IT JUST MEANS MORE.

In February, the Southeastern Conference was named a finalist for the Sports Business Journal's League of the Year, which recognizes excellence over the past year. The SEC was the only college athletics conference named to a list that included the Ladies Professional Golf Association (LPGA), Major League Baseball (MLB), Major League Soccer (MLS), and the National Basketball Association (NBA).

Scholars. Champions. Leaders. These are the pillars of the Southeastern Conference, and together they represent the vision for an 85-year-old intercollegiate athletic conference that experienced unparalleled success during the past year. Ranging from record-breaking accomplishments by student-athletes and administrators to significant growth in media, sponsorship, and branding, the SEC proved on every front why it is SECond to None.

The Conference continues to deliver record financial distributions to its member universities, which makes it possible for the Conference to support scholars through and beyond graduation, win championships in a litany of sports, and ultimately prepare young people to change the world.

The SEC continues to strengthen its relationships in Media and Sponsorship. The SEC-ESPN Network is now available on every major cable provider and every nationwide, multi-channel subscription streaming service in the marketplace. The SEC Network also reaches 139 countries outside the U.S.

The SEC is a place where Innovation and Leadership are expected and pursued. However, the pursuit extends beyond championship rings and trophies to include officiating, administration, and other initiatives. For example, on the heels of its football collaborative replay successes, this year the SEC established two additional innovative processes to improve officiating: a collaborative replay system in men's basketball and expanded experimental replay rules in baseball.

The SEC's leadership believes strongly that intercollegiate athletic conferences have an obligation to aid in Student-Athlete Development, both academically and athletically. As such, the SEC was the first conference to establish a Student-Athlete Career Tour designed to prepare students for professions after graduation, and this year the Conference welcomed 28 students to Atlanta for a multi-day series of meetings and development. And the SEC has integrated its student-athlete leadership councils into its annual meetings to give its young people a greater voice in their own collegiate experience.

The SEC has also amplified its position relative to Branding and Celebration efforts. The Conference made gains in the "It Just Means More" branding campaign, expanding its presence to coast-to-coast signage, ranging from New York City's Times Square during an ESPN GameDay broadcast to downtown Los Angeles in recognition of the SEC's participation in the Rose Bowl. The proud league also celebrated the contributions of African-Americans who 50 years ago integrated the sports of men's basketball and football.

The SEC's Athletic Achievements have historically been—and continue to be—unprecedented. The SEC continues to win national championships in multiple sports, including five national championship matchups in the last two years that exclusively featured SEC teams (Women's Final Four, College World Series, College Football Playoff Championship and twice in Equestrian).

MEDIA + SPONSORSHIP

SEC-ESPN Network / Altice Agreement

The SEC-ESPN Network announced an agreement with Altice USA, one of the largest broadband communications and video services providers in the United States, meaning the SEC Network now has long-term distribution agreements with every major cable provider in the United States.

SEC-ESPN Agreements with Hulu and YouTube TV

The SEC-ESPN Network's agreements with over-the-top content providers Hulu and YouTube TV make the SEC Network available on every nationwide multi-channel subscription streaming service currently in the marketplace.

SiriusXM's First College Conference-Branded Channel

The Southeastern Conference and SiriusXM launched the first college branded satellite radio channel, SiriusXM SEC Radio, a new and exclusive 24/7 audio channel dedicated to SEC sports, delivering fans and alumni across the country in-depth and comprehensive access to SEC-focused sports talk and news.

TV Ratings

The SEC participated in the 5 highest-rated college football games on TV for the 2017 season (Alabama vs. Georgia – CFP National Championship 15.6, Georgia vs. Oklahoma – Rose Bowl 13.7, Alabama vs. Clemson – Sugar Bowl 11.4, Auburn vs. Georgia – SEC Championship 8.0, Alabama vs. Auburn – Iron Bowl 7.6).

ESPN's presentation of the CFP National Championship between SEC opponents Georgia and Alabama delivered a massive 16.7 overnight rating as part of its MegaCast production, up 9% from last season's College Football Playoff National Championship on the same three Nielsen-rated networks.

