since 2006 (Auburn, 2010; Alabama, 2009, 2011, 2012, 2015; Florida, 2006 and 2008; LSU, 2007). Tennessee (1998) and LSU (2003) have also won the former BCS crown. Auburn appeared in the 2013 BCS Championship Game, as did LSU in 2011. A team from the SEC Western Division had advanced to five consecutive national championship games prior to the 2014 season, when Alabama lost in the CFP semifinals. The ACC (Clemson, Miami and Florida State) has had each three schools win titles since 1998, while the Big 12 (Texas and Oklahoma) has had two.

• Since 2006, half of the slots in the National Championship Game have been taken by SEC teams (12 of 24). The Big Ten and ACC has three during that time, while the Big 12, Pac-12 has two.

• A SEC team has led or tied for the lead at the end of 32 of the last 44 quarters of National Championship Game play. Alabama only trailed for the final second of the 2017 National Championship Game.

• The SEC has had more teams ranked in the BCS/CFP standings for the most times than any other conference since 2006. The league has had 13 of its 14 teams ranked at one time or another since 2006. Vanderbilt is the only team to not appear in the BCS/CFP rankings during this time, however, the Commodores finished ranked in the Top 25 in both 2012 and 2013 after bowl games with 9-4 records. The BCS/CFP does not produce a poll following bowl games.

• Since 2006, the SEC has posted 14 wins in BCS - now New Year's Six/Access bowls - more wins than any other conference. Here are the BCS/CFP bowl records of all conferences since 2006:

SEC	14-11	.560

• Three of the top 10 defensive performances in CFP/BCS history have been registered by SEC teams, more than any other conference. Alabama's shutout of LSU in the 2012 BCS National Championship Game was the first shutout in CFP/BCS history. Alabama defeated Michigan State soundly 38-0 in a CFP National Semifinal in 2015, while defeating Washington 24-7 in 2016 semifinal contest.

• Alabama's 28-point victory over Notre Dame in the 2013 Discover BCS National Championship is the second-largest in the CFP/BCS Championship Game era. (Southern Cal defeated Oklahoma by 36 in the 2005 BCS Championship Game for the top spot, however, that victory was later vacated.)

• During the recent seven-year national championship winning streak, the SEC's average margin of victory in National Championship Games was 17 points, which includes a three point victory over Oregon in 2011, the only game during the streak decided by single digits.

* - Ties

SEC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

SEC DIVISIONAL TIE-BREAKER

In the event of a tie for the division championship, the following procedures will be used to break all ties to determine the SEC Football Championship Game representative. All Conference versus Conference Games (both division and non-division) will be counted in the Conference Standings.

1. Two-Team Tie. In the event two teams are tied for a division title, the following procedure will be used in the following order:

- Head-to-head competition between the two tied teams;
- Records of the tied teams within the division;
- Head-to-head competition against the team within the division with the best overall (divisional and non-divisional) Conference record, and proceeding through the division (multiple ties within the division will be broken from first to last and a tie for first place will be broken before a tie for fourth place);
- Overall record against non-divisional teams;
- Combined record against all common non-divisional teams;
- Record against the common non-divisional team with the best overall Conference record (divisional or non-divisional) and proceeding through other common non-divisional teams based on their order of finish within their division;
- Best cumulative Conference winning percentage of non-divisional opponents; and

Example: Tied Teams Non-Divisional Opponents Cumulative Record

Western 1 Eastern Opponents: 14-2

Western 2 Eastern Opponents: 12-4

(Western 1 would be the representative)

H. Coin flip of the tied teams.

2. Three-Team Tie (or more). If three teams (or more) are tied for a division title, the following procedure will be used in the following order: (Note: If one of the procedures results in one team being eliminated and two remaining, the two-team tiebreaker procedure as stated in No. 1 above will be used):

