THE SOUTHEASTERN CONFERENCE

It Just Means More

Scholars. Champions. Leaders. These are the pillars of the Southeastern Conference, and together they represent the vision for an 86-year-old intercollegiate athletic conference that continues to experience unparalleled success. Ranging from record-breaking accomplishments by student-athletes and administrators to significant growth in media, sponsorship, and branding, the SEC continues to prove on every front why it is SECond to None.

The Conference continues to deliver record financial distributions to its member universities, which makes it possible for the Conference to support scholars through and beyond graduation, win championships in every sponsored varsity sport, and ultimately prepare young people to change the world.

The SEC's leadership believes strongly that intercollegiate athletic conferences have an obligation to aid in Student-Athlete Development and Achievement, both academically and athletically. As such, the SEC was the first conference to establish a Student-Athlete Career Tour designed to prepare students for professions after graduation, and this year the Conference again welcomed 28 students to Atlanta for a multi-day series of meetings and development. And the SEC has integrated its student-athlete leadership councils into its annual meetings to provide its young people a greater voice in their own collegiate experience.

The SEC continues to strengthen its relationships in Media and Sponsorship. The SEC Network is now available on every major cable provider and every nationwide, multi-channel subscription streaming service in the marketplace. The SEC Network also reaches 140 countries outside the U.S.

The SEC is a place where Innovation and Leadership are expected and pursued. However, the pursuit extends beyond championship rings and trophies to include officiating, administration, and other initiatives. For example, on the heels of its football and men's basketball collaborative replay success, this year the SEC became the first collegiate conference to introduce centralized video review in baseball.

The SEC has also amplified its position relative to Branding and Celebration efforts. As SECU was renamed "SEC Academic Relations," it heightened its focus on programs and activities designed to highlight the teaching, research and service accomplished on SEC campuses. The Conference also executed Year Four of the "It Just Means More" branding campaign, continuing its presence on radio, TV and online while saturating national championship cities with digital outdoor exposure.

The SEC's Athletic Achievements have historically been—and continue to be—unprecedented. The SEC continues to win national championships in multiple sports, including six national championship matchups since March 2017 that exclusively featured SEC teams (Women's Final Four, College World Series, College Football Playoff Championship and three times in Equestrian).

Student-Athlete Development And Achievement

Student-Athlete Career Tour

A total of 28 current and former Southeastern Conference student-athletes participated in the third SEC Career Tour in Atlanta in November 2018. The group visited the headquarters and met with executives and talent acquisition staff at several corporations including UPS, Children's Healthcare of Atlanta, The Home Depot and the Atlanta Hawks organization.

SEC Student-Athletes and Community Service

SEC student-athletes conducted more than 50,000 hours of combined community service work during the 2018-19 academic year. Each year the SEC awards a $5,000 scholarship to a male and female nominee from each school for the Brad Davis SEC Community Service Award, and $10,000 goes to the two student-athletes selected each year as the Brad Davis SEC Community Service Leaders of the Year. In 2018-19, Auburn University equestrian athlete Megan Rauh and University of Florida track & field athlete Sam Ahrenholz were named winners of the prestigious award.

SEC in the NCAA's 2019 Today's Top 10

Three SEC student-athletes were among the 10 student-athletes from across the country named as recipients of the NCAA's 2019 Today's Top 10 Award. Alabama swimmer Lucas Kaliszak, Florida gymnast Alex McMurtry and Georgia track and field athlete Keturah Orji earned the award that recognizes former student-athletes for their successes in competition, in the classroom and in the community. Recipients completed their athletics eligibility during the 2017-18 academic year and were recognized at the NCAA Honors Celebration in January 2019 in Orlando, Florida.

NCAA Woman of the Year – Georgia's Keturah Orji

Georgia track and field legend Keturah Orji was named the 2018 NCAA Woman of the Year at an awards dinner in Indianapolis, Ind., in October 2018. Orji becomes the first winner from Georgia's track and field program and the fourth winner overall from the University of Georgia. All finalists - including three from each NCAA division - demonstrated excellence in academics, athletics, community service and leadership throughout their collegiate careers. Finalists were selected from a group of 30 Woman of the Year honorees which included 10 honorees from each NCAA division and represented a variety of sports. Schools nominated a record 581 college athletes for the award.