CBS Sports' coverage of the 2017 SEC ON CBS season averaged a household rating/share of 3.0/7, topping all other networks.

INNOVATION + LEADERSHIP

Officiating Innovation

In men's basketball, for the 2018 SEC season, the SEC implemented a collaborative process for instant replay in the sport of men's basketball. Under this upgraded system for instant replay reviews, personnel operating from SEC Headquarters assist game officials with all reviews in conference games. The SEC is the only conference utilizing a collaborative replay process in 2018.

In baseball, the NCAA Playing Rules Oversight Panel approved a request from the SEC to allow experimental rules for a coach's challenge system and expand the number of plays that may be reviewed to more resemble the process used by Major League Baseball.

Baseball Wireless Coach-to-Catcher Communication

The NCAA Playing Rules Oversight Panel approved a request from the Southeastern Conference to allow experimental rules for wireless communication from the dugout to the catcher in an effort to improve pace of play. Catchers will wear an earpiece to hear the type of pitch the coaching staff wants thrown.

Media participation in spring football game officiating

The SEC invited media members to participate as game officials during South Carolina's Spring Football Game and engaged with the SEC Network to provide behind-the-scenes information and experiences in order to educate the public on procedures related to SEC football officiating.

Athletics Directors attend Strategic Leadership Program

SEC Athletics Directors participated in the U.S. Army War College Strategic Leadership Program July 25-27, 2017 in Gettysburg, Pennsylvania. The Gettysburg Program is a leadership development experience for senior executives that encapsulates such leadership topics as leadership style, empowerment of trusted agents, communicating leader vision, managing toxic/immature leaders, avoiding cognitive bias, common mistakes in team-building, separating personal and professional relationships, weighing risk vs. reward, controlling "the narrative," and transforming tactical success into strategic effect.

Spotlighting Academics

Using its SECU Academic Initiative, the SEC sponsors, supports, and promotes collaborative higher education programs and activities involving administrators, faculty, and students at its 14 member universities.

The SEC College Tour, intended to advance the merit and academic reputation of SEC universities beyond the traditional SEC region, visited both the east and west coasts of the United States in 2017. In the fall, SEC university admissions administrators visited Boston, Massachusetts and Providence, Rhode Island, to talk with high school counselors, and in the spring, the group traveled to San Diego and Pasadena, California, to promote SEC universities to prospective students and parents.

The SEC Academic Leadership Development Program (SEC ALDP) celebrated its 10-year anniversary in October of 2017. The SEC ALDP aims to identify, prepare, and advance academic leaders for roles within SEC institutions and beyond.

Amended SEC Bylaw Related to Hiring of Coaches and Athletic Personnel

SEC Bylaw 19.8.1.2 now includes language stating that an SEC school's president or chancellor must consult directly with SEC Commissioner Greg Sankey before considering hiring someone "who has engaged in unethical conduct as defined under NCAA Bylaws or who has participated in activity that resulted, or may result, in a Level I, Level II, or major infraction."

Multi-Year Agreements for Championship Locations

In 2017, the SEC transitioned its Football Championship Game to the new Mercedes-Benz Stadium in downtown Atlanta after playing its title game in the Georgia Dome since 1994. It was the highest attendance for an SEC Football Championship game since 1992 and the second highest of all time.

The SEC Women's Basketball Tournament will be played in Greenville, South Carolina for the next three years. Greenville previously hosted the SEC Women's Basketball Tournament in 2005 and 2017, and has now been awarded the tournament for 2019, 2020, and 2021.

STUDENT-ATHLETE DEVELOPMENT

Student-Athlete Career Tour

A total of 28 current and former Southeastern Conference student-athletes participated in the second SEC Corporate Career Tour in Atlanta November 28–30, 2017. The group visited the headquarters and met with executives and talent acquisition staff at several corporations including Turner Broadcasting System, Mercedes-Benz Corporation, the Atlanta Braves organization, and Delta Airlines.