- Combined head-to-head record among the tied teams;
- Record of the tied teams within the division;
- Head-to-head competition against the team within the division with the best overall Conference record (divisional and non-divisional) and proceeding through the division (multiple ties within the division will be broken from first to last and a tie for first place will be broken before a tie for fourth place);
- Overall Conference record against non-divisional teams;
- Combined record against all common non-divisional teams;
- Record against the common non-divisional team with the best overall Conference record (divisional and non-divisional) and proceeding through other common non-divisional teams based on their order of finish within their division; and
- Best cumulative Conference winning percentage of non-divisional opponents (Note: If two teams' non-divisional opponents have the same cumulative record, then the two-team tiebreaker procedures apply. If four teams are tied, and three teams' non-divisional opponents have the same cumulative record, the three-team tiebreaker procedures will be used beginning with 2.A.);

Example: Tied Teams Non-Divisional Opponents Cumulative Record

Western 1 Eastern Opponents: 14-2

Western 2 Eastern Opponents: 12-4

Western 3 Eastern Opponents: 8-8

(Western 1 would be the representative)

H. Coin flip of the tied teams with the team with the odd result being the representative (Example: If there are two teams with tails and one team with heads, the team with heads is the representative).

2017 SEC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

The Southeastern Conference's Eastern and Western Division winners will meet in Atlanta's newly constructed Mercedes-Benz Stadium to battle for the league championship and the right to represent the conference in the College Football Playoff. The 26th-annual title game is set for December 2 and will be televised nationally by CBS Sports.

The game was born as a result of 1992 conference expansion, which saw Arkansas and South Carolina become the first members added in SEC history. Under NCAA regulations, a conference with 12 members may play an additional football game to determine its champion, provided the regular season is played in divisions.

The participants of the game are determined each year during the eight-game regular-season conference schedule as the teams with the best overall SEC winning percentage in each division.

The 2016 SEC Championship Game was the highest rated championship game in the nation and second highest rated game of the entire 2016 season. Overall the SEC in on CBS had four of the Top 10 Most Watched College Football games last season and seven of the Top 20.

The 2009 SEC Championship Game earned an 11.8 rating and a 24 share, marking the highest-rated SEC Championship Game in history. The game matched the No. 1 Florida Gators (12-0) vs. the No. 2 Alabama Crimson Tide (12-0).

The SEC Championship Game has drawn 23 capacity crowds in its 25-year history. Only 1993 (Birmingham) and 1995 (Atlanta) were not sellouts.

The SEC, along with AMB Sports & Entertainment (AMBSE) and the Georgia World Congress Center Authority (GWCCA), have an agreement to host the SEC Championship Game at Mercedes-Benz Stadium in Atlanta through 2026.

The new agreement allows the SEC the option of adding up to two successive five-year extensions.

The Georgia Dome hosted the SEC Championship Game for 23 years beginning in 1994, with capacity crowds in the last 21 consecutive years. By the end of the new agreement, including options, the Championship will have been played in Atlanta a total of 43 years.

Arkansas produced a 35-10-2 record during Hampton's career, including a mark of 22-8-1 in Southwest Conference play. He totaled 239 tackles in his career, with 32 behind the line of scrimmage, while recovering six fumbles. Hampton was a first-team All-American in 1978, and he helped Arkansas to a No. 3 national finish after winning the 1978 Orange Bowl. During his senior campaign in 1978, he was named the SWC Defensive Player of the Year and earned first-team All-SWC honors. Hampton also earned the SWC Player of the Year award from the Houston Post for his senior season. A first-round draft pick of the Chicago Bears, he played in the NFL for 12 seasons and became one of only two Bears' players to play in three decades for the team. Hampton finished third on the team's all-time career sacks list with 82 and earned All-Pro honors five times.

AUBURN – Carlos Rogers, Defensive Back, 2001-04

Auburn defensive back Carlos Rogers was a consensus All-American, a first-team All-SEC recipient and winner of the Jim Thorpe Award during his senior season in 2004 while helping lead Auburn to a perfect 13-0 record and an SEC Championship. He started 44 games over his four-year career with 182 tackles and seven interceptions, and holds the Auburn career record with 40 pass deflections. Rogers was selected ninth overall in the 2005 NFL Draft, making him the highest drafted defensive back in Auburn history. In addition, that same year, he was inducted into the Gator Football Ring of Honor alongside his former coach Steve Spurrier and former Gators Jack Youngblood and Emmitt Smith. A first-team All-American in 1995 and 1996, Wuerffel finished his career with 10,875 passing yards and 114 touchdown passes, which was the best in SEC history and the second-most in major college football history. Bailey was drafted by the Washington Redskins in the first round of the 1999 NFL draft and was a 12-time Pro Bowl selection from 2000-2013 as a member of the Redskins and the Denver Broncos. He was named a member of the Football Writers Association of America 75th Anniversary All-America first team in 2015.

