The Southeastern Conference has established itself as one of the premier conferences in soccer. SEC women's soccer will begin its 27th season in 2019 deeply rooted in the national scene of collegiate soccer. Since the SEC initiated women's soccer as a varsity sport in 1993, the sport's popularity has grown through the country and especially in the Southeast.

The 2018 season reaffirmed the SEC's prominence in the women's soccer. The SEC tied a league-record nine teams selected to participate in the 2018 NCAA Tournament. It marked the 11th time in the last 12 seasons that the SEC has had at least six teams advance to postseason play. The SEC has had 30 teams earn postseason bids over the last four seasons.

Three SEC teams earned national seeds in 2018 and eight earned the right to host their opening round match on their home pitch. The SEC tied for the national lead with seven teams advancing to the second round of the NCAA Tournament.

Vanderbilt's 8-1-1 league record earned the Commodores the 2018 SEC Championship. It was the third overall league title for Vanderbilt and first since 1994.

LSU won its first ever SEC Tournament championship in a penalty kick decision over Arkansas in Orange Beach, Ala. LSU goalkeeper Caroline Brockmeier was named SEC Tournament MVP.

Tennessee's Bunny Shaw and South Carolina's Grace Fisk were named SEC Offensive and Defensive Players of the Year, respectively. Vanderbilt's Darren Ambrose was named SEC Coach of the Year. Vanderbilt's Haley Hopkins was Freshman of the Year while Alabama's Emma Welch earned Scholar-Athlete of the Year honors.

That incremental growth, combined with increasing exposure on the national and regional scene, has SEC women's soccer looking to blossom to new heights in the year 2019 and beyond.

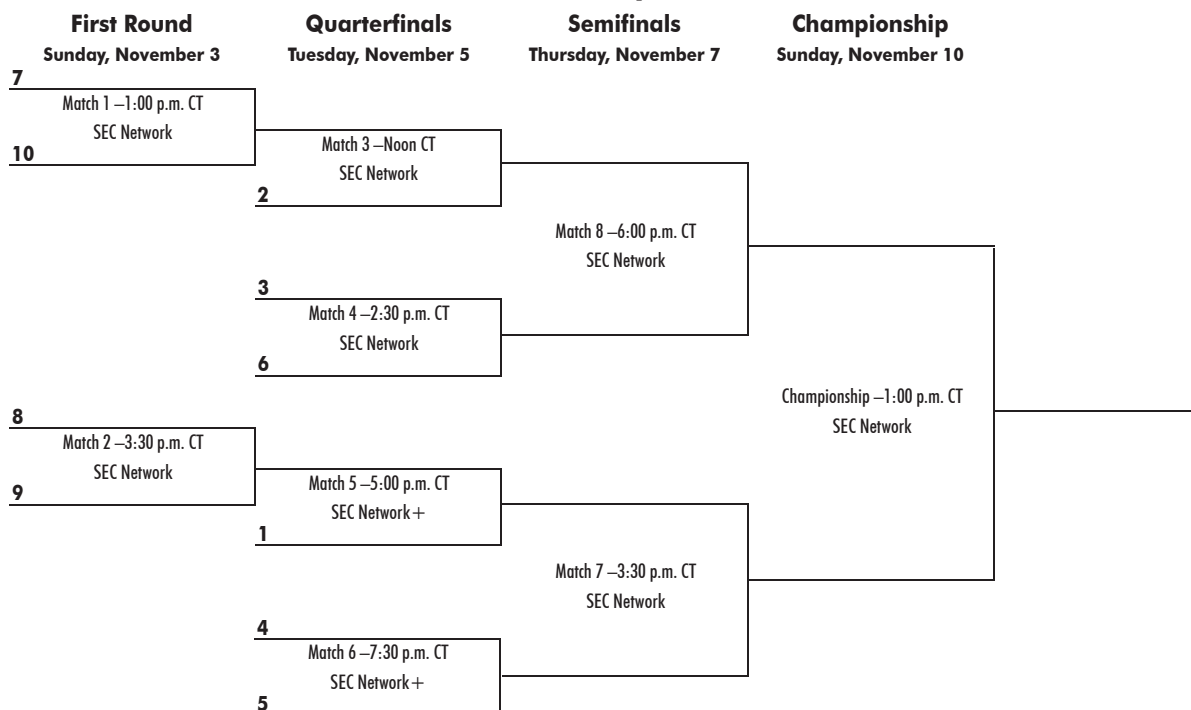

In 2018, the SEC boasted ...