Increased Funding for SEC Post-Graduate Scholarships

The SEC H. Boyd McWhorter Post Graduate Scholarship was established in 1986 to honor outstanding student-athletes in the SEC for their accomplishments in athletics and academics. In 2017, the SEC's Athletics Directors voted to increase the value of the post-graduate scholarships to $20,000 each for the two winners and $10,000 each for the 26 finalists. Since inception, the SEC has awarded close to $4 million in post graduate funding.

BRANDING + CELEBRATION

Announcement of SEC Football Media Days in Atlanta

The SEC announced that the College Football Hall of Fame in Atlanta will serve as the primary host venue for next year's SEC Football Media Days, July 16-19, 2018. The 2018 event will mark the first time SEC Media Days will be held outside the Birmingham, Alabama, area since 1985.

"It Just Means More" Campaign and Associated Branding

When the SEC kicked off its comprehensive "It Just Means More" marketing campaign, it set out to show the other side of the SEC: one of history, legacy, and an overall positive impact on our people, our communities, our state, and our nation. In addition to a series of television and radio spots, print advertisements, and a social media strategy, this year the SEC expanded the reach of its "It Just Means More" campaign through the utilization of outdoor digital signage in cities hosting significant events. Locations have included New York's Times Square (ESPN GameDay's first-ever broadcast from Times Square), Los Angeles (Rose Bowl), New Orleans (Sugar Bowl), Atlanta (CFP Championship), Birmingham (SEC Football Media Days), and Dallas (Women's Final Four).

Celebration of 50th Anniversary of SEC Athletics Integration in Football and Men's Basketball

The 2017 football season marked the 50th anniversary of the year Kentucky's Nate Northington became the first African-American to participate in a varsity contest between two Southeastern Conference football teams.

The SEC commemorated the event with a one-minute video message that aired during every SEC football game on CBS and all ESPN platforms on Saturday, September 30, the anniversary of Northington's first SEC contest.

Northington, Vanderbilt basketball player Perry Wallace, and four teammates who helped integrate SEC football and basketball were also honored at the SEC Legends Dinner held in coordination with SEC Football Championship Weekend in Atlanta in December.

SEC STANDS OUT

- An SEC record 57 conference teams received NCAA Public Recognition Awards for academic excellence after achieving Academic Progress Rates (APR) in the top 10 percent of their sport, led by:
  - LSU – 8 teams
  - Auburn and Kentucky – 6 teams each
  - South Carolina and Vanderbilt – 5 teams each
  - Four schools – 4 teams each
- Three of the 10 winners of the NCAA's 2018 Today's Top 10 Award were SEC student-athletes, giving the SEC more winners than any other conference. The exclusive award is given annually to 10 exceptional students-athletes nationwide for combined performance in the classroom, competition and community.
  - Kasey Cooper, Softball, Auburn
  - Danielle Galyer, Swimming & Diving, Kentucky
  - Sarah Gibson, Swimming & Diving, Texas A&M
- Three of the 12 Honda Sport Award recipients were SEC student-athletes. The award goes to the top female athlete in 12 NCAA-sanctioned sports.
  - A'ja Wilson, Basketball, South Carolina
  - Arianne Hartono, Tennis, Ole Miss
  - Rhamat Alhassan, Volleyball, Florida
- More than 5,400 student-athletes across the SEC receive financial aid support of more than $173.9 million from SEC schools. Counting non-scholarship participants, nearly 8,600 total student-athletes participate in sports sponsored by SEC institutions.
- SEC student-athletes conducted in excess of 60,000 hours of combined community service work during the 2016-17 academic year.
- The SEC Graduate Patch was displayed on the uniforms of more than 350 SEC student-athletes during the 2017-18 academic year.

SEC ACADEMIC INITIATIVES

The Southeastern Conference supports and promotes collaborative higher education programs and activities involving administrators, faculty and students at its member universities. Its goals include:

- Advancing the academic reputation of SEC universities beyond the traditional SEC region;
- Highlighting the endeavors and achievements of SEC faculty, students and administrators;
- Identifying and preparing future leaders for high-level service in academia;
- Increasing the amount and type of education abroad opportunities available to SEC students; and
- Supporting collaboration between SEC faculty and administrators.