KENTUCKY – Nate Northington, Defensive Back, 1966-67

Kentucky defensive back Nate Northington became the first African-American to participate in a varsity football contest in the Southeastern Conference on September 30, 1967. 2017 marks the 50th anniversary of the year Northington integrated SEC Football. He and fellow African-American Greg Page entered UK in 1966 and were stars on the Wildcat freshman team. They were expected to make major contributions to the varsity as sophomores; however, Page sustained a neck injury in practice in August 1967, and passed away in September. Northington played his first varsity game against Indiana on Sept. 23, 1967; one week later, he made his debut in an SEC game vs. Ole Miss. He eventually left UK but encouraged the team's African-American freshmen, Wilbur Hackett and Houston Hogg, to stay at UK and continue his and Page's trailblazing legacy.

2017 SEC FOOTBALL LEGENDS CLASS

LSU – Glenn Dorsey, Defensive Tackle, 2004-07

LSU defensive tackle Glenn Dorsey is the most decorated defensive player in school history. A two-time first-team All-America as both a junior and senior, Dorsey opted to return to LSU for his senior season, despite being projected as a first-round NFL draft pick following his junior campaign. He led the Tigers to the SEC and National Championship that season. He finished his career by playing in 52 games for the Tigers with 31 starts while totaling 179 tackles, including 27 for losses and 13 quarterback sacks. He was selected the 2001 SEC Most Valuable Lineman and played in the 2002 Senior Bowl. The Clarksdale, Mississippi, native was a four-year starter, a two-time All-SEC choice and a two-time All-America selection as a left guard and left tackle. He helped Ole Miss to three bowl appearances before being taken in the third round of the 2002 NFL Draft and playing seven seasons with the Chicago Bears. He is now coaching at Pearl River Community College, and his son D.K. is a wide receiver on the Ole Miss team.

Smith became the first player in NCAA Division I-A history to throw for 8,000 yards and rush for 4,000 yards in a career, and he broke the NCAA record for most career rushing yards by a quarterback. He led Mizzou to a pair of bowl games in 2003 and 2005, as well as 25 wins in four years as a starter. Smith was an outstanding student as he was named a finalist for the prestigious Draddy Award, also known as the Academic Heisman, and was named a National Football Foundation Scholar-Athlete. He was a fourth-round pick by the New York Jets in the 2006 NFL Draft, and played in 104 games over nine seasons with the Jets, Buffalo Bills and Philadelphia Eagles before retiring after the 2014 season.

SOUTH CAROLINA – John Abraham, Outside Linebacker, 1996-99

The outside linebacker led the Gamecocks in quarterback sacks each of his four seasons, amassing 23.5 sacks in his career, the fourth-highest total in school history. Abraham earned All-Southeastern Conference honors his senior season and went on to become a first-round pick by the New York Jets in 2000, the 13th selection overall. He logged 15 seasons in the NFL with the Jets, Atlanta Falcons and Arizona Cardinals, earning five trips to the Pro Bowl. The four-time All-Pro selection is the Falcons' all-time career leader in quarterback sacks.

TENNESSEE – Chad Clifton, Offensive Line, 1995-99

UT went 43-7 with SEC titles in 1997 and 1998 and one national title in 1998 during his four-year playing career at Rocky Top. In the summer of 2016, Clifton was inducted into the Green Bay Packers Hall of Fame in honor of his outstanding 12-year, 165-game NFL career with the Packers, who selected him the second round of the 2000 NFL Draft with the 44th overall pick. He was a two-time Pro Bowl selection (2007, 2010) and a member of the Packers' Super Bowl XLV champion team.

