

2017 SOUTHEASTERN CONFERENCE SOCCER RECORD BOOK

The Southeastern Conference has continued its rise as one of the top conferences in women's soccer.

SEC women's soccer will begin its 25th season in 2017 deeply rooted in the national scene of collegiate soccer. Since the SEC initiated women's soccer as a varsity sport in 1993, the sport's popularity has grown through the country and especially in the Southeast.

The 2016 season reaffirmed the SEC's prominence in the women's soccer. The SEC had six teams selected to participate in the 2016 NCAA Tournament. It marked the ninth time in the last 10 seasons that the SEC has had at least six teams advance to postseason play. Three teams earned national seeds and four teams earned the right to host their opening round match on their home pitch.

Three SEC teams - Auburn, Florida and South Carolina - advanced to the Round of 16 in the NCAA Tournament. It is the third consecutive year the SEC has had at least three teams advance to the Round of 16 of the NCAA Tournament.

Two teams - Auburn and South Carolina - advanced to the Quarterfinals of the NCAA Tournament. It was the second time in three years the SEC has had multiple teams in the NCAA Quarters (Florida, South Carolina and Texas A&M in 2014).

SEC teams finished 9-3-2 against other conferences in the NCAA Tournament this year and is 28-14-9 over the last three seasons.

South Carolina's 11-0-0 league record earned the Gamecocks the 2016 SEC Championship. It was just the second time in the last 16 years an SEC team posted a perfect record in league play and is the second SEC title for South Carolina.

Florida won its 12th SEC Tournament championship with a 2-1 overtime win over Arkansas in Orange Beach, Ala. UF midfielder Meggie Dougherty-Howard was named SEC Tournament MVP.

South Carolina's Savannah McCaskill and Kaleigh Kurtz were named SEC Offensive and Defensive Players of the Year, respectively. USC's Shelley Smith was named SEC Coach of the Year. Missouri's Sarah Luebbert was Freshman of the Year while Auburn's Casie Ramsier earned Scholar-Athlete of the Year honors.

That incremental growth, combined with increasing exposure on the national and regional scene, has SEC women's soccer looking to blossom to new heights in the year 2016 and beyond.

In 2016, the SEC boasted ...

- Five NSCAA Scholar All-Americans
- Six CoSIDA Academic All-Americans
- 10 Capital One Academic All-District picks
- Nine programs earning NSCAA College Team Academic Awards
- Six NSCAA All-Americans, including two first team selections
- 27 student-athletes on the NSCAA All-Region teams
- Six teams advancing to the NCAA Championships
- At least six teams advancing to the postseason for the ninth time in the past 10 seasons
- Three teams advanced to the Round of 16 in the NCAA Tournament. It was the third consecutive year at least three teams advanced to the Round of 16
- Seven different schools have made Round of 16 appearances over the last four years
- Two teams advanced to the Round of 8 in the NCAA Tournament. It was the second time in three years that the SEC has had multiple teams in the NCAA Quarterfinals

2017 SEC TOURNAMENT

October 29 - November 5 • Orange Beach Sportsplex • Orange Beach, Ala.

Format

There shall be a single-elimination tournament of the top ten teams played at the conclusion of the SEC regular-season schedule. The tournament champion shall be the SEC representative to the NCAA championship.

The top ten teams with the highest point total, regardless of divisions, will participate in the tournament. The following point system is utilized to determine regular season standings and seeding for the tournament: a win counts as three points, a tie as one, and a loss as zero points. If a game(s) is cancelled, neither team will receive a point and the standings will be determined by average points per game. The tournament shall be played in a Monday-Wednesday-Friday-Sunday format with Tuesday, Thursday, and Saturday designated as off/practice days.

Seeding

The tournament will be seeded 1-10 regardless of division based on the point system implemented to determine regular season standings. If teams are tied, the following procedures, in order as follows, will be used to break the tie:

Two-Team Tie – The following procedure will be used in the following order until the tie is broken:

- Head-to-head competition between the tied teams.
- Points earned versus common opponents.
- Goal differential versus common opponents.
- Goals scored versus common opponents.

- Won-Lost record of the two teams versus highest seeded common opponent and proceeding through the No. 14 seed, if necessary.
- Goal differential versus highest seeded common opponent and proceeding through the No. 14 seed, if necessary.
- Goals scored versus highest seeded common opponent and proceeding through the No. 14 seed, if necessary.
- Coin flip by the Commissioner.

Three-Team Tie (or more) – The following procedure will be used until the tie is broken. If at any time this tie breaker results in only two remaining tied teams, then the two-team tiebreaker will be used beginning with Subsection A in that procedure and continuing from that point:

- If all teams have played one another, then most points earned in those matches only.
- If all teams have not played, but one team has defeated all teams in the tie break, then that team breaks the tie and shall be placed highest. Remaining teams will continue with the tie break procedure.
- If all teams have not played one another and a team does not have all wins over the tied teams, then use Subsection B in the two-team tie break procedures and continue through the two team tie-break procedures until ties between all teams are broken (except Subsection H will read “if three or more teams are still tied, the Commissioner will conduct a draw”).

Note: From 1993-99, the winner of the SEC Tournament was declared SEC Champion and beginning with 1995 received the SEC's NCAA automatic selection. The SEC went to a divisional format in soccer in 1995 and began awarding divisional champions. From 2000-03, the SEC Champion was determined by the team with the best winning percentage after the regular-season conference matches. Starting in 2004, the SEC Champion was determined by the team with the most points after the regular-season conference matches. Teams are awarded (3) points for a win, (1) point for a tie and (0) points for a loss in SEC matches.
