Junior Quarterback Bryce Young

On traveling to Baton Rouge to take on LSU...

"LSU is such a storied program with a great history. Whenever we play LSU, it's going to be a dogfight, and we have a tremendous amount of respect for them."

On the most important thing he wants people to know about him...

"The most important thing is that I am a man of faith. I feel like that's most important in my life, and that's what guides my actions."

On the improvements in the offensive line corps...

"I'm super excited to watch them and to see this process. I feel like they have learned a lot. We had our three interior guys coming back, and we have some guys stepping up and starting to play."

On facing Will Anderson and Dallas Turner in practice...

"Going against the best in Will (Anderson) and Dallas (Turner), that prepares us all on offense. Those guys are tremendous players, and being able to compete with them day in and day out is what makes us all better. Knowing what I can and can't do against fierce pass rushers...makes us all better."