TEXAS A&M – Dave Elmendorf, Defensive Back, 1968-70

He lettered three years in football and earned All-SWC honors twice while earning All-America honors in 1971. Elmendorf started for the Aggie baseball team four years, earning All-SWC honors three times and All-America honors in 1971. He was drafted by the LA Rams in football and the New York Yankees in baseball following his graduation, and chose the NFL. Elmendorf played nine seasons for the Rams and was named to the All-Rookie team in 1971 as a defensive back. He earned All-NFC honors in 1974 and second-team All-Pro in 1975. Elmendorf was named to the College Football Hall of Fame in 1997.

After missing much of his sophomore season due to injury, he earned the starting quarterback position his junior year while doubling as a safety on defense. It was that year that Orr led Vanderbilt to an 8-3 record and the Commodores' first-ever bowl trip. His senior season, he served as team captain and was invited to play in the North-South All-Star Game. Orr was drafted by the Chicago Bears, but he chose to enlist in the Army. He eventually found his way back to football as an SEC official for 10 years and an NFL official for 25 seasons, officiating three Super Bowls.

THIS IS THE SOUTHEASTERN CONFERENCE

• Since its formation in 1933, the SEC has directed and organized interscholastic athletic competitions, conducted tournaments and prescribed eligibility rules for student-athletes. The Conference also facilitates and assists its member institutions in maintaining intercollegiate athletic programs compatible with the highest standards of education and competitive sports.

• The Southeastern Conference crowns champions in 21 sports - 12 women's sports and nine men's sports. They include baseball, men's and women's basketball, men's and women's cross country, equestrian, football, men's and women's golf, gymnastics, soccer, softball, men's and women's swimming and diving, men's and women's tennis, men's and women's indoor and outdoor track and field, and volleyball.

• In the fall of 2012, the University of Missouri and Texas A&M University became the 13th and 14th members of the Southeastern Conference. It marked the first expansion for the SEC since 1991 and the second-ever increase for the league since its founding in 1933.

• The SEC's mission statement reflects the priorities of the league. "The purpose of the Southeastern Conference is to assist its member institutions in the maintenance of programs of intercollegiate athletics which are compatible with the highest standards of education and competitive sports."

ACADEMIC ACHIEVEMENTS

• The Southeastern Conference had 43 Capital One Academic All-Americans in 2016-17. The league had 24 student-athletes earn first-team honors. The Capital One Academic All-America Teams are voted on by the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA). The 43 student-athletes represent 13 of the SEC 14 schools while 10 schools had at least one person on the first-team. Since 2003, the SEC has had 329 student-athletes earn first-team Capital One Academic All-America status.

• The 24 SEC student-athletes who earned Capital One Academic All-America first-team status in 2016-17 were: Alabama's Mackenzie Brannan (gymnastics), Alex Gholston (women's track and field), Luke Kaliszek (men's swimming and diving), Anton McKee (men's swimming and diving), Keely McNeer (gymnastics), Connor Oslin (men's swimming and diving), Pavel Romanov (men's swimming and diving); Arkansas' Brooks Ellis (football); Auburn's Kasey Cooper (softball) and Cole Lipscomb (baseball); Florida's Kelly Barnhill (softball), Canyon Barry (men's basketball), Savannah Jordan (soccer), Alex McMurtry (gymnastics); Georgia's Keturah Orji (women's track and field) and Chantal Van Landeghem (women's swimming and diving); Kentucky's Danielle Galyer (women's swimming and diving) and Kiah Seymour (women's track and field); Ole Miss' Aubrey Edie (volleyball) and Craig Engels (men's track and field); South Carolina's Paige Bendell (soccer) and Chelsea Drennan (soccer); Texas A&M's Sarah Gibson (women's swimming and diving); and Vanderbilt's Simone Charley (Vanderbilt).