Current SEC academic initiatives include:

- The SEC Academic Leadership Development Program seeks to identify, prepare and advance academic leaders for roles within SEC institutions and beyond. It has two components, a university-level program and two, three-day, SEC-wide workshops held on specified campuses for all participants.
- The SEC College Tour occurs twice annually, once in the fall and once in the spring. Enrollment administrators from all SEC universities participate in events intended to introduce SEC universities to students, parents and high school counselors from outside of the southeast region.

- The SEC education abroad focus includes a cooperative agreement that gives SEC students access to international programs offered at other SEC universities and an engineering exchange agreement with the Politecnico di Torino in Italy.
- The SEC Faculty Achievement and Professor of the Year Awards recognize faculty with outstanding records in research and teaching. There is one winner per campus and one overall winner for the SEC.
- The SEC Faculty Travel Program is intended to enhance collaboration that stimulates scholarly initiatives between SEC universities. The program offers faculty from each SEC university the opportunity to travel to other SEC universities to develop grant proposals, conduct research and deliver artistic performances.
- The SEC MBA Case Competition is an opportunity for SEC business schools to showcase their students' skills at solving simulated, real-world problems that cover the spectrum of business disciplines. The competition is held on one SEC campus and teams of four MBA students compete against other SEC teams, the best receiving various awards and recognition.

SEC HEADQUARTERS

Almost 33 years after moving to Birmingham from Jackson, Miss., the SEC moved into its current headquarters on October 15, 1991.

The building is now named for Roy F. Kramer, the SEC's sixth commissioner who retired in July 2002. During his tenure as the league's commissioner, the SEC won 85 national championships and distributed more than $654 million in revenue back to its member institutions.

The 30,000 square-foot building was provided by the city of Birmingham. It was designed to house the SEC staff and accommodate the needs of the various committees, coaches and administrative groups that meet on a regular basis.

From its headquarters, the SEC office certifies the eligibility of all student-athletes, manages championship events, enhances academic opportunities for student-athletes, monitors NCAA and SEC compliance, coordinates officiating assignments, negotiates television contracts, distributes conference revenue, cultivates corporate sponsorships and coordinates media and public relations efforts.

In 2005, a state-of-the-art video center was built inside the headquarters and named for the late Brad Davis, the SEC Associate Commissioner who was responsible for its development. Davis passed away on March 2, 2006.

The building also features a rotunda that highlights school banners, championship pedestals and two galleries displaying the member institutions.

The SEC Office underwent a vast renovation in the fall of 2012, with an upgrade to the Davis Video Center being completed prior to the 2014 season, which nearly tripled the size of the area. A live satellite uplink to the SEC Network in Charlotte, N.C., was implemented in 2015, with collaborative instant replay being integrated into the Central Review Center prior to the 2016 football season.

ROY F. KRAMER SEC ATHLETES OF THE YEAR

DRESSEL, WILSON NAMED SEC ATHLETES OF THE YEAR

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. - Florida swimmer Caeleb Dressel and South Carolina basketball athlete A'ja Wilson have been named the 2017-2018 Roy F. Kramer SEC Male and Female Athletes of the Year by a vote of the league's athletics directors, Commissioner Greg Sankey announced today.

"It takes a high level of discipline in life and a strong commitment to your sport to consistently perform at A'ja's level on the court and achieve at Caeleb's level in the pool," said SEC Commissioner Greg Sankey. "We are proud to honor these student-athletes who not only excelled in the SEC, but were also recognized as the best in their sport across the country. They are great examples of what it means to be a student-athlete in the Southeastern Conference."

Dressel, the College Swimming & Diving Coaches Association of America (CSCAA) Swimmer of the Year, had one of the most accomplished NCAA Championships in history, earning four titles in four days (50 free, 100 free, 100 fly, 200 FR). Those titles brought his career total to 10 NCAA titles, passing Ryan Lochte (7) for the most National Championships all-time for the Florida men. .