SEC Among Honda Award Winners

Two of the 12 Honda Sport Award recipients named in June 2019 were SEC student-athletes. Florida track & field athlete Yanis David and Arkansas golfer Maria Fassi were honored at the 43rd annual Collegiate Women Sports Awards in late June 2019 in Los Angeles. The Collegiate Women's Sports Awards honor the nation's top NCAA women athletes for superior athletic skills, leadership, academic excellence and participation in community service. Since commencing its sponsorship in 1986, Honda has provided more than $3 million in institutional grants to the universities of the award winners and nominees to support women's athletics programs.

SEC in the NBA Draft

Twelve SEC players were picked at the 2019 NBA Draft, including six who were chosen in the first round. The SEC's 26 Lottery Picks since 2010 are the second-most of any conference. Over the last 10 NBA Drafts, 76 SEC players have heard their names called. Forty-five of those were selected in the first round and four were the No. 1 overall pick.

Media + Sponsorship

SEC Tabs Evolution Media/CAA TV Group as Media Advisors

The SEC appointed leading sports media advisory firm Evolution Media/Creative Artists Agency (CAA) as its exclusive media advisors in 2018. Under its long-term agreement, Evolution and CAA's television division will work collaboratively to advise the SEC on the evolving media marketplace and assist the conference in its future media rights negotiations.

Evolution Media's clients have included the International Olympic Committee, WWE, the National Hockey League, Major League Soccer, PGA of America, PGA TOUR, Riot Games, Top Rank Boxing, the Los Angeles Dodgers, the Arizona Diamondbacks, and the Boston Celtics, among other leading teams and associations. Evolution has advised on more than $38 billion in media rights transactions since 2008.

Creative Artists Agency (CAA) represents many of the most successful and innovative professionals working in sports, film, television, music, video games, theatre, commercial endorsements, and digital content, and provides a range of strategic marketing and consulting services to corporate clients.

SEC Viewership Continues Growth

The SEC participated in the three highest rated college football games in 2018, including the CFP Championship Game that generated a 13.8 rating with 25.28 million viewers. Among highest rated TV games in 2018, the SEC participated in five of the top 10 games, eight of the top 15 games and 10 of the top 20 games. The SEC on CBS in 2018 produced the five most-viewed games of the regular season and the SEC Football Championship saw its highest rating since 2007. In fact, the SEC Football Championship Game posted a higher rating than both CFP Semifinal games.

Meanwhile, the SEC Network remains one of the most vibrant sports networks in all of television. The SEC Network is available on every major cable and satellite provider in the United States, every nationwide multichannel subscription streaming service and is available in 140 countries outside the US. Important SEC notes to know:

- Over 250 students across the 14 campuses were involved in production of SEC Network events in 2018-19
- More than 70 SEC marching band halftime performances were streamed live on the ESPN App in 2018
- The SEC Network featured new episodes of "SEC Homecoming" including interviews with former Augusta national Golf Club Chairman Billy Payne, singer and songwriter Darius Rucker and Lockheed Martin president and CEO Marylin Hewson.

BRANDING + CELEBRATION

SEC Expands Academic Initiative

The SEC announced it was expanding the scope and changing the name of its 13-year-old academic initiative to better leverage the success of its intercollegiate athletics programs in support of the broad mission of each of its 14 member universities.

Formerly known as SEC U, SEC Academic Relations focuses on presenting programs and activities designed to highlight the teaching, research and service accomplishments of SEC students, faculty and staff, including related successes within the Conference's intercollegiate athletics programs.