• The Southeastern Conference had 21 of its student-athletes earn NCAA Postgraduate Scholarships in 2016-17. The scholarships are awarded to student-athletes who excel academically and athletically and who are at least in their final year of intercollegiate athletic competition. The SEC NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship recipients are: Canyon Barry, Florida (men's basketball); Sunay Bhat, Tennessee (men's tennis); Cameron Brown, Tennessee (men's track and field); Kasey Cooper, Auburn (softball); Jason Delay, Vanderbilt (baseball); Veronica Eder, Auburn (women's cross country); Aubrey Edie, Ole Miss (volleyball); Danielle Galyer, Kentucky (women's swimming and diving); Sarah Gibson, Texas A&M (women's swimming and diving); Anton McKee, Alabama (men's swimming and diving); Keely McNeer, Alabama (gymnastics); Connor Oslin, Alabama (men's swimming and diving); Joseph Patching, Auburn (men's swimming and diving); Krystal Rivers, Alabama (volleyball); Morgan Schuetz, LSU (women's track and field); Aldila Sutjiadi, Kentucky (women's tennis); Jake Van Geffen, Vanderbilt (men's cross country); Chantal Van Landeghem, Georgia (women's swimming and diving); Ben Wagland, Georgia (men's tennis); Hannah Wilkinson, Tennessee (soccer); and Rachel Zilinskas, Georgia (women's swimming and diving).

Arkansas' Taylor-Ellis Watson (women's track and field), Alabama's Haylie McCleney (softball), South Carolina's Tiffany Mitchell (women's basketball) and Mississippi State's Dak Prescott (football) were chosen as recipients. The award recognizes 10 current student-athletes who will have completed their athletics eligibility for their successes on the fields and courts, in the classroom and in the community, and the SEC has had three winners in the last two years.

• The SEC also had six student-athletes earn the NCAA Elite 90 award, which is given to the student-athlete with the highest cumulative GPA at the finals site for each of the NCAA championships. The 2016-17 SEC recipients were: Lexi Weeks, Arkansas (indoor track and field); Danielle Galyer, Kentucky (women's swimming and diving); Alex McMurtry, Florida (gymnastics); Josie Kuhlman, Florida (women's tennis); Layne Savoie, LSU (softball); Tori Weeks, Arkansas (outdoor track and field).

• The SEC has had eight student-athletes win the William V. Campbell Trophy given by the National Football Foundation. In 2012, Alabama's Barrett Jones was the SEC's eighth recipient of the trophy. In 2009, Florida's Tim Tebow won the honor. LSU's Rudy Niswanger won the honor in 2005, Tennessee's Michael Munoz claimed the award in 2004, Matt Stinchcomb of Georgia in 1998, Tennessee's Peyton Manning in 1997, Florida's Danny Wuerffel in 1996 and Brad Culpepper of Florida in 1991 was the league's first recipient.

• More than 3,800 student-athletes were named to the SEC Academic Honor Roll in 2016-17. Members of the SEC Academic Honor Roll must have a 3.0 grade point average for either the previous academic year or his/her academic career at the SEC institution.

FOR THE STUDENT-ATHLETE

• University of Alabama swimmer Anton McKee and Texas A&M swimmer Sarah Gibson were named recipients of the 2016-17 H. Boyd McWhorter Southeastern Conference Scholar-Athletes of the Year Awards. The McWhorter Scholar-Athlete Award is the highest honor a student-athlete can receive in the SEC. Each McWhorter Scholar-Athlete Award recipient receives a $15,000 postgraduate scholarship, while 26 other finalists for the award receive a $7,500 post-graduate scholarship.

• University of South Carolina track and field athlete Maya Evans and University of Tennessee baseball player Eric Freeman were named recipients of the 2016-17 Brad Davis SEC Community Service Post-Graduate Scholarship. Each Community Service Leader of the Year receives a $10,000 post-graduate scholarship while 26 other finalists for the award receive a $5,000 post-graduate scholarship.

• The SEC was the first conference in the nation to assemble a Student-Athlete Advisory Committee. Two representatives from each of the SEC member schools are selected to serve on the committee which meets twice a year to discuss issues of concern to the student-athlete.

• In May 2016, the SEC introduced new Student-Athlete Leadership Councils in the sports of Football and Men's and Women's Basketball in which, in addition to the Conference's longstanding Student-Athlete Advisory Council, provide student-athletes with additional opportunities to engage with campus leaders and Conference office staff.

• One of Greg Sankey's early actions as commissioner was to create a new position in the SEC office for a Director of Student-Athlete Engagement, with the focus on creating opportunities for current and former SEC student-athletes to participate in Conference leadership and prepare for life after their intercollegiate athletics participation concludes.