- One Senior CLASS Award winner
- One United Soccer Coaches' Scholar All-America
- One CoSIDA Academic All-America
- Six CoSIDA Academic All-District picks
- 10 programs earning United Soccer Coaches' College Team Academic Awards
- Eight United Soccer Coaches' All-Americans, including one first team selection
- 29 student-athletes on the United Soccer Coaches' All-Region teams
- SEC record-tying nine teams advancing to the NCAA Championships
- Seven teams advancing to the second round of the NCAA Tournament.
- At least six teams advancing to the postseason for the 11th time in the past 12 seasons
- Multiple teams (2) advanced the Round of 16 in the NCAA Tournament for the seventh consecutive year
- At least one team in the NCAA Quarterfinals for the fifth consecutive year
- Eight different schools have made Round of 16 appearances over the last six years

SEC TOURNAMENT

ORANGE BEACH, ALABAMA

There shall be a single-elimination tournament of the top ten teams played at the conclusion of the SEC regular-season schedule. The tournament champion shall be the SEC representative to the NCAA championship.

The top ten teams with the highest point total, regardless of divisions, will participate in the tournament, with the two division champions serving as the top two seeds. The following point system is utilized to determine regular season standings and seeding for the tournament: a win counts as three points, a tie as one, and a loss as zero points. If a game(s) is cancelled, neither team will receive a point and the standings will be determined by average points per game. The tournament shall be played in a Sunday-Tuesday-Thursday-Sunday format with Monday, Wednesday, Friday, and Saturday designated as off/practice days.

Tie-Breaker Procedures

The tournament will be seeded 1-10 based on the point system implemented to determine regular season standings. The two division champions shall be the top two seeds. If teams are tied, the following procedures, in order as follows, will be used to break the tie:

1. Two-Team Tie: The following procedure will be used in the following order until the tie is broken:

- Head-to-head competition between the tied teams.
- Points earned versus common opponents.
- Goal differential versus common opponents.
- Goals scored versus common opponents.
- Won-Lost record of the two teams versus highest seeded common opponent and proceeding through the No. 14 seed, if necessary.
- Goal differential versus highest seeded common opponent and proceeding through the No. 14 seed, if necessary.
- Goals scored versus highest seeded common opponent and proceeding through the No. 14 seed, if necessary.
- Coin flip by the Commissioner.

2. Three-Team Tie (or more): The following procedure will be used until the tie is broken. If at any time this tie breaker results in only two remaining tied teams, then the two-team tiebreaker will be used beginning with Subsection A in that procedure and continuing from that point:

A. If all teams have played one another, then most points earned in those matches only.

B. If all teams have not played, but one team has defeated all teams in the tie break, then that team breaks the tie and shall be placed highest. Remaining teams will continue with the tie break procedure.

C. If all teams have not played one another and a team does not have all wins over the tied teams, then use Subsection B in the two-team tie break procedures and continue through the two team tie-break procedures until ties between all teams are broken (except Subsection H will read "if three or more teams are still tied, the Commissioner will conduct a draw").

Note: From 1993-99, the winner of the SEC Tournament was declared SEC Champion and beginning with 1995 received the SEC's NCAA automatic selection. The SEC went to a divisional format in soccer in 1995 and began awarding divisional champions. From 2000-03, the SEC Champion was determined by the team with the best winning percentage after the regular-season conference matches. Starting in 2004, the SEC Champion was determined by the team with the most points after the regular-season conference matches. Teams are awarded (3) points for a win, (1) point for a tie and (0) points for a loss in SEC matches.