Dressel's time of 17.63 in the 50 free at NAAs is an American, NCAA, US Open, UF and pool record and he is the first human to have ever broke 18 seconds in the event - he did so twice on the same day at the NCAA Championships. He became the first man in history to sweep the 50 free and the 14th man to sweep any event during their four-year college career.

He also became the first human to break 40 seconds in the 100 free, posting a time of 39.90 to earn his third NCAA title in the event. Dressel also won his second national title in the 100 fly, breaking the American, NCAA, US Open, UF and pool records with his mark of 42.80.

In all, he earned seven All-America honors (50 free, 100 free, 100 fly, 200 FR, 400 FR, 200 MR, 400 MR), bringing the total to 28 over his four years as a Gator, the most that can be earned by any swimmer over the course of a career.

The Green Cove Springs, Fla. native earned his third-straight SEC Male Swimmer of the Year and Male Swimmer of the Meet award for his performance at the SEC Championships this season. He took home six SEC titles (100 free, 100 breast, 200 IM, 400 FR, 200 MR, 400 MR) and the Commissioner's Trophy after being the highest scoring man at the meet.

Dressel finished his career with 10 individual SEC titles, the most in UF program history on the men's side, helping the Gators to their sixth-straight SEC Championship.

Leading the Gamecocks to the NCAA Elite Eight for the third time in her four seasons, Wilson closed her college career as the most decorated women's basketball player in South Carolina history and etched her name in the SEC history books as well. The Gamecocks' first four-time All-American, including three seasons as a first-team selection, and four-time First-Team All-SEC choice, she is also the first three-time SEC Player of the Year in conference history.

The Hopkins, S.C., native is the Gamecocks' all-time leading scorer (2,389) and just the second player in program history to finish with at least 2,000 points and 1,000 rebounds in her career. In addition to leading the Gamecocks to the 2017 NCAA Championship, Wilson was undefeated in her four SEC Tournaments as South Carolina became the first program to win four consecutive titles at the event. She holds 86 South Carolina records, including career points and blocked shots (363) and ranks in the program's top five a total of 166 times.

The unanimous National Player of the Year was the first overall pick in 2018 WNBA Draft, becoming the Gamecocks' first WNBA top pick and just the third Gamecock of any sport to be the first pick in his/her sport's professional draft, joining Jadeveon Clowney (2014) and George Rogers (1981), who were No. 1 picks in the NFL Draft.

The other male nominees were: Minkah Fitzpatrick, Alabama (football); Kenzo Cotton, Arkansas (track & field); Casey Mize, Auburn (baseball); Roquan Smith, Georgia (football); Tim Duckworth, Kentucky (track & field); Devin White, LSU (football); Robert Domanic, Ole Miss (track & field); Nuno Borges, Mississippi State (tennis); Drew Lock, Missouri (football); Akram Mahmoud, South Carolina (swimming); Zhipeng (Colin) Zeng, Tennessee (diving); Tyler Davis, Texas A&M (basketball); Theo Humphrey, Vanderbilt (golf).

The other female nominees were: Lauren Stephenson, Alabama (golf); Maria Fassi, Arkansas (golf); Taylor St. Jacques, Auburn (equestrian); Rhamat Alhassan, Florida (volleyball); Keturah Orji, Georgia (track & field); Olivia Gruver, Kentucky (track & field); Aleia Hobbs, LSU (track & field); Arianne Hartono, Ole Miss (tennis); Victoria Vivians, Mississippi State (basketball); Karissa Schweizer, Missouri (track & field); Erika Brown, Tennessee (swimming); Sydney Pickrem, Texas A&M (swimming); Astra Sharma, Vanderbilt (tennis).

The SEC Athletes of the Year Awards were first presented in 1976 for men and 1984 for women. The award was renamed the Roy F. Kramer Athletes of the Year in 2004 to honor the former Commissioner who served the conference from 1990-2002.

