SEC CROSS COUNTRY CHAMPIONSHIPS SET FOR FRIDAY

The Southeastern Conference and the University of Missouri will serve as host of the 2021 SEC Cross Country Championships Friday at Gans Creek Cross Country Course in Columbia, Mo. The meet will be televised live on the SEC Network.

The men's 8K race is scheduled for a 10:05 a.m. CT start, while the women's 6K race will begin at 11 a.m. CT. An awards ceremony will follow the women's race. Admission to the 2021 SEC Cross Championships is free and open to the public. This marks the first time Missouri has served as host of the SEC Cross Country Championships.

Five SEC teams enter the SEC Championships listed among the nation's top-25 teams according to the most recent rankings released last week. In the women's rankings, Alabama is ranked fifth, while Ole Miss is No. 11 and Arkansas is No. 15. Arkansas is the highest-ranked SEC men's squad at No. 6, while Alabama is No. 22. Ole Miss is just outside the top-25 at No. 28.

Arkansas won the SEC men's title last year after Ole Miss had won the previous two. The Razorbacks have won each of the last eight women's crowns. Arkansas has 26 all-time SEC men's cross country championships and 21 women's titles to lead all teams.

Coverage of the SEC Cross Country Championships begins at 10 a.m. CT on the SEC Network. Official results will be available at pttiming.com.

LANING, CHELANGAT EARN SCHOLAR-ATHLETE AWARD HONORS

Nick Laning of Vanderbilt and Mercy Chelangat of Alabama have been named the SEC Cross Country Scholar-Athletes of the Year by a vote of the league's head coaches.

Laning, a senior from Barrington, Ill., has a 3.979 grade point average and is pursuing a degree in civil engineering with a minor in computer science. He was named a CoSIDA Academic All-American and garnered 2020 USTFCCCA All-Academic honors. Recently, Laning presented research project that sought to provide alternatives for flood mitigation not typically employed to reduce the need for disaster response and assist in transportation planning during extreme flood conditions. He has a pair of top-10 finishes this season.

Chelangat, a junior from Kericho, Kenya, holds a 3.87 grade point average and is pursuing a degree in public health. She is the defending SEC and NCAA Cross Country champion and has been voted a CoSIDA Academic All-American. She was named the 2020-21 USTFCCCA National Cross Country Scholar-Athlete of the Year. Chelangat won the Joe Plane Invitational champion earlier this year.

» About the SEC

• Since its formation in 1933, the SEC has directed and organized interscholastic athletic competitions, conducted tournaments and prescribed eligibility rules for student-athletes. The Conference also facilitates and assists its member institutions in maintaining intercollegiate athletic programs compatible with the highest standards of education and competitive sports.

• The Southeastern Conference crowns champions in 21 sports - 12 women's sports and nine men's sports. They include baseball, men's and women's basketball, men's and women's cross country, equestrian, football, men's and women's golf, gymnastics, soccer, softball, men's and women's swimming and diving, men's and women's tennis, men's and women's indoor and outdoor track and field, and volleyball.

• In the fall of 2012, the University of Missouri and Texas A&M University became the 13th and 14th members of the Southeastern Conference. It marked the first expansion for the SEC since 1991 and the second-ever increase for the league since its founding in 1933.

• The SEC's mission statement reflects the priorities of the league. "The purpose of the Southeastern Conference is to assist its member institutions in the maintenance of programs of intercollegiate athletics which are compatible with the highest standards of education and competitive sports."
