SEC Cross Country Championships Set For Friday

The Southeastern Conference and the University of Kentucky will serve as host of the 2019 SEC Cross Country Championships Friday at the Kentucky Horse Park in Lexington, Ky. For the first time the SEC Cross Country Championship will be televised live on the SEC Network.

The men's 8K race is scheduled for an 8:05 a.m. CT start, while the women's 6K race will begin at 9 a.m. CT. An awards ceremony will follow the women's race. Admission to the 2019 SEC Cross Championships is free and open to the public. This will mark the fifth time that Kentucky will serve as host to the SEC Cross Country Championships and the first time since 2007.

Arkansas is the nation's top-ranked women's team, while Ole Miss is the highest-ranked men's team at No. 11. SEC teams receiving votes include the Arkansas and Alabama men and the Ole Miss and Tennessee women.

Ole Miss won its first SEC men's cross country title last year in Auburn. The Arkansas women enter the 2019 SEC Championships with six consecutive SEC titles and 19 overall. Last year's individual champions were Jessica Pascoe of Florida and Gilbert Boit of Arkansas.

Coverage of the SEC Cross Country Championships begins at 8 a.m. CT on the SEC Network.

» Ole Miss Men, Arkansas Women Predicted To Win SEC Cross Country Titles

The Ole Miss men and the Arkansas women have been predicted to claim the 2019 Southeastern Conference Cross Country Championships, as decided by a vote of the league's head coaches.

Points for the men's poll were awarded on a 1-2-3-4-5-6-7-8-9-10-11 basis, while the women's poll was awarded on a 1-2-3-4-5-6-7-8-9-10-11-12-13 basis. Coaches were not permitted to vote for their own teams.

The Ole Miss men were predicted to win the 2019 SEC Cross Country Championship. The Rebels, who garnered seven first place votes, won their first SEC title a year ago.

The Arkansas women, who have won six consecutive SEC Cross Country Championships, were predicted to win the 2019 SEC Cross Country Championship. The Razorbacks received 13 first place votes.

The 2019 SEC Cross Country Championships are slated to take place Friday, Nov. 1 in Lexington, Ky.

» About the SEC

- Since its formation in 1933, the SEC has directed and organized interscholastic athletic competitions, conducted tournaments and prescribed eligibility rules for student-athletes. The Conference also facilitates and assists its member institutions in maintaining intercollegiate athletic programs compatible with the highest standards of education and competitive sports.
- The Southeastern Conference crowns champions in 21 sports - 12 women's sports and nine men's sports. They include baseball, men's and women's basketball, men's and women's cross country, equestrian, football, men's and women's golf, gymnastics, soccer, softball, men's and women's swimming and diving, men's and women's tennis, men's and women's indoor and outdoor track and field, and volleyball.
- In the fall of 2012, the University of Missouri and Texas A&M University became the 13th and 14th members of the Southeastern Conference. It marked the first expansion for the SEC since 1991 and the second-ever increase for the league since its founding in 1933.
- The SEC's mission statement reflects the priorities of the league. "The purpose of the Southeastern Conference is to assist its member institutions in the maintenance of programs of intercollegiate athletics which are compatible with the highest standards of education and competitive sports."