H. Boyd McWhorter SEC SCHOLAR-ATHLETES OF THE YEAR

TENNESSEE'S HENRY AND LSU'S QUINN NAMED MCWHORTER AWARD WINNERS

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. – University of Tennessee football player Parker Henry and LSU volleyball player Kelly Quinn have been named the 2017-18 Southeastern Conference H. Boyd McWhorter Scholar-Athletes of the Year, Commissioner Greg Sankey announced Thursday.

The two were chosen by a committee of Faculty Athletics Representatives from SEC universities and each will receive a $20,000 post-graduate scholarship, provided by AT&T, an SEC official sponsor. Henry and Quinn will be honored at the annual SEC Awards Dinner during the SEC Spring Meetings in Sandestin, Fla., the last week of May.

“Kelly and Parker are outstanding representatives of student-athletes from across the SEC. They made a commitment to the total student-athlete experience, which resulted in their excellence in competition and in the classroom,” Sankey said. “The H. Boyd McWhorter Award is the highest honor earned by a student-athlete in the SEC and I congratulate Kelly and Parker along with their families and universities on their many achievements.”

Henry, a Finance and Political Science double major with a 4.0 grade point average at Tennessee, earned second team CoSIDA Academic All-American honors in 2017 and is a three-time Academic All-District selection. A three-time selection to the SEC Academic Honor Roll, Henry is only the sixth Tennessee football player ever to earn an NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship and the second Volunteer football player to earn Academic All-District honors in back-to-back years since Peyton Manning in 1996 and 1997.

Henry started 24 games as Tennessee's primary holder during the 2016 and 2017 seasons, joining the Volunteer football team as a walk on in 2015 after serving as an equipment manager. He was part of 22 victories including two bowl wins as he never missed a hold. He helped placekicker Aaron Medley make 17 field goals in 2016-17 and true freshman Brent Cimaglia drill five field goals of 40+ yards in 2017.

Henry was awarded the University of Tennessee Medallion for Community Service for having over 100 hours of community service. His service projects included volunteering with Habitat for Humanity from 2015-17 and he led underprivileged middle school kids for a two-day weekend at Sevier Heights Baptist Church every February.

Quinn, who is majoring in Biology and Kinesiology/Pre-Med, has maintained a 4.063 cumulative grade point average and will graduate with two degrees in May. A two-time member of the SEC Academic Honor Roll, she attended medical school interviews during the fall of 2017 while competing on the volleyball team.

She helped LSU reach its first NCAA Tournament appearance since the 2014 season, serving as a solid defensive specialist for the Tigers while paying in 322 sets of 105 matches in her career. She helped lead the Tigers to two NCAA appearances in her four years at LSU, playing in every set in postseason. She totaled 301 digs at 2.98 per set in her junior year which was second on the team. She finished her career with a total of 522 digs at 1.62 digs per set to go along with 36 service aces and she did not have a reception error in 55 sets played as a freshman.

A member of the 2016 SEC Service Community Team, Quinn served as LSU's volleyball SAAC representative and served in a SAAC leadership position while being involved in many community service activities in her four years.

The 13 female finalists: Mackenzie Brannan, Alabama (Gymnastics); Taliyah Brooks, Arkansas (Track & Field); Natasha Lloyd, Auburn (Swimming & Diving); Alex McMurtry, Florida (Gymnastics); Keturah Orji, Georgia (Track & Field); Alyssa Rice, Kentucky (Basketball); Paige McKinney, Ole Miss (Softball); Mallory Eubanks, Mississippi State (Soccer); Sharli Brady, Missouri (Swimming & Diving); Meredith Vay, South Carolina (Swimming & Diving); Meghan Gregg, Tennessee (Softball); Eva Paalma, Texas A&M (Tennis); Simone Charley, Vanderbilt (Soccer/Track & Field).

