Kentucky's Stumler a Finalist for 2021 Senior CLASS Award

Alli Stumler of Kentucky is among the 10 NCAA® women's volleyball student-athletes who were selected as finalists for the 2021 Senior CLASS Award®.

To be eligible for the award, a student-athlete must be classified as an NCAA Division I senior or graduate student and have notable achievements in four areas of excellence: community, classroom, character and competition. An acronym for Celebrating Loyalty and Achievement for Staying in School®, the Senior CLASS Award focuses on the total student-athlete and encourages students to use their platform in athletics to make a positive impact as leaders in their communities.

The finalists were chosen by a selection committee from the list of 30 candidates announced earlier in the season. Nationwide fan voting begins immediately, and fans are encouraged to vote on the Senior CLASS Award website through December 6th. Fan votes will then be combined with media and Division I head coaches' votes to determine the winner.

The Senior CLASS Award winner will be announced during the 2021 NCAA Division I Women's Volleyball Championship in December.