The Southeastern Conference supports and promotes collaborative higher education programs and activities involving administrators, faculty and students at its member universities. Its goals include:

- Advancing the academic reputation of SEC universities beyond the traditional SEC region
- Highlighting the endeavors and achievements of SEC faculty, students and administrators
- Identifying and preparing future leaders for high-level service in academia
- Increasing the amount and type of education abroad opportunities available to SEC students
- Supporting collaboration between SEC faculty and administrators

Current SEC academic initiatives include:

The SEC Academic Leadership Development Program seeks to identify, prepare and advance academic leaders for roles within SEC institutions and beyond. It has three components, a university-level development program; two SEC-wide three-day workshops held on specified campuses for all program participants; and a competitive fellowship for former participants.

The SEC College Tour occurs twice annually, once in the fall and once in the spring. Enrollment administrators from all SEC universities participate in events intended to introduce SEC universities to students, parents and high school counselors from outside of the southeast region.

The SEC education abroad focus includes a cooperative agreement that gives SEC students access to international programs offered at other SEC universities and an engineering exchange agreement with the Politecnico di Torino in Italy.

The SEC Faculty Achievement and Professor of the Year Awards recognize faculty with outstanding records in research and teaching. There is one winner per campus and one overall winner for the SEC.

The SEC Faculty Travel Program is intended to enhance collaboration that stimulates scholarly initiatives between SEC universities. The program offers faculty from each SEC university the opportunity to travel to other SEC universities to develop grant proposals, conduct research and deliver artistic performances.

The SEC MBA Case Competition is an opportunity for SEC business schools to showcase their students' skills at solving simulated, real-world problems that cover the spectrum of business disciplines. The competition is held on one SEC campus and teams of four MBA students compete against other SEC teams, the best receiving various awards and recognition.

The SEC Student Pitch Competition provides a showcase for young entrepreneurs as it pits teams of SEC students against one another in an idea pitch competition. Students present their innovative business ideas to a panel of SEC alumni to determine those most worthy of a funding investment. The top teams receive various awards and recognition.

"It Just Means More" Campaign and Associated Branding

When the SEC kicked off its comprehensive "It Just Means More" marketing campaign, it set out to show the other side of the SEC: one of history, legacy, and an overall positive impact on our people, our communities, our state, and our nation. In addition to a series of television and radio spots, print advertisements, and a social media strategy, this year the SEC continued to expand the reach of its "It Just Means More" campaign through the utilization of outdoor digital signage in cities hosting significant events. Locations included the San Jose area for the CFP Championship Game; Louisville, Kansas City, Washington, DC, and Chicago for men's and women's basketball Sweet Sixteen games, and Minneapolis for the Men's Final Four.

SEC Celebrates Academic Achievement with Graduate Patch

A total of 156 football student-athletes wore the SEC Graduate Patch in 2018 post-season football bowl games and 21 SEC basketball student-athletes wore the mark in national post-season tournaments following the 2019 hoops season. In all, more than 350 student-athletes wore the patch in all sports in 2018-19.

The SEC introduced the patch in 2016 for student-athletes in all sports who have graduated but have not exhausted their eligibility. The SEC logo patch on their uniforms is replaced with a special patch highlighting the word "Graduate" underneath the conference logo. The patch is similar in design for all conference schools, but it is school-specific in color.

SEC BASKETBALL SUCCESS

SEC Release

The conference basketball release will be available each Monday beginning in early November via the league's website. Any media representative wishing to receive information via e-mail should register on www.secsportsmedia.com. SEC standings and results will be updated each weekday, while conference statistics will be updated as often as needed based on the schedule of play. Information is also available via the school's SIDs.

Weekly Awards

The SEC will name a Player of the Week and Freshman of the Week in men's basketball each Monday of the season. Each week's selections will be released on Mondays and will also be announced in the league's weekly releases. Nominations for the award are made each week by the men's basketball media relations contacts.

Internet

General SEC basketball information can be accessed on the Web at www.secsports.com. The basketball section is updated with new material daily on the page, with standings, statistics, game previews, notes and other important information. The SEC basketball release can also be printed off of the secsports.com website in an Adobe Acrobat file. Adobe Reader, which is used to read the Adobe Acrobat file, can be downloaded for free on your computer on the adobe.com website.

