• Florida narrowly edged Texas A&M as the preseason favorite to win the 2014 SEC title in a poll of the league's coaches. The Gators received 164 points (eight first-place votes), narrowly topping Texas A&M's 162 points (six first place votes).

• Eight players from SEC soccer programs have been named to the Missouri Athletic Club's (MAC) Hermann Trophy Watch List – Sabrina D'Angelo (SC), Arin Gilliland (UK), Shea Groom (AM), Savannah Jordan (UF), Havana Solaun (UF), Meghan Streight (AM), Christen Westphal (UF) and Hannah Wilkinson (UT).

• Five players that earned 2013 NSCAA All-America honors return for the 2014 season, including first team selection Sabrina D'Angelo (SC); second team picks Christen Westphal (UF) and Savannah Jordan (UF); in addition to third team All-Americans Shea Groom (AM) and Arin Gilliland (UK).

• In 2013, six SEC teams advanced to postseason play. It is the sixth time in the past seven seasons that at least six teams have received postseason bids.

• Each of the SEC teams advancing to postseason play in 2013 won their first round match.

• All 14 SEC teams earned the NSCAA/adidas College Team Academic Award in 2013.

• The SEC Network and its accompanying digital platform will air SEC content 24/7. The network will televise events from across the SEC's 21 sports annually, including 17 regular season soccer matches. Additionally, more than 100 additional soccer matches will be offered exclusively on the digital platform SEC Network+.

• Alabama returns nine starters and 12 letterwinners but 15 members of the squad are either sophomores (5) or freshmen (10).

• Arkansas returns 20 players, including eight regular starters, from the 2013 team that advanced to the NCAA Sweet Sixteen.

• Auburn reached the SEC Tournament for the 13th-straight year in 2013, the second-longest active streak in the conference behind only Florida (19).

• Florida opens 2014 as No. 8 on the National Soccer Coaches Association of America (NSCAA) preseason poll. This is the program's 18th consecutive appearance in the NSCAA preseason poll.

• Georgia returns six starters and 17 letterwinners from the 2013 campaign in which the Bulldogs went 12-7-1 and 5-5-1 in conference, with a trip to the SEC Championships quarterfinals.

• Kentucky returns eight of 11 starters from the best season in program history in 2013, where UK collected 14 wins, and advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament.

• LSU returns its top three scorers and six of their top seven scorers from a season ago, including leading goal scorer Summer Clarke with 10 goals.

• Ole Miss' 16 wins last season set the school record for wins in a season as the Rebels hosted an NCAA Tournament game for the first time.

• Mississippi State has six starters returning, including lone senior Shannen Jainudeen. The squad will be young, with 19 newcomers joining the squad.

• Missouri returns the team's top two point producers from 2013, seniors Kaysie Clark and Taylor Grant.

• South Carolina finished 2013 with a 17-4-2 (8-2-1 SEC) record and went undefeated at home (11-0-0) in one of the most successful seasons in program history.

• Tennessee begins its third season under coach Brian Pensky and UT returns 17 players from last season's squad that went 8-7-4, which marked UT's third-consecutive and 14th-overall winning season.

• The Aggies return 10 starters from 2013, of which five were All-SEC selections, including first-teamers Shea Groom and Meghan Streight.

• Vanderbilt returns 21 letterwinners and nine starters, including three who started all 19 games.