• Twenty-five current and former Southeastern Conference student-athletes participated in the first SEC Corporate Career Tour in Atlanta in 2016. The event was held in conjunction with the 2016 SEC Fall Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC) meeting. The group visited the headquarters and met with executives and talent acquisition staff at several corporations in the Atlanta area including Chick-fil-A, Boys & Girls Club of America, CNN/Turner Broadcasting System and Jackson Spalding. The group also listened to presentations by Serviam Partners President Randy Hain, Growing Leaders, and former SEC student-athletes Ben Troupe and Josh Foliart on leadership and life after sports.

SPORTSMANSHIP

• The SEC has implemented sportsmanship policies meant to strengthen the league's commitment to these principles. The league also developed a sportsmanship statement for its institutions to follow. It states:

"Coaches and student-athletes of a member institution, as well as individuals employed by or associated with that institution, including alumni, fans, patrons and boosters, shall conduct themselves with honesty and good sportsmanship. Their behavior shall at all times reflect the high standards of honor and dignity that characterize participation in the collegiate setting.

"For intercollegiate athletics to promote the character development of participants, to enhance the integrity of higher education and to promote civility in society, coaches, student-athletes and all others associated with these athletics programs and events should adhere to such fundamental values as respect, fairness, civility, honesty and responsibility. These values should be manifested not only in athletics participation but also in the broad spectrum of activities affecting the athletics program.

"It is the responsibility of each member institution to establish policies for sportsmanship and ethical conduct in intercollegiate athletics consistent with the educational mission and goals of the institution. Furthermore, member institutions are responsible for educating on a continuing basis all constituencies about these policies."

- The SEC has an annual Sportsmanship Award that will be awarded to one male and one female student-athlete. Voted on by the league's athletics directors, the award honors student-athletes who, through their actions in the competitive arena of intercollegiate athletics, have demonstrated one or more of the ideals of sportsmanship, including fairness, civility, honesty, unselfishness, respect and responsibility. The recipients of the 2016-17 award were Tate Schroeder of the Missouri tennis team and the Ole Miss and Vanderbilt baseball teams.

IN THE COMMUNITY

- In July 2017, 68 SEC student-athletes participated in community service projects at the Community Food Bank of Central Alabama and the American Cancer Society Hope Lodge as part of a joint meeting of the SEC Student-Athlete Leadership Councils and the Student-Athlete Advisory Committee. The Community Food Bank operates as a central clearinghouse for collecting food, and it serves 12 counties in Alabama. Hope Lodge offers free lodging to cancer patients and their families, and it also provides a variety of resources and information about cancer and how best to fight the disease.

- The SEC and its member institutions have partnered with the 11-state Special Olympics organizations in the SEC region. The relationship is featured on public service announcements aired on SEC telecasts, and Special Olympics participate in the Dr Pepper SEC FanFare, held in conjunction with the SEC Football and Basketball Championships.

- The SEC and its corporate sponsors host youth clinics each year in conjunction with several conference events, including the football championship game, the men's basketball tournament, the baseball tournament and the soccer tournament. These clinics provide children from host cities the opportunity to receive instruction from SEC and other area coaches.

- The SEC selects a Community Service Team in each of its 21 sports. The Community Service Team features a representative from each institution who has shown a commitment to community service.

- Jeb Blazevich (Georgia) and Oren Burks (Vanderbilt) were named to the 2016 Allstate AFCA Good Works Team®, one of the most coveted off-the-field honors in college football. The Good Works Team® award is celebrating 25 years of recognizing college football players who dedicate their time to bettering the community and the lives of others.

SECU - COMMITMENT TO THE UNIVERSITY ACADEMIC MISSION

- Through its SECU academic initiative, the Southeastern Conference sponsors, supports and promotes collaborative higher education programs and activities involving administrators, faculty and students at its member universities. SECU is led by the president or chancellor of each SEC university and is managed by the chief academic officer.

- The goals of the SECU initiative include highlighting the endeavors and achievements of SEC faculty and universities; advancing the merit and reputation of SEC universities outside of the traditional SEC region; identifying and preparing future leaders for high-level service in academia; increasing the amount and type of education abroad opportunities available to SEC students; and supporting collaboration between SEC faculty and administrators.