The SEC also offers a media-only section of the website - www.secsportsmedia.com. Media covering the SEC can retrieve information from the conference office as well as the 14 SEC institutions from the media site. An internet photo gallery, logos and a championship credentialing system for SEC basketball is available on the site. (The site houses all media information for the other 19 sports the SEC sponsors).

Email List

Press releases and information pertaining to SEC basketball will be emailed to the media throughout the year. Accredited media can register for the SEC's mailing lists at www.secsportsmedia.com.

- March 11, 2018 - An SEC record eight teams receive bids to the NCAA Tournament.

Greg Sankey Commissioner Southeastern Conference

Greg Sankey became the eighth Commissioner of the Southeastern Conference on June 1, 2015, and immediately embarked on a journey to build upon the SEC's recognized success, strong foundations and rich traditions.

Sankey has moved the conference forward while respecting the institutional traditions that make the SEC unique. With an understanding of the highly competitive environment of college sports, he has fostered the collaborative culture of the SEC that sets the conference apart and supports its continuing success.

Based upon the conference-wide success and growth, the SEC was the only college conference named a finalist for the Sports Business Journal's League of the Year Award in 2017-18, a nomination shared with the National Basketball Association (NBA), Major League Baseball (MLB), Ladies' Professional Golf Association (LPGA), National Hockey League (NHL) and Major League Soccer (MLS).

Sankey brings a big picture approach to his position through continuing focus on a vision that positions the SEC to leverage its athletics success and popularity for a greater overall cultural and economic impact on the region, the nation and the world.

During his first major address as Commissioner, he introduced his concept of "Scholars. Champions. Leaders." to describe the ultimate potential of the SEC. "Educating scholars and supporting champions provides the platform for developing leaders who will influence the world," Sankey said in his opening remarks at SEC Football Media Days in 2015.

Advocating for Student-Athlete Opportunity

Now in his fourth year at the helm of the SEC, Sankey has established himself as an advocate for the student-athlete, creating a framework to provide young people in the Conference with new leadership opportunities and resources to succeed at the highest levels of academic achievement and competitive success. New student-athlete focused initiatives under Sankey's leadership include:

- Creation of a new position in the SEC office for a Director of Student-Athlete Engagement, a role focused on offering student-athletes the opportunity to participate in Conference leadership and prepare for life after their intercollegiate athletics participation concludes. (August 2015)
- Introduction of Student-Athlete Leadership Councils for Football, Men's Basketball and Women's Basketball which, in addition to the Conference's longstanding Student-Athlete Advisory Committee, provide student-athletes with additional opportunities to engage with campus leaders and Conference office staff. (May 2016)
- Introduction of a Student-Athlete Career Tour during SEC Football Championship Week in Atlanta, which annually provides a group of student-athletes with opportunities to engage in career exploration with high level corporations and businesses. (December 2016 and 2017)
- Expansion of the student-athlete role at the annual SEC Spring Meetings when student-athletes participate in a robust agenda of interaction with administrators and coaches to provide their perspectives to Conference leaders. (May 2017 and 2018)
- Increased funding for the SEC H. Boyd McWhorter Post-Graduate Scholarship, established in 1986 to honor outstanding student-athletes in the SEC for their accomplishments in athletics and academics. The value of the post-graduate scholarships increased to $20,000 each for the two winners and $10,000 each for the 26 finalists. (December 2017)

Advancing The Conference

Upon assuming the role of Commissioner, Sankey moved swiftly to address issues critical to college athletics, with an emphasis on integrity, ethics and sportsmanship. He appointed a Working Group on Student-Athlete Conduct consisting of campus leaders to develop recommendations for updated Conference policies governing conduct expectations for student-athletes. As a result:

- The SEC adopted a serious misconduct policy governing transfers that has served as a model for similar policies subsequently adopted by other conferences and institutions. (June 2016, expanded definition June 2017)
- The SEC expanded its serious misconduct policy to include all incoming prospective student-athletes. (June 2018)
- Appointed a Working Group on Compliance, Enforcement and Governance, designed to review and update principles which form the foundation of the Conference membership's commitment to SEC and NCAA rules compliance.
- Amended an SEC Bylaw to now require a university president or chancellor to consult directly with the SEC Commissioner before hiring someone "who has engaged in unethical conduct as defined under NCAA Bylaws or who has participated in activity that resulted, or may result, in a Level I, Level II, or major infraction." (June 2017)

Sankey prioritized the enhancement of Conference championship events to meet the goal of providing student-athletes with life-long memories and exceptional experiences for fans, which has included:

- An agreement with Atlanta's new Mercedes Benz Stadium to serve as the long-term home for the SEC Football Championship Game. (September 2015)
- An agreement with the City of Hoover, AL, to continue as host of the SEC Baseball Tournament after the city committed to construction of a $70 million baseball campus to enhance the baseball tournament experience for student-athletes and fans. (June 2016)
- Engagement with a security consulting firm to review and develop consistent and effective security plans for SEC Championship events. (August 2016)
- A three-year agreement with Greenville, SC, to provide a multi-year home for the SEC Women's Basketball Tournament at Bon Secours Wellness Arena. (May 2018)

Sankey has focused resources on the development of Conference officiating with a series of measures blending technology with effective leadership to create greater accuracy and consistency for officiating in all sports, including:

- Hiring new coordinators of officials in the sports of men's basketball, women's basketball and softball.
- Working with the NCAA to gain approval for a collaborative instant replay process in the sport of football, which was implemented successfully beginning with the Fall 2016 season. (May 2016)
- Collaborating with the American Athletic and Atlantic Sun conferences to create a men's basketball officiating consortium, later adding the Sun Belt Conference. (July 2016 and May 2017)
- Securing NCAA approval to implement a collaborative instant replay process in the sport of men's basketball beginning with the 2017-18 season. (May 2017)
- Implementing an NCAA-approved experimental process for expanding the number of permissible plays evaluated through instant replay in the sport of baseball for the 2018 season. (August 2017)

Another priority under Sankey's leadership is growing exposure for the Conference and effectively publicizing success stories of the SEC. Strategies pursued to achieve this objective include:

- Engagement with The Richards Group, a highly successful national marketing agency, to develop a comprehensive branding campaign to positively feature the SEC, its student-athletes, alumni, leaders and fans. The theme of the campaign – "It Just Means More" – communicates the history, legacy and overall positive impact the SEC has on its region, the nation and the world.
- Introduction of the SEC Graduate Patch, a logo placed on the uniforms of every sport displayed by SEC student-athletes who have earned their undergraduate degree and are continuing their participation in intercollegiate athletics.
- Collaboration with the SEC Network to create unique exposure opportunities for Conference universities, teams and student-athletes, including behind-the-scenes programming, expanding live championship coverage for Olympic Sports, covering all spring football games and adding unique coverage of halftime band performances in football.
- An agreement with SiriusXM to create the first college branded satellite radio channel, SiriusXM SEC Radio, an exclusive 24/7 audio channel dedicated to SEC sports. The new channel delivers fans and alumni across the country in-depth and comprehensive access to SEC-focused sports talk and news, plus an extensive schedule of SEC games. (November 2017)
- Move of SEC Football Media Days to a new market, taking the signature event to the College Football Hall of Fame in Atlanta while adding a fan event in Centennial Olympic Park to expand the kickoff week to five days of activities. It marked the first time SEC Media Days was held outside the Birmingham, Alabama, area since 1985.

A Career In College Athletics

On March 12, 2015, the Presidents and Chancellors of the SEC announced Greg Sankey would succeed Mike Slive as Commissioner of the SEC.

