Hosting the Mizzou Invite, the Tiger men won the men's competition with 1,275 points, ahead of Kentucky (1,057) and BYU (43). On the women's side, Kentucky won with 1,277 points, while Mizzou took second (862), Arkansas was third (822) and BYU was fourth (70). Five different Tigers claimed individual event wins during day one action on Thursday. In the women's 50 free, Sarah Thompson took top honors, just ahead Megan Keil, 22.83 to 22.91. During prelims, Thompson notched the second-fastest time in the nation with a 21.76, just ahead of Keil's personal best 22.83, which stands second third and ties her for third all-time at Mizzou in the event. Sophomore Katrina Brathwaite knocked almost a full four seconds off her previous 200 IM best with a final time of 1:57.75. Brathwaite moved herself into fifth-place all-time at Mizzou in the process. In the diving well, Sarah Rousseau went a season-best 333.85 to place first overall in the 3-meter competition. The score was 20 points clear of the second-place finisher and a season-best score by over 30 points. Danny Kovac earned his sixth win of the young season in the 200 IM. After a 1:42.66 in prelims, which was six-hundredths of a second off his personal best, Kovac posted a 1:43.91 in finals to finish first. Jack Dubois went 4:20.43 in the 500 free, almost a second faster than his prelims time. Mizzou also placed first in the men's and women's 200 free relays and the men's 400 medley relay, as the women's 200 free relay narrowly missed an NCAA 'A' qualifying time with a 1:28.59. Mizzou took top honors in six events on Friday, as five different Tigers claimed wins. Kovac posted a pair of personal-bests in the 100 fly, ultimately winning the championship final with a 45.07. Dubois earned his second win of the meet in the 400 IM. He went 3:46.96 in finals, three seconds faster than his prelims to, to touch first. Brathwaite went under 1:00 in the 100 breast for the first time in her career as she won with a 59.51. She now stands as only the third Tiger in program history to go under the 1:00 mark. The Tigers swept the 100 breast events thanks to a victory from Ben Patton on the men's side. Patton erupted for a personal-best 51.80 in finals, which tied him for third all-time at Mizzou in the event. In the men's 200 free, Jack Dahlgren touched first with a time of 1:35.69, almost a full second ahead of the second-place finisher. Mizzou also claimed a win in the men's 200 medley relay, where Dahlgren, Patton, Kovac and Kyle Leach went 1:24.47, narrowly missing an NCAA 'A' qualifying time. The Tigers earned NCAA 'A' cuts in two relays on Saturday – the women's 200 medley relay and the men's 400 free relay. Swimming a time trial, the women's 200 medley relay of Meredith Rees, Molly Winer, Thompson and Keil went 1:36.00, well below the NCAA Qualifying Time. In the final event of the meet, Mizzou's 400 free relay of freshman Daniel Wilson, Kovac, Leach and Dahlgren secured their A cut after a 2:50.70, more than a second under the cut. Wilson led off the relay with a 42.87 to become only the fourth Tiger in program history to go under 43 seconds in the 100 free. Individually, Kovac claimed his third win of the Invite with a personal-best 42.72 in the in the 100 free final to earn the win. a time of 23.08 while also finishing fourth in the 100 fly in a time of 54.91. In the men's meet, Lewis Burras won the first event for the Gamecocks. The school record holder in the 50 yard free proved why he owns that title with a winning time of 20.06, just ahead of Georgia's Dillon Downing at 20.33. The men's 400 yard freestyle relay ended the dual in style. The team of Burras, AJ Ross, Mark Shperkin and Phil Costin cruised to a win with a time of 2:58.04, which just missed out of the 10th best time in school history that was set in 2013. AJ Ross was another Gamecock that stepped up in the 50-yard freestyle, taking third in the event in a time of 20.66.

» Tennessee

The Tennessee swimming & diving team hosted Alabama and Virginia in the Tennessee Double Dual at the Allan Jones Aquatic Center. The men's team beat the Crimson Tide, 208-180, while the women were victorious with a score of 231-158. Against Virginia, Tennessee's men fell, 206-178, and the women dropped to the Cavaliers, 219-168. The Vols and Lady Vols were led by Kayky Mota and Bailey Grinter, who each scored an event win for Tennessee. Mota won the men's 200 IM in a time of 1:44.32, setting a personal best and moving to third all-time in school history in the event. Grinter took home her win in the 50 freestyle, swimming a season-best 22.11. The Tennessee men closed the night with a win in the 400 medley relay as Harrison Lierz, Michael Houlie, Mota and Nolan Briggs finished in 3:06.50. The quartet's time is now the fifth-fastest 400 medley relay in school history. In the women's 3-meter diving competition, the Lady Vols walked away with three of the top four places on the leaderboard. Grace Cable won the event with a final score of 317.35, and Ana Celaya Hernandez finished second with an overall score of 290.85. Elle Renner came in fourth, scoring 289.35 points. In the men's 1-meter springboard, Matthew Wade scored 342.45 points to finish second, while Dillon Richardson placed third with 338.45. Cable picked up the first win of the second night for the Lady Vols, winning on the 1-meter springboard with a score of 296.60. Hernandez finished third with a score of 267.75. Richardson came in second in the men's 3-meter with a score of 362.35 and Bryden Hattie took third with a score of 361.95. Mota set a personal best time in the 100 butterfly at 45.50, winning the A final. Mota already owns the second-fastest 100 fly in school history and lowered that time with his swim Friday. Mona McSharry showcased her speed in the 100 breaststroke, winning with a time of 58.28. Her time is the third-fastest in program history and is just six hundredths shy of the school record held by Olympian Molly Hannis at 58.22. Houlie continued UT's breaststroke domination, winning the men's 100 breast in a personal-best time of 51.89. He ranks third in program history in the 100 breaststroke and lowered his third place time Friday night. Mota won the men's 200 butterfly Saturday, giving him a clean sweep of the butterfly events. His time of 1:42.58 is under last season's NCAA invite mark and places him third all-time in UT history. Over on platform, Hattie recorded a score of 449.80 en route to the win. His score placed him third all-time in school history. Wade earned a score of 382.45 to take second place, and Richardson came in third with a score of 340.70. On the women's side, Hernandez (252.10) and Cable (251.70) finished 2-3 on platform. The next competition for Tennessee swimming and diving will be Jan. 5-7, with the divers traveling to Athens, Georgia, for the Georgia Diving Invitational.