The 13 male finalists: Lucas Kaliszak, Alabama (Swimming & Diving); Jamarco Stephen, Arkansas (Track & Field); Daniel Carlson, Auburn (Football); Caleb Chambliss, Florida (Track & Field); Alexander Larsson, Georgia (Track & Field); Austin MacGinnis, Kentucky (Football); John David Moore, LSU (Football); Zvonimir Babic, Ole Miss (Tennis); Jacob Billingsley, Mississippi State (Baseball); Ben Goodman, Missouri (Track & Field); Harrison O'Keefe, South Carolina (Tennis); Justin Morey, Texas A&M (Swimming & Diving); Tommy Openshaw, Vanderbilt (Football).

SEC COMMUNITY SERVICE POSTGRADUATE AWARD

MCLAUGHLIN, CURLES NAMED BRAD DAVIS AWARD WINNERS

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. – University of Florida gymnast Grace McLaughlin and Auburn University track & field athlete Wesley Curles have been named the 2017-18 Brad Davis Southeastern Conference Community Service Leaders of the Year, Commissioner Greg Sankey announced Wednesday.

McLaughlin and Curles were chosen by a committee of Faculty Athletics Representatives from SEC universities. Each will receive a $10,000 post-graduate scholarship, provided by the SEC.

"Grace McLaughlin and Wesley Curles epitomize the spirit of the SEC's commitment to service and they prove through their work in their communities that the young people of our conference really do have the ability to change the world in which they live," said Sankey. "Grace and Wesley are outstanding representatives of their respective institutions and the many student-athletes in the SEC who have chosen to make their world a better place."

The SEC Community Service Post-Graduate Scholarship is named for former Associate Commissioner Brad Davis. Davis succumbed to cancer on March 2, 2006. He had been a member of the SEC staff since 1988, first serving as an assistant commissioner until 1994 when he was promoted to associate commissioner.

In addition, the recipients for the Brad Davis SEC Community Service Award from the other Conference schools will receive a $5,000 scholarship, provided by the SEC.

SEC COMMUNITY SERVICE TEAMS

The Southeastern Conference began its Community Service Team program in 1994 with a Football Community Service Team, recognizing the superior community service efforts of league's football players. The team consists of a student-athlete from each SEC institution, nominated by his school's personnel, who has devoted himself to community service.

In 1998-99, the SEC expanded its Community Service Team concept to include teams for men's basketball, women's basketball, men's sports at-large and women's sports at-large to further recognize its student-athletes for their continued commitment to service in their respective communities. Beginning in 2003-04, men's and women's SEC Community Service Teams were recognized in every sport.

Bernie Moore ALL-SPORTS TROPHY

Symbolic of the Southeastern Conference's premier men's athletic program, the Bernie Moore All-Sports Trophy was presented annually for 21 years. The SEC officially began tabulating all-sports points after the 1973-74 school year and named the award after Bernie Moore, who served as SEC Commissioner from 1948-66. The all-sports race was discontinued after the 1993-94 school year.

Points for both the Bernie Moore and Women's All-Sports Trophies were awarded on a 12-11-10-9-8-7-6-5-4-3-2-1 basis for all sports. However, only the top six finishes counted toward an institution's total. If a school's lowest finish occurred in more than one sport, the most recent team to record the finish was not counted. In addition, if a team was on probation in a sport, the institution was required to count that sport's vacated position among its six.

In the event of a tie for a position, the points for the number of places involved were added together, divided by the number of teams involved in the tie and awarded to those teams equally.

The track finish was figured by doubling the outdoor point total and adding it to indoor and cross country. Overall points for track were then assigned by the 12-11-10-9-8-7-6-5-4-3-2-1 format.

Women's ALL-SPORTS TROPHY

For an 11-year span, the Women's All-Sports Trophy was awarded on the same basis as the Bernie Moore All-Sports Trophy for men's athletics. The Bernie Moore and Women's All-Sport Trophy was discontinued following the 1993-94 seasons.

Following the 1983-84 school year, the SEC began recognizing a women's all-sports champion. Women's athletics officially came under the auspices of the NCAA and SEC in 1982. However, SEC schools participated in organized conference championships prior to that date. Those championships were retroactively recognized by the SEC.