Sankey, 54, first joined the SEC staff in 2002 as Associate Commissioner for Governance, Enforcement and Compliance and later added supervision of the league's championships staff to his responsibilities. He was elevated to Executive Associate Commissioner and Chief Operating Officer for the league office in 2012, becoming responsible for the day-to-day operation of the SEC Office.

Sankey has been active within the NCAA committee structure, including his current service on the Enforcement/Infractions Working Group created to address recommendations from the independent Commission on College Basketball. He has also served on the Division I Legislative Council, Committee on Academic Performance and the NCAA Committee on Infractions.

Before moving to the SEC, Sankey served as Commissioner of the Southland Conference for nearly seven years. He joined the Southland Conference staff in 1992 where he served as both assistant and associate commissioner before he was named its Commissioner in 1996 at the age of 31.

Prior to his term at the Southland Conference, he was Director of Compliance and Academic Services at Northwestern State University in Natchitoches, LA. While at Northwestern State, Sankey also coached the Demons' golf teams for two years, earning the Golf Coaches Association of America District VI Coach of the Year award in 1991. Before his tenure at Northwestern State, he was the Director of Intramural Sports at Ulica College in upstate New York.

A native of Auburn, NY, Sankey earned his master's degree from Syracuse University and his undergraduate degree from the State University of New York College at Cortland. Sankey and his wife, Cathy, reside in Birmingham, AL, and have two adult daughters, Hannah and Moriah.

SOUTHEASTERN CONFERENCE

Official Sponsor Program

The Southeastern Conference Official Sponsor program began in 1988 with three companies dedicated to intercollegiate athletics and higher education. Now supported by many of the nation's top corporations, this program has evolved into the most successful of its kind.

Each member of the SEC Official Sponsor team shows its commitment to the future of intercollegiate athletics with contributions to SEC Youth Clinics, SEC Scholarship Programs, SEC Academic Enhancement Programs, Championship Grants, FanFare and Legends Programs.

The corporations also conduct consumer promotions designed to increase sales and brand awareness. These promotions also increase public awareness of the member institutions of the SEC, which in turn supports increased ticket sales and high television and radio ratings.

In addition to the broad spectrum of benefits provided by these contributions, each SEC institution is a direct beneficiary of the program. SEC Official Sponsors include Academy Sports + Outdoors, Aflac, Allstate, AT&T, Belk, Dr Pepper, Johnsonville, Mercedes-Benz, Regions Bank and Velveeta.

Program Mission

The mission of the corporate sponsor program is:

1. To develop marketing and promotional activities that benefit the SEC, its member institutions and the participating corporations;
2. To emphasize the positive role of athletics in our society; and
3. To provide funding for youth clinics, championship events and academic enhancement programs.

SEC Licensing Program

The Southeastern Conference markets its registered marks (Southeastern Conference, SEC, SEC Seal and SEC logos) through a licensing program with the Collegiate Licensing Company. The SEC began its licensing program in 1988 to protect the use of its name and insignias and to ensure that its member institutions benefit from the use and sale of items bearing its name and/or logos.

The program also ensures that manufacturers and retailers market only the highest-quality merchandise using the conference name and logos. The SEC has joined a significant number of colleges and universities throughout the country to bring about consistency in the marketplace for officially-licensed collegiate products.

SEC TOURNAMENT

The winner of the 13-game SEC Men's Basketball Tournament receives the league's automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament. The tournament seeds are determined by the 18-game conference schedule during the regular season. Teams are seeded 1-14 based on their regular season conference finish.

Atlanta served as host of the inaugural SEC Tournament played following the 1932-33 season and did so again after the 1933-34 season. The event was held every year through 1952, with the exception of 1935. After a 26-year layoff (1953-78), the tournament was renewed in 1979. The 2020 tournament will be the 61st in league history and the 42nd since the renewal.

The event has helped set the stage for SEC teams in the NCAA Tournament, as 26 of the tournament champions since the tournament resumed in 1979 have advanced to at least the Sweet 16. Twenty of those teams have gone on to the Elite Eight, 12 to the Final Four and three have been crowned national champion. Six of the last 14 SEC Tournament champions have advanced to the Final Four with three of those teams winning a national championship. The SEC Tournament Champion has failed to win at least one NCAA Tournament game only four times.