- The SEC Academic Leadership Development Program seeks to identify, prepare and advance academic leaders for roles within SEC institutions and beyond. It has two components, a university-level program and two, three-day, SEC-wide workshops held on specified campuses for all participants.

- The SEC College Tour occurs twice annually, once in the fall and once in the spring. Enrollment administrators from all SEC universities participate in events intended to introduce SEC universities to students, parents and high school counselors from outside of the southeast region.

- The SEC education abroad focus includes a cooperative agreement that gives SEC students access to international programs offered at other SEC universities; an engineering exchange agreement with the Politecnico di Torino in Italy; and Dr Pepper awards that support SEC students with demonstrated financial need who represent non-traditional study abroad participants.

- The SEC Faculty Achievement and Professor of the Year Awards recognize faculty with outstanding records in research and scholarship. There is one winner per campus and one overall winner for the SEC.

- The SEC Faculty Travel Program is intended to enhance collaboration that stimulates scholarly initiatives between SEC universities. The program offers faculty from each SEC university the opportunity to travel to other SEC universities to develop grant proposals, conduct research and deliver artistic performances.

- The SEC MBA Case Competition is an opportunity for SEC business schools to showcase their students' skills at solving simulated, real-world problems that cover the spectrum of business disciplines. The competition is held on one SEC campus and teams of four MBA students compete against other SEC teams, the best receiving various awards and recognition.

COLLEGE FOOTBALL PLAYOFF

EVERY GAME COUNTS

The College Football Playoff is a four-team event to determine college football's national champion on the field, while preserving the significance of college football's unique regular season where every game counts.

THE BEST TEAMS

The selection committee ranks the teams based on the members' evaluation of the teams' performance on the field, using conference championships won, strength of schedule, head-to-head results, and comparison of results against common opponents to decide among teams that are comparable.

TRADITION

The New Year's holiday period belongs to college football, with two semifinal games rotating annually among the Cotton Bowl, Fiesta Bowl, Orange Bowl, Peach Bowl, Rose Bowl and Sugar Bowl.

CHAMPIONSHIP MONDAY

The two winning teams from the Playoff Semifinals compete for the College Football Playoff National Championship. The national championship game is in a different city each year, always on a Monday night.

UNIVERSAL ACCESS

Every FBS team has equal access to the College Football Playoff based on its performance. No team automatically qualifies.

GOVERNANCE

The 10 FBS conferences manage the College Football Playoff and are members of the entity CFP Administration, LLC.

SELECTION COMMITTEE

A talented group of high-integrity individuals with experience as coaches, student-athletes, college administrators and journalists, along with sitting athletics directors, comprise the selection committee. Members of the committee are: Kirby Hocutt (chair), Frank Beamer, Jeff Bower, Herb Deromedi, Chris Howard, Tom Jernstedt, Bobby Johnson, Jeff Long, Rob Mullens, Dan Radakovich, Gene Smith, Steve Wieberg and Tyrone Willingham.

COLLEGE FOOTBALL PLAYOFF

SELECTION COMMITTEE RESPONSIBILITIES

- Rank the top 25 teams and assign the top four to semifinals sites.
- Assign teams to New Year's bowls.
 - Create competitive matchups.
 - Attempt to avoid rematches of regular-season games and repeat appearances in specific bowls.
 - Consider geography.

PARTICIPANTS IN THE NEW YEAR'S BOWLS

Both participants in the Orange, Rose and Sugar Bowls are contracted outside the playoff arrangement (Big Ten and Pac-12 to Rose Bowl; SEC and Big 12 to Sugar Bowl; ACC to Orange Bowl against the highest ranked available team from the SEC, Big Ten and Notre Dame). If a conference champion qualifies for the playoff, then the bowl will choose a replacement from that conference. When those bowls host the semifinals and their contracted conference champions do not qualify, then the displaced champion(s) will play in one of the other New Year's bowls.

When not hosting semifinals, the Cotton, Fiesta and Peach Bowls will welcome displaced conference champions and the top-ranked champion from a non-contract conference. The highest-ranked available teams will fill any other berths. The selection committee will make the pairings.