Kentucky leads the league with 31 SEC Tournament titles. Alabama is second with six, while Tennessee and Florida are tied for third with four. Mississippi State has three championship trophies while Auburn, Georgia, Ole Miss and Vanderbilt have two. Arkansas, LSU and former league member Georgia Tech have each won one SEC Tournament championship.

SEC Tournament Tie-Breaker Procedures

Teams will be seeded No. 1 through No. 14 in the SEC Men's Basketball Tournament bracket based upon the final regular season Conference standings. Teams that finished No. 1 through No. 4 in the final regular season standings shall receive first- and second-round byes and teams that finish No. 5 through No. 10 will receive first-round byes in the SEC Men's Basketball Tournament.

1. Two-Team Tie: The following procedure will be used in the following order until the tie is broken:

- Won-lost results of head-to-head competition between the two teams.
- Won-lost record of the two teams versus the No. 1 seed (and proceeding through the No. 14 seed, if necessary).
- Coin flip by the Commissioner.

2. Three-Team Tie (or more): Won-lost record of the two teams versus the No. 1 seed (and proceeding through the No. 14 seed, if necessary).

- Best winning percentage of games played among the tied teams (Example: Team A is 3-1, Team B is 2-2 and Team C is 1-3 – Team A would be seeded highest, Team B second-highest and Team C lowest of the three).
- Best winning percentage of the tied teams versus the No. 1 seed (and proceeding through the No. 14 seed, if necessary).
- If two teams remain, coin flip by the Commissioner.
- If three or more teams remain, draw by the Commissioner.

For the purpose of seeding, if an institution is precluded from participating in the tournament, such institution will automatically be seeded last. The No. 11 seed will then receive a bye. However, for the purpose of breaking ties, that team will remain where it finished in the regular-season standings BEFORE being seeded last.

NOTE: From 1933-50 the SEC Champion was determined by a tournament, except for 1935. Since 1951, when the round-robin schedule was introduced, the title has been decided by a winning percentage on the conference schedule. From 1951-64 the round-robin consisted of 14 games. In 1965 and 1966 it was expanded to 16 games. From 1967-91 the round-robin schedule was 18 games. In 1992 the SEC split into an Eastern and Western Division, but continued to recognize an SEC Champion based on a winning percentage over the new 16-game conference schedule. The league also began awarding division championships. In 1979 the tournament was renewed with the winner receiving the SEC's automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament.

Kentucky and LSU did not meet during the regular season due to a disagreement on the site. Both played Georgia an extra game which counted in the standings for Kentucky and LSU but not Georgia. Kentucky won a playoff game, to determine the Conference's representative in the NCAA Tournament, with LSU in Nashville then declined the bid.

Tournament Champion: Auburn

NCAA: Auburn, Florida, Kentucky, LSU, Ole Miss, Mississippi State, Tennessee

NIT: Alabama, Arkansas

From 1933-50 the SEC Champion was determined by a tournament, except for 1935. Since 1951, when the round-robin schedule was introduced, the title has been decided by a winning percentage on the conference schedule. From 1951-64 the round-robin consisted of 14 games. In 1965 and 1966 it was expanded to 16 games. From 1967-91 the round-robin schedule was 18 games. In 1992 the SEC split into an Eastern and Western Division, but continued to recognize an SEC Champion based on a winning percentage over the 16-game conference schedule. The league also began awarding division championships. In 1979 the tournament was renewed with the winner receiving the SEC's automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament. (SEC Champion; # Participation vacated by NCAA).*

NOTE: Number of SEC players taken listed in parentheses. Listing is alphabetical 1949-1956. Since 1957 the listing is by rounds with the number in brackets [] indicating the selection of first-round picks. The NBA held its first college draft prior to the start of the 1947-48 season, but records prior to 1949 are unavailable.
